Item 3 News Release

A press release announcing the material change referred to in this report was issued by BCE on December 18, 2006 and disseminated on newswires in Canada and the United States.

Item 4 Summary of Material Change

On December 18, 2006, BCE announced the sale of its satellite services subsidiary Telesat Canada (Telesat) for total proceeds, net of Telesat's debt, of $3.25 billion in cash to a new acquisition company formed by Canada's Public Sector Pension Investment Board (PSP Investments) and Loral Space and Communications Inc. (Loral).

Item 5 Full Description of Material Change

On December 18, 2006, BCE announced that it had entered into a share purchase agreement dated as of December 16, 2006 (attached hereto as Schedule A) among 4363213 Canada Inc., BCE, and Telesat for the sale of its satellite services subsidiary Telesat for total proceeds, net of Telesat's debt, of $3.25 billion in cash to a new acquisition company formed by PSP Investments and Loral. Because of existing capital losses, the transaction will be completed on a tax-free basis.

Consistent with BCE's stated strategy of concentrating on Bell Canada, its core communications business, BCE had previously announced its intention to surface the value Telesat represents for its shareholders through an initial public offering or strategic sale.

PSP Investments, the pension fund manager for Canada's federal public service, the Canadian Forces, the Royal Canadian Mounted Police, and other Canadian investors will hold majority voting control in the new company, thereby ensuring strong Canadian control of Telesat. Eighty per cent of the board of directors of Telesat will be resident Canadians.

On closing, Loral will contribute its Loral Skynet business, which involves complementary satellite services assets in Europe, Asia, the Middle East and Latin America to the new company. Combined with Telesat's existing services, in North and South America, the new Telesat will be a global operator of scale, headquartered in Ottawa.

All research and development activities of the group related to the fixed satellite business will be carried out in Canada as well.

The new company will feature a management team to be drawn from both Telesat and Loral Skynet. Daniel Goldberg, recruited by BCE to lead Telesat through the sale process, will serve as Chief Executive Officer of the new company.

In conjunction with the sale, BCE has put in place a set of commercial arrangements between Telesat and Bell ExpressVu Limited Partnership (Bell ExpressVu) that guarantee Bell ExpressVu access to current and expanded satellite capacity, including the launch of Nimiq 5 in 2009.

The closing of the sale of Telesat is expected to take place in mid-2007. The sale is subject to a number of approvals and closing conditions, including approval by Industry Canada and the United States Federal Communications Commission as well as the expiration of all applicable waiting periods under the Canadian Competition Act and the United States Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act of 1976, and other closing conditions that are customary in a transaction of this nature, including the absence of material adverse change affecting Telesat's business.

Effective at the time of the closing of the sale of Telesat, BCE will cease consolidating Telesat.

Caution Concerning Forward-Looking Statements

Certain statements made in this material change report, including, but not limited to, the expected closing of the transactions referred to herein, and other statements that are not historical facts, are forward-looking statements and are subject to important risks, uncertainties and assumptions. The results or events predicted in these forward-looking statements may differ materially from actual results or events. subject to change after such date. However, we disclaim any intention and assume no obligation to update or revise any forward-looking statements, whether as a result of new information, future events or otherwise.

Factors that could cause results or events to differ materially from current expectations include, among other things, the fact that the expected closing of the transactions referred to in this material change report is subject to a number of approvals and closing conditions, including approval by Industry Canada and the United States Federal Communications Commission as well as the expiration of all applicable waiting periods under the Canadian Competition Act and the United States Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act of 1976, and other closing conditions that are customary in a transaction of this nature, including the absence of material adverse change affecting Telesat's business and the ability of the purchaser to draw on its committed financing to raise proceeds used to pay BCE for Telesat. A material adverse change on Telesat's results and operations (which could be caused by a variety of factors) prior to closing, or the failure of the purchaser to complete its financings or to fulfill its obligations to BCE could prevent the sale from occurring, or may result in the sale occurring on materially different terms and conditions.

Item 6 Reliance on subsection 7.1(2) or (3) of National Instrument 51-102

Not applicable.

