(the "Company"), for use at the Annual Meeting of the Company's shareholders to be held at the University Plaza Convention Center, 333 John Q. Hammons Parkway, Springfield, Missouri 65806, on Tuesday, May 8, 2001, at 10:00 a.m., local time, and at any adjournments thereof. Whether or not you expect to attend the meeting in person, please return your executed proxy in the enclosed envelope or vote via telephone or Internet using the instructions on the proxy and the shares represented thereby will be voted in accordance with your wishes. REVOCABILITY OF PROXY

If, after sending in your proxy, you decide to vote in person or desire to revoke your proxy for any other reason, you may do so by notifying the Secretary of the Company in writing of such revocation at any time prior to the voting of the proxy.

RECORD DATE

Shareholders of record at the close of business on February 28, 2001, will be entitled to vote at the Annual Meeting.

ACTION TO BE TAKEN UNDER PROXY

All properly executed proxies received by the Board of Directors pursuant to this solicitation will be voted in accordance with the shareholders' directions specified in the proxy. If no such directions have been specified by marking the appropriate squares in the accompanying proxy card, the shares will be voted by the persons named in the enclosed proxy card as follows:

- (1) FOR the election of Lawrence P. O'Reilly, Rosalie O'Reilly Wooten and Joe C. Greene, named herein as nominees for Class II Directors of the Company, to hold office until the annual meeting of the Company's shareholders in 2004 and until their successors have been duly elected and qualified;
- (2) FOR the adoption of the proposal to amend the Company's Restated Articles of Incorporation to eliminate certain director liability to the extent permitted by Missouri law;
- (3) According to their judgment on the transaction of such other business as may properly come before the meeting or any postponements or adjournments thereof.

None of the three nominees have indicated that they would be unable or will decline to serve as a Director. However, should any nominee become unable or unwilling to serve for any reason, it is intended that the persons named in the proxy will vote for the election of such other person in their stead as may be designated by the Board of Directors. The Board of Directors is not aware of any reason that might cause any nominee to be unavailable to serve as a Director.

VOTING SECURITIES AND VOTING RIGHTS

Edgar Filing: O REILLY AUTOMOTIVE INC - Form PRE 14A

On February 28, 2001, there were 51,571,313 shares of Common Stock outstanding, which constitute all of the outstanding shares of the voting capital stock of the Company. Each share of Common Stock is entitled to one vote on all matters to come before the Annual Meeting, including the election of Directors.

A majority of the outstanding shares present or represented by proxy will constitute a quorum at the meeting. The affirmative vote of a majority of the votes of the shares present in person or represented by proxy at the Annual Meeting and entitled to vote is required to elect each person nominated for Director. Shares present at the meeting but which abstain or are represented by proxies which are marked "WITHHOLD AUTHORITY" with respect to the election of any person to serve on the Board of Directors will be considered in determining whether the requisite number of affirmative votes are cast on such matter. Accordingly, such proxies will have the same effect as a vote against the nominee as to which such abstention or direction applies. Shares not present at the meeting will not affect the election of directors. Broker non-votes will not be treated as shares represented at the meeting with respect to the election of directors, and therefore will have no effect.

The vote required for the approval of Proposal 2 - Amendment to Restated Articles of Incorporation, is the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the shares of the Company's Common Stock entitled to notice of such vote at the Annual Meeting. Shares present at the Annual Meeting but which abstain with respect to the amendment (including proxies that deny discretionary authority with respect to the amendment) as well as broker non-votes will have the same effect as votes against the amendment.

The vote required for any other matter properly brought before the meeting will be the affirmative vote of the majority of the shares of Common Stock present in person or represented by proxy at the Annual Meeting and entitled to vote on the proposal unless Missouri law of the Company's Restated Articles of Incorporation or By-laws require a greater vote. Shares present at the meeting which abstain (including proxies which deny discretionary authority on any matters properly brought before the meeting) will be counted as shares present and entitled to vote and will have the same effect as a vote against any such matter. Broker non-votes will not be treated as shares represented at the meeting as to such matter(s) voted on and therefore will have no effect.

Information Concerning Board of Directors

During fiscal year 2000, 4 meetings of the Board of Directors were held. During such year, each Director attended 75% or more of the aggregate of (i) the total number of meetings of the Board of Directors held during the period for which he or she has been a Director and (ii) the total number of meetings held by all committees of the Board of Directors on which he or she served during the period for which he or she served, with the exception of Charles H. O'Reilly, Sr., who attended 50% of the aggregate meetings and Charles H. O'Reilly, Jr., who attended 50% of the aggregate meetings.

