Section 2 - Financial Information

Item 2.04. Triggering Events that Accelerate or Increase a Direct Financial Obligation or an Obligation under an Off-Balance Sheet Arrangement

Seitel, Inc. (the "Company") believes in good faith that not all conditions to occurrence of a triggering event under this Item 2.04 have occurred in connection with the excess cash flow offer reported below under Item 8.01. The Company's payment obligations under the indenture for its 11.75% Senior Notes due 2011 (the "Note(s)"), entered into with LaSalle Bank National Association as of July 2, 2004 (the "Indenture"), shall not change unless and until a Note holder elects to participate in the excess cash flow offer, properly tenders and does not thereafter withdraw its Note(s) before the expiration of the excess cash flow offer.

Section 8 - Other Events

Item 8.01. Other Events

On March 16, 2006, the Company issued a press release announcing its offer to purchase up to $8,513,000 principal amount of the Notes. The Company is required by the terms of the Indenture to make this offer because the Company generated excess cash flow (as defined in the Indenture) for the year ended 2005. The offer expires at 5:00 p.m., New York City time, on Monday, April 17, 2006. Payment for any Notes that are properly tendered, not thereafter withdrawn, and accepted for purchase is expected to occur on April 20, 2006. The press release is attached hereto as Exhibit 99.1 and is incorporated herein by reference.

The press release includes a non-GAAP financial measure, excess cash flow, and a related reconciliation to income from operations, the most directly comparable GAAP measure. The terms of the Indenture define excess cash flow and further utilize this financial measure to determine if, when and to what extent a purchase offer must be made to holders of the Notes. The Company's management believes disclosure of the excess cash flow measure is useful information because it provides an understanding of why the purchase offer has been made and how the amount of the purchase offer was determined.
