NOTES TO UNAUDITED CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

(In thousands, except share and per share amounts, unless otherwise indicated)

1. Basis of Presentation

The accompanying consolidated interim financial statements of RCM Technologies, Inc. and Subsidiaries (“RCM” or the “Company”) are unaudited. The year-end consolidated balance sheet was derived from audited statements but does not include all disclosures required by accounting principles generally accepted in the United States. These statements have been prepared in accordance with the rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission pertaining to reports on Form 10-Q and should be read in conjunction with the Company’s consolidated financial statements and the notes thereto for the year ended December 27, 2008 included in the Company’s Annual Report Form 10-K for such period. Certain information and footnote disclosures normally included in financial statements prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles have been condensed or omitted pursuant to such rules and regulations.

The consolidated financial statements for the unaudited interim periods presented include all adjustments (consisting only of normal, recurring adjustments) necessary for a fair presentation of financial position, results of operations and cash flows for such interim periods.

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities, revenues and expenses and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities. Actual results could differ from those estimates. Results for the thirty-nine week period ended September 26, 2009 are not necessarily indicative of results that may be expected for the full year.

Reclassifications

Certain prior year amounts have been reclassified to conform with current year presentation.

2. Fiscal Year

The Company follows a 52/53 week fiscal reporting calendar ending on the Saturday closest to December 31. The fiscal year ended December 27, 2008 was a 52-week reporting year. The third fiscal quarter of 2008, the 2008 fiscal year and the third fiscal quarter of 2009 ended on the following dates, respectively:

Period Ended	Weeks in Quarter	Weeks in Year to Date
September 27, 2008	Thirteen	Thirty-Nine
December 27, 2008	Thirteen	Fifty-Two
September 26, 2009	Thirteen	Thirty-Nine

The Company's fiscal year 2009 will end on January 2, 2010 and will contain 53 weeks.

3. Use of Estimates and Uncertainties

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities, revenues and expenses and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

The Company uses estimates to calculate an allowance for doubtful accounts on its accounts receivables. These estimates can be significant to the operating results and financial position of the Company.

The Company has risk participation arrangements with respect to workers compensation and health care insurance. The amounts included in the Company's costs related to this risk participation are estimated and can vary based on changes in assumptions, the Company's claims experience or the providers included in the associated insurance programs.

NOTES TO UNAUDITED CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

(In thousands, except share and per share amounts, unless otherwise indicated)

3. Use of Estimates and Uncertainties (Continued)

The Company can be affected by a variety of factors including uncertainty relating to the performance of the general economy, competition, demand for the Company's services, adverse litigation and claims and the hiring, training and retention of key employees.

The Company's carrying value of financial instruments, consisting primarily of accounts receivable, approximates fair value due to their liquidity or their short-term nature. The Company does not have any off-balance sheet financial instruments. The Company does not have derivative products in place to manage risks related to foreign currency fluctuations for its foreign operations or for interest rate changes.

4. Note Receivable

On February 26, 2008, the Company accepted a promissory note from a customer for $7.4 million in payment of a like amount of accounts receivable from that customer. The customer paid $1.3 million through April 30, 2008 at which point management of the Company concluded that the customer was going to default on its May 1, 2008 installment payment. During the thirteen week period ended March 29, 2008, the Company determined that the note receivable was not collectible and reserved for the note. During the thirteen week period ended September 27, 2008, the Company wrote off the note receivable.

5. Acquisitions

General

In connection with certain acquisitions, the Company is obligated to pay contingent consideration to the sellers upon the acquired business achieving certain earnings targets over periods ranging from two to four years following the acquisition. In general, the contingent consideration amounts fall into two categories: (a) Deferred Consideration - fixed amounts due if the acquisition achieves a base level of earnings which has been determined at the time of acquisition and (b) Earnouts - amounts payable that are not fixed and are based on the growth in excess of the base level earnings.

Future Contingent Payments

The Company has three active acquisition agreements whereby future contingent consideration may be earned and paid (NuSoft, MBH and PSG as described herein). In December 2007 and prior to the NuSoft and MBH acquisitions FASB issued "Business Combinations" which did not require that the estimated fair value of contingent consideration be recorded as a liability. The Company has not recorded any liability associated with the contingent consideration that may be paid for the NuSoft and MBH acquisitions. In April 2009 and prior to the PSG acquisition FASB issued "Accounting for Assets Acquired and Liabilities Assumed in Business Combinations That Arise from Contingencies" which requires that the fair value of any future contingent consideration be recorded as a liability. The Company has determined that the estimated fair value of the total future contingent consideration (Deferred Consideration and Earnouts) associated with the PSG acquisition is $0.9 million. The amount actually paid, if any, may substantially exceed the estimated fair value. The Company has recorded this liability and increased its goodwill by a like amount.

Edgar Filing: RCM TECHNOLOGIES INC - Form 10-Q

The Company's outstanding Deferred Consideration obligations potentially due after September 26, 2009, which relate to the NuSoft, MBH and PSG acquisitions, could result in the following maximum Deferred Consideration payments:

Year Ending	Amount
January 1, 2011	$2,800
December 31, 2011	1,650
Thereafter	850
Maximum deferred consideration	$5,300

5. Acquisitions (Continued)

The Company cannot estimate the Deferred Consideration payments for the years after January 2, 2010 with any certainty. Earnouts, if any, cannot be estimated with any certainty and as such are not included above.

NuSoft Solutions, Inc.

On March 19, 2008, the Company purchased the operating assets of NuSoft Solutions, Inc. (“NuSoft”). NuSoft is a specialty provider of information technology services. The acquisition was effective as of March 1, 2008. The acquisition has been accounted for in accordance with “Business Combinations.” Accordingly, the results of operations of the acquired company have been included in the consolidated results of operations of the Company from the effective date and are included in the Information Technology segment.

The purchase consideration at closing consisted of $4.5 million in cash and 700,000 shares of RCM’s common stock, par value $0.05 (the “Common Stock”), valued at $3.7 million. Post closing consideration consisted of potential Deferred Consideration payments up to $4.4 million and additional Earnout payments, both amounts contingent upon NuSoft achieving certain base levels of operating income for certain post closing periods following the purchase. The acquisition has been accounted for under the purchase method of accounting. The source of cash utilized in the NuSoft acquisition was from the Company’s revolving credit facility. The purchase price paid at closing of approximately $8.2 million has been allocated as follows:

Customer relationships	$2,260
Covenants-not-to-compete	424
Goodwill	5,125
Equipment	446
	$8,255

The Deferred Consideration and Earnouts, to the extent paid, will be recorded as additional purchase consideration and added to goodwill on the consolidated balance sheet.

MBH Solutions, Inc.