The Board of Directors has two standing committees, the Audit Committee and the Compensation Committee. The Company has no standing nominating committee or other committee performing a similar function.

The Audit Committee currently consists of Messrs. Burchfield, Greene and Lederer, each of whom are "independent" pursuant to the standards imposed by the Nasdaq Stock Market. The Audit Committee recommends the engagement of independent accountants, confers with internal and external auditors regarding the adequacy of our financial control and fiscal policy, and directs changes to financial policies or procedures as suggested by the auditors. The Audit Committee functions pursuant to a written charter, a copy of which is attached hereto as Appendix A. During fiscal year 2000, four Audit Committee meetings were held.

The Compensation Committee consists of Messrs. Burchfield and Greene. The purpose of the Compensation Committee is to act on behalf of the Board of Directors with respect to the establishment and administration of the policies which govern the annual compensation of the Company's executive officers. The Compensation Committee also administers the Company's stock option and other benefit plans. During fiscal year 2000, one Compensation Committee meeting was held.

Compensation of Directors

The Company pays an annual fee of $10,000 to Directors who are not employees of the Company. In addition, the Company pays non-employee Directors $500 for each Board of Directors meeting or committee meeting attended. The Company also reimburses Directors for out-of-pocket expenses incurred in connection with their attendance at Board and committee meetings. Directors' fees of $24,000 were paid during 2000.

The Company also maintains a Directors' Stock Option Plan, providing for an automatic annual grant (on April 22 or the first business day thereafter) to each director who is not an employee of the Company of a non-qualified stock option to purchase 10,000 shares of Common Stock at a per share exercise price equal to the fair market value of the Common Stock on the date the option is granted. Director stock options expire immediately upon the date on which the optionee ceases to be a director for any reason or seven years after the date on which the option is granted, whichever first occurs. Each of the Company's two non-employee directors in 2000 were granted options during the year to purchase 10,000 shares of Common Stock under the Company's Directors' Stock Option Plan at an exercise price of $12.4375 per share.

Executive Compensation

The following information is given for the fiscal years ended December 31, 2000, 1999 and 1998, concerning annual and long-term compensation for services rendered to the Company and its subsidiaries for the Company's Chief Executive Officer and each of the Company's four other most highly compensated executive officers (other than the Chief Executive Officer) during fiscal year 2000.

Employment Arrangements with Executive Officers

The Company entered into written employment agreements effective January 1, 1993, with David E. O'Reilly, Lawrence P. O'Reilly and Charles H. O'Reilly, Jr. Such agreements, which are in substantially identical form, provide for each of the foregoing executive officers to be employed by the Company for a minimum period of three years and automatically renew for each calendar year thereafter. As compensation for services rendered to the Company, the agreements provide for each executive officer to receive (i) a base annual salary of $220,000 for David and Lawrence O'Reilly and $176,000 for Charles O'Reilly, Jr., adjusted annually for increases in the cost of living as reflected by the Consumer Price Index for All Urban Consumers as determined by the United States Department of Labor, Bureau of Labor Statistics, and (ii) a bonus, the amount of which is determined by reference to such criteria as may be established by the Compensation Committee.

The Company has also entered into written retirement agreements with David E. O'Reilly, Lawrence P. O'Reilly and Charles H. O'Reilly, Jr. Such agreements, which are in substantially identical form, provide for each of the foregoing executive officers to be employed as a consultant upon retirement, for a period of ten years at a yearly salary of $100,000. The agreements also provide for each officer to receive medical benefits, death and disability benefits, as well as the use of a car and the Company plane.

An executive officer's employment may be terminated by the Company for cause (as defined in the agreement) or without cause. If an executive officer's employment is terminated for cause or if an executive officer resigns, such executive officer's salary and bonus rights will cease on the date of such termination or resignation. If the Company terminates an executive officer without cause, all compensation payments will continue through the remainder of the agreement's term. Pursuant to his or her respective agreement, each executive officer has agreed for so long as he or she is receiving payments thereunder to refrain from disclosing information confidential to the Company or engaging, directly or indirectly, in any automotive parts distribution, manufacturing or sales business in the states in which the Company operates without prior written consent of the Company.

Compensation Committee Interlocks and Insider Participation

Joe C. Greene, a Director of the Company and member of the Compensation Committee, is the Managing Partner of the law firm of Greene & Curtis, LLP, which has provided legal services to the Company in prior years and is expected to provide legal services to the Company in the future. Mr. Greene is also a Director of Commerce Bank, N.A. in Springfield, Missouri which has loaned $5 million to the Company under a promissory note. The Company believes that the terms of the legal services provided by Mr. Greene are no less favorable to the Company than those that would have been available to the Company in comparable transactions with unaffiliated parties.