Item 7 Omitted Information

(d) the representations and warranties of the Purchaser made in or pursuant to this Agreement shall be true and correct in all material respects at Closing with the same force and effect as if made at and as of the Closing Time; provided that the representations and warranties in subsection 3.2(d) with respect to the Structural Information shall be true and correct in all material respects at Closing with same force and effect as if made at and as of the Closing Time except to the extent that the information contained therein is not so true and correct as a result of any change or modification to, or deviation from, the structure and governance of Purchaser set forth therein as a result of the performance by the Purchaser of its obligations under Section 4.2, 4.3 or 4.4;

(e) the covenants contained in this Agreement to be complied with or performed by the Purchaser shall have been complied with or performed in all material respects;

(f) the Seller shall have received a certificate confirming the matters set forth in subsections 5.2(b) and 5.2(e), signed for and on behalf of the Purchaser by a senior officer of the Purchaser, in form and substance satisfactory to the Seller, acting reasonably; and

(g) the Opinion of Purchaser's Counsel shall have been delivered to the Seller.

The conditions set forth in subsections 5.2(d) to 5.2(g) are for the sole benefit of the Seller and may be waived by the Seller, by express or specific action to that effect, in whole or in part at any time and from time to time in its sole discretion.

ARTICLE 6.
TERMINATION

6.1. Termination by Mutual Consent.

This Agreement may be terminated and the transactions contemplated hereby may be abandoned at any time prior to the Closing Date by the mutual consent of the Seller, on the one hand, and the Purchaser, on the other hand.

6.2. Termination by the Purchaser.

This Agreement may be terminated and the transactions contemplated hereby may be abandoned at any time prior to the Closing Date by the Purchaser:

(a) if the Purchaser is not then in material default or breach of this Agreement and any condition set forth in Section 5.1 (other than with respect to any Major Regulatory Approval under subsection 5.1(a)) becomes incapable of fulfillment and is not waived by the Purchaser, provided however that (i) any such condition shall be a cause for termination of this Agreement only if the failure to fulfill such condition cannot be or has not been cured within twenty (20) Business Days after the giving of written notice by the Purchaser to the Seller of the event causing the condition to be incapable of fulfillment, such notice to be given promptly after the Purchaser becomes aware of such event (in which case, if necessary, the Closing Date shall be extended to the thirtieth (30th) day (but not beyond the Outside Date) after the day on which the failure has been cured by the Seller), and (ii) the right to terminate this Agreement under this subsection 6.2(a) shall not be available to the Purchaser if the cause for which the condition is incapable of being fulfilled is the result of any material default or breach of this Agreement by, or any wilful act on the part of, the Purchaser or any Purchaser Party designed to impede the consummation of any transaction contemplated hereby; or

(b) if the Purchaser is not then in material default or breach of this Agreement, at any time after the Outside Date if the Closing has not occurred before 5:00 pm (Toronto time) on the Outside Date, by delivery of a notice thereof to the Seller, provided that, if (i) the Closing shall have failed to occur on or before the Outside Date as a result of any Major Regulatory Approval failing to be obtained, (ii) neither the Seller nor the Corporation is in material default or breach of this Agreement at the time of such termination, and (iii) at the time of such termination, the conditions set forth in subsections 5.1(b), (c), (d), (e), (f) and (i) have been satisfied, the Purchaser shall pay the Break-Up Fee to the Seller within five (5) Business Days of the date of such notice of termination in lieu of any and all other rights, remedies and actions for damages it might otherwise have against the Purchaser under this Agreement or in connection with the transactions contemplated hereby. The right to terminate this Agreement under this subsection 6.2(b) shall not be available to the Purchaser if the cause for which the Closing has not occurred by the Outside Date is the result of any material default or breach of this Agreement by, or any wilful act on the part of, the Purchaser or any Purchaser Party.

