STATEMENT ON FORWARD-LOOKING INFORMATION

Certain information included herein and in our other reports, SEC filings, verbal or written statements and presentations is forward-looking within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995, including, but not limited to, information related to our anticipated operating results, financial resources, changes in revenues, changes in profitability, changes in margins, changes in accounting treatment, interest expense, land related write-downs, effects of home buyer cancellations, growth and expansion, anticipated income to be realized from our investments in unconsolidated entities, the ability to acquire land, the ability to gain governmental approvals and to open new communities, the ability to sell homes and properties, the ability to deliver homes from backlog, the expected average delivered prices of homes, the ability to secure materials and subcontractors, the ability to produce the liquidity and capital necessary to expand and take advantage of future opportunities, and stock market valuations. In some cases you can identify those so called forward-looking statements by words such as may, will, should, expect, plan, anticipate, believe, estimate, predict, potential, project, intend, can, appear, could, might, negative of those words or other comparable words. Such forward-looking information involves important risks and uncertainties that could significantly affect actual results and cause them to differ materially from expectations expressed herein and in our other reports, SEC filings, verbal or written statements and presentations. These risks and uncertainties include local, regional and national economic conditions, the demand for homes, domestic and international political events, uncertainties directly or indirectly created by terrorist attacks, the effects of governmental regulation, the competitive environment in which we operate, fluctuations in interest rates, changes in home prices, the availability and cost of land for future growth, adverse market conditions that could result in substantial inventory write-downs, the availability of capital, uncertainties and fluctuations in capital and securities markets, changes in tax laws and their interpretation, legal proceedings, the availability of adequate insurance at reasonable cost, the ability of customers to finance the purchase of homes, the availability and cost of labor and materials, and weather conditions. Additional information concerning potential factors that we believe could cause our actual results to differ materially from expected and historical results is included in Item 1A Risk Factors of our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended October 31, 2006. Moreover, the revenue guidance contained herein reflects our expectations as of May 24, 2007 and is not being reconfirmed or updated by this Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q.

If one or more of the assumptions underlying our forward-looking statements proves incorrect, then our actual results, performance or achievements could differ materially from those expressed in, or implied by the forward-looking statements contained in this report. Therefore, we caution you not to place undue reliance on our forward-looking statements. This statement is provided as permitted by the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995.

When this report uses the words we, us, and our, they refer to Toll Brothers, Inc. and its subsidiaries, unless the context otherwise requires. Reference herein to fiscal 2007, fiscal 2006, and fiscal 2005, refer to our fiscal year ending October 31, 2007, and our fiscal years ended October 31, 2006 and October 31, 2005, respectively.

NOTES TO CONDENSED CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS (Unaudited)

1. Significant Accounting Policies

Basis of Presentation

The accompanying unaudited condensed consolidated financial statements include the accounts of Toll Brothers, Inc. (the Company), a Delaware corporation, and its majority-owned subsidiaries. All significant intercompany accounts and transactions have been eliminated. Investments in 50% or less owned partnerships and affiliates are accounted for using the equity method unless it is determined that the Company has effective control of the entity, in which case the entity would be consolidated.

The accompanying unaudited condensed consolidated financial statements have been prepared in accordance with the rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) for interim financial information. The October 31, 2006 balance sheet amounts and disclosures included herein have been derived from our October 31, 2006 audited financial statements. Since the accompanying condensed consolidated financial statements do not include all the information and footnotes required by U.S. generally accepted accounting principles for complete financial statements, the Company suggests that they be read in conjunction with the consolidated financial statements and notes thereto included in its Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended October 31, 2006. In the opinion of management, the accompanying unaudited condensed consolidated financial statements include all adjustments, which are of a normal recurring nature, necessary to present fairly the Company's financial position as of April 30, 2007, the results of its operations for the six months and three months ended April 30, 2007 and its cash flows for the six months ended April 30, 2007 and 2006. The results of operations for such interim periods are not necessarily indicative of the results to be expected for the full year.

Recent Accounting Pronouncements

In June 2006, the Financial Accounting Standards Board (the FASB) issued FASB Interpretation No. 48, Accounting for Uncertainty in Income Taxes (FIN 48). FIN 48 clarifies the accounting for uncertainty in income taxes recognized in accordance with Statement of Financial Accounting Standards (SFAS) No. 109, Accounting for Income Taxes, and prescribes a recognition threshold and measurement attribute for the financial statement recognition and measurement of a tax position taken or expected to be taken in a tax return. FIN 48 will be effective for the Company's fiscal year beginning November 1, 2007. The Company is currently reviewing the effect FIN 48 will have on its financial statements.

In September 2006, the FASB issued SFAS No. 158, Employers' Accounting for Defined Benefit Pension and Other Postretirement Plans, an amendment of FASB Statements No. 87, 88, 106, and 132(R) (SFAS 158). SFAS 158 requires the Company to (a) recognize in its statement of financial position the overfunded or underfunded status of a defined benefit postretirement plan measured as the difference between the fair value of plan assets and the benefit obligation, (b) recognize as a component of other comprehensive income, net of tax, the actuarial gains and losses and the prior service costs and credits that arise during the period, (c) measure defined benefit plan assets and defined benefit plan obligations as of the date of the Company's statement of financial position, and (d) disclose additional information about certain effects on net periodic benefit costs in the upcoming fiscal year that arise from the delayed recognition of the actuarial gains and losses and the prior service costs and credits. SFAS 158 is effective for the Company's fiscal year beginning November 1, 2007. The Company does not expect that adoption of SFAS 158 will have a material effect on its financial statements.

In September 2006, the Emerging Issues Task Force (the EITF) of the FASB issued EITF Issue No. 06-8, Applicability of the Assessment of a Buyer's Continuing Investment under SFAS No. 66 for the Sale of Condominiums (EITF 06-8). EITF 06-8 states that in assessing the collectibility of the sales price pursuant to paragraph 37(d) of SFAS 66, an entity should evaluate the adequacy of the buyer's initial and continuing investment to conclude that the sales price is collectible. If an entity is unable to meet the criteria of paragraph 37 of SFAS 66, including an assessment of collectibility using the initial and continuing investment tests described in paragraphs 8-12 of SFAS 66, then the entity should apply the deposit method as described in paragraphs 65-67 of SFAS 66. In November 2006, the FASB ratified the EITF's recommendation. EITF 06-8 is effective for the Company's fiscal year beginning November 1, 2007. The application of the continuing investment criteria in evaluating the collectibility of the sales price will limit the Company's ability to recognize revenues and costs using the percentage of completion accounting method in the future. The Company does not expect that EITF 06-08 will affect any revenues or costs it has reported under percentage of completion accounting in fiscal 2006. The Company does not expect that the application of EITF 06-08 will have a material effect on its financial statements.

In September 2006, the FASB issued SFAS No. 157, Fair Value Measurements (SFAS 157). SFAS 157 provides guidance for using fair value to measure assets and liabilities. The standard also responds to investors' request for expanded information about the extent to which a company measures assets and liabilities at fair value, the information used to measure fair value, and the effect of fair value measurements on earnings. SFAS 157 will be effective for the Company's fiscal year beginning November 1, 2008. The Company is currently reviewing the effect SFAS 157 will have on its financial statements.

Reclassification

The presentation of certain prior year amounts have been reclassified to conform to the fiscal 2007 presentation.

2. Inventory

Inventory consisted of the following (amounts in thousands):

	April 30, 2007	October 31, 2006
Land and land development costs	$ 1,816,798	$ 2,193,850
Construction in progress – completed contract communities	3,580,969	3,174,483
Construction in progress – percentage of completion	86,761	153,452
Sample homes and sales offices	314,510	244,097
Land deposits and costs of future development	320,542	315,041
Other	17,893	14,779
	$ 6,137,473	$ 6,095,702

Construction in progress includes the cost of homes under construction, land and land development costs and the carrying costs of lots that have been substantially improved.

The Company capitalizes certain interest costs to inventory during the development and construction period. Capitalized interest is charged to cost of revenues when the related inventory is delivered for homes accounted for under the completed contract method of accounting or when the related inventory is charged to cost of revenues under percentage of completion accounting. Interest incurred, capitalized and expensed for the six-month and three-month periods ended April 30, 2007 and 2006 is summarized as follows (amounts in thousands):

	Six Months Ended April 30,		Three Months Ended April 30,
	2007	2006	2007	2006
Interest capitalized, beginning of period	$ 181,465	$ 162,672	$ 192,933	$ 172,862

Interest capitalized, end of period	$ 200,560	$ 176,524	$ 200,560	$ 176,524

Interest included in cost of revenues for the six-month and three-month periods ended April 30, 2007 and 2006 was as follows (amounts in thousands):

	Six Months Ended April 30,		Three Months Ended April 30,
	2007	2006	2007	2006
Home sales	$ 46,029	$ 55,346	$ 24,292	$ 28,516
Percentage of completion revenues	2,999	2,545	2,094	1,128
Land sales	109	738	108	231
	$ 49,137	$ 58,629	$ 26,494	$ 29,875

Inventory write-downs and the expensing of costs that the Company believed not to be recoverable for the six-month and three-month periods ended April 30, 2007 and 2006 were as follows (amounts in thousands):

	Six Months Ended April 30,		Three Months Ended April 30,
	2007	2006	2007	2006
Operating communities	$ 199,112	$ 10,700	$ 116,150	$ 10,700
Land controlled for future communities	17,500	2,445	3,561	1,315
Total	$ 216,612	$ 13,145	$ 119,711	$ 12,015

At April 30, 2007, the fair value of the inventory in the 24 current communities subject to write-downs in the three-month period ended April 30, 2007, net of the $116.2 million of write-downs, was approximately $228.9 million. At January 31, 2007, the fair value of the inventory in the 18 current communities subject to write-downs in the three-month period ended January 31, 2007, net of the $83.0 million of write-downs, was approximately $211.8 million.

