PROSPECTUS SUMMARY

References to “we,” “our,” “ours” and “us” refer to Perfumania Holdings, Inc. and its subsidiaries.

This prospectus relates to the resale, from time to time, of up to 5,718,972 shares of our common stock by the selling stockholders identified in this prospectus (collectively the “Selling Stockholders”) under the section titled “Selling Stockholders.” The Selling Stockholders may sell, transfer or otherwise dispose of their shares of common stock subject to the restrictions described under “Plan of Distribution.”

This prospectus is part of a registration statement that we filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission (“SEC”). We may add, update or change certain information included in this prospectus by means of a prospectus supplement. You should rely only on the information that we have provided or incorporated by reference in this prospectus or any prospectus supplement. We have not authorized anyone to provide you with information different from that contained in this prospectus. No dealer, salesperson or other person is authorized to give any information or to represent anything not contained in this prospectus. This prospectus is an offer to resell only the securities offered hereby, but only under circumstances and in jurisdictions where it is lawful to do so. You should assume that the information in this prospectus or any prospectus supplement is accurate only as of the date on the front of the document and that any information we have incorporated by reference is accurate only as of the date of the document incorporated by reference, regardless of the time of delivery of this prospectus or any sale of a security. You should read both this prospectus and any prospectus supplement together with the additional information described under “Where You Can Find More Information” and “Incorporation of Certain Information by Reference.”

Perfumania Holdings, Inc.

Perfumania Holdings, Inc. and subsidiaries (the “Company”) is an independent, national, vertically integrated manufacturer, wholesale distributor and specialty retailer of perfumes and fragrances that does business through six primary operating subsidiaries, Perfumania, Inc. (“Perfumania”), Quality King Fragrance, Inc. (“Quality King”), Scents of Worth, Inc., Perfumania.com, Inc., Five Star Fragrance Company, Inc. and Parlux Fragrances, LLC. We operate in three industry segments: designing and manufacturing, wholesale distribution and specialty retail sales of designer fragrance and related products.

Our executive offices are located at 35 Sawgrass Drive, Suite 2, Bellport, NY 11713 and our telephone number is (631) 866-4100.

RISK FACTORS

You should consider the following risk factors, in addition to the other information presented in this prospectus and the documents incorporated by reference into this prospectus, in evaluating us, our business and an investment in our common stock. Any of the following risks, as well as other risks and uncertainties not presently known to us or that we currently deem immaterial, could seriously harm our business and financial results and cause the value of our common stock to decline, which in turn could cause you to lose all or part of your investment.

We may not realize the benefits of integrating our Parlux acquisition

To be successful after our recent merger with Parlux Fragrances, Inc. (now our subsidiary, Parlux Fragrances, LLC, which we refer to in this prospectus as “Parlux”), we will need to combine and integrate the operations of Perfumania and Parlux into one company. Integration will require substantial management attention and could detract attention from day-to-day business. We could encounter difficulties in the integration process, such as the need to revisit assumptions about reserves, future production, revenues, capital expenditures and operating costs, including synergies, the loss of key employees or commercial relationships or the need to address unanticipated liabilities. If we cannot integrate Perfumania and Parlux businesses successfully, we may fail to realize the expected benefits of the merger. We are more leveraged following the Parlux merger than we have been historically

In order to complete our acquisition of Parlux, we incurred an additional $65.5 million of debt. Borrowings under the amended credit facility and our subordinated debt now total approximately $173.6 million. We and our subsidiaries must comply with various restrictive covenants in our credit facility. Among other things, these covenants limit our ability to:

- pay dividends;
- make distributions; and
- take other actions, such as making advances to suppliers.

Our substantial debt could have important consequences such as:

- increasing our vulnerability to general adverse economic and industry conditions;
- limit our ability to fund future working capital and capital expenditures, engage in future acquisitions or development activities, or otherwise fully realize the value of our assets and opportunities because of the need to dedicate a substantial portion of our cash flow from operations to payments on the debt or to comply with any restrictive terms of the debt;
- limit our flexibility in planning for, or reacting to, changes in our industry; or
- place us at a competitive disadvantage as compared to competitors that have less debt.

Realization of any of these factors could adversely affect Perfumania’s financial condition.

We may experience impairment of the goodwill or value of long-lived assets that resulted from the Parlux merger

In connection with the Parlux merger, we recorded a substantial amount of goodwill in our financial statements and also acquired long-lived assets resulting from the acquisition or development of license brands and sublicensing opportunities. Both goodwill and the value of these long-lived assets can become impaired, as indicated by factors such as changes in our stock price, book value or market capitalization, and the past and anticipated operating performance and cash flows of our retail and wholesale segments. We test for impairment regularly, but the fair value estimates involved require a significant amount of difficult judgment and assumptions by management. Our actual results may differ materially from our projections, which may result in the need to recognize impairment of some or all of the goodwill we recorded and/or to write down the value of our long-lived assets, including brand licenses and trademarks.

We could face liquidity and working capital constraints if we are unable to generate sufficient cash flows from operations

If we are unable to generate sufficient cash flows from operations to service our obligations, we could face liquidity and working capital constraints, which could adversely impact our future operations and growth. If we need to raise additional funds to support our operations, we may not be able to do so on favorable terms, or at all. Without such funding, we may need to modify or abandon our growth strategy or eliminate product offerings, any of which could negatively impact our financial position.