On April 28, 2008, the Company purchased the operating assets of MBH Solutions, Inc. (“MBH”). MBH is a specialty provider of information technology services. The acquisition was effective as of April 1, 2008 and has been accounted for in accordance with “Business Combinations.” Accordingly, the results of operations of the acquired company have been included in the consolidated results of operations of the Company from the effective date and are included in the Information Technology segment.

The MBH purchase consideration at closing consisted of $1.8 million in cash and the assumption of $1.3 million in certain liabilities. Post closing consideration consisted of potential Deferred Consideration payments up to $1.5 million and additional Earnout payments, both amounts contingent upon MBH achieving certain base levels of operating income for certain post closing periods following the purchase. The acquisition has been accounted for under the purchase method of accounting. The source of cash utilized in the MBH acquisition was from the Company's revolving credit facility. The purchase price paid at closing of approximately $3.1 million has been allocated as follows:

Customer relationships	$835
Covenants-not-to-compete	41
Goodwill	2,174
Equipment	36
	$3,086

The Deferred Consideration and Earnouts, to the extent paid, will be recorded as additional purchase consideration and added to goodwill on the consolidated balance sheet.

5. Acquisitions (Continued)Project Solutions Group, Inc.

On July 6, 2009, the Company purchased the operating assets of Project Solutions Group, Inc. ("PSG"). PSG is a specialty provider of information technology services. PSG provides expert project management and training services to a diverse client base. PSG helps clients deploy Microsoft's project management tools to streamline and coordinate project-based initiatives across their organizations.

The acquisition was effective as of June 28, 2009 and has been accounted for in accordance with "Business Combinations" and "Accounting for Assets Acquired and Liabilities Assumed in Business Combinations that Arise from Contingencies." Accordingly, the results of operations of the acquired company have been included in the consolidated results of operations of the Company from the effective date and are included in the Information Technology segment.

The PSG purchase consideration at closing consisted of $0.8 million in cash and 100,000 shares of RCM's Common Stock, valued at $0.2 million. The fair value of the common shares issued was determined based on the closing market price of the Company's common stock on the last trading day prior to the effective date of the acquisition. Post closing consideration consisted of potential Deferred Consideration payments up to $1.5 million and additional Earnout payments, both amounts contingent upon PSG achieving certain base levels of operating income for certain post closing periods following the purchase. Additionally, the Company recorded a liability of $0.9 million for the estimated net present value of future contingent consideration ("Contingent Consideration") potentially due in connection with the PSG acquisition. The effect of this transaction on the Company's consolidated financial statements was not material.

The acquisition has been accounted for under the purchase method of accounting. The purchase price paid at closing of approximately $1.0 million has been allocated as follows:

Customer relationships	$253
Covenants-not-to-compete	38
Goodwill	728
	$1,019

Proforma Results of Operations

The following (unaudited) results of operations have been prepared assuming the three previously described acquisitions had occurred as of the beginning of the periods presented. 6. Property and Equipment

Property and equipment are stated at cost and are depreciated on the straight-line method at rates calculated to provide for retirement of assets at the end of their estimated useful lives. The annual rates are 20% for computer hardware and software as well as furniture and office equipment. Leasehold improvements are amortized over the shorter of the estimated life of the asset or the lease term.

7. New Accounting Standards

In June 2009, the Financial Accounting Standards Board (“FASB”) issued its final Statement of Financial Accounting Standards (SFAS) No. 168, “The FASB Accounting Standards Codification and the Hierarchy of Generally Accepted Accounting Principles a replacement of FASB Statement No. 162.” SFAS No. 168 made the FASB Accounting Standards Codification (the Codification) the single source of U.S. GAAP used by nongovernmental entities in the preparation of financial statements, except for rules and interpretive releases of the SEC under authority of federal securities laws, which are sources of authoritative accounting guidance for SEC registrants. The Codification is meant to simplify user access to all authoritative accounting guidance by reorganizing U.S. GAAP pronouncements into roughly 90 accounting topics within a consistent structure; its purpose is not to create new accounting and reporting guidance. The Codification supersedes all existing non-SEC accounting and reporting standards and was effective for the Company beginning September 26, 2009. Following SFAS No. 168, the Board will not issue new standards in the form of Statements, FASB Staff Positions, or Emerging Issues Task Force Abstracts; instead, it will issue Accounting Standards Updates. The FASB will not consider Accounting Standards Updates as authoritative in their own right; these updates will serve only to update the Codification, provide background information about the guidance, and provide the bases for conclusions on the change(s) in the Codification. In the description of Accounting Standards Updates that follows, references in “italics” relate to Codification Topics and Subtopics, and their descriptive titles, as appropriate.

In December 2007, the FASB updated “Business Combinations.” Among other requirements, the update requires an acquirer to recognize the assets acquired, the liabilities assumed and any noncontrolling interest in the acquiree at the acquisition date, measured at their fair values as of that date, with limited exceptions. The update also requires a.) costs incurred to effect the acquisition to be recognized separately from the acquisition as period costs; b.) the acquirer to recognize restructuring costs that the acquirer expects to incur, but is not obligated to incur, separately from the business combination; and c.) an acquirer to recognize assets and liabilities assumed arising from contractual contingencies as of the acquisition date, measured at their acquisition-date fair values. Other key provisions of this update include the requirement to recognize the acquisition-date fair values of research and development assets separately from goodwill and the requirement to recognize changes in the amount of deferred tax benefits that are recognizable due to the business combination in either income from continuing operations in the period of the combination or directly in contributed capital, depending on the circumstances. The Company adopted this update as of the required effective date and will apply its provisions prospectively to business combinations that occur after adoption.

In April 2009, the FASB issued “Accounting for Assets Acquired and Liabilities Assumed in a Business Combination That Arise from Contingencies.” This update requires that assets acquired and liabilities assumed in a business combination that arise from contingencies be recognized at fair value if fair value can be reasonably estimated. If fair value cannot be reasonably estimated, the asset or liability would generally be recognized in accordance with “Accounting for Contingencies,” and “Reasonable Estimation of the Amount of a Loss.” Further, the FASB decided to remove the subsequent accounting guidance for assets and liabilities arising from contingencies, and carry forward without significant revision the guidance in “Business Combinations.” This update is effective for assets or liabilities arising from contingencies in business combinations for which the acquisition date is on or after the beginning of the first annual reporting period beginning on or after December 15, 2008.

In April 2009, the FASB issued “Interim Disclosures about Fair Value of Financial Instruments.” This update amends “Disclosures about Fair Value of Financial Instruments,” to require disclosures about fair value of financial instruments for interim reporting periods of publicly traded companies as well as in annual financial statements. This update also amends Interim Financial Reporting, to require those disclosures in summarized financial information at interim reporting periods. This update became effective for the interim period ending June 27, 2009 and did not have a material impact on the Company's consolidated financial statements.