The Company evaluated its land purchase contracts to determine if the selling entity is a variable interest entity (VIE) and, if it is, whether the Company is the primary beneficiary of the entity. The Company does not possess legal title to the land, and its risk is generally limited to deposits paid to the seller. The sellers and creditors of the seller generally have no recourse against the Company. At April 30, 2007, the Company had determined that it was not the primary beneficiary of any VIE related to its land purchase contracts.

3. Investments in and Advances to Unconsolidated Entities

The Company has investments in and advances to several joint ventures with unrelated parties to develop land. Some of these joint ventures develop land for the sole use of the venture partners, including the Company, and others develop land for sale to the venture partners and to unrelated builders. The Company recognizes its share of earnings from the sale of home sites to other builders. The Company does not recognize earnings from home sites it purchases from the joint ventures, but instead reduces its cost basis in these home sites by its share of the earnings on the home sites. At April 30, 2007, the Company had approximately $141.7 million invested in or advanced to these joint ventures and was committed to contributing additional capital in an aggregate amount of approximately $216.1 million (net of the Company's $146.2 million of loan guarantees related to two of the joint ventures' loans) if required by the joint ventures. At April 30, 2007, three of the joint ventures had an aggregate of $1.46 billion of loan commitments, and had approximately $1.17 billion borrowed against the commitments, of which the Company's guarantees of its pro-rata share of the borrowings was $115.9 million.

The Company has investments in and advances to two joint ventures with unrelated parties to develop luxury condominium projects, including for-sale residential units and commercial space. At April 30, 2007, the Company had investments in and advances to the joint ventures of $20.9 million, was committed to making up to $114.1 million of additional investments in and advances to the joint ventures if required by the joint ventures, and guaranteed $13.0 million of joint venture loans.

In October 2004, the Company entered into a joint venture in which it has a 50% interest with an unrelated party to convert a 525-unit apartment complex, The Hudson Tea Buildings, located in Hoboken, New Jersey, into luxury condominium units. At April 30, 2007, the Company had investments in and advances to the joint venture of $56.2 million, and was committed to making up to $1.5 million of additional investments in and advances to the joint venture.

In fiscal 2005, the Company, together with the Pennsylvania State Employees Retirement System (PASERS), formed Toll Brothers Realty Trust Group II (Trust II) to be in a position to take advantage of commercial real estate opportunities. Trust II is owned 50% by the Company and 50% by PASERS. At April 30, 2007, the Company had an investment of $8.9 million in Trust II. In addition, the Company and PASERS each entered into subscription agreements that expire in September 2007, whereby each agreed to invest additional capital in an amount not to exceed $11.1 million if required by Trust II. Prior to the formation of Trust II, the Company used Toll Brothers Realty Trust Group (the Trust) to invest in commercial real estate opportunities.

The Company formed the Trust in 1998 to take advantage of commercial real estate opportunities. The Trust is effectively owned one-third by the Company; one-third by Robert I. Toll, Bruce E. Toll (and members of his family), Zvi Barzilay (and members of his family), Joel H. Rassman and other members of the Company's current and former senior management; and one-third by PASERS (collectively, the Shareholders). The Shareholders entered into subscription agreements whereby each group has agreed to invest additional capital in an amount not to exceed $1.9 million if required by the Trust. The subscription agreements expire in August 2008. At April 30, 2007, the Company had an investment of $6.5 million in the Trust. The Company provides development, finance and management services to the Trust and received fees under the terms of various agreements in the amounts of $985,000 and $1,241,000 in the six-month periods ended April 30, 2007 and 2006, respectively, and $487,000 and $594,000 in the three-month periods ended April 30, 2007 and 2006, respectively. The Company believes that the transactions between itself and the Trust were on terms no less favorable than it would have agreed to with unrelated parties.

The Company's investments in these entities are accounted for using the equity method.

4. Goodwill Impairment

During the three-month period ended January 31, 2007, due to the continued decline of the Detroit market, the Company re-evaluated the carrying value of goodwill that resulted from a 1999 acquisition in accordance with SFAS No. 142, Goodwill and Other Intangible Assets. The Company estimated the fair value of its assets in this market including goodwill. Fair value was determined based on the discounted future cash flow expected to be generated in this market. Based upon this evaluation and the Company's expectation that this market will not recover for a number of years, the Company determined that the related goodwill was impaired. The Company recognized a $9.0 million impairment charge in the three-month period ended January 31, 2007. After recognizing this charge, the Company does not have any goodwill remaining from this acquisition.

5. Accrued Expenses

Accrued expenses at April 30, 2007 and October 31, 2006 consisted of the following (amounts in thousands):

	April 30, 2007	October 31, 2006
Land, land development and construction costs	$ 310,424	$ 376,114
Compensation and employee benefit costs	102,546	127,503

6. Employee Retirement Plans

In October 2004, the Company established a defined benefit retirement plan effective as of September 1, 2004, which covers four current or former senior executives and a director of the Company. Effective as of February 1, 2006, the Company adopted an additional defined benefit retirement plan for nine other executives. The retirement plans are unfunded and vest when the participant has completed 20 years of service with the Company and reaches normal retirement age (age 62). Unrecognized prior service costs are being amortized over the period from the effective date of the plans until the participants are fully vested. The Company used a 5.68% and 5.65% discount rate in its calculation of the present value of its projected benefit obligations for the fiscal 2007 and 2006 periods, respectively, which represented the approximate long-term investment rate at October 31 of the preceding fiscal year for which the present value was calculated.

7. Stock Based Benefit Plans

The fair value of each option award is estimated on the date of grant using a lattice-based option valuation model that uses assumptions noted in the following table. The lattice-based option valuation models incorporate ranges of assumptions for inputs; those ranges are disclosed in the table below. Expected volatilities are based on implied volatilities from traded options on the Company's stock, historical volatility of the Company's stock and other factors. The expected life of options granted is derived from the historical exercise patterns and anticipated future patterns and represents the period of time that options granted are expected to be outstanding; the ranges given below results from certain groups of employees exhibiting different behavior. The risk-free rate for periods within the contractual life of the option is based on the U.S. Treasury yield curve in effect at the time of grant.

The weighted-average assumptions and the fair values used for stock option grants for the six-month and three-month periods ended April 30, 2007 and 2006 are as follows:

	2007	2006
Expected volatility	36.32% - 38.22%	36.33% - 38.28%
Weighted-average volatility	37.16%	37.55%
Risk-free interest rate	4.57% - 4.61%	4.38% - 4.51%
Expected life (years)	3.69 - 8.12	4.11 - 9.07
Dividends	none	none
Weighted-average grant date fair value per share of options granted	$11.17	$15.30

In the six-month and three-month periods ended April 30, 2007 and 2006, the Company recognized the following costs and tax benefits related to its option plans (amounts in thousands):

	Six Months Ended April 30,		Three Months Ended April 30,
	2007	2006	2007	2006
Stock compensation	$ 18,140	$ 16,255	$ 5,328	$ 5,257
Income tax benefit	$ 6,797	$ 5,726	$ 1,977	$ 1,741

The Company expects to recognize approximately $27.1 million of expense and $10.0 million of income tax benefit for the full fiscal 2007 year related to stock option awards. The Company recognized approximately $26.8 million of expense and $9.2 million of income tax benefit for the full fiscal 2006 year related to stock option awards.

The Company's stock option plans for employees (including officers) and non-employee directors provide for the granting of incentive stock options (solely to employees) and non-qualified options with a term of up to ten years at a price not less than the market price of the stock at the date of grant. Options granted to employees generally vest over a four-year period, although certain grants vest over a longer or shorter period, and grants to non-employee directors generally vest over a two-year period. Shares issued upon the exercise of a stock option are either from shares held in treasury or newly issued shares.

Pursuant to the provisions of the Company's stock option plans, participants are permitted to use the value of the Company's common stock that they own to pay for the exercise of options. The Company received 4,172 shares with an average fair market value per share of $35.43 for the exercise of stock options in the six months ended April 30, 2006. No shares were received for the exercise of stock options in the three months ended April 30, 2006 or in the six months and three months ended April 30, 2007.

Stock option activity for the six months ended April 30, 2007 and 2006 was as follows:

	2007		2006
	(In 000 s)	(Per share)	(In 000 s)	(Per share)

Exercisable, end of period	21,980	$ 10.55	21,272	$ 8.87

At April 30, 2007, the exercise price of approximately 5.6 million outstanding options was higher than the average closing price of the Company's common stock on the New York Stock Exchange (the NYSE) for the three-month period ended April 30, 2007.

The Company realized a tax benefit from the exercise of non-qualified stock options and the exercise and disqualifying disposition of incentive stock options of approximately $3.7 million and $11.4 million in the six months ended April 30, 2007 and 2006, respectively.

The intrinsic value of options outstanding and exercisable is the difference between the fair market value of the Company's common stock on the applicable date (Measurement Value) and the exercise price of those options that had an exercise price that was less than the Measurement Value. The intrinsic value of options exercised is the difference between the fair market value of the Company's common stock on the date of exercise and the exercise price.

The intrinsic value of options outstanding and exercisable at April 30, 2007 and 2006 was as follows (amounts in thousands):

9. Stock Repurchase Program

In March 2003, the Company's Board of Directors authorized the repurchase of up to 20 million shares of its Common Stock, par value $.01, from time to time, in open market transactions or otherwise, for the purpose of providing shares for its various employee benefit plans. At April 30, 2007, the Company had approximately 12.1 million shares remaining to be purchased under this authorization. The Board of Directors did not fix an expiration date for the repurchase program.

10. Commitments and Contingencies

At April 30, 2007, the aggregate purchase price of land parcels under option and purchase agreements, excluding parcels that the Company does not expect to acquire, was approximately $2.80 billion (including $1.18 billion of land to be acquired from joint ventures which the Company has investments in, made advances to or made loan guarantees on behalf of, in the aggregate amount of $287.3 million), of which it had paid or deposited approximately $156.9 million. The Company's option agreements to acquire the home sites do not require the Company to buy the home sites, although the Company may, in some cases, forfeit any deposit balance outstanding if and when it terminates an option contract. Of the $156.9 million the Company had paid or deposited on these purchase agreements, $121.3 million was non-refundable at April 30, 2007. Any deposit in the form of a standby letter of credit is recorded as a liability at the time the standby letter of credit is issued. Included in accrued liabilities is $93.3 million representing the Company's outstanding standby letters of credit issued in connection with options to purchase home sites.

