Item 2. Identity and Background

(a) The name, residence or business address, and the principal occupation or employment and the name, principal business and address of any corporation or other organization in which such employment is conducted, of each executive officer and director and each controlling person, if any, of the reporting persons named above is set forth in Exhibit A hereto. To the best knowledge of the persons listed in Item 2 hereof, each person listed on Exhibit A is a United States citizen except where otherwise noted and, during the last five years, no person listed in Exhibit A attached (i) has been convicted in a criminal proceeding (excluding traffic violations or similar misdemeanors) or (ii) has been a party to a civil proceeding of a judicial or administrative body of competent jurisdiction and as a result of such proceeding was or is subject to, a judgment, decree or final order enjoining future violations of, or prohibiting or mandating activities subject to, federal or state securities laws or finding any violation with respect to such laws.

Item 3. Source and Amount of Funds or Other Consideration

The securities reported herein were acquired with funds of approximately $112,950,741 (including brokerage commissions). All such funds were provided by the working capital of the separate accounts and mutual funds managed and advised by subsidiaries of FRI.

Item 4. Purpose of Transaction

The securities covered by this Statement were acquired for purpose of investment by the separate accounts and mutual funds managed and advised by Franklin Advisers, Inc., Franklin Advisory Services, LLC and Franklin Private Client Group, Inc. (these advisory subsidiaries are hereafter referred to as the "Franklin Advisers"), which are subsidiaries of FRI. Neither FRI, nor any executive officer or director of FRI, has any present plans or intentions to acquire or dispose of any securities of the Issuer other than on behalf of the separate accounts and mutual funds managed and advised by the Franklin Advisers for the purpose of investment.

The Franklin Advisers intend to withhold authority to vote for the three nominees to the Board of Directors at the May 3rd, 2004 shareholder meeting and encourage other shareholders to do the same. The primary duty of corporate directors is to protect shareholder interests by overseeing the policies and practices of the Company's management. In Sierra Pacific's case, we feel that this Board has continuously failed in this duty.

The Franklin Advisers have been disappointed by the substantial decline in book value of equity during the tenure of current management. Most specifically, since Walt Higgins, current CEO and Chairman, was assigned to that post on August 8, 2000, equity book value has declined by approximately 43%. The book value of the Company at that time, according to the June 30, 2000 Form 10-Q, was approximately $18.29 per share on 78.4 million shares outstanding. At year-end 2003, taking into account the dilutive impact of convertible securities, book value has declined to $9.87 per share on 200.2 million shares.

Although the decline in book value has been partially due to operating losses and write-offs of disallowed energy costs by regulators, management contributed to this decline through numerous capital transactions that resulted in new shares of common stock and $300 million of convertible debt issued substantially below book value. With the current share price approximately 25% below the Company's book value and management's apparent unwillingness to control costs or reduce capital spending (as discussed below), the Franklin Advisors are concerned that the Board of Directors will allow further dilution of shareholders' equity in the future.

Sierra Pacific has been an electric utility company operating in an environment of financial distress over the past three years. Because of the high power prices encountered during the western energy crisis in 2000 and 2001, electric power costs have risen substantially in Nevada and Sierra Pacific has found it difficult to achieve full recovery of these higher costs through the rate making process. One method that utilities can use to offset the rise in energy costs is to reduce non-energy operating and maintenance expense. Many utilities have been reducing this component of cost in recent years. Since 2000, the year Mr. Higgins took office, non-energy operating and maintenance expense has risen substantially, specifically on a per-unit basis. Thus, there appears to have been no effort by current management to offset higher costs in other parts of the business by lowering its controllable costs.

The cost of capital has greatly exceeded the return on investment opportunity for Sierra Pacific the past couple years. Despite this fact, management has seen its cash capital spending for utility plant increase from $302.0 million in 2001 to $328.1 million in 2003. In addition, management has stated its intention in the Form 10-K filed on March 8, 2004 to increase its cash capital spending for 2004 to $487.4 million, representing a 49% increase over the level reported in 2003.

