- Earnings per American Depositary Share (ADS) ³ of US$0.39 in the fourth quarter 2010 compared to US$0.76 in the third quarter 2010. EPADS of US$3.10 in 2010, down 13% year-over-year.

³ Each American Depositary Share (ADS) represents 10 shares of Ternium's common stock. Results are based on a weighted average number of shares of common stock outstanding of 2,004,743,442.

Ternium's operating income in the fourth quarter 2010 was US$133.7 million, a decrease of US$133.9 million compared to the third quarter 2010, mainly due to higher cost per ton as a result of increased raw material and purchased slab prices and a slight reduction in revenue per ton, partially offset by an increase in shipments. Shipments increased 97,000 tons in the fourth quarter 2010 compared to the third quarter 2010, mainly due to a 75,000 ton increase in shipments in the North America Region and an 18,000 ton increase in the South & Central America Region.

Operating income in the fourth quarter 2010 decreased US$82.4 million when compared to the fourth quarter 2009, mainly due to higher cost per ton partially offset by higher revenue per ton and shipments. Cost per ton increased year-over-year mainly as a result of higher raw material and purchased slab prices. Shipments and revenue per ton increased in the fourth quarter 2010 compared to the fourth quarter 2009 in all of Ternium's regions.

Ternium's net income in the fourth quarter 2010 was US$102.8 million, a decrease of US$98.0 million compared to the third quarter 2010 mainly due to the above mentioned US$133.9 million decrease in operating income and a US$14.2 million decrease in net financial income, partially offset by a US$47.7 million decrease in income tax expense.

- EBITDA of US$1.4 billion in 2010, an increase of US$728.7 million compared to 2009, mainly due to higher revenue per ton and shipments, partially offset by higher cost per ton.
- Earnings per ADS of US$3.10 in 2010, compared to US$3.58 in 2009. Earnings per ADS in 2009 included a US$2.05 after-tax discontinued operations gain as a result of the transfer of the Sidor shares to Venezuela.

Ternium's operating income in 2010 was US$1.1 billion, compared to US$296.4 million in 2009. The increase was mainly due to a US$137 increase in revenue per ton and a 1.7 million ton increase in shipments, partially offset by a US$57 increase in operating cost per ton. Shipments and revenue per ton in 2009 were significantly impacted by the global economic downturn during the period.

Net income was US$779.5 million in 2010, compared to US$767.1 million in 2009. There were no discontinued operations results in 2010, whereas there was a US$428.0 million discontinued operations gain in 2009 related to the transfer of the Sidor shares to Venezuela. The year-over-year change in net income also included the above mentioned US$757.6 million increase in operating income and a US$315.4 million increase in income tax expense.

Repurchase of Ternium Shares from Usiminas and Closing of Secondary Public Offering

Following the closing of an underwritten public offering by Usinas Siderúrgicas de Minas Gerais S.A. ("Usiminas") of Ternium ADSs on February 15, 2011, Ternium and its controlling shareholder Techint Holdings S.à.r.l. ("Techint") purchased from Usiminas 41,666,666 and 27,777,780 Ternium shares, respectively. On February 18, 2011, following the sale of additional shares pursuant to the exercise by the underwriters of their over-allotment option, the ADSs available for trading, or the "free float", have increased from 13.65% to 24.44% of the Company's share capital.

Annual Dividend Proposal

Ternium's board of directors proposed that an annual dividend of US$0.075 per share (US$0.75 per ADS), or approximately US$150.4 million in the aggregate, be approved at the company's annual general shareholders' meeting, which is scheduled to be held on June 1, 2011. If the annual dividend is approved at the shareholders' meeting, it will be paid on June 9, 2011.

Outlook

Ternium expects the NAFTA region to accelerate its growth rate in 2011, with higher industrial activity in Mexico driving local demand for steel products. The company also anticipates that South America's economies will continue to grow during 2011.

Ternium expects an improvement in operating income in the first quarter 2011 compared to the fourth quarter 2010, mainly as a result of a recovery in operating margin in the North America Region due to an increase in prices and higher shipment levels, partially offset by an increase in cost per ton during the same period.

Shipments of long products totaled 337,100 tons in the fourth quarter 2010, a 26% increase versus the same quarter in 2009. Revenue per ton shipped was US$678 in the fourth quarter 2010, an increase of 24% compared to the fourth quarter 2009, mainly due to higher prices in Ternium's main steel markets.