7. New Accounting Standards (Continued)

In May 2009, the FASB issued "Subsequent Events." The objective of this update is to establish general standards of accounting for and disclosure of events that occur after the balance sheet date but before financial statements are issued or are available to be issued. In particular, this update sets forth the period after the balance sheet date during which management of a reporting entity should evaluate events or transactions that may occur for potential recognition or disclosure in the financial statements, the circumstances under which an entity should recognize events or transactions occurring after the balance sheet date in its financial statements, and the disclosures that an entity should make about the events or transactions that occurred after the balance sheet date. The Company adopted this update effective June 27, 2009, which was the required effective date. The Company evaluated our September 26, 2009 financial statements for subsequent events through November 9, 2009, the date the financial statements were filed. The Company is not aware of any subsequent events which would require recognition or disclosure in the financial statements.

In October 2009, the FASB issued "Revenue Arrangements with Multiple Deliverables." This statement provides principles for allocating sales consideration among multiple-element revenue arrangements with an entity's customers, allowing more flexibility in identifying and accounting for separate deliverables under an arrangement. This update introduces an estimated selling price method for valuing the elements of a bundled arrangement if vendor-specific objective evidence or third-party evidence of selling price is not available, and significantly expands related disclosure requirements. This standard is effective on a prospective basis for revenue arrangements entered into or materially modified in fiscal years beginning on or after June 15, 2010. Alternatively, adoption may be on a retrospective basis, and early application is permitted. We are currently evaluating the impact of adopting this pronouncement.

8. Line of Credit

The Company and its subsidiaries are party to a loan agreement with Citizens Bank of Pennsylvania, amended and restated effective February 20, 2009, which provides for a $15 million revolving credit facility and includes a sub-limit of $5.0 million for letters of credit (the "Revolving Credit Facility"). Borrowings under the Revolving Credit Facility bear interest at one of two alternative rates, as selected by the Company at each incremental borrowing. These alternatives are: (i) LIBOR (London Interbank Offered Rate), plus applicable margin, or (ii) the agent bank's prime rate. The Company also pays unused line fees based on the amount of the Revolving Credit Facility that is not drawn.

All borrowings under the Revolving Credit Facility are collateralized by all of the assets of the Company and its subsidiaries and a pledge of the stock of its subsidiaries. The Revolving Credit Facility also contains various financial and non-financial covenants, such as restrictions on the Company's ability to pay dividends. The Revolving Credit Facility expires in August 2011.

The weighted average interest rates under the Revolving Credit Facility for the thirty-nine week periods ended September 26, 2009 and September 27, 2008 were 2.2% and 3.9%, respectively. The majority of borrowings in 2008 and 2009 were subject to alternative (i) LIBOR (London Interbank Offered Rate), plus applicable margin on contracts of 30 days or more. During the thirty-nine week periods ended September 26, 2009 and September 27, 2008, the Company's outstanding borrowings ranged from $-0- to $4.9 million and $-0- to $10.5 million, respectively. 9. Goodwill and Intangibles

The Company is required to perform a goodwill impairment test on at least an annual basis. Application of the goodwill impairment test requires significant judgments, including estimation of future cash flows, which are dependent on internal forecasts, estimation of the long-term rate of growth for the businesses, the useful life over which cash flows will occur and determination of the Company's weighted average cost of capital. Changes in these estimates and assumptions could materially affect the determination of fair value and/or conclusions on goodwill impairment for each reporting unit. The Company conducts its annual goodwill impairment test as of the last day of the Company's fiscal November each year, or more frequently if indicators of impairment exist. The Company compares the fair value of each of its reporting units to their respective carrying values, including related goodwill. There were no triggering events during the thirty-nine week period ended September 26, 2009 that indicated a need to perform the impairment test prior to the Company's annual test date.

The carrying amount of goodwill for the thirty-nine week period ended September 26, 2009 is summarized as follows:

	Information Technology	Engineering	Commercial	Total
Balance as of December 27, 2008	$4,734	$ -	$1,804	$6,538

11. Earnings Per Share

Both basic and diluted earnings (loss) per share for all periods are calculated based on the reported earnings in the Company's consolidated statements of operations.

The number of common shares used to calculate basic and diluted (loss) earnings per share for the thirteen and thirty-nine week periods ended September 26, 2009 and September 27, 2008 was determined as follows:

	Thirteen Week Periods Ended		Thirty-Nine Week Periods Ended
	September 26, 2009	September 27, 2008	September 26, 2009	September 27, 2008

Diluted
Shares used for basic calculation	12,960,778	12,774,026	12,862,607	12,604,827
Dilutive effect of options granted
under the Company's stock option plans	6,766	-	1,750	-
	12,967,544	12,774,026	12,864,357	12,604,827
Antidilutive options outstanding but not included in share calculations	1,539,400	1,334,900	1,539,400	1,334,900

In the reporting periods where there is net loss, the basic weighted average shares are used to determine loss per share because impact of stock options would be antidilutive.

12. Share - Based Compensation

At September 26, 2009, the Company had five share-based employee compensation plans. The Company measures the fair value of stock options, if and when granted, based upon the closing market price of the Company's common stock on the date of grant. Grants vest over periods ranging from one to three years and expire within 10 years of issuance. Stock options that vest in accordance with service conditions amortize over their applicable vesting period using the straight-line method.

12. Share - Based Compensation (Continued)

The Company recognizes compensation costs in the financial statements for all share-based payments granted subsequent to January 1, 2006 based on the grant date fair value estimated in accordance with "Share-Based Payment, revised 2004." Compensation cost recognized in 2009 and 2008 included: (a) compensation cost for all share-based payments granted prior to, but not yet vested as of January 1, 2006, based on the grant date fair value estimated, adjusted for estimated forfeitures, and (b) compensation cost for all stock-based payments granted subsequent to January 1, 2006, based on the grant date fair value estimated, adjusted for estimated forfeitures. The straight-line recognition method is used to recognize compensation expense associated with share-based payments that are subject to graded vesting based on service conditions.

Share-based compensation expense of $99, or $0.01 per diluted share, and $145, or $0.01 per diluted share, was recognized for the thirty-nine week periods ended September 26, 2009 and September 27, 2008, respectively.

The weighted average fair value of options granted using the Black-Scholes Option Pricing Model during the thirty-nine week periods ended September 26, 2009 and September 27, 2008 has been estimated using the following assumptions:

	Thirty-Nine Week Periods Ended

Expected dividend yield	N/A	N/A
Annual forfeiture rate	13.86%	12.1%

Employee Stock Purchase Plan

The Company implemented the 2001 Employee Stock Purchase Plan (the "Purchase Plan") with shareholder approval, effective January 1, 2001. Under the Purchase Plan, employees meeting certain specific employment qualifications are eligible to participate and can purchase shares of common stock semi-annually through payroll deductions at the lower of 85% of the fair market value of the stock at the commencement or end of the offering period. The purchase plan permits eligible employees to purchase shares of common stock through payroll deductions for up to 10% of qualified compensation. As of September 26, 2009, the issuance of these shares has not yet been registered with the SEC.

