approval of our Board of Directors. In addition, shareholders holding a majority of our issued and outstanding common stock, approved the name change by written consent in lieu of a meeting on May 27, 2004, in accordance with the relevant sections of Nevada Revised Statutes. The name change will not be effective until we amend our Articles of Incorporation by filing a Certificate of Amendment to our Articles of Incorporation with the Nevada Secretary of State. We intend to file the Certificate of Amendment twenty days after this information statement is first mailed to our shareholders.

Our purpose in changing our name to Cobalis Corp. is to comply with the terms of an agreement that is the basis for a consent judgment against us in a case filed last year in the US District Court for the District of Massachusetts by Biogen Idec MA Inc., ("Biogen") alleging trademark infringement and unfair competition, under docket number CA No. 03-12305 PBS. In March 2004, we entered into an agreement with Biogen to settle the dispute wherein we will be enjoined from using the corporate names, trade names, trademarks or domain names containing "Biogentec" or "Biogentech" or any phonetic equivalent. We intend to continue development of our product under our new corporate name when the name change has been given effect.

No action is required by you. The accompanying information statement is furnished only to inform our shareholders of the action described above before it takes effect in accordance with Rule 14c-2 promulgated under the Securities Act of 1934. This information statement is being mailed to you on or about June 15, 2004.

WE ARE NOT ASKING YOU FOR A PROXY AND YOU ARE REQUESTED NOT TO SEND US A PROXY.

GENERAL

On May 27, 2004, our Board of Directors unanimously approved, subject to shareholder approval, an amendment to our Articles of Incorporation to change our corporate name to "Cobalis Corp." On May 27, 2004, shareholders who own in excess of the required majority of our outstanding common stock necessary for the adoption of the action, approved the name change by action taken by written consent. The full text of the proposed amendment to the Articles of Incorporation is attached hereto as Exhibit A.

PURPOSE OF CHANGE IN NAME OF THE CORPORATION

Our purpose in changing our name to Cobalis Corp. is to comply with the terms of an agreement that is the basis for a consent judgment against us in a case filed last year in the US District Court for the District of Massachusetts by Biogen Idec MA Inc., ("Biogen") alleging trademark infringement and unfair competition, under docket number CA No. 03-12305 PBS. In March 2004, we entered into an agreement with Biogen to settle the dispute wherein we will be enjoined from using the corporate names, trade names, trademarks or domain names containing "Biogentec" or "Biogentech" or any phonetic equivalent. We intend to continue development of our product under our new corporate name when the name change has been given effect.

PROCEDURE FOR APPROVAL OF NAME CHANGE; VOTE REQUIRED

The Nevada Revised Statutes requires that, in order for us to amend our Articles of Incorporation, such amendment must be approved by our Board of Directors and approved by a majority of the outstanding shares entitled to vote. The Nevada Revised Statutes also provides that any action which may be taken at a meeting of the shareholders may be taken without a meeting and without prior notice, if a consent in writing, setting forth the action so taken, shall be signed by the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares entitled to vote.

On May 27, 2004, the record date for determination of the shareholders entitled to receive this Information Statement, there were 23,792,666 shares of common stock outstanding. The holders of common stock are entitled to one vote for each share held of record on all matters submitted to a vote of our shareholders. We needed the affirmative vote of at least a majority of the outstanding shares of our common stock to approve the name change. Our Board, by its unanimous written consent, adopted resolutions approving an amendment to our Articles of Incorporation to effect the name change. By action of written consent, dated May 27, 2004, two shareholders who are affiliates and who own 11,370,000 shares of the issued and outstanding shares of our common stock, or 57.9% of the issued and outstanding shares of our common stock, approved the name change.

EFFECTIVE DATE OF AMENDMENT

The amendment to our Articles of Incorporation will become effective upon the filing with the Nevada Secretary of State of the Certificate of Amendment to our Articles of Incorporation, attached hereto as Exhibit A. We intend to file the Certificate of Amendment twenty days after this Information Statement is first mailed to shareholders.