At April 30, 2007, the Company had outstanding surety bonds amounting to approximately $747.7 million, related primarily to its obligations to various governmental entities to construct improvements in the Company's various communities. The Company estimates that approximately $279.8 million of work remains on these improvements. The Company has an additional $133.0 million of surety bonds outstanding that guarantee other obligations of the Company. The Company does not believe it is likely that any outstanding bonds will be drawn upon.

At April 30, 2007, the Company had agreements of sale outstanding to deliver 5,746 homes with an aggregate sales value of approximately $4.22 billion, of which the Company has recognized $74.1 million of revenues using the percentage of completion accounting method.

At April 30, 2007, the Company was committed to providing approximately $1.22 billion of mortgage loans to its home buyers and to others. All loans with committed interest rates are covered by take-out commitments from third-party lenders, which minimize the Company's interest rate risk.

The Company has a $1.89 billion credit facility consisting of a $1.56 billion unsecured revolving credit facility and a $331.7 million term loan facility (collectively, the Credit Facility) with 35 banks, which extends to March 17, 2011. At April 30, 2007, interest was payable on borrowings under the revolving credit facility at 0.475% (subject to adjustment based upon the Company's debt rating and leverage ratios) above the Eurodollar rate or at other specified variable rates as selected by the Company from time to time. At April 30, 2007, the Company had no outstanding borrowings against the revolving credit facility but had letters of credit of approximately $412.2 million outstanding under it, of which the Company had recorded $93.3 million as liabilities under land purchase agreements. Under the term loan facility, interest is payable at 0.50% (subject to adjustment based upon the Company's debt rating and leverage ratios) above the Eurodollar rate or at other specified variable rates as selected by the Company from time to time. At April 30, 2007, interest was payable on the $331.7 million term loan at 5.84%. Under the terms of the Credit Facility, the Company is not permitted to allow its maximum leverage ratio (as defined in the agreement) to exceed 2.00 to 1.00 and was required to maintain a minimum tangible net worth (as defined in the agreement) of approximately $2.38 billion at April 30, 2007. At April 30, 2007, the Company's leverage ratio was approximately 0.53 to 1.00 and its tangible net worth was approximately $3.52 billion. Based upon the minimum tangible net worth requirement, the Company's ability to pay dividends and repurchase its common stock was limited to an aggregate amount of approximately $1.13 billion at April 30, 2007.

In January 2006, the Company received a request for information pursuant to Section 308 of the Clean Water Act from Region 3 of the Environmental Protection Agency (the EPA) requesting information about storm water discharge practices in connection with our homebuilding projects in the states that comprise EPA Region 3. To the extent the EPA's review were to lead the EPA to assert violations of state and/or federal regulatory requirements and request injunctive relief and/or civil penalties, the Company would defend and attempt to resolve any such asserted violations. At this time, the Company cannot predict the outcome of the EPA's review.

Edgar Filing: TOLL BROTHERS INC - Form 10-Q

The Company and two of its current officers were named as defendants in a securities class action filed on April 17, 2007 in the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Pennsylvania. Plaintiff filed this action on behalf of a purported class of purchasers of the Company's common stock between December 9, 2004 and November 8, 2005. The complaint alleges that the defendants violated Sections 10(b) and 20(a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 by issuing materially false and misleading statements. The plaintiff class seeks an unspecified amount of compensatory damages. The Company believes that this lawsuit is without merit and intends to vigorously defend against it.

The Company and its mortgage company and title company subsidiaries were named as defendants in a consumer class action filed on May 21, 2007 in the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Pennsylvania. The purported class is made up of mortgage borrowers who purchased a home from the Company and obtained a mortgage and/or title insurance for the home purchase from the Company's mortgage company and/or title company subsidiary. The complaint alleges that the Company and its affiliates violated the Real Estate Settlement Procedures Act by requiring the use of the Company's mortgage company subsidiary for the financing of home purchases from the Company and/or the use of the Company's title company subsidiary for the provision of title insurance. The Company believes that this lawsuit is without merit and intends to vigorously defend against it.

The Company is involved in various other claims and litigation arising in the ordinary course of business. The Company believes that the disposition of these matters will not have a material effect on the business or on the financial condition of the Company.

11. Geographic Segments

During the fourth quarter of fiscal 2006, the Company reassessed the aggregation of its operating segments, and as a result, restated its disclosure to include four separate reportable segments. The restatement had no impact on the Company's financial position, results of operations or cash flows for the six-month and three-month periods ended April 30, 2006.

13. Supplemental Guarantor Information

Toll Brothers Finance Corp., a 100% owned, indirect subsidiary (the Subsidiary Issuer) of the Company, is the issuer of four series of senior notes aggregating $1.15 billion. The obligations of the Subsidiary Issuer to pay principal, premiums, if any, and interest are guaranteed jointly and severally on a senior basis by the Company and substantially all of its 100% owned home building subsidiaries (the Guarantor Subsidiaries). The guarantees are full and unconditional. The Company's non-home building subsidiaries and certain home building subsidiaries (the Non-Guarantor Subsidiaries) do not guarantee the debt. Separate financial statements and other disclosures concerning the Guarantor Subsidiaries are not presented because management has determined that such disclosures would not be material to investors. The Subsidiary Issuer has not had and does not have any operations other than the issuance of the four series of senior notes and the lending of the proceeds from the senior notes to other subsidiaries of the Company. Supplemental consolidating financial information of the Company, the Subsidiary Issuer, the Guarantor Subsidiaries, the Non-Guarantor Subsidiaries and the eliminations to arrive at the Company on a consolidated basis are as follows:

ITEM 2. MANAGEMENT'S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS OF FINANCIAL CONDITION AND RESULTS OF OPERATIONS

OVERVIEW

In the six-month and three-month periods ended April 30, 2007, we recognized $2.27 billion and $1.17 billion of revenues, respectively, as compared to $2.78 billion and $1.44 billion of revenues in the comparable periods of fiscal 2006.

Net income in the six-month and three-month periods ended April 30, 2007 was $91.0 million and $36.7 million, respectively, as compared to $338.8 million and $174.9 million in the comparable periods of fiscal 2006. We recognized $216.6 million and $119.7 million of inventory write-downs in the six-month and three-month periods ended April 30, 2007, respectively; in addition, we recognized a $9.0 million goodwill impairment charge in the three-month period ended January 31, 2007. In fiscal 2006, we recognized $13.1 million of inventory write-downs in the six-month period ended April 30, 2006 and $12.0 million in the three-month period ended April 30, 2006.

Our backlog of $4.15 billion at April 30, 2007 decreased 32% compared to our backlog of $6.07 billion at April 30, 2006. Backlog includes the value of homes under contract but not yet delivered to our home buyers which are accounted for using the completed contract method of accounting and the value of homes for which we use the percentage of completion accounting method which consists of homes under contract but not yet delivered to our home buyers less the amount of revenues we have recognized related to those homes.

Beginning in the fourth quarter of fiscal 2005 and continuing throughout fiscal 2006 and into the third quarter of fiscal 2007, we have experienced a slowdown in new contracts signed. In the six-month and three-month periods ended April 30, 2007, we signed $1.92 billion and $1.17 billion of net new contracts, respectively, as compared to $2.70 billion and $1.56 billion of net new contracts in the comparable periods of fiscal 2006. We believe this slowdown is attributable to a decline in consumer confidence, an overall softening of demand for new homes, an oversupply of homes available for sale, the inability of some of our home buyers to sell their current home and the direct and indirect impact of the turmoil in the sub-prime mortgage loan market. We attribute the reduction in demand to concerns on the part of prospective home buyers about the direction of home prices, due in part to many home builders' advertising price reductions and increased sales incentives, and concerns by the prospective home buyers about being able to sell their existing homes. In addition, we believe speculators and investors are no longer helping to fuel demand. We try to avoid selling homes to speculators, and we generally do not build detached homes without having a signed agreement of sale and receiving a substantial down payment from a buyer. Nonetheless, we have been impacted by an overall increase in the supply of homes available for sale in many markets, as speculators attempt to sell the homes they previously purchased or cancel contracts for homes under construction, and as builders, who, as part of their business strategy, were building homes in anticipation of capturing additional sales in a demand-driven market, attempt to reduce their inventories by aggressively lowering prices and adding incentives. Non-speculative buyer cancellations are also adding to the supply of homes in the marketplace. In the six-month and three-month periods ended April 30, 2007, home buyers cancelled 828 contracts and 384 contracts, respectively, or approximately 24% and 19%, respectively, of the gross number of contracts signed in the respective periods. In the comparable periods of fiscal 2006, homebuyers cancelled 371 contracts and 205 contracts, or approximately 9% of gross contracts signed in each of the periods. In the quarter ended October 31, 2006, homebuyers cancelled approximately 37% of the gross contracts signed. When we report contracts signed, the number and value of contracts signed are reported net of any cancellations occurring during the reporting period, whether signed in that reporting period or in a prior period. Despite this slowdown, we remain cautiously optimistic about the future growth of our business. Our industry demographics remain strong due to the continuing regulation-induced constraints on lot supplies and the growing number of affluent households. We continue to seek a balance between our short-term goal of selling homes in a tough market and maximizing the value of our communities. We believe that many of our communities are in locations that are difficult to replace and in markets where approvals are increasingly difficult to achieve. We believe that many of these communities have substantial embedded value that will be realizable in the future and that their value should not necessarily be sacrificed in the current soft market.