We may have problems raising money needed in the future, which could adversely impact operations or existing stockholders

Our growth strategy includes selectively opening and operating new Perfumania retail locations and increasing the average retail sales per store. We may need to obtain funding to achieve our growth strategy. In part due to our existing debt, additional financing may not be available on acceptable terms, if at all, which would adversely affect our operations. In order to obtain additional liquidity, we might issue additional common stock which could dilute our existing shareholders' ownership interest or we may be required to issue securities with greater rights than those currently possessed by holders of our common stock. We may also be required to take other actions, which may lessen the value of our common stock, including borrowing money on terms that are not favorable.

The beauty industry is highly competitive and if we cannot effectively compete our business and results of operations will suffer

The beauty industry is highly competitive and can change rapidly due to consumer preferences and industry trends. Some of our competitors sell fragrances at discount prices and some are part of large national or regional chains that have substantially greater resources and name recognition than Perfumania. Perfumania's stores compete on the basis of selling price, customer service, merchandise variety and store location. Many of our current and potential competitors have greater financial, technical, operational, and marketing resources. We may not be able to compete successfully against these competitors in developing our products and services. These factors, as well as demographic trends, economic conditions and discount pricing strategies by competitors, could result in increased competition and could have a material adverse effect on our profitability, operating cash flow, and many other aspects of our business, prospects, results of operations and financial condition.

If we are unable to acquire or license additional brands, our business may not grow as we expect

Our business strategy contemplates growing our portfolio of licensed brands. We may be unsuccessful in identifying, negotiating, financing and consummating desirable licensing arrangements on commercially acceptable terms, or at all, which could hinder our ability to increase revenues. Additionally, even if we are able to consummate such licensing arrangements, we may not be able to successfully integrate them with our existing operations and portfolio of licenses or generate the expected levels of increased revenue as a result.

Any new product we develop may not generate sufficient consumer interest and sales to become a profitable brand or even to cover the costs of its development and subsequent promotions

Our success with new fragrance products depends on our products' appeal to a broad range of consumers, whose preferences are subject to change, and on our ability to anticipate and respond to market trends through product innovation. In addition, a number of the new launches are with celebrities (either entertainers or athletes) who require substantial royalty commitments and whose careers and/or public appeal could change dramatically, either positively or negatively with no warning. If any of our new product introductions is unsuccessful, or if the appeal of the celebrity related to a product diminishes, it could materially hurt our results of operations.

Our retail business is sensitive to and may be adversely affected by general economic conditions and overall consumer confidence

Our business is sensitive to a number of factors that influence the levels of consumer spending, including political and economic conditions such as recessionary environments, the levels of disposable consumer income, consumer debt, interest rates, fuel and energy prices, the level of unemployment and consumer confidence. During periods of economic uncertainty where consumer confidence is affected, consumer spending levels and customer traffic could decline, which would have an adverse effect on our business and our results of operations.

Adverse U.S. and global economic conditions could affect our wholesale business

A U.S. or global economic downturn could reduce the availability of credit for businesses. Some of our customers could experience a decline in financial performance. These conditions affect their ability to pay amounts owed to us on a timely basis or at all. There can be no assurance that government responses to potential economic disruptions would increase liquidity and the availability of credit, and as a result, our wholesale customers may be unable to borrow funds on acceptable terms. Any economic decline affecting our customers would adversely affect our business and results of operations.

If Perfumania cannot successfully manage its growth, our business will be adversely affected

We may not be able to sustain growth in revenues. Perfumania's growth has been somewhat dependent upon opening and operating new retail stores on a profitable basis, which in turn is subject to, among other things, securing suitable store sites on satisfactory terms, hiring, training and retaining qualified management and other personnel, having adequate capital resources and successfully integrating new stores into existing operations. Circumstances outside our control could negatively affect these anticipated store openings. Perfumania's new stores may take up to three years to reach planned operating levels. It is possible that Perfumania's new stores might not achieve sales and profitability comparable to existing stores, and it is possible that the opening of new locations might adversely affect sales at existing locations. The failure to expand by successfully opening new stores as planned, or the failure of a significant number of these stores to perform as planned, could have a material adverse effect on our business and our results of operations.

The market for real estate is competitive, which could adversely impact our results

Our ability to effectively obtain real estate to open new stores depends upon the availability of real estate that meets our criteria, including traffic, square footage, co-tenancies, lease economics, demographics, and other factors, and our ability to negotiate terms that meet our financial targets. In addition, we must be able to effectively renew our existing store leases. Failure to secure real estate locations adequate to meet annual targets, as well as effectively managing the profitability of our existing stores, could have a material adverse effect on our business and our results of operations.

