On November 2, 2011, Integra CI, Inc. ( Integra CI ), a wholly-owned indirect subsidiary of Integra LifeSciences Holdings Corporation (the Company ), entered into an Amendment to Lease Contract with the Puerto Rico Industrial Development Company ( PRIDCO ) relating to the expansion of its manufacturing facility in Añasco, Puerto Rico (the Amendment ). Pursuant to the Amendment, Integra CI will lease a total of 128,083.11 square feet of building S-1212 (the Building ), a third building located in close proximity to the two buildings currently leased by Integra CI from PRIDCO.

Except as described below, Integra will pay rent for the Building according to the following schedule.

Date of Commencement of Operations

Pursuant to the Amendment, Integra CI will begin to pay rent on 67,141.33 square feet of the Building one year after the earlier of the date that certain repairs and reconditioning of the Building that Integra CI plans to undertake are complete or Integra CI's employees commence working in the Building (the Date of Commencement of Operations ). On the third anniversary of the Date of Commencement of Operations, Integra CI will begin to pay rent on the remaining 60,941.78 square feet of the Building.

The Amendment also sets forth the security deposit ($46,109.92) for the Building and amends other sections of the lease to provide that PRIDCO will reimburse Integra CI up to a maximum amount of $1,361,426.75 for leasehold improvements in the form of a credit against rental payments. If there is a difference between PRIDCO and Integra CI's estimates with respect to the repair costs, and the difference is not higher than 10% of the total amount of such cost, PRIDCO may adjust the amount of the rent credit according to PRIDCO's estimate.

In addition, the Amendment requires that Integra CI comply with the terms of two special incentives agreements to be entered into by and between Integra CI and PRIDCO (collectively, the Incentives Agreements ). In order to receive certain monetary incentives, the Incentives Agreements generally will require Integra CI to: (i) maintain a manufacturing facility in Añasco, Puerto Rico for five years, (ii) make significant civil, structural, electrical and mechanical improvements to the Building and other buildings under lease with PRIDCO, (iii) employ no less than a total of 375 production workers within thirty-six (36) months from the Date of Commencement of Operations and (iv) maintain an average employment level of 375 production workers for the balance of the five-year term of the Incentive Agreements.

A copy of the lease amendment is attached as Exhibit 10.1 to this Current Report on Form 8-K and is incorporated by reference into this Item.
