Within five Business Days of the Offer Trigger Date, the Corporation shall mail a notice to each Holder of Series A Notes and to the Trustee, or shall cause the Trustee to mail a notice to each Holder of Series A Notes, stating:

- (vi) that any Holder will be entitled to withdraw such election if the Trustee receives, not later than the close of business on the third Business Day preceding the Purchase Date, a facsimile transmission or letter setting forth the name of the Holder, the principal amount of Series A Notes the Holder delivered for repurchase and a statement that such Holder is withdrawing the Holder's election to have such Series A Notes repurchased;

Upon surrender of a Series A Note that is tendered in part, the Corporation shall issue and the Trustee shall authenticate a new Series A Note equal in principal amount to the untendered portion of the surrendered Series A Note.

In the event the Corporation fails to make an offer as and when required pursuant to this Section 3.03, then such failure shall be deemed to constitute an Event of Default under the Trust Indenture and, notwithstanding any provision of the Trust Indenture, no waiver of such Event of Default shall be effective with respect to the Series A Notes unless approved by the Holders of all the outstanding Series A Notes.

Subject to Section 10.05 of the Trust Indenture, the Corporation (and its subsidiaries and controlled partnerships or other entities) shall have the right to grant security interests on, or otherwise encumber, the shares of Bell Canada (and the securities of any subsidiary, partnership or entity that holds shares of Bell Canada) held by them, directly or indirectly, including voting shares, and no Bell Canada Disposition Transaction shall be deemed to occur unless and until an actual transfer of voting shares of Bell Canada (or an actual transfer of equity securities of such subsidiaries, partnerships or other entities) is effected in connection with a realization on such security interests or other encumbrances in such a percentage as to constitute a Bell Canada Disposition Transaction.

Nothing in the provisions of this Section 3.03 shall prevent or in any way restrict any combination of the Corporation with any of its direct or indirect wholly-owned subsidiaries by any method whatsoever, including without limitation by way of amalgamation, winding-up, merger, transfer of assets or plan of arrangement, and no consent of any Securityholder shall be required in respect of such transaction.