If we are unable to effectively manage our inventory, we will not achieve our expected results

We are exposed to inventory risks that may adversely affect our operating results as a result of seasonality, new product launches, changes in customer preferences or demand, and consumer spending patterns. We must carry a significant amount of inventory, especially before the holiday season selling period. Demand for product can change between the time inventory is ordered and the date of sale, especially with new products. In particular, our business includes a significant portion of consigned sales, and our revenue recognition policy defers recognition of revenue for this type of sales. Consignment sales remain in inventory until the products are sold to end users and, if not sold, the inventory may be returned to us upon termination of the consignment relationships. The turnover frequency of our inventory on consignment is critical to generating regular cash flow in amounts necessary to keep financing costs to targeted levels and to purchase additional inventory. If this turnover is not sufficiently frequent, our financing costs may exceed targeted levels and we may be unable to generate regular cash flow in amounts necessary to purchase additional inventory to meet the demand for other products. In addition, slow inventory turnover may force us to reduce prices and accept lower margins to sell consigned products. Any of these situations may hurt our results of operations.

Parlux's business has historically depended on department store sales, which present special risks

Parlux has historically launched its new fragrances through U.S. department stores. Department stores tend to lose sales to the mass market as a product matures. To counter this effect, Parlux has needed to introduce new products quickly, which requires additional spending for development, advertising and promotional expenses. In addition, U.S. department stores have experienced a significant amount of consolidation in recent years. This has resulted in Parlux's increasing dependence on a smaller number of key retailers, enhancing their bargaining strength and resulting in increased risk. Continued department store consolidation could have a material adverse effect on our financial condition and results of operations.

Our business is subject to seasonal fluctuations, which could lead to fluctuations in our stock price

We have historically experienced and expect to continue experiencing higher sales in the fourth fiscal quarter than in any of the first three fiscal quarters. Purchases of fragrances as gift items increase during the holiday season, which results in significantly higher fourth fiscal quarter retail sales. Sales levels of new and existing stores are affected by a variety of factors, including the retail sales environment, the level of competition, the effect of marketing and promotional programs, acceptance of new product introductions, adverse weather conditions, general economic conditions and other factors beyond our control.

Our quarterly results may also vary as a result of the timing of new store openings and store closings, net sales contributed by new stores and fluctuations in comparable sales of existing stores. If our quarterly operating results are below expectations, our stock price might decline.

We may experience shortages of the merchandise we need because we do not rely on long-term agreements with suppliers

Our success depends to a large degree on our ability to provide an extensive assortment of brand name and designer fragrances. We do not rely on long-term purchase contracts or other contractual assurance of continued supply, pricing or access to new products. Suppliers of distributed brands generally may choose to reduce or eliminate the volume of their products we distribute, including supplying products to our wholesale customers directly or through another distributor. Our wholesale customers are generally able to cancel orders or delay the delivery of products on short notice. If we are unable to obtain merchandise from one or more key suppliers on a timely basis or acceptable terms, or if there is a material change in our ability to obtain necessary merchandise, our results of operations could be adversely affected.

We could be subject to litigation because of the merchandising aspect of our business

Some of the merchandise we purchase from suppliers might be manufactured by entities that are not the owners of the trademarks or copyrights for the merchandise. The owner of a particular trademark or copyright may challenge us to demonstrate that the specific merchandise was produced and sold with the proper authority, and if we are unable to demonstrate this, we could, among other things, be restricted from reselling the particular merchandise or be subjected to other liabilities. This type of restriction could adversely affect our business and results of operations.

Our stock price volatility could result in litigation, substantial cost, and diversion of management's attention

The price of our common stock has been and likely will continue to be subject to wide fluctuations in response to a number of events, such as:

quarterly variations in operating results;

- acquisitions, capital commitments or strategic alliances by us or our competitors;

legal and regulatory matters that are applicable to our business;

the operating and stock price performances of other companies that investors may deem comparable to us;

news reports relating to trends in our markets; and the amount of shares constituting our public float.

In addition, the stock market in general has experienced significant price and volume fluctuations that often have been unrelated to the performance of specific companies. The broad market fluctuations may adversely affect the market price of our common stock, regardless of our operating performance. Our stock price volatility could result in litigation, including class action lawsuits, which would require substantial monetary cost to defend, as well as the diversion of management attention from day-to-day activities which could negatively affect operating performance. Such litigation could also have a negative impact on the price of our common stock due to the uncertainty and negative publicity associated with litigation.

Future growth may place strains on our managerial, operational and financial resources

If we grow as we anticipate, a significant strain on our managerial, operational and financial resources may occur. Future growth or increase in the number of our strategic relationships could strain our managerial, operational and financial resources, inhibiting our ability to achieve the execution necessary to successfully implement our business plan.

The loss of or disruption in our distribution facility could have a material adverse effect on our business

We currently have two distribution facilities located in Bellport, New York and Keasbey, New Jersey. In addition we use third-party fulfillment centers in New York and New Jersey. The loss of, or damage to any of these facilities, as well as the inventory stored therein, could adversely affect our business, prospects, results of operations, financial condition or cash flows.

Expanding our business through acquisitions of and investments in other businesses and technologies presents special risks that may disrupt our business

We have in the past and may in the future continue to expand through the acquisition of and investment in other businesses. Acquisitions involve a number of special problems, including:

- difficulty integrating acquired technologies, operations, and personnel with our existing business;
- diversion of management's attention in connection with both negotiating the acquisitions and integrating the assets;
- the need for additional financing;
- strain on managerial, operational and financial resources as management tries to oversee larger operations; and
- exposure to unforeseen liabilities of acquired companies.

We may not be able to successfully address these problems. Moreover, our future operating results will depend to a significant degree on our ability to successfully manage growth or integrate acquisitions.