In the current challenging environment, we believe our access to reliable capital and our strong balance sheet give us an important competitive advantage. Based on our experience during past cycles, we have learned that unexpected opportunities may arise in difficult times for those who are well-prepared. We believe that our solid financial base, our broad geographic presence, our diversified product lines and our national brand name all position us well for such opportunities now and in the future. At April 30, 2007, we had $553.1 million of cash and cash equivalents and approximately $1.15 billion available under our bank revolving credit facility which extends to March 17, 2011. With these resources and our history of success in accessing the public debt markets, we believe we have the resources available to fund this potential future growth.

We believe geographic and product diversification, access to lower-cost capital, a versatile and abundant home mortgage market, and improving demographics have in the past and will in the future promote demand for those builders who can control land and persevere through the increasingly difficult regulatory approval process. We believe that this evolution in our industry favors the large publicly traded home building companies with the capital and expertise to control home sites and gain market share. We believe that as the approval process continues to become more difficult, and as the political pressure from no-growth proponents continues to increase, our expertise in taking land through the approval process and our already approved land positions will allow us to grow in the years to come.

Because of the length of time that it takes to obtain the necessary approvals on a property, complete the land improvements on it, and deliver a home after a home buyer signs an agreement of sale, we are subject to many risks. We attempt to reduce certain risks by: controlling land for future development through options whenever possible, thus allowing us to obtain the necessary governmental approvals before acquiring title to the land; generally commencing construction of a detached home only after executing an agreement of sale and receiving a substantial down payment from a buyer; and using subcontractors to perform home construction and land development work on a fixed-price basis. In response to current market conditions, we have been re-evaluating and renegotiating many of our optioned land positions. As a result, we have reduced our land position to approximately 65,800 lots controlled at April 30, 2007 compared to 73,800 lots at October 31, 2006 and 91,200 lots at April 30, 2006.

In the six-month period ended April 30, 2007, we recognized impairment charges of approximately $199.1 million on communities in which we are currently selling and on land owned, primarily located in Florida, Illinois, California, Maryland, Minnesota, Michigan, Arizona and New Jersey, and $17.5 million of write-downs attributable to land under option related to future communities. In the three-month period ended April 30, 2007, we recognized impairment charges of approximately $116.2 million on communities in which we are currently selling and on land owned, primarily located in California, Illinois, Florida, Arizona and Michigan, and $3.6 million of write-downs attributable to land under option related to future communities.

At April 30, 2007, the fair value of the inventory in the 24 current communities subject to write-downs in the three-month period ended April 30, 2007, net of the $116.2 million of write-downs, was approximately $228.9 million. At January 31, 2007, the fair value of the inventory in the 18 current communities subject to write-downs in the three-month period ended January 31, 2007, net of the $83.0 million of write-downs, was approximately $211.8 million.

In the ordinary course of doing business, we must make estimates and judgments that affect decisions on how we operate and on the reported amounts of assets, liabilities, revenues and expenses. These estimates include, but are not limited to, those related to the recognition of income and expenses; impairment of assets; estimates of future improvement and amenity costs; capitalization of costs to inventory; provisions for litigation, insurance and warranty costs; and income taxes. We base our estimates on historical experience and on various other assumptions that we believe to be reasonable under the circumstances. On an ongoing basis, we evaluate and adjust our estimates based on the information currently available. Actual results may differ from these estimates and assumptions or conditions.

Projecting revenues remains very difficult in the current environment. The revenue guidance contained herein reflects our expectations as of May 24, 2007, is the same guidance furnished in the Form 8-K that we filed on May 24, 2007 and is not being reconfirmed or updated by this Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q. Based upon our evaluation of our backlog and the expected demand for our product, we believe that in fiscal 2007 we will deliver between 6,100 and 6,900 homes with an average delivered price between $670,000 and $680,000 and recognize between $175 million and $185 million of revenues using the percentage of completion method of accounting related to several high-rise residences that are under construction.

Table of Contents

At April 30, 2007, we were selling from 325 communities compared to 300 communities at October 31, 2006 and 275 communities at April 30, 2006. We expect to be selling from approximately 332 communities at October 31, 2007.

CRITICAL ACCOUNTING POLICIES

We believe the following critical accounting policies reflect the more significant judgments and estimates used in the preparation of our consolidated financial statements.

Inventory

Inventory is stated at the lower of cost or fair value in accordance with Statement of Financial Accounting Standards (SFAS) No. 144, Accounting for the Impairment or Disposal of Long-Lived Assets (SFAS 144). In addition to direct land acquisition, land development and home construction costs, costs include interest, real estate taxes and direct overhead related to development and construction, which are capitalized to inventories during the period beginning with the commencement of development and ending with the completion of construction. Once a parcel of land has been approved for development, it generally takes four to five years to fully develop, sell and deliver all the homes in one of our typical communities. Longer or shorter time periods are possible depending on the number of home sites in a community and the sales and delivery pace of the homes in a community. Our master planned communities, consisting of several smaller communities, may take up to 10 years or more to complete. Because our inventory is considered a long-lived asset under U.S. generally accepted accounting principles, we are required, under SFAS 144, to regularly review the carrying value of each of our communities and write down the value of those communities for which we believe the values are not recoverable.

Current Communities: When the profitability of a current community deteriorates, the sales pace declines significantly or some other factor indicates a possible impairment in the recoverability of the asset, the asset is reviewed for impairment by comparing the estimated future undiscounted cash flow for the community to its carrying value. If the estimated cash flow is less than the community's carrying value, the carrying value is written down to its estimated fair value. Fair value is primarily determined by discounting the estimated future cash flow of each community. The impairment is charged to cost of revenues in the period the impairment is determined. In estimating the cash flow of a community we use various estimates such as (a) the expected sales pace in a community based upon general economic conditions that will have a short-term or long-term impact on the market in which the community is located and competition within the market, including the number of homes/home sites available and pricing and incentives being offered in other communities owned by us or by other builders; (b) the expected sales prices and sales incentives to be offered in a community; (c) costs expended to date and expected to be incurred in the future, including, but not limited to, land and land development costs, home construction costs, interest costs and overhead costs; (d) alternative product offerings that may be offered in a community that will have an impact on sales pace, sales price, building cost or on the number of homes that can be built on a particular site; and (e) alternative uses for the property such as the possibility of a sale of the entire community to another builder or the sale of individual home sites.

Future Communities: We evaluate all land held for future communities or future sections of current communities, whether owned or under contract, to determine whether or not we expect to proceed with the development of the land as originally contemplated. This evaluation encompasses the same types of estimates used for current communities described above as well as an evaluation of the regulatory environment in which the land is located and the estimated probability of obtaining the necessary approvals, the estimated time and cost it will take to obtain the approvals and the possible concessions that will be required to be given in order to obtain them. Concessions may include cash payments to fund improvement to public places such as parks and streets, dedication of a portion of the property for use by the public or as open space or a reduction in the density or size of the homes to be built. Based upon this review, we decide (a) as to land under contract to be purchased, whether the contract will likely be terminated or renegotiated, and (b) as to land we own, whether the land will likely be developed as contemplated or in an alternative manner, or should be sold. We then further determine whether costs that have been capitalized to the community are recoverable or should be written off. The write-off is charged to cost of revenues in the period that the need for the write-off is determined.

The estimates used in the determination of the estimated cash flows and fair value of a community are based on factors known to us at the time such estimates are made and our expectations of future operations and economic conditions. Should the estimates or expectations used in determining estimated fair value deteriorate in the future, we may be required to recognize additional write-downs related to current and future communities.

Variable Interest Entities: We have a significant number of land purchase contracts, sometimes referred to herein as options or option agreements, and several investments in unconsolidated entities which we evaluate in accordance with the Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) Interpretation No. 46 Consolidation of Variable Interest Entities, an interpretation of ARB No. 51, as amended by FIN 46R (FIN 46). Pursuant to FIN 46, an enterprise that absorbs a majority of the expected losses or receives a majority of the expected residual returns of a variable interest entity (VIE) is considered to be the primary beneficiary and must consolidate the VIE. A VIE is an entity with insufficient equity investment or in which the equity investors lack some of the characteristics of a controlling financial interest. For land purchase contracts with sellers meeting the definition of a VIE, we perform a review to determine which party is the primary beneficiary of the VIE. This review requires substantive judgment and estimation. These judgments and estimates involve assigning probabilities to various estimated cash flow possibilities relative to the entity's expected profits and losses and the cash flows associated with changes in the fair value of the land under contract. At April 30, 2007, we determined that we were not the primary beneficiary of any VIEs related to our land purchase contracts.

Revenue and Cost Recognition

Home Sales Completed Contract: The construction time for one of our homes is generally less than one year, although some may take more than one year to complete. Revenues and cost of revenues from these home sales are recorded at the time each home is delivered and title and possession are transferred to the buyer. Closing normally occurs shortly after construction is substantially completed. In addition, we have several high-rise/mid-rise projects which do not qualify for percentage of completion accounting in accordance SFAS No. 66, Accounting for Sales of Real Estate (SFAS 66), which we will include in this category of revenues and costs commencing in the later portion of fiscal 2007 when units in these building begin to be delivered to customers.

Land, land development and related costs, both incurred and estimated to be incurred in the future, are amortized to the cost of homes closed based upon the total number of homes to be constructed in each community. Any changes resulting from a change in the estimated number of homes to be constructed or in the estimated costs subsequent to the commencement of delivery of homes are allocated to the remaining undelivered homes in the community. Home construction and related costs are charged to the cost of homes closed under the specific identification method. The estimated land, common area development and related costs of master planned communities, including the cost of golf courses, net of their estimated residual value, are allocated to individual communities within a master planned community on a relative sales value basis. Any changes resulting from a change in the estimated number of homes to be constructed or in the estimated costs are allocated to the remaining home sites in each of the communities of the master planned community.

