Signalife, Inc. ( we , our company or Signalife ) files this report on Form 8-K to report the following transactions or events:

Section 5 Corporate Governance and Management

Item 5.02.

Departure of Directors or Certain Principal Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Principal Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Principal Officers

On October 7, 2008, Dr. Jay Johnson resigned as a director of Signalife. Dr. Johnson stated that his decision to resign was based upon his inability to devote sufficient time and energy to Signalife's affairs in view of substantially increased demands on his time and energy arising from his growing private practice.

On October 15, 2008, Signalife appointed Mr. Willie Gault, a director, as Co-Chief Executive Officer in charge of Operations, with responsibilities of raising money, handling hospital and physician sales in coordination with other company management, and supervising operations in a manner commensurate with industry standards for the CEO of a public company. Mr. Rowland Perkins, in turn, would remain as Co-Chief Executive Officer in charge of Administration. As compensation for his services, Mr. Gault would be paid $1 per year over a two-year term unless and until the Company is profitable at which point the Board may adjust his compensation in its discretion.

On October 29, 2008, Signalife removed Mr. Lee Ehrlichman as its President and Chief Operations Officer on the basis, inter alia, of his failure to perform in selling the company's products notwithstanding Mr. Ehrlichman's belief that he should be paid monies although he had not in the Company's mind even attempted to do so while making an already large sum of nearly $200,000. On October 28, 2008, Mr. Ehrlichman claimed that Signalife was in default in its obligations in paying Mr. Ehrlichman's salary and benefits under his employment agreement, and also claimed that Signalife misrepresented the company's financial ability to pay salary and benefits when the employment agreement was entered into. Signalife denies any misrepresentation, and asserts that Mr. Ehrlichman misrepresented his ability to generate sale when the employment agreement was entered into, and claims that the employment agreement was void ab initio. Pursuant to the terms of Mr. Ehrlichman's employment agreement, Mr. Ehrlichman's status as a director automatically terminated on October 29, 2008 as a consequence of his termination as an executive officer.

Upon Mr. Ehrlichman's termination as its President and Chief Operations Officer referenced above, Mr. Gault also assumed the role of President of the Company pursuant to appointment by co-Chief Executive Officer Rowland Perkins, and also at a salary of $1 per year until actual performance is achieved.