6.3. Termination by the Seller.

This Agreement may be terminated and the transactions contemplated hereby may be abandoned at any time prior to the Closing Date by the Seller:

(a) if neither the Seller nor the Corporation is then in material default or breach of this Agreement and any condition set forth in Section 5.2 (other than with respect to any Major Regulatory Approval under subsection 5.2(a)) becomes incapable of fulfillment and is not waived by the Seller, provided however that (i) any such condition shall be a cause for termination of this Agreement only if the failure to fulfill such condition cannot be or has not been cured within twenty (20) Business Days after the giving of written notice by the Seller to the Purchaser of the event causing the condition to be incapable of fulfillment, such notice to be given promptly after the Seller becomes aware of such event (in which case, if necessary, the Closing Date shall be extended to the thirtieth (30th) day (but not beyond the Outside Date) after the day on which the failure has been cured by the Purchaser), and (ii) the right to terminate this Agreement under this subsection 6.3(a) shall not be available to the Seller if the cause for which the condition is incapable of being fulfilled is the result of any material default or breach of this Agreement by, or any wilful act on the part of, the Seller or the Corporation designed to impede the consummation of any transaction contemplated hereby;

(b) if after nine (9) months from the date of the filing of the last of the Industry Canada Applications, if, through no fault of the Seller or the Corporation, the Industry

Canada Approval has not been obtained. For greater certainty, the Seller's right to terminate after nine (9) months as provided for in this subsection 6.3(b) shall be at the Seller's sole discretion provided that the Corporation and the Seller have been diligent in pursuing the Industry Canada Approval in good faith and in providing Industry Canada with any material information in the Corporation's or the Seller's possession or control that Industry Canada has requested in its determination of the Industry Canada Applications; or

(c) if neither the Seller nor the Corporation is then in material default, at any time after the Outside Date if the Closing has not occurred before 5:00 pm (Toronto time) on the Outside Date by delivery of a notice thereof to the Purchaser, provided that, if (i) the Closing shall have failed to occur on or before the Outside Date as a result of any Major Regulatory Approval failing to be obtained, (ii) neither the Seller nor the Corporation is in material default or breach of this Agreement at the time of such termination, and (iii) at the time of such termination, the conditions set forth subsections 5.1(b), (c), (d), (e), (f) and (i) have been satisfied, the Purchaser shall pay the Break-Up Fee to the Seller within five (5) Business Days of the date of such notice of termination in lieu of any and all other rights, remedies and actions for damages it might otherwise have against the Purchaser under this Agreement or in connection with the transactions contemplated hereby. The right to terminate this Agreement under this subsection 6.3(c) shall not be available to the Seller if the cause for which the Closing has not occurred by the Outside Date is the result of any material default or breach of this Agreement by, or any wilful act on the part of, the Seller or the Corporation.

6.4. Effect of Termination.

In the event of the termination of this Agreement pursuant to this Article 6 (subject to subsections 6.2(b) and 6.3(c)), this Agreement shall become null and void and no party hereto (or any of its directors, officers or Affiliates) shall have any liability or further obligation to any other party to this Agreement, except that nothing herein will relieve any party from liability for any breach of this Agreement occurring prior to the date of such termination.

ARTICLE 7.

INDEMNIFICATION

7.1. Survival of Covenants, Representations and Warranties.

All representations and warranties set forth in Article 3 shall survive the Closing. Notwithstanding the foregoing, neither party shall be entitled to recover any Losses pursuant to Section 7.2 or Section 7.3 hereof unless written notice of a Claim is delivered to the other party prior to the Applicable Limitation Date. For purposes of this Agreement, the term Applicable Limitation Date shall mean the first (1st) anniversary of the Closing Date; provided, however, that the Applicable Limitation Date with respect to the following Losses shall be as follows:

(a) with respect to any Loss arising from or related to a breach of the representations and warranties of the Seller set forth in subsection 3.1(p) (Tax Matters) or any Taxes resulting from the Reorganization Plan, the Applicable Limitation Date shall be the 30th day after the last date on which the relevant Tax authority is entitled to assess or reassess the Corporation or the relevant Subsidiary, as the case may be, with respect to the event which gave rise to such Loss;

(b) with respect to any Loss arising from or related to a breach of the representations and warranties of the Seller set forth in subsections 3.1(a) (Corporate Organization and Qualification), 3.1(c) (Authorized Capital), 3.1(d) (Ownership of Shares) and 3.1(e) (Corporate Authority) or fraud on the part of the Seller, there shall be no Applicable Limitation Date (i.e., such representations and warranties shall survive forever);

(c) with respect to any Loss arising from or related to a breach of the representations and warranties of the Purchaser set forth in subsections 3.2(a) (Corporate Organization and Qualification), 3.2(b) (Corporate Authority), 3.2(c) (Eligibility), 3.2(i) (Residency and Ownership Restrictions) and 3.2(j) (Accredited Investor) or fraud on the part of the Purchaser, there shall be no Applicable Limitation Date (i.e., such representations and warranties shall survive forever); and

(d) all covenants and agreements contained herein that by their terms are to be performed in whole or in part, or which prohibit actions, subsequent to the Closing Date, shall survive the Closing in accordance with their terms. All other covenants and agreements contained herein shall not survive the Closing and shall thereupon terminate.

