INFORMATION TO BE INCLUDED IN THE REPORT

Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement

Merger Agreement

On May 7, 2014, Valley National Bancorp (the “Valley”) entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger (the “Merger Agreement”) with 1st United Bancorp, Inc. (“1st United”), providing for the merger of 1st United with and into Valley, with Valley as the surviving entity (the “Merger”). Immediately following the Merger, 1st United Bank, a Florida state-chartered commercial bank and wholly-owned subsidiary of 1st United, will merge with and into Valley National Bank, a national banking association and wholly-owned subsidiary of Valley, with Valley National Bank surviving the merger.

Subject to the terms and conditions of the Merger Agreement, upon consummation of the Merger, each share of common stock of 1st United will be converted into 0.89 of a share of Valley common stock, subject to adjustment in the event the average price of Valley’s common stock falls below $8.09 or rises above $12.13 prior to the closing of the Merger and subject to the payment of cash in lieu of fractional shares. In the event Valley’s average share price during the 20 business day period ending 5 days prior to closing (the “Average Closing Price”) is less than $8.09, then Valley will increase the 0.89 exchange ratio (or, in lieu of such increase, make a cash payment to 1st United shareholders) so that 1st United shareholders receive $7.20 in Valley common stock for each 1st United share they hold. In the event the Average Closing Price is greater than $12.13, then Valley will decrease the 0.89 exchange ratio so that 1st United shareholders receive $10.80 in Valley common stock for each 1st United share they hold. In addition, outstanding 1st United stock options will be converted into the right to receive a cash payment from 1st United immediately prior to the effective time of the Merger equal to the product of the number of shares underlying the 1st United stock options multiplied by the excess, if any, of the Average Closing Price over the exercise price of the 1st United stock options, multiplied by the exchange ratio. Each outstanding share of Valley common stock will remain outstanding and be unaffected by the Merger.

The Merger Agreement contains representations, warranties, and covenants of Valley and 1st United, including, among others, a covenant that requires (i) each of Valley and 1st United to conduct its business in the ordinary course and consistent with past banking practice during the period between the execution of the Merger Agreement and consummation of the Merger and (ii) 1st United to not engage in certain kinds of transactions during such period (without the prior written consent of Valley). 1st United has also agreed, subject to certain exceptions generally related to the Board’s evaluation and exercise of its fiduciary duties, to not (i) solicit proposals relating to alternative business combination transactions or (ii) enter into discussions or negotiations or provide confidential information in connection with any proposals for alternative business combination transactions. Valley has also agreed, as a condition to closing the Merger, to seek shareholder approval of an amendment to Valley’s Restated Certificate of Incorporation to increase the number of shares of authorized common stock.

The Merger Agreement provides certain termination rights for both Valley and 1st United, and further provides that upon termination of the Merger Agreement under certain circumstances, 1st United will be obligated to pay Valley a termination fee of $14.5 million, plus Valley’s reasonable out of pocket expenses up to $750,000.

Completion of the Merger is subject to various conditions, including (i) receipt of the requisite approval of the Merger by shareholders of 1st United, (ii) receipt of the requisite approval of the amendment to Valley’s Restated Certificate of Incorporation to increase the number of shares of authorized Valley common stock by shareholders of Valley, (iii) receipt of regulatory approvals, (iv) the absence of any law or order prohibiting the closing and (v) effectiveness of the registration statement to be filed by Valley with respect to the stock to be issued in the Merger. Completion of the Merger is also subject to receipt by Valley of written consents from the FDIC for the assignment of the shared-loss agreements between 1st United and the FDIC. In addition, each party's obligation to consummate the Merger is subject to certain other conditions, including the accuracy of the representations and warranties of the other party and compliance of the other party with its covenants in all material respects.

The Merger Agreement also contains representations and warranties that the parties have made to each other as of specific dates. Except for its status as a contractual document that establishes and governs the legal relations among the parties with respect to the Merger described therein, the Merger Agreement is not intended to be a source of factual, business or operational information about the parties. The representations and warranties contained in the Merger Agreement were made only for purposes of that agreement and as of specific dates, may be subject to a contractual standard of materiality different from what a shareholder might view as material, may have been used for purposes of allocating risk between the respective parties rather than establishing matters as facts, may have been qualified by certain disclosures not reflected in the Merger Agreement that were made to the other party in connection with the negotiation of the Merger Agreement and generally were solely for the benefit of the parties to that agreement. Shareholders should read the Merger Agreement together with the other information concerning Valley and 1st United that each company publicly files in reports and statements with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC").

The foregoing description of the Merger Agreement is not complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the Merger Agreement, which is filed as Exhibit 2.1 hereto and is incorporated by reference herein.

Employment Agreement

As provided in the Merger Agreement, Valley and Valley National Bank have entered into an employment agreement with Rudy Schupp, Chief Executive Officer of 1st United (the "Employment Agreement"), that will become effective as of the date of the closing of the Merger and continue until the third anniversary of the date of the closing of the Merger, subject to early termination as provided in the Employment Agreement. During such term of employment, Mr. Schupp shall be the Executive Vice President and President of the Florida division of Valley National Bank and earn an annual base salary of $340,000, which is subject to annual review by the Compensation Committee (the "Compensation Committee") of the Board of Directors of Valley (the "Board"). Mr. Schupp will be eligible to receive an annual cash bonus, equity awards under Valley's equity compensation plans and other customary benefits and perquisites which are offered to similarly situated executive officers of Valley.

In the event Mr. Schupp's employment is terminated by Valley National Bank without Cause (as defined in the Employment Agreement) or by Mr. Schupp for Good Reason (as defined in the Employment Agreement), subject to his compliance with certain sections of the Employment Agreement related to cooperation, confidentiality, restrictive covenants and non-disparagement, Mr. Schupp will be entitled to receive his base salary for the greater of (i) twelve (12) months from the date of termination or (ii) the remaining term of the Employment Agreement; provided, however, that if the termination without Cause or for Good Reason occurs within one (1) year of a change in control of Valley or Valley National Bank, Mr. Schupp will instead be entitled to receive his base salary for the greater of (i) twenty-four (24) months from the date of termination or (ii) the remaining term of the Employment Agreement.

The foregoing description of the Employment Agreement is not complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the Employment Agreement, which is filed as Exhibit 10.1 hereto and is incorporated by reference herein.
