PART II - RULES 12b-25(b) AND (c)

Edgar Filing: NL INDUSTRIES INC - Form NT 11-K

If the subject report could not be filed without unreasonable effort or expense and the registrant seeks relief pursuant to Rule 12b-25(b), the following should be completed.

- (a) The reasons described in reasonable detail in Part III of this form could not be eliminated without unreasonable effort or expense;
- (b) The subject annual report, semi-annual report, transition report on Form 10-K, Form 20-F, 11-K or Form N-SAR, or portion thereof, will be filed on or before the fifteenth calendar day following the prescribed due date; or the subject quarterly report or transition report on Form 10-Q, or portion thereof, will be filed on or before the fifth calendar day following the prescribed due date; and
- (c) The accountant's statement or other exhibit required by Rule 12b-25(c) has been attached, if applicable.

PART III - NARRATIVE

State below in reasonable detail the reasons why Forms 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, N-SAR, or the transition report or portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed period:

The Form 11-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2003 covering the Plan, to be filed under Form 10-K/A of NL's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2003 as Exhibit No. 99.1, could not be filed within the prescribed period without unreasonable effort or expense.

(2) Have all other periodic reports required under Section 13 or 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 or Section 30 of the Investment Company Act of 1940 during the preceding 12 months or for such shorter period that the Registrant was required to file such report(s) been filed? If the answer is no, identify report(s).

Yes No

(3) Is it anticipated that any significant change in results of operations from the corresponding period for the last fiscal year will be reflected by the earnings statements to be included in the subject report or portion thereof?

Yes No

Edgar Filing: NL INDUSTRIES INC - Form NT 11-K

If so, attach an explanation of the anticipated change, both narratively and quantitatively, and, if appropriate, state the reasons why a reasonable estimate of the results cannot be made.

The Plan expects to report a net increase in net assets available for benefits of approximately $2.9 million for 2003.

As provided by the safe harbor provisions of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995, NL cautions that statements in this Form 12b-25 relating to matters that are not historical facts including, but not limited to, statements found in this Part IV - "Other Information," are forward-looking statements that represent management's beliefs and assumptions based on currently available information. Forward-looking statements can be identified by the use of words such as "believes," "intends," "may," "will," "should," "could," "anticipates," "expects," or comparable terminology or by discussions of strategy or trends. Although NL believes that the expectations reflected in such forward-looking statements are reasonable, it cannot give any assurances that these expectations will prove to be correct. Such statements by their nature involve risks and uncertainties. Should one or more of these risks materialize (or the consequences of such a development worsen), or should the underlying assumptions prove incorrect, actual results could differ materially from those forecasted or expected. NL disclaims any intention or obligation to update publicly or revise such statements whether as a result of new information, future events or otherwise.

NL Industries, Inc. has caused this notification to be signed on its behalf by the undersigned thereunto duly authorized.
