Re: James E. Jordan
Proposed Director

Dear Ms Crisp;

Wintergreen Advisers, LLC owns [on behalf of its clients] 16% of Consolidated-Tomoka.

Wintergreen Advisers wishes to place James E. Jordan before the Corporate Governance Committee and the Board of Directors for consideration as a new director of Consolidated Tomoka-Land Co. It is our hope that Jim Jordan will be made a member of the board and included in the next shareholder proxy.

We believe Mr. Jordan will be an extraordinarily good addition to the Consolidated-Tomoka Board. He has valuable background, education and experience as evidenced by his enclosed CV. He was born and raised in Florida and continues to maintain a real connection to the state and its development.

Jim has experience in management and oversight of proper business controls; he has a record of participating in sound business decisions; he is cognizant of current management trends and 'best practices'; he has experience in real estate matters and a history of working well with management. Jim is good at strategic planning and appreciating the insight, focus and direction that are essential to long term success. In addition to these particular qualities, Jim Jordan possesses the more general qualities that are necessary for board membership. He is a man of high ethical standards and integrity in both his personal and his business dealings. He is someone who acts on and remains accountable for his decisions and he will be able to provide the board with wise, thoughtful counsel on a broad range of issues. He is a man of high intelligence who is capable of making decisions, he is financially literate and he values the collaborative nature of board and team work. Jim has a very good personality for working through tough issues and he has a genuine respect for those he works with and their efforts as well as the people and efforts who have come before.

Wintergreen Advisers heartily recommends Jim Jordan for addition to the Board of Directors of Consolidated-Tomoka. Please do not hesitate to contact Jim directly to initiate your interview and board consideration process.

/s/ David J. Winters
