Item 8.01 Other Events.

As previously disclosed, Premier, Inc.'s (the Company) consolidated subsidiary, Premier Healthcare Alliance L.P. (Premier LP), entered into GPO participation agreements (GPO Agreements) with certain member owners existing immediately prior to the Company's initial public offering on October 1, 2013. These GPO Agreements are generally for an initial five-year term, expiring September 30, 2018, and automatically renewed for a successive five-year period, except where the member owner provided notification to Premier LP prior to September 30, 2017 indicating that such member owner was unable to allow the GPO Agreement to automatically renew or desired to terminate the GPO Agreement effective upon the expiration of the then-current term. As of October 1, 2017, approximately 93% of the Company's fiscal 2017 net administrative fees revenue associated with existing and ongoing member owners is subject to GPO Agreements that have been extended, renewed or initially had terms longer than five-years. GPO Agreements that have been extended or renewed have the same or similar economic terms as the original GPO Agreements.

The remaining member owners provided timely notices to prevent automatic renewal of their GPO Agreements. The Company is engaged with these member owners as they proceed with their internal processes that require additional time or evaluation. The Company believes that the vast majority of these member owners will renew or extend their GPO Agreements prior to October 1, 2018.

Additional information regarding the Company's GPO Agreements is available in the Company's filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission.