Sales of other products totaled US$30.9 million during the fourth quarter 2010, compared to US$49.3 million during the fourth quarter 2009, mainly due to lower iron ore shipments partially offset by higher iron ore prices.

Sales of flat and long products in the North America Region were US$1.0 billion in the fourth quarter 2010, an increase of 39% versus the same period in 2009. Shipments in the region totaled 1.2 million tons during the fourth quarter 2010, or 23% higher than in the same period in 2009, mainly reflecting higher demand for flat steel products. Revenue per ton shipped in the region increased 13% in the fourth quarter 2010 over the same quarter in 2009 to US$837, mainly due to higher prices.

Flat and long product sales in the South & Central America Region were US$846.4 million during the fourth quarter 2010, an increase of 49% versus the same period in 2009 as a result of higher shipments and revenue per ton. Shipments in the region totaled 838,400 tons during the fourth quarter 2010, or 31% higher than in the fourth quarter 2009, mainly due to a recovery from the 2009 global economic downturn and an increased participation in the Colombian steel market.

Revenue per ton shipped was US$1,009 in the fourth quarter 2010, an increase of 14% compared to the same quarter in 2009, mainly due to higher prices.

Cost of sales was US$1.6 billion in the fourth quarter 2010 compared to US$1.0 billion in the fourth quarter 2009. Cost of sales increased mainly due to higher shipments and higher cost per ton. Cost per ton increased mainly as a result of higher raw material and purchased slab costs.

Selling, General & Administrative (SG&A) expenses in the fourth quarter 2010 were US$182.7 million, or 10% of net sales, compared with US$137.8 million, or 10% of net sales, in the fourth quarter 2009. The US$44.9 million year-over-year increase was mainly due to higher freight expenses and taxes related to higher activity levels, higher services costs and the impact of the consolidation of Ferrasa in the fourth quarter 2010.

Operating income in the fourth quarter 2010 was US$133.7 million, or 7% of net sales, compared with an operating income of US$216.1 million, or 16% of net sales, in the fourth quarter 2009.

During the fourth quarter 2010, Ternium's net interest expenses totaled US$8.5 million, US$6.9 million lower than in the fourth quarter 2009, mainly due to lower net indebtedness.

Net foreign exchange result was a gain of US$23.5 million in the fourth quarter 2010 compared to a gain of US$72.2 million in the same period in 2009. The fourth quarter 2010 gain was primarily due to the impact of the Mexican Peso's 1.15% revaluation on Ternium's Mexican subsidiary's US dollar denominated debt. This result is non-cash when measured in US dollars and is offset by changes in Ternium's net equity position in the currency translation adjustments line, as the value of Ternium México's US dollar denominated debt is not altered by the Mexican Peso's fluctuation when stated in US dollars in Ternium's consolidated financial statements. In accordance with IFRS, Ternium México prepares its financial statements in Mexican Pesos and registers foreign exchange results on its net non-Mexican Peso positions when the Mexican Peso revaluates or devaluates relative to other currencies.

Interest income on the Sidor financial asset was US$4.3 million in the fourth quarter 2010 compared to US$40.6 million in the fourth quarter 2009. These results are attributable to the Sidor financial asset in connection with the transfer of Sidor shares on May 7, 2009.

Income tax expense for the fourth quarter 2010 was US$52.6 million or 34% of income before income tax, discontinued operations and minority interest, compared with an income tax expense of US$114.5 million in the same period in 2009, or 37% of income before income tax, discontinued operations and minority interest.

Income attributable to minority interest for the fourth quarter 2010 was US$25.3 million, compared to US$35.5 million in the fourth quarter 2009, mainly due to a lower result attributable to minority interest in Ternium México.

Shipments of flat products totaled 6.8 million tons in 2010, an increase of 28% compared to 2009 mainly due to a recovery from the 2009 global economic downturn. Revenue per ton shipped increased 18% to US$942 in 2010 compared with 2009, mainly due to higher steel prices in Ternium's main steel markets.

Sales of long products were US$833.1 million in 2010, an increase of 45% compared to 2009, mainly due to higher volumes and prices. Shipments of long products totaled 1.3 million tons in 2010, a 22% increase versus 2009. Revenue per ton shipped was US$649 in 2010, an increase of 20% compared to 2009 due to higher prices.

Sales of other products totaled US$172.5 million in 2010, compared to US$136.1 million during 2009, an increase of 27%. The increase includes the impact of higher iron ore prices.

Shipments in the region totaled 4.8 million tons in 2010, or 19% higher than 2009, as a result of higher demand. Revenue per ton in the North Region increased 19% to US$851 in 2010 over 2009, mainly due to higher prices.