7.2. Indemnification by the Seller.

Subject to Section 7.7, the Seller agrees to indemnify and save harmless the Purchaser and, from and after the Closing, the Corporation, from all Losses suffered or incurred by the Purchaser or the Corporation as a result of or arising directly or indirectly out of or in connection with:

(a) any breach by the Seller of, or any inaccuracy of, any representation or warranty of the Seller contained in Section 3.1 (provided that the Seller shall not be required to indemnify or save harmless the Purchaser in respect of any breach or inaccuracy of any representation or warranty unless the Purchaser shall have provided written notice of a Claim to the Seller on or prior to the Applicable Limitation Date related to such representation and warranty as set out in Section 7.1 hereof);

(b) any breach or non-performance by the Seller or, prior to the Closing, the Corporation of any covenant or agreement to be performed by it which is contained in this Agreement; and

(c) any Losses or Taxes resulting from the Reorganization Plan, in each case, (i) under proposed Part III.1 of the Income Tax Act or (ii) for any Pre-Closing Tax Period provided that, for greater certainty, and without conceding that any particular Tax or Loss is incurred as a result of the Reorganization Plan, the Seller and the Purchaser agree that no Taxes or Losses shall be considered to have been incurred as a consequence solely of (i) the tax basis of an asset acquired by the Corporation or a Subsidiary thereof as part of the Reorganization Plan being less than the fair market value thereof; (ii) any limitation on the deductibility of losses or on the ability to carry back Tax attributes to a Pre-Closing Tax Period arising as a consequence of the amalgamations occurring as part of the Reorganization Plan or (iii) any actions outside the ordinary course of business taken by the Purchaser, the Corporation or its Subsidiaries following the Closing. To the extent that the Corporation or a Subsidiary thereof realizes any income or gain as part of the Reorganization Plan, the Seller will not have an obligation to indemnify for any Taxes or Losses arising from such income or gain where the Corporation or such Subsidiary would not have been liable for such Taxes but for (1) a transaction undertaken pursuant to Section 4.14(b) or Section 4.3(f), (2) the making of a designation pursuant to Section 111(4) of the Income Tax Act by the Purchaser, the Corporation or a Subsidiary thereof to recognize income or gains because of the acquisition of control of the Corporation or a Subsidiary pursuant to this Agreement, or (3) the failure to claim any reasonable discretionary deductions otherwise allowable in computing income for tax purposes. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary, the Seller shall indemnify the Purchaser and, from and after the Closing, the Corporation for all Losses and Taxes for any Pre-Closing Tax Period with respect to the Corporation's practice with respect to certain state tax returns set forth on Schedule 3.1(p) of the Seller Disclosure Letter.

7.3. Indemnification by Purchaser.

Subject to Section 7.7, the Purchaser agrees to indemnify and save harmless the Seller and, prior to the Closing, the Corporation from all Losses suffered or incurred by the Seller and/or, prior to the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby, the Corporation as a result of or arising directly or indirectly out of or in connection with:

(a) any breach by the Purchaser of, or any inaccuracy of, any representation or warranty contained in Section 3.2 (provided that the Purchaser shall not be required to indemnify or save harmless the Seller or the Corporation in respect of any breach or inaccuracy of any representation or warranty unless the Seller shall have provided notice to the Purchaser on or prior to the Applicable Limitation Date related to such representation and warranty as set out in Section 7.1 hereof); and

(b) any breach or non-performance by the Purchaser of any covenant or agreement to be performed by it which is contained in this Agreement.