14. Legal Settlement

In late 1998, two shareholders who were formerly officers and directors of the Company filed suit against the Company. The former officers and directors alleged that the Company wrongfully limited the number of shares of the Company's common stock that could have been sold by the plaintiffs under a registration rights agreement entered into in connection with an acquisition transaction pursuant to which the plaintiffs became shareholders of the Company.

A trial in 2002 resulted in a judgment in favor of the plaintiffs for $7.6 million that was affirmed on appeal. In June 2006, the Company paid $8.6 million, which included post-judgment interest and other items totaling $1.0 million to the plaintiffs to satisfy the judgment.

In November 2002, the Company filed suit on professional liability claims against the attorneys and law firms who had served as its counsel in the acquisition transaction and in connection with its subsequent dealings with the plaintiffs concerning their various relationships with the Company resulting from that transaction. In its lawsuit against its former counsel, the Company was seeking complete indemnification with respect to (1) its costs and counsel fees incurred in the defense against the claims of the plaintiffs; (2) the amount it paid to satisfy the judgment; and (3) its costs and counsel fees incurred in the prosecution of the legal malpractice action itself. In February 2007, the Company reached a settlement with one of the law firm defendants resulting in the recovery of $0.8 million. On March 16, 2009 the Company entered into a settlement agreement with the remaining defendants in this lawsuit. The Company received $9.8 million on March 27, 2009.

15. Contingencies

The Company is party to two agreements of indemnity related to the performance of two construction projects. One of these construction projects is managed by a former customer of the Company and the construction for this project was completed in the third quarter of 2009. The second of these construction projects was managed by the same customer prior to November 2008 when the initial contract was transferred to the Company. The Company now acts as the general contractor on this construction project. The contract price is approximately $6.2 million and management of the Company estimates it was approximately 97% complete as of September 26, 2009. The Company believes this project will be finished in the fourth quarter of 2009. In the event of non-performance on either construction project, the Company may be obligated to indemnify the project owners for certain cost overruns on such projects. Management believes that any such cost overruns would not have a significant adverse financial impact to the financial position of the Company and its results of operations.

From time to time, the Company is a defendant or plaintiff in various legal actions which arise in the normal course of business. As such, the Company is required to assess the likelihood of any adverse outcomes to these matters as well as potential ranges of losses and possible recoveries. The Company may not be covered by insurance as it pertains to some or all of these matters. A determination of the amount of the provision required for these commitments and contingencies, if any, which would be charged to earnings, is made after careful analysis of each matter. Once established, a provision may change in the future due to new developments or changes in circumstances, and could increase or decrease the Company's earnings in the period that the changes are made. The Company has accrued a provision for losses aggregating approximately $0.6 million and $0.4 million as of September 26, 2009 and December 27, 2008, respectively. Asserted claims in these matters seek approximately $3.0 million in damages as of September 26, 2009.

MANAGEMENT'S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS OF

Overview

RCM participates in a market that is cyclical in nature and extremely sensitive to economic changes. As a result, the impact of economic changes on revenues and operations can be substantial, resulting in significant volatility in the Company's financial performance.

After normalizing for 2008 acquisitions, the Company experienced a significant decline in revenues during the thirty-nine week period ended September 26, 2009 as compared to the comparable prior year period. The Company attributes this decline to overall economic conditions in its geographic markets and industry verticals, particularly in its Information Technology and Commercial Services segments.

The Company believes it has developed and assembled an attractive portfolio of capabilities, established a proven record of performance and credibility and built an efficient pricing structure. The Company is committed to optimizing its business model as a single-source premier provider of business and technology solutions with a strong vertical focus offering an integrated suite of services through a global delivery platform.

The Company believes that most companies recognize the importance of advanced technologies and business processes to compete in today's business climate. However, the process of designing, developing and implementing business and technology solutions is becoming increasingly complex. The Company believes that many businesses today are focused on return on investment analysis in prioritizing their initiatives. This has had an adverse impact on spending by current and prospective clients for many emerging new solutions.

Nonetheless, the Company continues to believe that businesses must implement more advanced information technology and engineering solutions to upgrade their systems, applications and processes so that they can maximize their productivity and optimize their performance in order to maintain a competitive advantage. Although working under budgetary, personnel and expertise constraints, companies are driven to support increasingly complex systems, applications and processes of significant strategic value. This has given rise to a demand for outsourcing. The Company believes that its current and prospective clients are continuing to evaluate the potential for outsourcing business critical systems, applications and processes.

The Company provides project management and consulting services, which are billed based on either agreed-upon fixed fees or hourly rates, or a combination of both. The billing rates and profit margins for project management and solutions services are generally higher than those for professional consulting services. The Company generally endeavors to expand its sales of higher margin solutions and project management services. The Company also realizes revenues from client engagements that range from the placement of contract and temporary technical consultants to project assignments that entail the delivery of end-to-end solutions. These services are primarily provided to the client at hourly rates that are established for each of the Company's consultants based upon their skill level, experience and the type of work performed.

The majority of the Company's services are provided under purchase orders. Contracts are utilized on certain of the more complex assignments where the engagements are for longer terms or where precise documentation on the nature and scope of the assignment is necessary. Although contracts normally relate to longer-term and more complex engagements, they do not obligate the customer to purchase a minimum level of services and are generally terminable by the customer on 60 to 90 days' notice. The Company, from time to time, enters into contracts requiring the completion of specific deliverables. Typically these contracts are for less than one year. The Company recognizes revenue on these deliverables at the time the client accepts and approves the deliverables.

Costs of services consist primarily of salaries and compensation-related expenses for billable consultants, including payroll taxes, employee benefits and insurance. Selling, general and administrative expenses consist primarily of salaries and benefits of personnel responsible for business development, recruiting, operating activities, and training, and include corporate overhead expenses. Corporate overhead expenses relate to salaries and benefits of personnel responsible for corporate activities, including the Company's corporate marketing, administrative and financial reporting responsibilities and acquisition program. The Company records these expenses when incurred.

Critical Accounting Policies

The Company's consolidated financial statements were prepared in accordance with U. S. generally accepted accounting principles, which require management to make subjective decisions, assessments and estimates about the effect of matters that are inherently uncertain. As the number of variables and assumptions affecting the judgment increases, such judgments become even more subjective. While management believes its assumptions are reasonable and appropriate, actual results may be materially different from estimated. Management has identified certain critical accounting policies, described below, that require significant judgment to be exercised by management.

Revenue Recognition

The Company derives its revenues from several sources. All of the Company's segments perform consulting and staffing services. The Company's Engineering Services and Information Technology Services segments also perform project services. All of the Company's segments derive revenue from permanent placement fees. The majority of the Company's revenues are invoiced on a time and materials basis.