Percentage of Completion: We are developing several high-rise/mid-rise projects that may take substantially more than one year to complete. Under the provisions of SFAS 66, revenues and costs are recognized using the percentage of completion method of accounting when construction is beyond the preliminary stage, the buyer is committed to the extent of being unable to require a refund except for non-delivery of the unit, sufficient units in the project have been sold to ensure that the property will not be converted to rental property, the sales proceeds are collectible and the aggregate sales proceeds and the total cost of the project can be reasonably estimated. Revenues and costs of individual projects are recognized on the individual project's aggregate value of units for which the home buyers have signed binding agreements of sale, less an allowance for cancellations, and are based on the percentage of total estimated construction costs that have been incurred. Total estimated revenues and construction costs are reviewed periodically, and any change is applied to current and future periods.

Land Sales: Land sales revenues and cost of revenues are recorded at the time that title and possession of the property have been transferred to the buyer. We recognize the pro rata share of revenues and cost of land sales revenues to entities in which we have a 50% or less interest based upon the ownership percentage attributable to the non-Company investors. Any profit not recognized in a transaction reduces our investment in the entity.

Table of ContentsOFF-BALANCE SHEET ARRANGEMENTS

We have investments in and advances to several joint ventures, to Toll Brothers Realty Trust Group (Trust) and Toll Brothers Realty Trust Group II (Trust II). At April 30, 2007, we had investments in and advances to these entities of $234.3 million, were committed to invest or advance an additional $344.7 million in the aggregate to these entities if needed and had guaranteed approximately $159.2 million of these entities' indebtedness and/or loan commitments. See Note 3 of the Notes to Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements, Investments in and Advances to Unconsolidated Entities for more information regarding these entities. We do not believe that these arrangements, individually or in the aggregate, have or are reasonably likely to have a current or future material effect on our financial condition, results of operations, liquidity or capital resources. Our investments in these entities are accounted for using the equity method.

HOME SALES REVENUES AND COSTS COMPLETED CONTRACT

Home sales revenues for the six months and three months ended April 30, 2007 were lower than those for the comparable periods of 2006 by approximately $500.8 million, or 19%, and $276.2 million, or 20%, respectively. The decrease in the six-month period was attributable to an 18% decrease in the number of homes delivered and a 1% decrease in the average price of the homes delivered. The decrease in the three-month period was attributable to an 18% decrease in the number of homes delivered and a 2% decrease in the average price of the homes delivered. The decrease in the number of homes delivered in the six-month and three-month periods ended April 30, 2007 was primarily due to the lower backlog of homes at October 31, 2006 as compared to October 31, 2005, which was primarily the result of a 41% decrease in the number of new contracts signed in fiscal 2006 over fiscal 2005, and the increased number of contract cancellations by home buyers in the fiscal 2007 periods as compared to the fiscal 2006 periods. In the six-month and three-month periods ended April 30, 2007, the value of contracts cancelled as a percentage of the gross value of contracts signed in the respective periods was 24% and 19%, respectively, as compared to 9% in each of the comparable periods of fiscal 2006. When we report contracts signed, the number and value of contracts signed are reported net of any cancellations occurring during the reporting period, whether signed in that reporting period or in a prior period.

The value of new sales contracts signed in the six months and three months ended April 30, 2007 was $1.89 billion (2,636 homes) and $1.16 billion (1,633 homes), respectively. This represented a 29% decrease and 25% decrease, respectively, compared to the value of contracts signed in the comparable periods of fiscal 2006 of $2.66 billion (3,668 homes) in the six-month period and $1.54 billion (2,144 homes) in the three-month period ended April 30, 2006. These decreases were attributable to a 28% decrease and 24% decrease in the number of new contracts signed in the six-month and three-month periods of fiscal 2007, respectively, as compared to the comparable periods of fiscal 2006, and a 1% decrease in the average value of each contract signed in each of the respective periods of fiscal 2007 as compared to fiscal 2006. We believe the decrease in both periods in the number of net contracts signed is attributable to the increased number of cancellations, a decline in consumer confidence, an overall softening of demand for new homes and an oversupply of homes available for sale. We attribute the reduction in demand to concerns on the part of prospective home buyers about the direction of home prices, due in part to many homebuilders advertising price reductions and increased sales incentives, and concerns by the prospective home buyer about being able to sell their existing homes. In addition, speculators and investors are no longer helping to fuel demand. We try to avoid selling homes to speculators, and we generally do not build detached homes without having a signed agreement of sale. Nonetheless, we have been impacted by an overall increase in the supply of homes available for sale in many markets as speculators attempt to sell the homes they previously purchased or cancel contracts for homes under construction, and as builders, who, as part of their business strategy, were building homes in anticipation of capturing additional sales in a demand-driven market, attempt to reduce their inventories by aggressively lowering prices and adding incentives. In addition, based on the high cancellation rates reported by us and by other builders, non-speculative buyer cancellations are also adding to the supply of homes in the marketplace. The decline in the average sales price was due primarily to a shift in the number of contracts signed to less expensive areas in the fiscal 2007 periods as compared to the comparable periods of fiscal 2006.

At April 30, 2007, our backlog of homes under contract accounted for under the completed contract method of accounting was $4.04 billion (5,532 homes), 31% lower than the $5.86 billion (8,369 homes) backlog at April 30, 2006. The decrease in backlog at April 30, 2007 compared to the backlog at April 30, 2006 is primarily attributable to a lower backlog at October 31, 2006 as compared to the backlog at October 31, 2005, and the decrease in the value and number of new contracts signed in the six-month period ended April 30, 2007 as compared to the six-month period ended April 30, 2006, offset in part by fewer deliveries in the fiscal 2007 period as compared to the fiscal 2006 period.

Home costs as a percentage of home sales revenue were 82.1% and 83.8% in the six-month and three-month periods ended April 30, 2007, respectively, as compared to 69.4% and 69.7% in the comparable periods of fiscal 2006. The increase in the percentages in the fiscal 2007 periods were primarily the result of the higher amount of inventory write-offs/write-downs recognized in the fiscal 2007 periods as compared to the fiscal 2006 periods. In addition, during the fiscal 2007 periods, sales incentives on the homes delivered were higher, decreased construction activity resulted in higher overhead costs per home delivered and external broker sales commissions on the homes delivered were higher as compared to the fiscal 2006 periods. In the six-month periods ended April 30, 2007 and 2006, we recognized inventory write-downs and the expensing of costs that we believed not to be recoverable of $216.6 million and $13.1 million, respectively. In the three-month periods ended April 30, 2007 and 2006, we recognized inventory write-downs and the expensing of costs that we believed not to be recoverable of $119.7 million and $12.0 million, respectively.

PERCENTAGE OF COMPLETION REVENUES AND COSTS

We are developing several projects for which we are recognizing revenues and costs using the percentage of completion method of accounting. Revenues and costs of individual projects are recognized on the individual project's aggregate value of units for which home buyers have signed binding agreements of sale and are based on the percentage of total estimated construction costs that have been incurred. Total estimated revenues and construction costs are reviewed periodically and any change is applied to current and future periods. In the six-month periods ended April 30, 2007 and 2006, we recognized $81.5 million and $97.5 million of revenues, respectively, and $63.3 million and $78.5 million of costs, respectively, on these projects. In the three-month periods ended April 30, 2007 and 2006, we recognized $48.4 million and $40.0 million of revenues, respectively, and $37.4 million and $31.2 million of costs, respectively, on these projects. In the six-month and three-month periods ended April 30, 2007, cost of revenues declined as a percentage of revenues recognized by 290 basis points and 90 basis points, respectively, as compared to the comparable periods of fiscal 2006. These declines were due primarily to a change in the mix of revenues recognized to less costly projects. In the six-month and three-month periods ended April 30, 2007, we delivered $177.0 million (216 homes) and $140.7 million (164 homes) in projects we are using the percentage of completion method of accounting.

At April 30, 2007, our backlog of homes in communities that we account for using the percentage of completion method of accounting was $102.1 million (net of $74.1 million of revenue recognized) compared to $212.8 million at April 30, 2006 (net of $97.6 million of revenue recognized). The decline in the backlog at April 30, 2007 is primarily the result of the recognition of revenues offset in part by the new contracts signed. We expect that this decline will continue as we recognize revenues, and sell out of existing projects without replacing them with new projects that qualify under the accounting rules for the application of the percentage of completion accounting method. See New Accounting Pronouncements in Note 1 of our Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements for further information.

LAND SALES REVENUES AND COSTS

We are developing several communities in which we expect to sell a portion of the land to other builders or entities. The amount and profitability of land sales will vary from year to year depending upon the sale and delivery of the specific land parcels. In the six-month periods ended April 30, 2007 and 2006, land sales were $5.4 million and $6.8 million, respectively, and the cost of land sales was approximately 51.5% and 87.6% of land sales revenues, respectively. In the three-month periods ended April 30, 2007 and 2006, land sales were $2.0 million and $2.1 million, respectively, and the cost of land sales was approximately 87.2% and 100.1% of land sales revenues, respectively.

INTEREST EXPENSE

In our communities accounted for using the completed contract method of accounting, we determine interest expense on a specific lot-by-lot basis and for land sales, on a parcel-by-parcel basis. As a percentage of total revenues, interest expense varies depending on many factors, including the period of time that we owned the land, the length of time that the homes delivered during the period were under construction, and the interest rates and the amount of debt carried by us in proportion to the amount of our inventory during those periods.

For projects using the percentage of completion method of revenue recognition, interest expense is determined based on the total estimated interest for the project and the percentage of total estimated construction costs that have been incurred to date. Any change in the estimated interest expense for the project is applied to current and future periods.

Interest expense as a percentage of revenues was slightly higher in the six-month and three-month periods ended April 30, 2007 as compared to the comparable periods of fiscal 2006.

SELLING, GENERAL AND ADMINISTRATIVE EXPENSES (SG&A)

SG&A spending decreased by $16.6 million, or 6%, and $11.7 million, or 8%, in the six-month and three-month periods ended April 30, 2007 as compared to the comparable periods of fiscal 2006. The reductions in spending were due primarily to cost reductions, offset in part by the expenses resulting from the increased number of communities from which we are operating. At April 30, 2007, we had 325 selling communities, an 18% increase over the 275 selling communities we had at April 30, 2006.