Any weakness in internal control over financial reporting or disclosure controls and procedures could result in a loss of investor confidence in our financial reports and lead to a stock price decline

We are required to maintain effective internal control over financial reporting, as well as effective disclosure controls and procedures, complying with SEC rules and covering all our business operations. Any failure to have effective internal control over financial reporting or disclosure controls and procedures covering our business could cause investors to lose confidence in the accuracy and completeness of our financial reports, limit our ability to raise financing or lead to regulatory sanctions, any of which could result in a material adverse effect on our business or a decline in the market price of our common stock.

If we fail to protect the security of personal information about our retail customers, our reputation could suffer and we could suffer financial harm

We receive and store personal information about the customers of our retail businesses. The regulatory environment for information security is increasingly demanding, and our customers have a high expectation that we will protect their personal information. If we experience a data security breach, we could be exposed to costly government enforcement actions and private litigation. In addition, this could damage our reputation and our customers could lose confidence in us, which could cause them to stop using credit cards to purchase our products or stop shopping at our stores altogether. Such events could lead to lost future sales, fines or lawsuits, which would adversely affect our results of operations.

The risks of e-commerce retailing could hurt our results of operations

Business risks related to our Perfumania.com e-commerce business include our ability to keep pace with rapid technological change, any failure in our – or any third-party processor's – security procedures and operational controls, failure or inadequacy in our – or any third-party processor's – systems or ability to process customer orders, and the imposition of sales or other taxes by states or foreign jurisdictions. If any of these risks materializes, it could have an adverse effect on our results of operations.

If we are unable to protect our intellectual property rights, specifically trademarks and trade names, our ability to compete would be negatively affected

The market for our products depends to a significant extent upon the value associated with our trademarks and trade names. We own, or have licenses or other rights to use, the material trademark and trade name rights used in connection with the packaging, marketing and distribution of our major products both in the United States and in other countries where such products are principally sold; therefore, trademark and trade name protection is very important to our business. Although most of our brand names are registered in the United States and in certain foreign countries in which we operate, we may not be successful in asserting trademark or trade name protection. In addition, the laws of certain foreign countries may not protect our intellectual property rights to the same extent as the laws of the United States, especially in the product class that includes fragrance products. The costs required to protect our trademarks and trade names may be substantial.

If other parties infringe on our intellectual property rights or the intellectual property rights that we license, the value of our brands in the marketplace may be diluted. Any infringement of our intellectual property rights would also likely result in a commitment of our time and resources to protect these rights through litigation or otherwise. Additionally, we may infringe or be accused of infringing on others' intellectual property rights and one or more adverse judgments with respect to these intellectual property rights could negatively impact our ability to compete and could materially adversely affect our business, prospects, results of operations, financial condition or cash flows.

Our success depends, in part, on the quality and safety of our fragrance and related products

Our success depends, in part, on the quality and safety of our fragrance and related products. If our products are found to be unsafe or defective, or if they otherwise fail to meet customers or consumers' standards and expectations, our reputation could be adversely affected, our relationships with customers or consumers could suffer, the appeal of one or more of our brands could be diminished, our sales could be adversely affected and/or we may become subject to liability claims, any of which could result in a material adverse effect on our business, results of operations and financial condition.

We are subject to risks related to our international operations

We operate on a global basis, with sales in approximately 80 countries. Our international operations could be adversely affected by:

• import and export license requirements;

• trade restrictions;

• changes in tariffs and taxes;

• product registration, permitting and regulatory compliance;

• restrictions on repatriating foreign profits back to the United States;

• the imposition of foreign and domestic governmental controls;

• changes in, or our unfamiliarity with, foreign laws and regulations;

• difficulties in staffing and managing international operations;

• changes in economic, social, legal and other conditions;

• the volatility of the U.S. dollar against other currencies;

• greater difficulty enforcing intellectual property rights and weaker laws protecting such rights; and

• geo-political conditions, such as terrorist attacks, war or other military action, public health problems and natural disasters.

Reductions in worldwide travel could hurt sales volumes in our duty-free related business

We depend on consumer travel for sales to our “duty free” customers in airports and other locations throughout the world. Any reductions in travel, including as a result of general economic downturns, natural disasters, or acts of war or terrorism, or disease epidemics, could result in a material decline in sales and profitability for this channel of distribution, which could negatively affect our operating results, financial condition, and operating cash flow.

Control of our management and policies is with our principal shareholders, who could take actions that are not in the best interest of the other shareholders

Members of the Nussdorf family beneficially own an aggregate of approximately 55% of our outstanding common stock, assuming exercise of warrants they hold. As a result, if they acted together, they would be able to direct our corporate policies and could act unilaterally to approve most actions requiring shareholder approval under law or our governing documents. The Nussdorfs’ collective stock ownership may have the effect of delaying or preventing policies or actions deemed desirable by our Board of Directors, such as a business combination that might be in the interests of our other shareholders, which in turn could materially and adversely affect the market price of our common stock. Conversely, such ownership may cause us to implement policies that are not in the best interests of our other shareholders.

We also have a material amount of indebtedness to the Nussdorfs and their affiliates. As significant creditors, the Nussdorfs may refuse consent to actions our Board may consider necessary.

