Item 5.03 Amendments to Articles of Incorporation or Bylaws; Change in Fiscal Year.

On June 17, 2008, the Board of Directors of U.S. Bancorp approved certain amendments to the Company's Amended and Restated Bylaws. The Company's Bylaws have been restated to effect these amendments. The following description of the amendments to the Amended and Restated Bylaws is qualified in its entirety by the Company's new Amended and Restated Bylaws, a copy of which is filed as Exhibit 3.2 to this Current Report on Form 8-K and is incorporated herein by reference.

The amendments to the Bylaws include amendments to:

- Article II, Section 7; to specify (i) when a stockholder must be a stockholder of record in order for a director nomination to be properly made, (ii) when a stockholder must give notice to nominate a director candidate, (iii) what information must be included in a notice of director nomination, and (iv) certain documentation an individual must deliver to the Company to be eligible as a nominee for election or reelection as a director;
- Article II, Section 8; to specify (i) certain additional information that must be included in a notice by a stockholder of business (other than a director nomination) to be brought before an annual meeting of the Company and (ii) that the requirements of Section 8 apply to all stockholder proposals described in that section;
- Article VI, Sections 2; to clarify that the indemnification expense advancement provisions of Article VI also apply to threatened proceedings;
- Article VI, Section 4; to clarify that an individual may bring suit against the Company for unpaid indemnification expense advancement; and
- Article VI, Section 7; to clarify that no repeal or modification of Article VI, or the adoption of any provision inconsistent with Article VI, will adversely affect an individual's indemnification rights relating to any claim involving allegations of acts or omissions occurring or arising prior to such repeal or modification.