GOODWILL IMPAIRMENT

During the three-month period ended January 31, 2007, due to the continued decline of the Detroit market, we re-evaluated the carrying value of goodwill associated with a 1999 acquisition. We estimated the fair value of our assets in this market, including goodwill. Fair value was determined based on the discounted future cash flow expected to be generated in this market. Based upon this evaluation and our expectation that this market will not recover for a number of years, we determined that the related goodwill was impaired. We recognized a $9.0 million impairment charge in the three-month period ended January 31, 2007. After recognizing this charge, we do not have any goodwill remaining from this acquisition.

EQUITY EARNINGS FROM UNCONSOLIDATED ENTITIES

We are a participant in several joint ventures and in the Trust and Trust II. We recognize our proportionate share of the earnings from these entities. Many of our joint ventures are land development projects or high-rise/mid-rise construction projects and do not generate revenues and earnings for a number of years during the development of the property. Once development is complete, the joint ventures will generally, over a relatively short period of time, generate revenues and earnings until all the assets of the entities are sold. Because there is not a steady flow of revenues and earnings from these entities, the earnings recognized from these entities will vary significantly from quarter to quarter and year to year. In the six-month and three-month periods ended April 30, 2007, we recognized $11.5 million and $4.7 million, respectively, of earnings from unconsolidated entities as compared to $29.4 million and $12.8 million, respectively, in the comparable periods of fiscal 2006.

INTEREST AND OTHER INCOME

For the six-month and three-month periods ended April 30, 2007, interest and other income was $46.8 million and $17.8 million, respectively, as compared to the $22.3 million and $11.0 million recognized in the comparable periods of fiscal 2006. The $24.5 million increase in the six-month period of 2007 as compared to the six-month period of fiscal 2006 was primarily the result of a $9.6 million gain realized from the sale of our cable TV and broadband internet business, higher retained customer deposits on cancelled contracts, higher interest income and a $3.0 million gain from the sale of certain miscellaneous assets, offset in part by lower management fee income. The $6.8 million increase in the three-month period of 2007 as compared to the three-month period of fiscal 2006 was primarily the result of higher retained customer deposits on cancelled contracts, higher interest income and a $3.0 million gain from the sale of certain miscellaneous assets, offset in part by lower management fee income.

INCOME BEFORE INCOME TAXES

For the six-month period ended April 30, 2007, income before taxes was $146.7 million, a decrease of 73% from the $550.2 million earned in the comparable period of fiscal 2006. For the three-month period ended April 30, 2007, income before taxes was $59.5 million, a decrease of 79% from the $284.6 million earned in the comparable period of fiscal 2006.

INCOME TAXES

Income taxes were provided at an effective rate of 37.96% and 38.43% for the six-month periods ended April 30, 2007 and 2006, respectively, and 38.33% and 38.53% for the three-month periods ended April 30, 2007 and 2006, respectively. The decrease in the effective tax rates in the six-month and three-month periods of fiscal 2007 as compared to the comparable periods of fiscal 2006 was due primarily to the favorable impact of tax-free interest income in the fiscal 2007 periods, both in the amount and as a percentage of income before income taxes, and higher tax credits in the fiscal 2007 periods, offset in part by the recognition of higher interest expense (net of interest income) on estimated income tax assessments in the fiscal 2007 periods.

CAPITAL RESOURCES AND LIQUIDITY

Funding for our business has been provided principally by cash flow from operating activities, unsecured bank borrowings and the public debt and equity markets. We have used our cash flow from operating activities, bank borrowings and the proceeds of public debt and equity offerings to acquire additional land for new communities, fund additional expenditures for land development, fund construction costs needed to meet the requirements of our backlog and the increasing number of communities in which we are offering homes for sale, invest in unconsolidated entities, repurchase our stock, and repay debt.

We were a net user of cash in our operating activities in the six-month period ended 2007 due primarily to spending for land and construction in progress and an increase in our deferred tax assets due primarily to the timing of the deductibility of inventory write-downs. For income tax purposes we cannot recognize a deduction on the write-down of an operating community until we deliver the homes in the community while for financial reporting purposes we can recognize an income tax benefit in the period that the write-down is recognized. We expect that we will continue to be a net user of cash in our operating activities during the remainder of fiscal 2007 as we continue to purchase land and expend funds for construction in progress. At April 30, 2007, the aggregate purchase price of land parcels under option and purchase agreements was approximately $2.80 billion (including $1.18 billion of land to be acquired from joint ventures which we have invested in, made advances to or made loan guarantees on behalf of, in the aggregate amount of $287.3 million), of which we had paid or deposited approximately $156.9 million.

In general, cash flow from operating activities assumes that, as each home is delivered, we will purchase a home site to replace it. Because we own several years' supply of home sites, we do not need to buy home sites immediately to replace the ones delivered. In addition, we generally do not begin construction of our single-family detached homes until we have a signed contract with the home buyer, although in fiscal 2006 and during the six-month period ended April 30, 2007, due to an extremely high cancellation rate of customer contracts and the increase in the number of attached-home communities that we were operating from, the number of speculative homes in our inventory increased significantly. In the six-month period ended April 30, 2007, the value of net new contracts signed decreased 29% as compared to the comparable period of fiscal 2006. For the full 2006 fiscal year, the value of net new contracts signed with home buyers decreased by 41% from fiscal 2005. Should our business continue to decline significantly, we believe that our inventory levels would decrease, as we complete and deliver the homes under construction but do not commence construction of as many new homes and sell and deliver the speculative homes that are currently in inventory, resulting in a temporary increase in our cash flow from operations. In addition, we might continue to delay or curtail our acquisition of additional land, as we did in the first half of fiscal 2007 and the second half of fiscal 2006, which would further reduce our inventory levels and cash needs. We decreased our home sites owned and controlled at April 30, 2007 by approximately 11% from October 31, 2006 and by approximately 28% from April 30, 2006, the high point of lots owned and controlled, in response to the deterioration of the housing market.

During the past several years, we have had a significant amount of cash invested in either short-term cash equivalents or short-term interest-bearing marketable securities. In addition, we have made a number of investments in unconsolidated entities related to the acquisition and development of land for future home sites or in entities that are constructing or converting apartment buildings into luxury condominiums. Our investment activities related to marketable securities and investments in and distributions of investments from unconsolidated entities are contained in the Condensed Consolidated Statements of Cash Flows in the section Cash flow from investing activities.

We have a $1.89 billion credit facility consisting of a $1.56 billion unsecured revolving credit facility and a $331.7 million term loan facility (collectively, the Credit Facility) with 35 banks, which extends to March 2011. At April 30, 2007, interest was payable on borrowings under the revolving credit facility at 0.475% (subject to adjustment based upon our corporate debt rating and leverage ratios) above the Eurodollar rate or at other specified variable rates as selected by us from time to time. At April 30, 2007, we had no outstanding borrowings against the revolving credit facility but had letters of credit of approximately $412.2 million outstanding under it. Under the term loan facility, interest is payable at 0.50% (subject to adjustment based upon our corporate debt rating and leverage ratios) above the Eurodollar rate or at other specified variable rates as selected by us from time to time. At April 30, 2007, interest was payable on the term loan at 5.84%.

We believe that we will be able to continue to fund our operations and meet our contractual obligations through a combination of existing cash resources and our existing sources of credit and the public debt markets.

INFLATION

The long-term impact of inflation on us is manifested in increased costs for land, land development, construction and overhead, as well as in increased sales prices of our homes. We generally contract for land significantly before development and sales efforts begin. Accordingly, to the extent land acquisition costs are fixed, increases or decreases in the sales prices of homes will affect our profits. Because the sales price of each of our homes is fixed at the time a buyer enters into a contract to acquire a home, and because we generally contract to sell our homes before we begin construction, any inflation of costs in excess of those anticipated may result in lower gross margins. We generally attempt to minimize that effect by entering into fixed-price contracts with our subcontractors and material suppliers for specified periods of time, which generally do not exceed one year.

In general, housing demand is adversely affected by increases in interest rates and housing costs. Interest rates, the length of time that land remains in inventory and the proportion of inventory that is financed affect our interest costs. If we are unable to raise sales prices enough to compensate for higher costs, or if mortgage interest rates increase significantly, affecting prospective buyers' ability to adequately finance home purchases, our revenues, gross margins and net income would be adversely affected. Increases in sales prices, whether the result of inflation or demand, may affect the ability of prospective buyers to afford new homes.

GEOGRAPHIC SEGMENTS

We operate in four geographic segments around the United States: the North, consisting of Connecticut, Illinois, Massachusetts, Michigan, Minnesota, New Jersey, New York, Ohio and Rhode Island; the Mid-Atlantic, consisting of Delaware, Maryland, Pennsylvania, Virginia and West Virginia; the South, consisting of Florida, North Carolina, South Carolina and Texas; and the West, consisting of Arizona, California, Colorado and Nevada.

Table of Contents

We stopped selling homes in Ohio in fiscal 2005 and delivered our last home in that state in fiscal 2006. The operations in Ohio were immaterial to the North segment.

The following table summarizes by geographic segment total revenues and income before income taxes for each of the six-month and three-month periods ended April 30, 2007 and 2006 (in millions):

The discussion of our business activities in each geographic segment refers to net contracts signed and cancellation rates. Net contracts signed is calculated by deducting all contracts cancelled during the period, whether signed in the period being referred to or in prior periods from the total contracts signed in the period (gross contracts). Cancellation rates are calculated by dividing the total number of contracts cancelled in the period by the gross contracts signed.

