Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On April 17, 2006, Trimble and Mark Harrington, Trimble's Vice President of Strategic Development, entered into Trimble's standard executive officer change in control severance agreement. The agreement provides that Mr. Harrington's then unvested stock options will vest upon a Change in Control (as defined in the agreement). The agreement also provides that, if his employment is terminated other than by reason of a Nonqualifying Termination (as defined in the agreement) within the period commencing with the change in control and ending one year following the change in control, (i) Mr. Harrington shall receive a severance payment equal to one year base salary plus bonus (each calculated in accordance with the terms of the agreement), (ii) the Company shall continue to provide Mr. Harrington with medical and other insurance for a period of one year following the date of termination of his employment on the same basis as provided prior to termination, and (iii) Mr. Harrington may exercise any then outstanding stock options for a period of one year following the date of termination of his employment, unless such options expire earlier.