7.4. Claims.

As soon as is reasonably practicable after becoming aware of any event or circumstances that could give rise to a claim for indemnification or payment under this Agreement (a Claim), the party claiming indemnification or payment (the Indemnified Person) from any other party shall promptly give notice to the party or parties from whom indemnification or payment is requested (the Indemnifying Person) of the factual basis of the Claim briefly describing the facts giving rise to the claim and the amount of the Claim, or, if an amount is not then determinable, an approximate and reasonable estimate of the likely amount of the Claim; provided that the failure of the Indemnified Person to give notice shall not relieve the Indemnifying Person of its obligations under this Article 7, except to the extent (if any) that the Indemnifying Person shall have been prejudiced thereby.

Following receipt of notice from the Indemnified Person of the Claim, the Indemnifying Person shall have sixty (60) days to make such investigation of the Claim as it considers necessary or desirable. For the purpose of such investigation, the Indemnified Person shall make available to the Indemnifying Person the information relied upon by the Indemnified Person to substantiate the Claim and shall provide the Indemnifying Person with access, upon reasonable notice and during normal business hours, to its books and records, properties and personnel relating to the Claim.

If the Claim involves an Action that is instituted against an Indemnified Party, the Corporation or any of the Corporation's Subsidiaries by a Person other than an Indemnifying Person (a Third Party Claim), the provisions set forth in Section 7.5 shall be applicable.

7.5. Third Party Claims.

The obligations and liabilities of the parties hereunder with respect to a Third Party Claim for which an Indemnified Person is entitled to indemnification pursuant to this Article 7 shall be subject to the following terms and conditions:

(a) The Indemnifying Person shall have the right, but not the obligation, to defend against and to direct the defense of any such Third Party Claim and any related Actions, in its name or in the name of the Indemnified Person at the Indemnifying Person's expense and with counsel of the Indemnifying Person's own choosing and the Indemnified Person shall cooperate in the defense thereof. The Indemnified Person may participate in such defense with counsel of its own choosing, at its own expense. The Indemnifying Person shall not, as long as it conducts the defense of any Third Party Claim on behalf of the Indemnified Person, be liable to the Indemnified Person under this Article 7 for any fees of other counsel or any other expenses with respect to the defense of such Third Party Claim incurred by the Indemnified Person in connection with the defense of such Third Party Claim.

(b) If, however, the Indemnifying Person fails or refuses to undertake the defense of such Third Party Claim within fourteen (14) days after the notice of such Third Party Claim has been given to the Indemnifying Person by the Indemnified Person (or, if later, fourteen (14) days after an Action is brought by the third party making the Third Party Claim) or if the Indemnifying Person later withdraws from such defense, the Indemnified Person shall have the right (subject to the right of the Indemnifying Person to assume the defense of such claim at any time prior to the settlement, compromise or final determination thereof) to undertake the defense of such claim with counsel of its own choosing, with the Indemnifying Person responsible for the reasonable costs and expenses of such defense. No settlement of, or payment in respect of, any Third Party Claim involving potential liability of the Indemnifying Person under this Article 7 shall be made by or on behalf of the Indemnified Person without the prior written consent of the Indemnifying Person, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed.

7.6. Subrogation.

Upon payment in full of any Claim or the payment of any judgment or settlement with respect to a Third Party Claim, the Indemnifying Person shall be subrogated to the extent of such payment to the rights of the Indemnified Person against any Person with respect to the subject matter of such Claim or Third Party Claim. The Indemnified Person shall assign or otherwise cooperate with the Indemnifying Person, at the cost and expense of the Indemnifying

Person, to pursue any claims against, or otherwise recover amounts from, any Person liable or responsible for any Losses for which indemnification has been received pursuant to this Agreement.

7.7. Minimum Indemnification Threshold and Limits.

(a) The Seller shall not be obligated to indemnify or pay the Purchaser pursuant to Section 7.2(a) hereof unless and until the aggregate amount of the Losses incurred or sustained by the Purchaser relating to, or arising out of or in connection with, the matters set forth in Section 7.2(a) exceeds an amount equal to one percent (1%) of the Purchase Price (the Minimum Indemnification Threshold) in which case the Seller shall have an indemnification and payment obligation for all such amounts that exceed the Minimum Indemnification Threshold; provided that the Seller shall not be liable to the Purchaser for any Losses relating to a single claim (or group of claims relating to the same matter) under Section 7.2(a) not exceeding $1,000,000 (the Basket Amount) (and, for greater certainty, any single claim or group of claims not exceeding the Basket Amount shall not be considered in determining whether the Minimum Indemnification Threshold has been attained); and provided, further, that in no event shall the Seller's maximum aggregate indemnification and payment liability for all Losses under Section 7.2(a) exceed an amount equal to ten percent (10%) of the Purchase Price (the Cap).