North

Revenues for the six months and three months ended April 30, 2007 were lower than those for the comparable periods of 2006 by approximately $180.0 million and $79.7 million, or 28.2% and 24.4%, respectively. The decrease in revenues for the six-month period was attributable to a 31% decrease in the number of homes delivered, offset in part by an increase of 1% in the average price of the homes delivered. The decrease in revenues for the three months ended

April 30, 2007 was attributable to a 30% decrease in the number of homes delivered, partially offset by an increase in percentage of completion revenues of approximately $9.7 million. The decrease in the number of homes delivered in the six-month and three-month periods ended April 30, 2007 was primarily due to the lower backlog of homes at October 31, 2006 as compared to October 31, 2005, which was primarily the result of a 27% decrease in the number of new contracts signed in fiscal 2006 over fiscal 2005 and the increased cancellation rate by home buyers in the six-month and three-month periods of fiscal 2007 as compared to the rates in the comparable periods of fiscal 2006.

For the six months ended April 30, 2007, the value of net new contracts signed was approximately $657.5 million as compared to $681.0 million for the six months ended April 30, 2006, a decrease of 3%. The number of net new contracts signed decreased 7% while the average value of each contact increased by 4%. The value of net new contracts signed in the three months ended April 30, 2007 was approximately $366.0 million, a 5% decline from the $387.2 million of net new contracts signed in the three months ended April 30, 2006. This decrease was attributable to a 7% decrease in the number of net new contracts signed, partially offset by a 1% increase in the average value of each contract. The decline in new contracts signed in the fiscal 2007 was primarily due to a slowdown in the housing market primarily in Connecticut, Illinois, Michigan and the non-urban markets in New Jersey. However, in New York and the urban markets of New Jersey, net new signed contracts increased by $143.4 million and $102.9 million in the six months and three months ended April 30, 2007, respectively, as compared to the same periods in 2006. The contract cancellation rates for the six-month periods ended April 30, 2007 and 2006 were 10.0% and 5.8%, respectively, and 9.9% and 4.0% for the three-month periods ended April 30, 2007 and 2006, respectively.

For the six-month and three-month periods ended April 30, 2007, we reported a loss before income taxes of $7.7 million and $7.0 million, respectively, as compared to income before income taxes of $135.3 million and $63.5 million reported for the six-month and three-month periods ended April 30, 2006, respectively. The decreases were due to higher costs of revenues in the fiscal 2007 periods as compared to the fiscal 2006 periods (principally related to $82.7 million and $49.5 million of inventory write-downs in the six months and three months ended April 30, 2007, respectively, as compared to $11.2 million and $10.9 million of write-downs in the same periods in 2006), the lower profits realized from the decreased revenues in the six-month period and three-month period ended April 30, 2007 as compared to the six-month and three-month period ended April 30, 2006, and decreased income realized from unconsolidated entities in the fiscal 2007 periods as compared to the comparable periods of fiscal 2006.

Mid-Atlantic

Revenues for the six months ended April 30, 2007 were lower than those for the comparable period of 2006 by approximately $184.0 million, primarily due to an 18% decrease in the number of homes delivered and a 5% decrease in the average price of homes delivered. For the three months ended April 30, 2007, revenues were lower by $121.4 million, or 27%, than the comparable period of fiscal 2006. The decrease in the three-month period was attributable to a 22% decrease in the number of homes delivered (primarily in Virginia) and a 6% decrease in the average price of the homes delivered. The decreases in the number of homes delivered in the six-month and three-month periods ended April 30, 2007 were primarily due to a lower backlog of homes at October 31, 2006 as compared to October 31, 2005. The decrease in the backlog of homes was primarily the result of a 43% decrease in the number of new contracts signed in fiscal 2006 over fiscal 2005, due primarily to weak demand, and a significantly higher number of contract cancellations in fiscal 2006 as compared to fiscal 2005. The decrease in the average price of the homes delivered was primarily related to lower prices in Maryland due to the completion of deliveries of three communities in fiscal year 2006 which had significantly higher average prices than the communities which replaced them in 2007.

The value of net new contracts signed in the six months ended April 30, 2007 of approximately $553.2 million decreased 25% from the net new contracts signed of approximately $733.0 million in the comparable period of fiscal 2006. The decline was due primarily to a 23% decrease in the number of contracts signed and a 3% decrease in the average value of each contract. The value of net new contracts signed in the three-month period ended April 30, 2007 was approximately $346.0 million, a 16% decline from the $414.3 million of net new contracts signed in the three-month period ended April 30, 2006. This decrease was attributable to a 17% decrease in the number of net new contracts signed, partially offset by a 1% increase in the average value of each contract. The decline in the number of net new contracts signed was due primarily to weak demand and higher than normal contract cancellations in the fiscal 2007 periods as compared to the comparable periods of fiscal 2006. The contract cancellation rates for the six months ended April 30, 2007 and 2006 were 14.8% and 7.4%, respectively, and 9.9% and 6.9% for the three months ended April 30, 2007 and 2006, respectively.

Income before income taxes for the six months and three months ended April 30, 2007 declined $131.0 million and $65.5 million, respectively. These decreases were attributable to lower revenues and higher cost of revenues in the periods ended April 30, 2007 as compared to the comparable periods in fiscal 2006. The higher cost of revenues in the six-month period of fiscal 2007 period was primarily due to $23.6 million of inventory write-downs in 2007 as compared to $0.8 million in fiscal 2006 and higher sales incentives given on the homes delivered in 2007 as compared to those delivered in 2006. The higher cost of revenues in the three-month period of fiscal 2007 periods was primarily due to higher sales incentives given on the homes delivered in the three-month period of fiscal 2007 as compared to those delivered in the comparable period of fiscal 2006.

South

Revenues for the six months ended April 30, 2007 were lower than those for the six months ended April 30, 2006 by approximately $21.5 million, or 4%. The decrease in revenues was primarily due to a 9% decrease in the number of homes delivered and a decrease in percentage of completion revenues of approximately $3.3 million, offset in part by a 7% increase in the average price of the homes delivered in the fiscal 2007 period compared to the fiscal 2006 period. The decrease in the number of homes delivered was primarily attributable to our operations in Florida, where we had a lower number of homes in backlog at October 31, 2006 as compared to October 31, 2005 and the increased cancellation rate by home buyers in the six months of fiscal 2007 as compared to the comparable period of fiscal 2006.

Revenues for the three months ended April 30, 2007 were higher than those for the comparable period of 2006 by approximately $6.5 million, or 2%. The increase in revenues was attributable to a 7% increase in the average price of the homes delivered, partially offset by a 4% decrease in the number of homes delivered. In Florida, the average price of the homes delivered increased by 13% primarily due to a greater number of homes being delivered in the fiscal 2007 period from communities with higher average prices than those delivered in the fiscal 2006 period. The decrease in the number of homes delivered was primarily attributable to our operations in Florida, where we had a lower number of homes in backlog at October 31, 2006 as compared to October 31, 2005 and the increased cancellation rate by home buyers in the first the first six months of fiscal 2007.

The value of net new contracts signed in the six-month and three-month periods ended April 30, 2007 was approximately $286.4 million and $165.8 million, respectively, a 43% decline in each period from the net new contracts signed in the six-month and three-month periods ended April 30, 2006. The decline in the six-month period of fiscal 2007 as compared to the comparable period of fiscal 2006 was due to a 38% decrease in the number of net new contracts signed and a 7% decrease in the average value of each contract. The decline in the three-month period of fiscal 2007 as compared to the comparable period of fiscal 2006 was due to a 40% decrease in the number of net new contracts signed and a 5% decrease in the average value of each contract. The decreases in the number of net new signed contracts was primarily the result of weak market conditions in Florida in the fiscal 2007 periods as compared to the comparable periods of fiscal 2006 and a significantly higher number of contract cancellations in the fiscal 2007 periods than in the comparable period in 2006. For the six months ended April 30, 2007, the cancellation rate in Florida was 50.6% compared to 11.5% in the six months ended April 30, 2006. For the three months ended April 30, 2007, the cancellation rate in Florida was 39.6% compared to 13.8% in the three months ended April 30, 2006. The decrease in the average sales price was due primarily to a shift in the number of contracts to areas with lower priced homes in the fiscal 2007 period as compared to the comparable periods of fiscal 2006. For the entire region, the cancellation rate was 32.7% and 8.5% for the six months ended April 30, 2007 and 2006, respectively, and 27.8% and 8.6% for the three-month periods ended April 30, 2007 and 2006, respectively.

Income before income taxes for the six months ended April 30, 2007 was $25.9 million, a decrease of $45.0 million from the $70.9 million reported for the six months ended April 30, 2006. For the three months ended April 30, 2007, income before income taxes declined $14.9 million as compared to the comparable three months of 2006. These decreases were due to decreased revenues in the six-month and three-month periods ended April 30, 2007 as compared to the comparable periods of fiscal 2006, and higher cost of revenues as a percentage of total revenues in the fiscal 2007 periods as compared to the comparable periods of fiscal 2006, partially offset by higher retained customer deposits on contract cancellations for the six months and three months ended April 30, 2007 as compared to the six months and three months ended April 30, 2006. The higher costs of revenues were principally due to inventory write-downs. We recognized inventory write-downs of $46.8 and $16.4 million in the six and three months ended

April 30, 2007, respectively, as compared to $0.8 million and $0.6 million in the comparable periods of fiscal 2006.

Table of Contents

West

Revenues for the six months and three months ended April 30, 2007 were lower than those for the comparable periods of 2006 by approximately $132.7 million and $73.2 million, or 18% and 19%, respectively. The decrease in revenues was attributable to a decrease in the number of homes delivered of 13% and 15% for the six- and three-month periods ended April 30, 2007 as compared to comparable periods in 2006, and a decrease in the average price of homes delivered of 5% and 4% for the six- and three-month periods ended April 30, 2007 as compared to comparable periods in 2006. The decrease in the number of homes delivered was primarily attributable to the lower number of homes in backlog at October 31, 2006 as compared to October 31, 2005, and a significantly higher number of contract cancellations in fiscal 2007 than in fiscal 2006.

For the six months ended April 30, 2007, the value of net new contracts signed was approximately $420.6 million compared to $790.2 million for the first six months of 2006, a decrease of 47%. The number of new contracts signed decreased 49% for the six months ended April 30, 2007 as compared to the same period in 2006.