Furthermore, we have agreed that, in certain circumstances, we will register with the SEC the resale of certain shares of our common stock held by the Nussdorfs. They may require that, in the event of any marketing limitation on the number of shares included in an applicable registration statement, their shares be registered on a pro rata basis with shares being registered for parties that have obtained registration rights in connection with providing financing to us. This may limit our ability to obtain financing in the future.

SPECIAL NOTE REGARDING FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

This prospectus, including information included or incorporated by reference in this prospectus, may contain forward-looking statements within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995.

Forward-looking statements are typically identified by words or phrases such as “may,” “will,” “anticipate,” “estimate,” “expect,” “project,” “intend,” “plan,” “believe,” “target,” “forecast,” “objective,” “assume,” “strategies” and other words and similar meaning. Forward-looking statements involve estimates, expectations, projections, goals, forecasts, assumptions, risks and uncertainties. We caution readers that any forward-looking statement is not a guarantee of future performance and that actual results could differ materially from those contained in the forward-looking statement.

Actual results could differ materially from those contained in the forward-looking statements due to a number of factors, including:

- decreases in demand for our products;
- changes in discretionary spending by consumers;
- failure of general economic conditions to improve;
- the Company’s ability to comply with financial covenants under its financing arrangements;
- the ability to raise additional capital;
- credit and performance risk from customers and vendors;
- intense competition;
- the potential loss of certain customers; and
- adverse changes in general market and industry conditions.

You should also consider carefully the statements under “Risk Factors” which address additional factors that could cause our actual results to differ from those set forth in the forward-looking statements and could materially and adversely affect our business, operating results and financial condition. We cannot assess the impact of each factor on our business or the extent to which any factor, or combination of factors, may cause actual results to differ materially from those contained in any forward-looking statements. The forward-looking statements speak only as of the date on which they are made, and, except to the extent required by federal securities laws, we undertake no obligation to update any forward-looking statement to reflect events or circumstances after the date on which the statement is made or to reflect the occurrence of unanticipated events.

USE OF PROCEEDS

We will not receive any proceeds from the sale of the common stock offered by the Selling Stockholders pursuant to this prospectus.

SELLING STOCKHOLDERS

Selling Stockholders (Parlux Merger)

On April 18, 2012, the Company completed its acquisition of Parlux when Parlux merged into a wholly owned subsidiary of the Company (the “Parlux Merger”). As previously disclosed, Parlux entered into an agreement dated December 23, 2011 (the “Warrant Amendment”) with the holders of certain outstanding warrants to purchase an aggregate of 6,000,000 shares of Parlux common stock, which at the effective time of the Parlux Merger converted into warrants to purchase an aggregate of 3,199,954 shares of the Company’s common stock at an exercise price of $8.00 per share (the “Licensor Warrants”). The Warrant Amendment provided that after the completion of the Parlux Merger, the Company would register the shares issuable upon exercise of the Licensor Warrants for resale under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the “Securities Act”).

Also as previously disclosed, the Company, Parlux, Artistic Brands Development, LLC (“Artistic Brands”) and Rene Garcia entered into a Letter Agreement dated December 23, 2011 (the “Proposal Agreement”) providing for, among other things, the issuance to Artistic Brands or its designee of 300,000 shares of Company common stock (the “Licensor Shares”) after the effective time of the Parlux Merger as consideration for the transactions contemplated in the Proposal Agreement. Perfumania issued the Licensor Shares to Artistic Brands’ designee, Shawn Carter, on April 18, 2012. The Licensor Shares are entitled to the same registration rights as the shares underlying the Licensor Warrants. In addition, on April 18, 2012, a warrant to purchase 10,000 shares of Parlux common stock held by Glenn Gopman, a former member of Parlux’s board of directors who became a member of the Company’s board of directors upon the consummation of the Parlux Merger, was automatically converted into a warrant to purchase 5,333 shares of Company common stock at an exercise price of $3.38 per share (the “Gopman Warrant”). The shares underlying the Gopman Warrant are entitled to the same registration rights as the shares underlying the Licensor Warrants.

Also as previously disclosed, pursuant to the existing license agreement between Parlux and Artistic Brands, as amended, on April 18, 2012 the Company issued to Artistic Brands and its designees warrants for the purchase of 1,599,999 shares of Company common stock at an exercise price of $8.00 per share (the “Artistic Brands Warrants”). The shares underlying the Artistic Brands Warrants are entitled to the same registration rights as the shares underlying the Licensor Warrants.

Selling Stockholders (Model Reorg Merger)

On August 11, 2008, the Company completed its acquisition of Model Reorg, Inc. (“Model Reorg”) when Model Reorg merged into a wholly owned subsidiary of the Company (the “Model Reorg Merger”), at which time the Company issued to the Model Reorg shareholders 5,900,000 shares of the Company’s common stock. At the closing of the Model Reorg Merger, the Company and the Model Reorg shareholders executed a registration rights agreement (the “Registration Rights Agreement”) under which the former Model Reorg shareholders have the right to require the Company, at the Company’s expense, to include the shares received in the Model Reorg Merger and any shares of common stock issued in respect thereof, in certain registration statements that the Company may file with the SEC under the Securities Act.

