Item 5.04. Temporary Suspension of Trading Under Registrant's Employee Benefit Plans.

On August 19, 2015, The AES Corporation ("AES" or the "Company") received notice from The AES Corporation Retirement Savings Plan (the "Plan") informing it that the Plan is changing its record-keeper to T. Rowe Price. The notice stated that, as a result of this change, participants in the Plan will not be able to request loans, hardship withdrawals, or distributions from the Plan, or to direct or diversify investments in their individual Plan accounts, including purchasing, selling or otherwise acquiring or transferring any AES common stock, par value $0.01 per share ("AES Common Stock"), during a period that is expected to begin during the calendar week of September 20, 2015 and to end during the calendar week beginning October 11, 2015. This period is referred to as the "Blackout Period." The class of equity securities subject to the Blackout Period is the AES Common Stock.

On August 20, 2015, the Company sent notice to its directors and executive officers (the "Notice") informing them that during the Blackout Period, pursuant to Section 306(a) of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002 and the Securities and Exchange Commission's rules and regulations promulgated thereunder, they would generally be prohibited from purchasing and selling shares of AES Common Stock (including derivative securities pertaining to such shares) on the open market or otherwise during the Blackout Period.

The Notice is attached hereto as Exhibit 99.1 and is incorporated herein by reference. The Company provided such Notice to its directors and executive officers within five (5) business days of August 19, 2015, which is the date the notices were mailed to Plan participants and the date that the Company was notified by the Plan administrator pursuant to Section 101(i)(2)(E) of the Employment Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 of the Blackout Period. During the Blackout Period and for a period of two years thereafter, a participant in the Plan, a security holder or other interested person may obtain, without charge, information regarding the Blackout Period, including the actual beginning and ending dates of the Blackout Period, by writing Zafar A. Hasan, Vice President and Chief Corporate Counsel at 4300 Wilson Boulevard, Arlington, Virginia 22203 or by contacting him via telephone at (703) 522-1315.