Project Services - The Company recognizes revenues in accordance with the Securities and Exchange Commission, Staff Accounting Bulletin ("SAB") No. 104, "Revenue Recognition" ("SAB 104") which clarifies application of U.S. generally accepted accounting principles to revenue transactions. Project services are generally provided on a cost-plus-fixed-fee or time-and-material basis. Typically, a customer will outsource a discrete project or activity and the Company assumes responsibility for the performance of such project or activity. The Company recognizes revenues and associated costs on a gross basis as services are provided to the customer and costs are incurred using its employees. The Company, from time to time, enters into contracts requiring the completion of specific deliverables. The Company recognizes revenue on these deliverables at the time the client accepts and approves the deliverables. In instances where project services are provided on a fixed-price basis and the contract will extend beyond a 12-month period, revenue is recorded in accordance with the terms of each contract. In some instances, revenue is billed and recorded at the time certain milestones are reached, as defined in the contract. In other instances, revenue is billed and recorded based upon contractual rates per hour. In addition, some contracts contain "Performance Fees" (bonuses) for completing a contract under budget. Performance Fees, if any, are recorded when the contract is completed and the revenue is reasonably certain of collection. Some contracts also limit revenues and billings to maximum amounts. Provision for contract losses, if any, is made in the period such losses are determined. For contracts where there are multiple deliverables and the work has not been 100% complete on a specific deliverable, the costs have been deferred. The associated costs are expensed when the related revenue is recognized.

Consulting and Staffing Services - Revenues derived from consulting and staffing services are recorded on a gross basis as services are performed and associated costs have been incurred using employees of the Company. In these circumstances, the Company assumes the risk of acceptability of its employees to its customers. In certain cases, the Company may utilize other companies and their employees to fulfill customer requirements. In these cases, the Company receives an administrative fee for arranging for, billing for, and collecting the billings related to these companies. The customer is typically responsible for assessing the work of these companies who have responsibility for acceptability of their personnel to the customer. Under these circumstances, the Company's reported revenues are net of associated costs (effectively recognizing the net administrative fee only).

Permanent Placement Services - The Company earns permanent placement fees from providing permanent placement services. Fees for placements are recognized at the time the candidate commences employment. The Company guarantees its permanent placements on a prorated basis for 90 days. In the event a candidate is not retained for the 90-day period, the Company will provide a suitable replacement candidate. In the event a replacement candidate cannot be located, the Company will provide a prorated refund to the client. An allowance for refunds, based upon the Company's historical experience, is recorded in the financial statements. Revenues are recorded on a gross basis as a component of revenue.

Accounts Receivable

The Company's accounts receivable are primarily due from trade customers. Credit is extended based on evaluation of customers' financial condition and, generally, collateral is not required. Accounts receivable payment terms vary and are stated in the financial statements at amounts due from customers net of an allowance for doubtful accounts. Accounts outstanding longer than the payment terms are considered past due. The Company determines its allowance by considering a number of factors, including the length of time trade accounts receivable are past due, the Company's previous loss history, the customer's current ability to pay its obligation to the Company and the condition of the general economy and the industry as a whole. The Company writes off accounts receivable when they become uncollectible.

Goodwill

Goodwill represents the premium paid over the fair value of the net tangible and intangible assets we have acquired in business combinations. The Company is required to perform a goodwill and intangible asset impairment test on at least an annual basis. Application of the goodwill and intangible asset impairment test requires significant judgments including estimation of future cash flows, which is dependent on internal forecasts, estimation of the long-term rate of growth for the businesses, the useful life over which cash flows will occur and determination of our weighted average cost of capital. Changes in these estimates and assumptions could materially affect the determination of fair value and/or conclusions on goodwill and intangible asset impairment for each reporting unit. The Company conducts its annual goodwill and intangible asset impairment test as of the last day of the Company's fiscal November each year, or more frequently if indicators of impairment exist. We periodically analyze whether any such indicators of impairment exist. A significant amount of judgment is involved in determining if an indicator of impairment has occurred. Such indicators may include a sustained, significant decline in our share price and market capitalization, a decline in our expected future cash flows, a significant adverse change in legal factors or in the business climate, unanticipated competition and/or slower expected growth rates, among others. The Company compares the fair value of each of its reporting units to their respective carrying values, including related goodwill and intangible assets. There were no triggering events during the thirty-nine week period ended September 26, 2009 that indicated a need to perform the impairment test prior to the Company's annual test date.

Long-Lived Assets

The Company evaluates long-lived assets and intangible assets with definite lives for impairment whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying amount of an asset may not be recoverable. When it is probable that undiscounted future cash flows will not be sufficient to recover an asset's carrying amount, the asset is written down to its fair value. Assets to be disposed of by sale, if any, are reported at the lower of the carrying amount or fair value less cost to sell.

Accounting for Stock Options

The Company uses stock options to attract, retain and reward employees for long-term service. The Company follows "Share Based Payment," which requires that the compensation cost relating to stock-based payment transactions be recognized in financial statements. This compensation cost is measured based on the fair value of the equity or liability instruments issued.

Accounting for Income Taxes

In establishing the provision for income taxes and deferred income tax assets and liabilities, and valuation allowances against deferred tax assets, the Company makes judgments and interpretations based on enacted tax laws, published tax guidance and estimates of future earnings. As of September 26, 2009, the Company had total long term net deferred income tax assets of $3.7 million, primarily representing the tax effect of temporary differences for the GAAP versus tax amortization of acquisitions made in prior periods. Realization of deferred tax assets is dependent upon the likelihood that future taxable income will be sufficient to realize these benefits over time, and the effectiveness of tax planning strategies in the relevant tax jurisdictions. In the event that actual results differ from these estimates and assessments, valuation allowances may be required.

The Company adopted the provisions of FASB "Accounting for Uncertainty in Income Taxes," on January 1, 2007. The Company recognized no material adjustments in the liability for unrecognized income tax benefits. The Company conducts its operations in multiple tax jurisdictions in the United States and Canada. With limited exceptions, the Company is no longer subject to audits by state and local tax authorities for tax years prior to 2004. The Company's federal income tax returns have been examined through 2007. As of September 26, 2009, the Company did not have any material uncertain tax positions.

The Company's future effective tax rates could be adversely affected by changes in the valuation of its deferred tax assets or liabilities or changes in tax laws or interpretations thereof. In addition, the Company is subject to the examination of its income tax returns by the Internal Revenue Service and other tax authorities. The Company regularly assesses the likelihood of adverse outcomes resulting from these examinations to determine the adequacy of its provision for income taxes.

Accrued Bonuses

The Company pays bonuses to certain executive management, field management and corporate employees based on, or after giving consideration to, a variety of financial performance measures. Executive management, field management and certain corporate employees' bonuses are accrued throughout the year for payment during the first quarter of the following year, based in part upon anticipated annual results compared to annual budgets. In addition, the Company pays discretionary bonuses to certain employees, which are not related to budget performance. Variances in actual results versus budgeted amounts can have a significant impact on the calculations and therefore on the estimates of the required accruals. Accordingly, the actual earned bonuses may be materially different from the estimates used to determine the quarterly accruals.