Information Regarding All Selling Stockholders

The table below presents information as of June 19, 2012 regarding the Selling Stockholders and the number of shares that the Selling Stockholders may offer and sell from time to time under this prospectus. More specifically, the table sets forth:

the name of each Selling Stockholder;

the number and percentage of shares of our common stock that each Selling Stockholder beneficially owned before the offering for resale of any of the shares of our common stock being registered by the registration statement of which this prospectus is a part, including any warrants to purchase common stock and options to purchase common stock that are exercisable within 60 days of the date of this prospectus;

the number of shares of our common stock that may be offered for resale by Selling Stockholders under this prospectus; and the number and percentage of shares of our common stock to be beneficially owned by each Selling Stockholder after the offering for resale of the shares being registered by the registration statement of which this prospectus is a part, assuming all of the shares being offered are sold by the Selling Stockholders and that the Selling Stockholders do not acquire any other shares of our common stock before the assumed sales.

The applicable percentages of beneficial ownership are based on an aggregate of 15,285,046 shares of our common stock outstanding on June 19, 2012.

Although we have assumed for purposes of the table above that the Selling Stockholders will sell all of the shares offered by this prospectus, because the Selling Stockholders may offer from time to time all or some of their shares covered under this prospectus, or in another permitted manner, no assurances can be given as to the actual number of shares that will be sold by the Selling Stockholders or that will be held by the Selling Stockholders after completion of the sales. In addition, the Selling Stockholders may have sold, transferred or otherwise disposed of the common stock in transactions exempt from the registration requirements of the Securities Act since the date the Selling Stockholders provided the foregoing information about their securities holdings. Information about the selling stockholders may change from time to time and changed information will be presented in a supplement to this prospectus if and when required. Except as described above, there are currently no agreements, arrangements or understandings with respect to the resale of any of the shares covered by this prospectus. With the exception of Glenn Gopman, each of the Selling Stockholders has represented to us that it is not, nor is it affiliated with, a broker-dealer. Glenn Gopman has represented to us that he has bought the securities we are registering on his behalf in the ordinary course of business, and at the time of the purchase of the securities we are registering on his behalf to be resold, had no agreements or understandings, directly or indirectly, with any person to distribute the securities we are registering on his behalf. Information regarding the Selling Stockholders provided above is based solely on information provided to us by the Selling Stockholders, any Schedules 13D or 13G and Forms 3, 4 and 5, and other public documents filed with the SEC, and we have not independently verified this information.

Material Relationships

The following describes relationships between us and certain of the Selling Stockholders.

On April 18, 2012, in connection with the Parlux Merger, the Company, Artistic Brands, and S. Carter Enterprises, LLC (“SCE”) entered into a sublicense agreement and Artistic Brands and SCE entered into a license agreement. Shawn Carter is a principal of SCE and beneficially owns approximately 11.36% of the outstanding stock of the Company following the Parlux Merger. Pursuant to the license agreement, Artistic Brands has the exclusive right and license to manufacture, promote, distribute, and sell prestige fragrances and related products under the Jay-Z trademark. Such rights are sublicensed to the Company pursuant to the sublicense agreement. The initial term of the license agreement shall expire at the earlier of (i) five years following the first date on which licensed products are shipped and (ii) December 31, 2018. Artistic Brands has the right to renew the license agreement, so long as certain financial conditions are met and it has not otherwise breached the agreement. Pursuant to the license agreement, Artistic Brands agreed to make certain royalty payments, including certain guaranteed minimum royalties and the Company has assumed these royalty payments pursuant to the sublicense agreement.

Effective April 7, 2009, Parlux entered into a sublicense agreement with Artistic Brands, and Artistic Brands entered into a license Agreement with Combermere Entertainment Properties, LLC (“Combermere”), for the exclusive worldwide rights to develop, manufacture and distribute prestige fragrances and related products under the Rihanna name. The initial term of the agreement expires on the fifth anniversary of the first date products are shipped and is renewable for an additional three-year term if certain sales levels are met. Under the terms of the Combermere sublicense agreement, Parlux assumes the obligation to pay a minimum royalty, whether or not any product sales are made, and spend minimum amounts for advertising based upon minimum sales volume. Parlux launched the first fragrance under this license in late January 2011 and the second in December 2011.

Effective April 7, 2009, Parlux entered into a sublicense agreement with Artistic Brands, and Artistic Brands entered into a license Agreement with Mascotte Holdings, Inc. (“Mascotte”), for the exclusive worldwide rights to develop, manufacture and distribute prestige fragrances and related products under the Kanye West name. On March 2, 2011, Parlux entered into an amended and restated sublicense agreement with Artistic Brands. The initial term of the sublicense expires on March 31, 2017, and is renewable for an additional three-year term if certain sales levels are met. Under the terms of the amended and restated Mascotte sublicense agreement, Parlux assumes the obligation to pay a minimum royalty, whether or not any product sales are made, and spend minimum amounts for advertising based upon sales volume.