(b) Neither the Minimum Indemnification Threshold, the Basket Amount nor the Cap set forth in subsection 7.7(a) shall apply to indemnification of, or payment to, the Purchaser for or with respect to knowing or wilful breaches of the representations and warranties of the Seller contained in this Agreement or breaches of the representations and warranties set forth in subsection 3.1(a), 3.1(b), 3.1(c), 3.1(d), 3.1(e) or 3.1(p).

(c) The Purchaser shall not be obligated to indemnify the Seller or the Corporation pursuant to Section 7.3(a) hereof unless and until the aggregate amount of all Losses incurred or sustained by the Seller relating to, or arising out of or in connection with, the matters set forth in Section 7.3(a) exceeds the Minimum Indemnification Threshold, in which case the Purchaser shall have an indemnification and payment obligation for all such amounts that exceed the Minimum Indemnification Threshold; provided that the Purchaser shall not be liable to the Seller or the Corporation for any Losses incurred or sustained by such party relating to a single claim (or group of claims relating to the same matter) under Section 7.3(a) not exceeding the Basket Amount (and, for greater certainty, any single claim or group of claims not exceeding the Basket Amount shall not be considered in determining whether the Minimum Indemnification Threshold has been attained); and provided, further, that in no event shall the Purchaser's maximum aggregate indemnification liability for all Losses incurred or sustained by the Seller or the Corporation relating to claims for breach under Section 7.3(a) exceed an amount equal to the Cap.

(d) The Minimum Indemnification Threshold, the Basket Amount and the Cap set forth in subsection 7.7(c) shall not apply to indemnification of, or payment to, the Seller for or with respect to knowing or wilful breaches of the representations and warranties of the Purchaser contained in this Agreement or breaches of the representations and warranties set forth in subsection 3.2(a), 3.2(b), 3.2(g), 3.2(i) and 3.2(j).

7.8. Net Losses.

Any indemnification pursuant to this Article 7 shall be net of:

(a) any actual federal, provincial or state income tax benefit, specifically arising from the facts and circumstances giving rise to the Loss and actually realized by the Indemnified Person (or any of its Affiliates) (i) by a reduction in Taxes payable, or (ii) by the receipt of a refund of Taxes by the Indemnified Person (or such Affiliates) (which, in the case of the Purchaser shall include the Corporation) but also taking into account any Taxes payable by the Indemnified Person with respect to the indemnification payment so that the Indemnified Person, on an after-tax basis, shall be placed in the same position as though the facts and circumstances giving rise to the Loss had never occurred or existed; and

(b) any insurance proceeds received by the Indemnified Person (or its Affiliates) (which, in the case of the Purchaser includes the Corporation), with respect to the Loss.

The Indemnified Person shall treat the Loss in a good faith manner that causes any federal, provincial, state or other income tax benefit to apply in the earliest year reasonably permissible.

7.9. Miscellaneous.

(a) The Seller and the Purchaser shall each be responsible, as an Indemnified Person, for taking or causing to be taken all reasonable steps to mitigate its Losses upon and after becoming aware of any event that could reasonably be expected to give rise to Losses that may be indemnifiable under this Article 7.

(b) No breach of any representation, warranty, covenant or agreement contained herein shall give rise to any right on the part of either party hereto, after the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby, to rescind this Agreement or any of the transactions contemplated hereby.

(c) The Seller shall be deemed not to have breached any representation or warranty, contained herein as of the Closing Date if the Seller or the Corporation shall have delivered to the Purchaser a relevant update to its written disclosure (if any) relating to such representation or warranty in accordance with subsection 5.1(e).

7.10. Exclusive Remedy After Closing Date.

All claims after the Closing for breaches of any representations or warranties in this Agreement or any breach of covenant or other provision of this Agreement (other than a claim for specific performance or injunctive relief) shall be made exclusively under and in accordance with this Article 7.