Certain Considerations

The Company's growth prospects are influenced by broad economic trends. The pace of customer capital spending programs, new product launches and similar activities have a direct impact on the need for information technology and engineering services. When the U.S. and Canadian economies decline, the Company's operating performance could be adversely impacted. The Company believes that its fiscal discipline, strategic focus on targeted vertical markets and diversification of service offerings provides some insulation from adverse trends. However, declines in the economy could result in the need for future cost reductions or changes in strategy.

Additionally, changes in government regulations could result in prohibition or restriction of certain types of employment services or the imposition of new or additional employee benefits, licensing or tax requirements with respect to the provision of employment services that may reduce RCM's future earnings. There can be no assurance that RCM will be able to increase the fees charged to its clients in a timely manner and in a sufficient amount to cover increased costs as a result of any of the foregoing.

The consulting and employment services market is highly competitive with limited barriers to entry. RCM competes in global, national, regional and local markets with numerous competitors in all of the Company's service lines. Price competition in the industries the Company serves is significant, and pricing pressures from competitors and customers are increasing. RCM expects that the level of competition will remain high in the future, which could limit RCM's ability to maintain or increase its market share or profitability.

The Company follows a 52/53 week fiscal reporting calendar ending on the Saturday closest to December 31. The year to date reporting periods ended September 26, 2009 and September 27, 2008 consisted of thirteen weeks each.

Revenues. Revenues decreased 13.3%, or $6.9 million, for the thirteen week period ended September 26, 2009 as compared to the same period in the prior year (the "comparable prior year period"). Revenues decreased $5.9 million in the Information Technology segment, increased $0.8 million in the Engineering segment, and decreased $1.8 million in the Commercial segment. Management attributes the overall decrease to a weakening of the general economy. The Company believes that its revenue decline correlates to other similar business services companies, particularly in its Information Technology and Commercial segments. The Company completed two acquisitions in its Information Technology segment in 2008 prior to the start of the thirteen week period ended September 27, 2008. The Company completed one acquisition in its Information Technology segment in 2009 effective June 28, 2009, the first day of the thirteen week period ended September 26, 2009. The revenues for the 2009 acquisition were $1.0 million for the thirteen week period ended September 26, 2009. Management expects revenues for the remainder of fiscal 2009 to remain generally consistent with the revenues for the thirty-nine week period ended September 26, 2009.

Thirteen Week Period Ended September 26, 2009 Compared to Thirteen Week Period Ended September 27, 2008 - (Continued)

Cost of Services. Cost of services decreased 14.2%, or $5.5 million, for the thirteen week period ended September 26, 2009 as compared to the comparable prior year period. The decrease in cost of services was primarily due to the overall decrease in revenues. Cost of services as a percentage of revenues decreased to 73.5% for the thirteen week period ended September 26, 2009 from 74.3% for the comparable prior year period. This decrease was primarily due to decreased unbilled labor costs for consultants as compared to total labor costs for consultants (i.e., an increase in utilization of billable resources) in our Information Technology segment. Management anticipates the ratio of cost of sales to revenues for the remainder of fiscal 2009 to remain comparable to that in the thirteen week period ended September 26, 2009.

Selling, General and Administrative. Selling, general and administrative ("SGA") expenses decreased 8.6%, or $1.0 million, for the thirteen week period ended September 26, 2009 as compared to the comparable prior year period. The decrease in SGA expenses is primarily due to a reduction in selling costs (primarily commissions and salaries paid to salespersons) associated with an overall decrease in revenues offset by SGA expenses of $0.4 million incurred by the 2009 acquisition. As a percentage of revenues, SGA expenses were 24.0% for the thirteen week period ended September 26, 2009 as compared to 22.7% for the comparable prior year period. The increase in SGA expenses as a percentage of revenues was primarily attributable to decreased revenues overall. Management expects SGA expenses for the remainder of fiscal 2009 to remain generally consistent with the SGA expenses for the thirteen week period ended September 26, 2009.

Depreciation and Amortization. Depreciation and amortization was $0.4 million for the thirteen week period ended September 26, 2009 as compared to $0.6 million for the comparable prior year period.

Other Income (Expense). Other income (expense) consists of interest expense, net of interest income and gains and losses on foreign currency transactions. The increase in other income (expense) for the thirteen week period ended September 26, 2009 as compared to the prior period was primarily due to more favorable foreign currency changes.

Income Tax. Income tax expense was $0.3 million for the thirteen week periods ended September 26, 2009 and September 27, 2008. The effective tax rate was 40.1% for the thirteen week period ended September 26, 2009 as compared to an expense of 33.9% in the comparable prior year period. The comparable prior year period effective tax rate was lower due to permanent GAAP to tax differences existing in the comparable prior year period. Management anticipates that the effective tax rate for the remainder of fiscal 2009 will remain consistent with the thirteen week period ended September 26, 2009.

Segment Discussion (See Footnote 13)

Information Technology

Information Technology revenues of $20.9 million in 2009 decreased $5.9 million, or 21.9%, as compared to the comparable prior year period. The decrease in revenue was primarily attributable to a weakening of the general economy and offset by a 2009 acquisition. The Company believes that reductions in capital spending in the Company's geographic markets have significantly reduced the demand for the Company's Information Technology services. The Company completed an acquisition in its Information Technology segment in 2009 effective June 28, 2009, the first day of the thirteen week period ended September 26, 2009. The revenues for the 2009 acquisition were $1.0 million for the thirteen week period ended September 26, 2009. The Information Technology segment operating loss was $0.3 million for both periods.

Engineering

Engineering revenues of $15.5 million in 2009 increased $0.8 million, or 5.4%, as compared to the comparable prior year period. The increase in revenue was primarily attributable to increases in revenues from several major customers as compared to the comparable prior year period. The Engineering segment operating income was $1.0 million as compared to $0.8 million for the comparable prior year period. The increase in operating income was primarily due to increased revenues and lower cost of services as a percentage of revenues offset by a higher allocation of corporate selling, general and administrative costs as compared to the comparable prior year period.

Commercial

Commercial revenues of $8.4 million in 2009 decreased $1.8 million, or 17.7%, as compared to the comparable prior year period. The decrease in revenue was principally attributable to a weakening of the general economy and reduced demand for the Company's Commercial services, in particular, services provided by the Company's light industrial staffing unit. The Company's light industrial staffing unit primarily operates in Southern California and services mostly manufacturing and retail clients. The Company believes that the southern California region and its manufacturing and retail industries have been significantly impacted by negative economic trends. The Commercial segment had an operating loss of $0.0 million as compared to $0.4 million of operating income for the comparable prior year period. The decrease in operating income was primarily due to the decrease in revenues.

