Reverse Stock Split

In preparation for a potential listing of the common stock of Columbia Property Trust Inc. (the "Company") on a national securities exchange, the Company's board of directors (the "Board") approved a 4-for-1 reverse stock split (the "Reverse Stock Split"). The Reverse Stock Split is expected to become effective on August 14, 2013 (the "Effective Date") and will cause every four shares of the Company's common stock that are issued and outstanding as of the Effective Date to be automatically combined into one issued and outstanding share of common stock. The Board believes this share consolidation will bring the Company's estimated net asset per-share value in line with a more commonly accepted range of per-share values for publicly traded REITs, better position the Company for future trading performance, and make the Company's stock more attractive to institutional investors.

No fractional shares will be issued in connection with the Reverse Stock Split. Instead, any fractional shares that remain after the Reverse Stock Split will be redeemed as described below under "Redemption of Fractional Shares." The share combination will affect all shareholders uniformly and will not affect any shareholder's percentage ownership interest in the Company or any shareholder rights. In addition, the number of the Company's authorized shares of common stock will not change.

Redemption of Fractional Shares

The Board further approved the redemption of all fractional shares of the Company's common stock that remain following effectuation of the Reverse Stock Split. Each affected shareholder of record as of the close of business on August 14, 2013 will receive a cash payment equal to the fractional share held by such shareholder multiplied by $29.32 (which number is the product of the Company's estimated value per share as of September 30, 2012 multiplied by four to account for the Reverse Stock Split). The fractional share payments will be remitted to the shareholders after the Effective Date.

Quarterly Cash Distribution

The Board declared distributions for the third quarter of 2013 in the amount of $0.38 (38 cents) per share on the outstanding shares of common stock payable to shareholders of record as of September 15, 2013. This distribution is equivalent to the rate declared for the second quarter of 2013, as computed on a post-Reverse Stock Split basis by increasing the second quarter of 2013 distribution rate by a multiple of four. Such distributions will be paid in September 2013.

Cautionary Statement Regarding Forward-Looking Statements

Certain statements made in this Current Report on Form 8-K contain forward-looking statements, which can generally be identified by the use of words such as "may," "will," "could," "intend," "anticipate," "believe," "continue," or other similar factors that could cause actual results to vary materially from those expressed in forward-looking statements include changes in real estate conditions and in the capital markets. REIT distributions are not guaranteed, are subject to change, and may consist of return of capital, capital gains, and dividend income. Please consult a qualified tax advisor prior to implementing any tax-related strategy; Columbia Property Trust, Inc. does not render tax or legal advice.