ARTICLE 8.
MISCELLANEOUS AND GENERAL

8.1. Payment of Expenses.

Whether or not the transactions contemplated by this Agreement shall have been consummated, each party hereto shall pay its own expenses incident to preparing for, entering into and carrying out this Agreement and the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby, provided that, for the avoidance of doubt, the Seller shall be responsible for any and all such expenses incurred by the Corporation or any of its Subsidiaries as of immediately prior to the Closing and any other expenses otherwise incurred by the Corporation or any of its Subsidiaries in connection with the process of selling the Corporation in the manner provided for in subsection 2.1(c) or otherwise.

8.2. Modification or Amendment.

The Seller and the Purchaser may modify or amend this Agreement, by written agreement executed and delivered by duly authorized officers of such parties. No waiver of any provision of this Agreement shall constitute a waiver of any other provision, nor shall any waiver constitute a continuing waiver unless otherwise expressly provided.

8.3. Further Assurances.

Each party to this Agreement covenants and agrees that, from time to time subsequent to the Closing, it will execute and deliver all such documents including all such additional conveyances, transfers, consents and other assurances, and do all such other acts and things as any other party hereto, acting reasonably, may from time to time request be executed or done in order to better evidence or perfect or effectuate any provision of this Agreement or any of the respective obligations intended to be created hereby or thereby.

8.4. Counterparts.

For the convenience of the parties hereto, this Agreement may be executed in any number of counterparts, each such counterpart being deemed to be an original instrument, and all such counterparts shall together constitute the same agreement.

Any suit, action or proceeding against any party or any of its assets arising out of or relating to this Agreement may be brought in a competent court of the Province of Ontario located in the City of Toronto, and each party hereby irrevocably and unconditionally attorns and submits to the non-exclusive jurisdiction of such court over the subject matter of any such suit, action or proceeding. Each party irrevocably waives and agrees not to raise any objection it might now or hereafter have to

If any term or other provision of this Agreement is invalid, illegal or incapable of being enforced by any rule of law or public policy, all other conditions and provisions of this Agreement shall nevertheless remain in full force and effect so long as the economic or legal substance of the transactions contemplated hereby is not affected in any manner adverse to any party. Upon such determination that any term or other provision is invalid, illegal or incapable of being enforced, the parties hereto shall negotiate in good faith to modify this Agreement so as to effect the original intent of the parties as closely as possible in an acceptable manner to the end that the transactions contemplated hereby are fulfilled to the fullest extent possible.

8.9. Entire Agreement.

Except as agreed to in writing on or after the date hereof, this Agreement constitutes the entire agreement between the parties pertaining to the subject matter of this Agreement, and supersedes all other prior agreements, understandings, representations and warranties both written and oral, among the parties, with respect to the subject matter hereof.

8.10. Assignment.

No party may transfer or assign any of its rights or obligations hereunder without the express written consent of each other party hereto, and any such attempted transfer in violation of this Section 8.10 shall be null and void, provided, however, that the Purchaser may, without the prior written consent of the other parties hereto, (a) assign this Agreement and all of its rights hereunder to its lenders and debt providers (or any administrative or collateral agent therefore) for collateral security purposes for any financing related to the transactions contemplated hereby (including, without limitation, the Financing), and (b) assign this Agreement and all of its rights and obligations hereunder to any of its wholly owned Subsidiaries; provided that, notwithstanding any such assignment described in the immediately preceding clauses (a) and (b), the Purchaser shall remain liable to perform all of its obligations hereunder. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the amalgamation, merger or other combination of the Seller with Bell Canada or any other Person in connection with the contemplated transaction involving the conversion of the Seller into an income trust shall not be considered a transfer or an agreement by the Seller requiring any consent from any other party hereunder.

8.11. Parties in Interest.

This Agreement shall be binding upon and enure solely to the benefit of each party hereto, and nothing in this Agreement, express or implied, is intended to or shall confer upon any other Person any rights, benefits or remedies of any nature whatsoever under or by reason of this Agreement.

8.12. Successors.

This Agreement shall enure to the benefit of and be binding upon the parties hereto and their respective successors. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, and notwithstanding any provision of this Agreement to the contrary, any Person resulting from the amalgamation, merger or other combination of the Seller with any other Person, including Bell Canada, in connection with the contemplated conversion of the Seller into an income trust, shall be considered a successor to, and a permitted transferee and assign of, the Seller.