The Company follows a 52/53 week fiscal reporting calendar ending on the Saturday closest to December 31. The year to date reporting periods ended September 26, 2009 and September 27, 2008 consisted of thirty-nine weeks each.

Revenues. Revenues decreased 10.1%, or $15.7 million, for the thirty-nine week period ended September 26, 2009 as compared to the same period in the prior year (the "comparable prior year period"). Management expects revenues for the remainder of fiscal 2009 to remain generally consistent with the revenues for the thirty-nine week period ended September 26, 2009.

Cost of Services. Cost of services decreased 8.2%, or $9.4 million, for the thirty-nine week period ended September 26, 2009 as compared to the comparable prior year period. The decrease in cost of services was primarily due to the overall decrease in revenues. Cost of services as a percentage of revenues increased to 75.5% for the thirty-nine week period ended September 26, 2009 from 73.9% for the comparable prior year period. This increase was primarily due to increased unbilled labor costs for consultants (i.e., a decrease in utilization of billable resources) and softness in pricing in our Information Technology segment. Management anticipates the ratio of cost of sales to revenues for the remainder of fiscal 2009 to remain comparable to that in the thirteen week period ended September 26, 2009.

Selling, General and Administrative. Selling, general and administrative ("SGA") expenses decreased 4.7%, or $1.6 million, for the thirty-nine week period ended September 26, 2009 as compared to the comparable prior year period. The decrease in SGA expenses was primarily due to a reduction in selling costs (primarily commissions and salaries paid to salespersons) associated with an overall decrease in revenues offset by additional SGA expenses incurred in connection with three acquisitions subsequent to February 28, 2008. SGA expenses that were attributable to acquisitions which occurred in the Information Technology segment in 2008 and 2009 contributed $4.2 million in the thirty-nine week period ended September 26, 2009 as compared to $3.0 million in the comparable prior year period. As a percentage of revenues, SGA expenses were 23.4% for the thirty-nine week period ended September 26, 2009 as compared to 22.0% for the comparable prior year period. The increase as a percentage of revenues is primarily due to the overall decrease in revenues. Management expects SGA expenses for the remainder of fiscal 2009 to remain generally consistent with the SGA expenses for the thirteen week period ended September 26, 2009.

Bad Debt - Note Receivable. On February 26, 2008, the Company accepted a promissory note from a customer for $7.5 million in payment of a like amount of accounts receivable from that customer. The customer paid $1.2 million through April 30, 2008 at which point management of the Company concluded that the customer was going to default on its May 1, 2008 installment payment. During the thirteen week period ended March 29, 2008, the Company determined that the note receivable was not collectible and reserved for the note. During the thirty-nine week period ended September 27, 2008, the Company wrote-off the note receivable.

Depreciation and Amortization. Depreciation and amortization decreased 21.2%, or $0.3 million, for the thirty-nine week period ended September 26, 2009 as compared to the comparable prior year period.

Other Income (Expense). Other income (expense) consists of interest expense, net of interest income and gains and losses on foreign currency transactions and, in 2009, the proceeds from a legal settlement. The change in other income (expense) was primarily due to a $9.8 million legal settlement in 2009 (see footnote 14 to the consolidated financial statements).

Income Tax. Income tax expense was $4.0 million for the thirty-nine week period ended September 26, 2009 as compared to an income tax benefit of $0.7 million in the comparable prior year period. The change was principally attributable to an increase in income before taxes, which included a $9.8 million legal settlement in the thirty-nine week period ended September 26, 2009 and a $6.1 million bad debt expense on a note receivable for the comparable prior year period. The effective tax rate was 38.9% for the thirty-nine week period ended September 26, 2009 as compared to a credit of 53.7% in the comparable prior year period. The comparable prior year period effective tax rate was higher due to permanent GAAP to tax differences existing in the comparable prior year period.

Segment Discussion (See Footnote 13)

Information Technology

Information Technology revenues of $65.6 million in 2009 decreased $11.6 million, or 15.0%, as compared to the comparable prior year period. The decrease in revenue was primarily attributable to a weakening of the general economy offset by acquisitions in 2008 and 2009. The Company believes that reductions in capital spending in the Company's geographic markets have significantly reduced the demand for the Company's Information Technology services. Revenues that were attributable to acquisitions which occurred in the Information Technology segment in 2008 and 2009 contributed $16.9 million in the thirty-nine week period ended September 26, 2009 as compared to $15.1 million in the comparable prior year period. The Information Technology segment operating loss was $2.2 million as compared to operating income of $0.6 million for the comparable prior year period. The decrease in operating income was primarily due to decreased revenue and increased unbilled labor costs for consultants.

Engineering

Engineering revenues of $45.7 million in 2009 increased $2.9 million, or 6.7%, as compared to the comparable prior year period. The increase in revenue was primarily attributable to increases in revenues from several major customers as compared to the comparable prior year period. The Engineering segment operating income was $2.0 million as compared to an operating loss of $4.0 million for the comparable prior year period. The comparable prior year period operating income was $2.1 million before bad debt-note receivable. The decrease in operating income before bad debt-note receivable was primarily due to a higher allocation of corporate selling, general and administrative costs as compared to the comparable prior year period.

Commercial

Commercial revenues of $28.7 million in 2009 decreased $7.0 million, or 19.6%, as compared to the comparable prior year period. The decrease in revenue was principally attributable to a weakening of the general economy and reduced demand for the Company's Commercial services, in particular, services provided by the Company's light industrial staffing unit. The Company's light industrial staffing unit primarily operates in Southern California and services mostly manufacturing and retail clients. The Company believes that the southern California region and its manufacturing and retail industries have been significantly impacted by negative economic trends. The Commercial segment operating income was $0.7 million as compared to $2.2 million for the comparable prior year period. The decrease in operating income was primarily due to the decrease in revenues.

The following table summarizes the major captions from the Company's Consolidated Statements of Cash Flows (in thousands):

	Thirty-Nine Week Periods Ended
	September 26, 2009	September 27, 2008
Cash provided by (used for):
Operating Activities	$16,657	($7,971)
Investing Activities	($1,422)	($9,315)
Financing Activities	($4,817)	$9,156

Operating Activities

Operating activities provided $16.7 million of cash for the thirty-nine week period ended September 26, 2009 as compared to using $8.0 million in the comparable prior year period. The change in cash provided by (used in) operating activities in 2009 was primarily attributable to net income of $6.2 million, decreases in accounts receivable and deferred income tax assets, offset by decreases in accounts payable and accrued expenses and accrued payroll and related costs. Net income increased primarily due to a legal settlement of $9.8 million in the thirteen week period ended March 28, 2009. Accounts receivable decreased primarily due to decreases in revenues and additionally from an increased focus by the Company to collect outstanding accounts receivable faster.