Our wholly owned subsidiary, Parlux, sells a number of its products to Jacavi Beauty Supply, LLC (“Jacavi”), a fragrance distributor. Jacavi’s managing member is Rene Garcia. Rene Garcia beneficially owns approximately 24.48% of the outstanding stock of the Company following the Parlux Merger, and is one of the principals of Artistic Brands. The following entities and trusts are related to Rene Garcia and are offering shares under this registration statement: RGarcia Investment Holdings, LLC, The Carolina Marie Garcia Pirez 2012 Dynasty Trust, The Jacqueline Marie Garcia Haley 2012 Dynasty Trust, and The Victor Garcia 2012 Dynasty Trust. Transactions between us and Jacavi are related party transactions. During the fiscal years ended March 31, 2012, 2011 and 2010, Parlux had net sales of approximately $9.1 million, $3.7 million and $3.0 million, respectively, to Jacavi. As of March 31, 2012, 2011 and 2010, Parlux’s net trade account receivables from Jacavi were approximately $1.8, $0 and $0.4 million, respectively. Parlux’s trade accounts receivable from Jacavi are non-interest bearing, and are paid in accordance with the terms previously established by Parlux’s former Board of Directors. Invoice terms to Jacavi range from 0 to 60 days. Management closely monitors all developments with respect to its extension of credit to Jacavi.

Glenn Gopman is a former member of Parlux’s board of directors who became a member of the Company’s board of directors upon the consummation of the Parlux Merger.

Alfred R. Paliani is an employee of Quality King, and Rafael Villoldo is an employee of the Company.

Other than as disclosed in this prospectus or in the documents incorporated herein by reference, none of the Selling Stockholders has, or within the past three years has had, any position, office or other material relationship with us or, insofar as we are aware, any of our affiliates.

PLAN OF DISTRIBUTION

Each Selling Stockholder of our common stock and any of their pledgees, assignees, transferees and successors-in-interest may, from time to time, sell any or all of their shares of common stock on the Nasdaq Stock Market or any stock exchange, market or trading facility on which the shares are then traded or in private transactions. These sales may be at fixed prices, at prevailing market prices at the time of sale, at prices related to the prevailing market price, at varying prices determined at the time of sale or at negotiated prices. A Selling Stockholder may use any one or more of the following methods when disposing of shares:

- ordinary brokerage transactions and transactions in which the broker-dealer solicits purchasers;
- block trades in which the broker-dealer will attempt to sell the shares as agent but may position and resell a portion of the block as principal to facilitate the transaction;
- purchases by a broker-dealer as principal and resale by the broker-dealer for its account;
- an exchange distribution in accordance with the rules of the applicable exchange;
- privately negotiated transactions;
- settlement of short sales entered into after the effective date of the registration statement of which this prospectus is a part;
- broker-dealers may agree with the Selling Stockholders to sell a specified number of such shares at a stipulated price per share;
- through the writing or settlement of options or other hedging transactions, whether through an options exchange or otherwise;

an underwritten offering;

a combination of any such methods of sale; or any other method permitted pursuant to applicable law.

The Selling Stockholders may enter into derivative transactions with third parties, or sell securities not covered by this prospectus to third parties in privately negotiated transactions. If the applicable prospectus supplement indicates, in connection with those derivatives, the third parties may sell securities covered by this prospectus and the applicable prospectus supplement, including in short sale transactions. If so, the third party may use securities pledged by the Selling Stockholders or borrowed from the Selling Stockholders or others to settle those sales or to close out any related open borrowings of stock, and may use securities received from the Selling Stockholders in settlement of those derivatives to close out any related open borrowings of stock.

The Selling Stockholders may also sell all or a portion of such shares in open market transactions in reliance upon Rule 144 under the Securities Act, provided that they meet the criteria and conform to the requirements of that rule, rather than under this prospectus.

For any particular underwritten offering pursuant to this registration statement:

(a) an underwriter may allow, and dealers may reallow, concessions on sales to certain other dealers;

(b) we and the Selling Stockholders may agree to indemnify an underwriter against certain liabilities, including liabilities under the Securities Act, or to contribute to payments an underwriter may be required to make in connection with these liabilities; and

(c) we, our executive officers, our directors and the Selling Stockholders may agree, subject to certain exemptions, that for a certain period from the date of the prospectus supplement under which the securities are offered, we and they will not, without the prior written consent of an underwriter, offer, sell, contract to sell, pledge or otherwise dispose of any shares of our common stock or any securities convertible into or exchangeable for our common stock. However, an underwriter, in its sole discretion, may release any of the securities subject to these lock-up agreements at any time without notice. We expect an underwriter to exclude from these lock-up agreements, securities exercised and/or sold pursuant to 10b5-1 pre-set selling programs that are in place at the time of an offering made pursuant to this prospectus and any prospectus supplement hereto.

Broker-dealers engaged by the Selling Stockholders may arrange for other brokers-dealers to participate in sales. Broker-dealers may receive commissions or discounts from the Selling Stockholders (or, if any broker-dealer acts as agent for the purchaser of shares, from the purchaser) in amounts to be negotiated, but, except as set forth in a supplement to this prospectus, in the case of an agency transaction not in excess of a customary brokerage commission in compliance with NASD Rule 2440; and in the case of a principal transaction a markup or markdown in compliance with NASD IM-2440-1.

