On January 7, 2019, Glowpoint, Inc. (the “Company”) issued a press release (the “Press Release”) announcing that, pursuant to correspondence with the NYSE American LLC (the “NYSE”), the NYSE has granted the Company an additional time period to the date of the Company’s annual meeting in May 2019 to regain compliance with the continued listing standards as set forth in Section 1003(f)(v) of the NYSE American Company Guide (the “Company Guide”).

In the interim, the Company’s common stock will continue to be listed on the NYSE, subject to the Company’s compliance with other continued listing requirements, and will continue to trade under the symbol “GLOW,” with the added designation of “.BC” to indicate that the Company is not in compliance with the NYSE’s listing standards. The NYSE also publishes a list of noncompliant issuers and displays the .BC indicator on its website. Forward Looking and Cautionary Statements

This report contains forward-looking statements as defined under Section 27A of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, and Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, and are made under the safe harbor provisions of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. All statements, other than statements of historical facts, that address activities that Glowpoint or SharedLabs assumes, plans, expects, believes, intends, projects, estimates or anticipates (and other similar expressions) will, could, should or may occur in the future are forward-looking statements. Glowpoint's and SharedLabs' actual results may differ materially from their expectations, estimates and projections, and consequently you should not rely on these forward-looking statements as predictions of future events. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, forward-looking statements contained in this report include statements regarding Glowpoint's intention to regain compliance with the NYSE American's listing standards, to retain its listing on the Exchange and to receive approval from the NYSE American for the initial listing of the post-merger entity, Glowpoint's and SharedLabs' intention to complete a merger of such companies, the satisfaction of the closing conditions to the merger, and the timing or success of the completion of the merger. The forward-looking statements in this report are based on management's current belief, based on currently available information, as to the outcome and timing of future events, and involve significant factors, risks, and uncertainties that may cause actual results in future periods to differ materially from such statements. Most of these factors are outside of the control of Glowpoint or SharedLabs and are difficult to predict, and include, among other things, (1) the ability of Glowpoint, prior to the merger, and the post-merger entity, after completion of the merger, to comply with continued listing requirements in order to maintain its listing status on the NYSE; (2) the occurrence of any event, change or other circumstances that could cause the termination of the definitive merger agreement; (3) the outcome of any legal proceedings that may be instituted against Glowpoint or SharedLabs following this announcement and the pursuit of the merger contemplated by the definitive merger agreement; (4) the inability to effect the reverse stock split or complete the merger, including due to failure to obtain approval of the shareholders of Glowpoint or SharedLabs or, in the case of the merger, failure to satisfy any other conditions to closing included in the definitive merger agreement; (5) risks related to SharedLabs' equity and debt financing conditions to closing; (6) the risk that the pursuit or execution of the business combination will disrupt current plans and operations as a result of the announcement and consummation of the business combination; (7) the ability to recognize the anticipated benefits of the merger, which may be affected by, among other things, competition and the ability of the combined company to grow and manage growth profitably and retain its key employees; (8) costs related to the negotiation and consummation of the business combination; (9) risks related to the disruption of the transaction to the parties and their management; (10) the effect of the announcement of the definitive merger agreement on the parties' ability to retain and hire key personnel and maintain relationships with customers, suppliers and other third parties; and (11) other risks and uncertainties identified in Glowpoint's and SharedLabs' filings with the SEC, including in Glowpoint's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ending December 31, 2017 and in other filings made by Glowpoint with the SEC from time to time, including Glowpoint's Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the three months ended September 30, 2018, and including in SharedLabs' Form S-1 Registration Statement filed May 15, 2018 (File No. 333-224954) (including all amendments thereto) and in other filings made by SharedLabs with the SEC from time to time. The foregoing list of factors is not exclusive. Glowpoint and SharedLabs caution readers not to place undue reliance upon any forward-looking statements, which speak only as of the date made. Any of these factors could cause Glowpoint's and SharedLabs' actual results and plans to differ materially from those in the forward-looking statements. Therefore, Glowpoint and SharedLabs can give no assurance that their future results will be as estimated. Glowpoint and SharedLabs do not intend to, and disclaim any obligation to, correct, update or revise any information contained herein to reflect any change in expectations or any change in events, conditions or circumstances on which any such statement is based, other than as required by applicable law.