Investing Activities

Investing activities used $1.4 million for the thirty-nine week period ended September 26, 2009 as compared to $9.3 million for the comparable prior year period. The decrease in the use of cash for investing activities for 2009 as compared to the comparable 2008 period was primarily attributable to decreased expenditures for acquisitions and property and equipment. The Company made one acquisition in fiscal 2009 and two acquisitions in 2008 (See Footnote 5).

Financing Activities

In 2009, financing activities consisted of reducing debt by $4.9 million. In 2008, financing activities principally consisted of borrowing $9.1 million from the line of credit to finance acquisitions (See footnote 5 to the financial statements) and the balance was used to fund working capital requirements.

The Company and its subsidiaries are party to a loan agreement with Citizens Bank of Pennsylvania, amended and restated effective February 20, 2009, which provides for a $15 million revolving credit facility and includes a sub-limit of $5.0 million for letters of credit (the "Revolving Credit Facility"). Borrowings under the Revolving Credit Facility bear interest at one of two alternative rates, as selected by the Company at each incremental borrowing. These alternatives are: (i) LIBOR (London Interbank Offered Rate), plus applicable margin, or (ii) the agent bank's prime rate. The Company also pays unused line fees based on the amount of the Revolving Credit Facility that is not drawn.

All borrowings under the Revolving Credit Facility are collateralized by all of the assets of the Company and its subsidiaries and a pledge of the stock of its subsidiaries. The Revolving Credit Facility also contains various financial and non-financial covenants, such as restrictions on the Company's ability to pay dividends. The Revolving Credit Facility expires in August 2011.

The weighted average interest rates under the Revolving Credit Facility for the thirty-nine week periods ended September 26, 2009 and September 27, 2008 were 2.2% and 3.91%, respectively. The majority of borrowings in 2009 and 2008 were subject to alternative (i) LIBOR (London Interbank Offered Rate), plus applicable margin on contracts of 30 days or more. During the thirty-nine week periods ended September 26, 2009 and September 27, 2008, the Company's outstanding borrowings ranged from $0- to $4.9 million and $0- million to $10.5 million, respectively. At September 26, 2009 and December 27, 2008, there were borrowings of $0 million and $4.9 outstanding under this facility, respectively. At September 26, 2009 and December 27, 2008, there were letters of credit outstanding for $1.6 million. At September 26, 2009, the Company had availability for additional borrowings under the Revolving Credit Facility of $13.4 million.

The Company anticipates that its primary uses of capital in future periods will be for working capital purposes. Funding for any long-term and short-term capital requirements as well as future acquisitions will be derived from one or more of the Revolving Credit Facility, funds generated through operations or future financing transactions. The Company is subject to legal proceedings and claims that arise from time to time in the ordinary course of its business, which may or may not be covered by insurance. Were an unfavorable final outcome to occur, there exists the possibility of a material adverse impact on our financial position, liquidity, and the results of operations for the period in which the effect becomes reasonably estimable.

The Company's business strategy is to achieve growth both internally through operations and externally through strategic acquisitions. The Company from time to time engages in discussions with potential acquisition candidates. As the size of the Company and its financial resources increase however, acquisition opportunities requiring significant commitments of capital may arise. In order to pursue such opportunities, the Company may be required to incur debt or issue potentially dilutive securities in the future. No assurance can be given as to the Company's future acquisition and expansion opportunities or how such opportunities will be financed.

The Company does not currently have material commitments for capital expenditures and does not currently anticipate entering into any such commitments during the next 12 months. The Company's current commitments consist primarily of lease obligations for office space. The Company believes that its capital resources are sufficient to meet its present obligations and those to be incurred in the normal course of business for the next 12 months.

As of September 26, 2009, the Company had total long term net deferred income tax assets of $3.7 million, primarily representing the tax effect of temporary differences for the GAAP versus tax amortization of acquisitions made in prior periods.

Summarized below are the Company's obligations and commitments to make future payments under lease agreements and debt obligations as of September 26, 2009 (in thousands):

Payments Due by Period

The Company has three active acquisition agreements whereby future contingent consideration may be earned and paid (NuSoft, MBH and PSG as described in Footnote 5). In connection with these acquisitions, the Company may be obligated to pay contingent consideration to the sellers provided that the acquired businesses achieve certain earnings targets over periods ranging from two to four years following the acquisition. In general, the contingent consideration amounts fall into two categories: (a) Deferred Consideration - fixed amounts due if the acquisition achieves a base level of earnings which has been determined at the time of acquisition and (b) Earnouts – amounts payable that are not fixed and are based on the growth in excess of the base level earnings.

The Company's outstanding Deferred Consideration obligations potentially due after September 26, 2009, which relate to these three acquisitions, could result in the following maximum payments:

Year Ending	Amount
January 1, 2011	$2,800
December 31, 2011	1,650
Thereafter	850
Maximum deferred consideration	$5,300

The Company cannot estimate the Deferred Consideration payments for the years after January 2, 2010 with any certainty. Earnouts, if any, cannot be estimated with any certainty.

ITEM 3. QUANTITATIVE AND QUALITATIVE DISCLOSURES ABOUT MARKET RISK

The Company's exposure to market risk for changes in interest rates relates primarily to the Company's investment portfolio and debt instruments, which primarily consist of its Revolving Credit Facility. The Company does not have any derivative financial instruments in its portfolio. The Company places its investments in instruments that meet high credit quality standards. The Company is adverse to principal loss and ensures the safety and preservation of its invested funds by limiting default risk, market risk and reinvestment risk. As of September 26, 2009, the Company's investments consisted of cash and money market funds. The Company does not use interest rate derivative instruments to manage its exposure to interest rate changes. Presently the impact of a 1.0% (100 basis points) increase in interest rates on its variable debt (using an incremental borrowing rate) would have a relatively nominal impact on the Company's results of operations. The Company does not expect any material loss with respect to its investment portfolio.

ITEM 4. CONTROLS AND PROCEDURES

The Company's management, under the supervision and with the participation of the Company's Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer, evaluated the effectiveness of the Company's disclosure controls and procedures (as defined in Rule 13a-15(e) and 15d-15(e) under the Exchange Act) as of the end of the period covered by this report. Based upon that evaluation, the Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer concluded that those disclosure controls and procedures as of the end of the period covered by this report were functioning effectively to provide reasonable assurance that information required to be disclosed by the Company in the reports that it files or submits under the Exchange Act is recorded, processed, summarized and reported within the time periods specified in the SEC's rules and forms and is accumulated and communicated to the Company's management, including its principal executive and principal financial officers, or persons performing similar functions, as appropriate, to allow timely decisions regarding required disclosure.

A controls system, no matter how well designed and operated, cannot provide absolute assurance that the objectives of the controls system are met, and no evaluation of controls can provide absolute assurance that all control issues and instances of fraud, if any, within a company have been detected.

There have been no changes in the Company's internal control over financial reporting that occurred during the Company's most recent fiscal quarter and that have materially affected, or are reasonably likely to materially affect, the Company's internal control over financial reporting.