In connection with the sale of the common stock or interests therein, the Selling Stockholders may enter into hedging transactions with broker-dealers or other financial institutions, which may in turn engage in short sales of the Common Stock in the course of hedging the positions they assume. The Selling Stockholders may also sell shares of the common stock short and deliver these securities to close out their short positions, or loan or pledge the common stock to broker-dealers that in turn may sell these securities. The Selling Stockholders may also enter into option or other transactions with broker-dealers or other financial institutions or the creation of one or more derivative securities which require the delivery to such broker-dealer or other financial institution of shares offered by this prospectus, which shares such broker-dealer or other financial institution may resell pursuant to this prospectus (as supplemented or amended to reflect such transaction).

The Selling Stockholders and any broker-dealers or agents that are involved in selling the shares may be deemed to be “underwriters” within the meaning of the Securities Act in connection with such sales. In such event, any commissions received by such broker-dealers or agents and any profit on the resale of the shares purchased by them may be deemed to be underwriting commissions or discounts under the Securities Act. Each Selling Stockholder has informed us that it does not have any written or oral agreement or understanding, directly or indirectly, with any person to distribute the Common Stock.

We are required to pay certain fees and expenses incurred by us incident to the registration of the shares. We have agreed to indemnify the Selling Stockholders against certain losses, claims, damages and liabilities, including liabilities under the Securities Act.

Because Selling Stockholders may be deemed to be “underwriters” within the meaning of the Securities Act, they will be subject to the prospectus delivery requirements of the Securities Act including Rule 172 thereunder. In addition, any securities covered by this prospectus which qualify for sale pursuant to Rule 144 under the Securities Act may be sold under Rule 144 rather than under this prospectus. Each Selling Stockholder has advised us that they have not entered into any written or oral agreements, understandings or arrangements with any underwriter or broker dealer regarding the sale of the shares. There is no underwriter or coordinating broker acting in connection with the proposed sale of the resale shares by the Selling Stockholders.

We have agreed to use commercially reasonable efforts to keep this prospectus effective until the earlier of (i) the date on which the resale shares may be resold by the Selling Stockholders without registration and without regard to any volume limitations under Rule 144 of the Securities Act or (ii) all of the resale shares have been sold. The resale shares will be sold only through registered or licensed brokers or dealers if required under applicable state securities laws. In addition, in certain states, the resale shares may not be sold unless they have been registered or qualified for sale in the applicable state or an exemption from the registration or qualification requirement is available and is complied with.

Under applicable rules and regulations under the Exchange Act, any person engaged in the distribution of the resale shares may not simultaneously engage in market making activities with respect to the common stock for the applicable restricted period, as defined in Regulation M, before the commencement of the distribution. In addition, the Selling Stockholders will be subject to applicable provisions of the Exchange Act and the rules and regulations thereunder, including Regulation M, which may limit the timing of purchases and sales of shares of the common stock by the Selling Stockholders or any other person. We will make copies of this prospectus available to the Selling Stockholders and have informed them of the need to deliver a copy of this prospectus to each purchaser at or before the time of the sale (including by compliance with Rule 172 under the Securities Act).

The Selling Stockholders might be, and any broker-dealers that act in connection with the sale of securities may be, deemed to be “underwriters” within the meaning of Section 2(2)(11) of the Securities Act, and any commissions received by such broker-dealers and any profit on the resale of the securities sold by them while acting as principals may be deemed to be underwriting discounts or commissions under the Securities Act.

To the extent required, the shares of our common stock to be sold, the names of the Selling Stockholders, the respective purchase prices and public offering prices, the names of any agents, dealer or underwriter, any applicable commissions or discounts with respect to a particular offer and other material facts to the transaction, will be set forth in an accompanying prospectus supplement or, if appropriate, a post-effective amendment to the registration statement that includes this prospectus.

In order to comply with the securities laws of some states, if applicable, the shares of common stock may be sold in these jurisdictions only through registered or licensed brokers or dealers.

There can be no assurance that the Selling Stockholders will sell any or all of the shares of common stock registered pursuant to the registration statement, of which this prospectus forms a part.

We have advised the Selling Stockholders that the anti-manipulation rules of Regulation M under the Exchange Act may apply to sales of shares in the market and to the activities of the Selling Stockholders and their affiliates.

Regulation M’s prohibition on purchases may include purchases to cover short positions by a Selling Stockholder, and a Selling Stockholder’s failure to cover a short position at a lender’s request and subsequent purchases by the lender in the open market of shares to cover such short positions, may be deemed to constitute an inducement to buy shares, which is prohibited by Regulation M. In addition, each Selling Stockholder will be subject to other applicable provisions of the Exchange Act and the associated rules and regulations thereunder.

We will make copies of this prospectus (as it may be supplemented or amended from time to time) available to the Selling Stockholders for the purpose of satisfying the prospectus delivery requirements of the Securities Act. The Selling Stockholders may indemnify any broker-dealer that participates in transactions involving the sale of the shares against certain liabilities, including liabilities arising under the Securities Act.

We will pay all expenses of the registration of the shares of common stock, including, without limitation, SEC filing fees and expenses of compliance with state securities or "blue sky" laws; provided, however, that the Selling Stockholders will pay all underwriting discounts and selling commissions, if any.

Once sold under the registration statement, of which this prospectus forms a part, the shares of common stock will be freely tradable in the hands of persons other than our affiliates.

Our common stock is listed on the Nasdaq Stock Market. Any shares of our common stock sold pursuant to a prospectus supplement will be listed on the Nasdaq Stock Market, subject (if applicable) to official notice of issuance.