Over the prior five year period ending December 31, 2003, the value of Sierra Pacific's common stock has fallen considerably. According to the 2004 proxy statement, a $100 investment made in SRP on December 31, 1998 including the reinvestment of all dividends would be worth only $21.98 on December 31, 2003. A comparative investment in the Standard and Poor's 500 index would have been worth $97.18 and an investment in the Dow Jones Utilities Index would have yielded $103.56. We believe that this comparative performance is disgraceful. The board has allowed current management to act in a manner that has contributed to the lower shareholder net worth. All shareholders should be insistent about the rights due to them under the law and do all they can to elect a board of directors that would enhance shareholder values for all shareholders.

In the future, the accounts and mutual funds managed and advised by the Franklin Advisors or other subsidiaries of FRI may decide to purchase additional shares of the Common Stock or other securities of the Issuer. In addition, the accounts and funds managed and advised by the Franklin Advisors and other subsidiaries of FRI may dispose of any or all securities of the Issuer in any manner permitted by applicable securities laws. The accounts and funds managed and advised by the Franklin Advisors and other subsidiaries of FRI reserve the right to exercise any and all of their respective rights as a stockholder of the Issuer in a manner consistent with their equity interests.

Other than as described above, neither FRI or the Franklin Advisors nor any executive officer or director of FRI or the Franklin Advisors, has any present plans or proposals, which relate to or would result in:

- (i) an extraordinary corporate transaction, such as a merger, reorganization or

liquidation, involving the Issuer or any of its subsidiaries;

(ii) the sale or transfer of a material amount of assets of the Issuer or any of its subsidiaries;

(iii) any material change in the present capitalization or dividend policy of the Issuer;

(iv) any other material change in the Issuer's business or corporate structure;

(v) changes in the Issuer's charter, bylaws or instruments corresponding thereto or other actions, which may impede the acquisition of control of the Issuer by any person;

(vi) causing a class of securities of the Issuer to be delisted from a national securities exchange or to cease to be authorized to be quoted in an inter-dealer quotation system of a registered national securities association;

(vii) a class of equity security of the Issuer becoming eligible for termination of registration pursuant to Section 12(g)(4) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934; or (viii) any action similar to any of those enumerated above.

Item 5. Interest in Securities of the Issuer

(a-b) The separate accounts and mutual funds managed and advised by the Franklin Advisors, which are subsidiaries of FRI are the owners of 9,600,640 shares of the Common Stock representing approximately 8% of the outstanding shares of Common Stock. Since the advisory contracts of FRI subsidiaries with its clients grant them sole investment and voting power over the securities owned by its advisory clients, FRI subsidiaries may be deemed to be, for purposes of Rule 13d-3 under the 1934 Act (the "1934 Act"), the beneficial owner of the securities covered by this statement.

Charles B. Johnson and Rupert H. Johnson, Jr. (the "Principal Shareholders") each own in excess of 10% of the outstanding Common Stock of FRI and are the principal shareholders of FRI. FRI and the Principal Shareholders therefore may be deemed to be, for purposes of Rule 13d-3 under the 1934 Act, the beneficial owner of securities held by persons and entities advised by FRI or its subsidiaries. FRI and the Principal Shareholders each disclaim any economic interest or beneficial ownership in any of the securities covered by this Statement owned by advisory clients of FRI subsidiaries.

Furthermore, FRI and the Principal Shareholders are of the view that they are not acting as a "group" for purposes of Section 13(d) under the 1934 Act and that they are not otherwise required to attribute to each other the "beneficial ownership" of securities held by any of them or by any persons or entities advised by FRI subsidiaries.

(c) See Exhibit B for the summary of transactions within the past sixty days.

(d) No person other than respective advisory clients of advisory subsidiaries of FRI have the right to receive or the power to direct the receipt of dividends from, or the proceeds of the sale of the securities being reported herein.

(e) Not applicable.

Item 6. Contracts, Arrangements, Understandings, or Relationships with Respect to Securities of the Issuer

Other than as disclosed above, no persons named in Item 2 herein, nor to the best of such person's knowledge, no person named in Exhibit A hereto, has any contract, arrangement, understanding or relationship (legal or otherwise) with any person with respect to any securities of the Issuer, including, but not limited to, transfer or voting of any securities, finders' fees, joint ventures, loan or option arrangements, puts or calls, guarantees of profits, division of profits or losses, or the giving or withholding of proxies.