The value of net new contracts signed in the three months ended April 30, 2007 of approximately $291.2 million, decreased 38% from the net new contracts signed of approximately $471.0 million in the comparable period of fiscal 2006. The decline was primarily due to a 37% decrease in the number of net new contracts signed in the fiscal 2007 period as compared to the fiscal 2006 period which was attributable to weak demand and higher than normal contract cancellations in the three months ended April 30, 2007 as compared to the three-month period ended April 30, 2006. The cancellation rate for the six months and three months ended April 30, 2007 was 44.0% and 33.8%, respectively, as compared to 15.1% and 15.4% for the comparable periods in 2006.

Income before income taxes for the six months and three months ended April 30, 2007 declined $112.3 million and $84.8 million, respectively. These decreases were attributable to lower revenues and higher cost of revenues in the periods ended April 30, 2007 as compared to the comparable periods in 2006. The higher cost of revenues in the fiscal 2007 period was primarily due to $63.5 and $53.0 million of inventory write-down in the six months and three months ended April 30, 2007 compared to $0.3 million and $0.2 million in the comparable periods of fiscal 2006 and higher sales incentives given on the homes delivered in the fiscal 2007 periods as compared to those delivered in the comparable periods of fiscal 2006.

Other

Other loss before income taxes for the six months ended April 30, 2007 was $54.6 million, a decrease of $27.8 million from the $82.4 million loss before income taxes reported for the six months ended April 30, 2006. This decline was primarily the result of lower general and administrative costs, a $9.6 million gain realized from the sale of our cable TV and broadband internet business, and higher interest income.

For the three months ended April 30, 2007, other loss before income taxes decreased by $10.6 million from the comparable period of fiscal 2006. This decrease was primarily due to lower general and administration costs attributable to lower compensation expenses.

Table of ContentsITEM 3. QUANTITATIVE AND QUALITATIVE DISCLOSURES ABOUT MARKET RISK

We are exposed to market risk primarily due to fluctuations in interest rates. We utilize both fixed-rate and variable-rate debt. For fixed-rate debt, changes in interest rates generally affect the fair market value of the debt instrument, but not our earnings or cash flow. Conversely, for variable-rate debt, changes in interest rates generally do not impact the fair market value of the debt instrument, but do affect our earnings and cash flow. We do not have the obligation to prepay fixed-rate debt prior to maturity, and, as a result, interest rate risk and changes in fair market value should not have a significant impact on our fixed-rate debt until we are required or elect to refinance it.

The table below sets forth, at April 30, 2007, our debt obligations, principal cash flows by scheduled maturity, weighted-average interest rates and estimated fair value (amounts in thousands):

Fiscal Year of Maturity	Fixed-Rate Debt		Variable-Rate Debt
	Amount	Weighted-Average Interest Rate	Amount	Weighted-Average Interest Rate
2007	$ 102,699	7.72%	$ 133,014	6.24%
2008	51,522	6.04%	1,900	6.63%
2009	11,147	6.89%	150	4.00%
2010	9,759	5.94%	122,043	6.09%
2011	270,335	7.75%	331,817	5.83%
Thereafter	1,300,849	6.01%	12,845	4.00%
Discount	(8,264)
Total	$ 1,738,047	6.39%	$ 601,769	5.94%
Fair value at April 30, 2007	$ 1,721,148		$ 601,769

- (a) We have a $1.89 billion credit facility consisting of a $1.56 billion unsecured revolving credit facility and a $331.7 million term loan facility (collectively, the Credit Facility) with 35 banks, which extends to March 17, 2011. At April 30, 2007, interest was payable on borrowings under the revolving credit facility at 0.475% (subject to adjustment based upon our corporate debt rating and leverage ratios) above the Eurodollar rate or at other specified variable rates as selected by us from time to time. At April 30, 2007, we had no outstanding borrowings against the revolving credit facility, but had letters of credit of approximately $412.2 million outstanding under it. Under the term loan facility, interest is payable at 0.50% (subject to adjustment based upon our corporate debt rating and leverage ratios) above the Eurodollar rate or at other specified variable rates as selected by us from time to time. At April 30, 2007, interest was payable on the $331.7 million term loan at 5.84%.
- (b) Our mortgage subsidiary has a $150 million line of credit with four banks to fund mortgage originations. The line is due within 90 days of demand by the banks and bears interest at the banks overnight rate plus an agreed-upon margin. At April 30, 2007, the subsidiary had $133.0 million outstanding under the line at an average interest rate of 6.24%. Borrowings under this line are included in the fiscal 2007 maturities.

Based upon the amount of variable-rate debt outstanding at April 30, 2007, and holding the variable-rate debt balance constant, each 1% increase in interest rates would increase the interest incurred by us by approximately $6.0 million per year.

ITEM 4. CONTROLS AND PROCEDURES

A control system, no matter how well conceived and operated, can provide only reasonable, not absolute, assurance that the objectives of the control system are met. Further, the design of a control system must reflect the fact that there are resource constraints and the benefits of controls must be considered relative to costs. Because of the inherent limitations in all control systems, no evaluation of controls can provide absolute assurance that all control issues and instances of fraud, if any, within the company have been detected. Because of the inherent limitations in a cost-effective control system, misstatements due to error or fraud may occur and not be detected. Our disclosure controls and procedures are designed to provide reasonable assurance of achieving their objectives.

Our chief executive officer and chief financial officer, with the assistance of management, evaluated the effectiveness of our disclosure controls and procedures (as defined in Rules 13a-15(e) and 15d-15(e) under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended) as of the end of the period covered by this report (the Evaluation Date). Based on that evaluation, our chief executive officer and chief financial officer concluded that, as of the Evaluation Date, our disclosure controls and procedures were effective to ensure that information required to be disclosed in our reports under the Exchange Act is recorded, processed, summarized and reported within the time periods specified in the Securities and Exchange Commission's rules and forms, and that such information is accumulated and communicated to management, including our chief executive officer and chief financial officer, as appropriate to allow timely decisions regarding required disclosure.

There has not been any change in internal control over financial reporting during our quarter ended April 30, 2007 that has materially affected, or is reasonably likely to materially affect, our internal control over financial reporting.

PART II. OTHER INFORMATION

ITEM 1. LEGAL PROCEEDINGS

We are involved in various claims and litigation arising principally in the ordinary course of business. We believe that the disposition of these matters will not have a material adverse effect on our business or our financial condition.

In January 2006, we received a request for information pursuant to Section 308 of the Clean Water Act from Region 3 of the Environmental Protection Agency (the EPA) requesting information about storm water discharge practices in connection with our homebuilding projects in the states that comprise EPA Region 3. To the extent the EPA's review were to lead the EPA to assert violations of state and/or federal regulatory requirements and request injunctive relief and/or civil penalties, we would defend and attempt to resolve any such asserted violations. At this time we cannot predict the outcome of the EPA's review.

A securities class action was filed on April 17, 2007 in the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Pennsylvania against us and two of our current officers. Plaintiff filed this action on behalf of a purported class of purchasers of our common stock between December 9, 2004 and November 8, 2005. The complaint alleges that the defendants violated Sections 10(b) and 20(a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 by issuing materially false and misleading statements. The plaintiff class seeks an unspecified amount of compensatory damages. We believe that this lawsuit is without merit and intend to vigorously defend against it.

On May 21, 2007, a consumer class action was filed against us, our mortgage company subsidiary and our title company subsidiary in the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Pennsylvania. The purported class is made up of mortgage borrowers who purchased a home from us and obtained a mortgage and/or title insurance for the home purchase from our mortgage company and/or title company subsidiary. The complaint alleges that we violated the Real Estate Settlement Procedures Act by requiring the use of our mortgage company subsidiary for the financing of home purchases from us and/or the use of our title company subsidiary for the provision of title insurance. We believe that this lawsuit is without merit and intend to vigorously defend against it.

There are no other proceedings required to be disclosed pursuant to Item 103 of Regulation S-K.

Table of ContentsITEM 1A. RISK FACTORS

There has been no material change in our risk factors as previously disclosed in our Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended October 31, 2006 in response to Item 1A. to Part 1 of such Form 10-K.

ITEM 2. UNREGISTERED SALES OF EQUITY SECURITIES AND USE OF PROCEEDS

During the three months ended April 30, 2007 we repurchased the following shares of our common stock:

Period	Total Number of Shares Purchased (In thousands)	Average Price Paid per Share	Total Number of Shares Purchased as Part of a Publicly Announced Plan or Program(1) (In thousands)	Maximum Number of Shares That May Yet be Purchased Under the Plan or Program(1) (In thousands)
February 1, 2007 to February 28, 2007	3	$ 33.17	3	12,079
March 1, 2007 to March 31, 2007	3	$ 29.15	3	12,076
April 1, 2007 to April 30, 2007	2	$ 28.43	2	12,074
Total	8	$ 30.53	8

(1) On March 26, 2003, we announced that our Board of Directors had authorized the repurchase of up to 20 million shares of our common stock, par value $.01, from time to time, in open market transactions or otherwise, for the purpose of providing shares for our various employee benefit plans. The Board of Directors did not fix an expiration date for the repurchase program.

Except as set forth above, we did not repurchase any of our equity securities during the three-month period ended April 30, 2007.

We have not paid any cash dividends on our common stock to date and expect that, for the foreseeable future, we will not do so. Rather, we will follow a policy of retaining earnings in order to finance the continued growth of our business and, from time to time, repurchase shares of our common stock.

The payment of dividends is within the discretion of our Board of Directors and any decision to pay dividends in the future will depend upon an evaluation of a number of factors, including our earnings, capital requirements, our operating and financial condition, and any contractual limitations then in effect. In this regard, our senior subordinated notes contain restrictions on the amount of dividends we may pay on our common stock. In addition, our Credit Facility requires us to maintain a minimum tangible net worth (as defined in the credit agreement), which restricts the amount of dividends we may pay. At April 30, 2007, under the most restrictive of these provisions, we could have paid up to approximately $1.13 billion of cash dividends.
