SECTION 1 – Registrant’s Business and Operations

Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement

From September, 2012 to December 31, 2012, we executed Convertible Promissory Notes (the “Notes”) in the aggregate principal amount of $1,000,000 to several investors. The proceeds of the Notes are to be used for our general working capital purposes. The Notes bear interest at the rate of 9% per annum and mature at various times from September 14, 2014 to December 13, 2014.

The Notes are convertible into shares of our common stock at a conversion price of 90% of the average trading prices of our common stock during the five trading days on the OTCBB proceeding the conversion date. The number of shares issuable upon conversion shall be proportionally adjusted to reflect any stock dividend, split or similar event. The option of conversion is only available following the 1 year anniversary of the note.

The Notes are secured by the accounts receivable of a license agreement the Company has with Womens Choice Pharmaceuticals, LLC on its proprietary prescription product, ProCort®.

Unless waived in writing by the Holder, we are prohibited from effecting the conversion of the Note to the extent that as a result of such conversion the Holder thereof would beneficially own more than 4.99% in the aggregate of our issued and outstanding common stock immediately after giving effect to the issuance of common stock upon conversion.

For so long as we have any obligation under the Note, we agreed to certain restrictions on our ability to declare dividends, repurchase our capital stock, sell our assets, or advance loans to others.

The foregoing description of the Notes does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to Form of Convertible Promissory Note, which is filed as Exhibit 10.1 hereto and incorporated herein by reference.