Flat and long product sales in the South & Central America Region were US$3.1 billion in 2010, an increase of 72% versus 2009, due to higher shipments and prices. Shipments in the region totaled 3.1 million tons in 2010, or 55% higher than in 2009, mainly due to a recovery from the 2009 global economic downturn. Revenue per ton shipped was US$973 in 2010, an increase of 11% compared to 2009.

Cost of sales was US$5.7 billion in 2010 compared to US$4.1 billion in 2009. Cost of sales increased mainly as a result of higher shipments and higher cost per ton. Cost per ton in 2010 increased compared to 2009 mainly due to higher raw material and purchased slab prices, as well as higher labor, services and maintenance costs.

Selling, General and Administrative (SG&A) expenses in 2010 were US$665.3 million, or 9% of net sales, compared with US$531.5 million, or 11% of net sales, in 2009. The US$133.8 million increase in SG&A was mainly due to higher freight expenses and taxes related to higher activity levels, higher labor costs and the impact of the consolidation of Ferrasa on August 25, 2010, partially offset by lower personnel reduction charges.

Operating income in 2010 was US$1.1 billion, or 14% of net sales, compared to an operating income of US$296.4 million, or 6% of net sales, in 2009.

EBITDA in 2010 was US$1.4 billion, or 20% of net sales, compared to US$708.5 million, or 14% of net sales, in 2009.

Net financial results were a US$130.5 million gain in 2010, compared with a $132.9 million gain in 2009.

In 2010, Ternium's net interest expenses were US$45.6 million, compared to a net interest expense of US$84.7 million in 2009, mainly as a result of lower net indebtedness and cost of debt.

Net foreign exchange result was a gain of US$123.7 million in 2010 compared to a gain of US$83.1 million in 2009. The gain in 2010 was primarily due to the impact of the Mexican Peso's 5.4% revaluation on Ternium's Mexican subsidiary's US dollar denominated debt.

This result is non-cash when measured in US dollars and is offset by changes in Ternium's net equity position in the currency translation adjustments line, as the value of Ternium México's US dollar denominated debt is not altered by the Mexican Peso's fluctuation when stated in US dollars in Ternium's consolidated financial statements. Inventories increased in 2010, reflecting higher costs as a result of higher input prices, as well as higher inventory volume of finished goods, goods in process and raw materials as a result of increased operating activity. The decrease in working capital in 2009 included a US$429.1 million decrease in inventories and an aggregate US$308.9 million decrease in trade and other receivables, partially offset by an aggregate US$102.9 million increase in accounts payable and other liabilities. Ternium's net repayment of borrowings in 2010 was US$520.5 million, mostly related to the scheduled repayments of Ternium México's outstanding debt, while dividends paid in cash to shareholders and minority shareholders totaled US$138.5 million in the same period. As of December 31, 2010, Ternium's net cash position was US$0.75 billion.

Net cash provided by operating activities in the fourth quarter 2010 was US$225.4 million, compared to US$72.6 million in the fourth quarter 2009. While operating income in the fourth quarter 2010 was US$82.4 million lower than in the fourth quarter 2009, there was a US$37.0 million reduction in working capital in the fourth quarter 2010 compared to a US$212.3 million increase in working capital during the fourth quarter 2009. The reduction in working capital in the fourth quarter 2010 included a US$79.3 million decrease in inventory and an aggregate US$50.8 million decrease in trade and other receivables, partially offset by an aggregate US$93.1 million decrease in accounts payable and other liabilities. Inventories decreased in the fourth quarter 2010 reflecting lower inventory volume and costs of finished goods, goods in process and raw materials. The increase in working capital in the fourth quarter 2009 was mainly due to a US$231.4 million increase in inventories, primarily as a result of a higher volume and cost of finished goods, goods in process and raw materials.

⁴ Free cash flow for 2010 equals net cash provided by operating activities of US$806.8 million less capital expenditures of US$350.1 million, while free cash flow for 2009 equals net cash provided by operating activities of US$1.2 billion less capital expenditures of US$208.6 million.

Capital expenditures in the fourth quarter 2010 were US$130.1 million, compared to US$62.8 million in the fourth quarter 2009.

In the fourth quarter 2010, Ternium generated free cash flow⁶ of US$95.3 million compared to free cash flow of US$9.7 million in the fourth quarter 2009. Ternium's net proceeds from borrowings in the fourth quarter 2010 were US$16.5 million.