Compensation Committee Report

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth in any of the Company's previous filings under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, or the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, that might be incorporated by reference in future filings, including this proxy statement, in whole or in part, the following Compensation Committee Report shall not be incorporated into any such filings.

General

The Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors is responsible for recommending to the Board of Directors a compensation package and specific compensation levels for the executive officers of the Company. Additionally, the Compensation Committee establishes policies and guidelines for other benefit programs and administers the award of stock options under the Company's 1993 Stock Option Plan. The Compensation Committee is composed of two non-employee members of the Board of Directors.

Policy

The Compensation Committee's policy with respect to executive compensation is to provide the executive officers of the Company with a total compensation package which is competitive and equitable and which encourages and rewards performance based in part upon the Company's performance in terms of increases in share value. The key components of the Company's compensation package for its executive officers are base salary, annual cash bonuses and long-term, stock-based incentives.

Base Salary

The minimum annual base salary of each of Charles H. O'Reilly, Jr., David E. O'Reilly and Lawrence P. O'Reilly is fixed under their employment agreements with the Company, subject to increases by the Board of Directors (after considering the recommendations of the Compensation Committee). The base salary for each of these executive officers was established prior to the Company's initial public offering in April 1993. The minimum annual base salary, which was set by the Board of Directors (as then constituted) for purposes of the employment agreements with each of the aforementioned executive officers, represented the subjective judgment of the Board as to a fair minimum compensation level, taking into account the then contemplated initial public offering and the potential for additional cash compensation in the form of a bonus for 1993. Any future recommendation by the Compensation Committee for adjustments to the annual base salary of an executive officer will be for the purposes of bringing them in line with base compensation then being paid by the Company's competitors for executive management, based upon the Compensation

Edgar Filing: O REILLY AUTOMOTIVE INC - Form PRE 14A

Committee's review of, among other things, compensation data for comparable companies and positions, and, in the case of executive officers other than the Chief Executive Officer, the Chairman of the Board or the Chief Operating Officer, reflecting increased responsibilities. The Compensation Committee believes that the Company's principal competitors for executive management are not necessarily the same companies that would be included in a peer group compiled for purposes of comparing shareholder returns. Consequently, the companies that are reviewed for such compensation purposes may not be the same as the companies comprising the Nasdaq-Amex Retail Trade Stock Price Index included in this Proxy Statement. The base salaries of the aforementioned executive officers were increased in 2000 to reflect increases in the Consumer Price Index from 1999 to 2000, increases in responsibilities due to the Company's growth and to align executive compensation with comparable companies and positions.

Bonuses

The Compensation Committee has established a bonus plan for the Chief Executive Officer, the Chairman of the Board and the Chief Operating Officer of the Company based upon objective criteria. Under this bonus plan, the Chief Executive Officer, the Chairman of the Board and the Chief Operating Officer of the Company each will receive a bonus based upon a percentage of pre-tax earnings (with no minimum level of pre-tax earnings required), exclusive of extraordinary items, earned by the Company, subject to a maximum cash bonus equal to such executive officer's base salary for the year in which such bonus is earned. The bonuses to be awarded to all other officers of the Company are based upon each such officer's contribution, responsibility and performance during the year, and are thus subjective in nature. In formulating its recommendation for the bonuses of such other officers of the Company, the Compensation Committee considers, among other things, the evaluation of the Chief Executive Officer of the Company with regard to the contribution, responsibility and performance of the officer in question and his views on the appropriate compensation level of such executive officer.

Long-Term Incentives

The only long-term incentive currently offered for senior executives by the Company is stock option awards. Stock options may be awarded to the Chief Executive Officer, the other individual executive officers and upper and middle managers by the Board of Directors, based upon, in the case of the Chief Executive Officer and other individual executive officers, the recommendation of the Compensation Committee.

It is the stock option program which links rewards to the achievement of long-term corporate performance. In determining whether and how many options should be granted, the Compensation Committee may consider the responsibilities and seniority of each of the executive officers, as well as the financial performance of the Company and such other factors as it deems appropriate, consistent with the Company's compensation policies. However, the Compensation Committee has not established specific target awards governing the receipt, timing or size of option grants. Thus, determinations with respect to the granting of stock options are subjective in nature.

CEO Compensation

The base salary of Mr. David E. O'Reilly, the Chief Executive Officer of the Company, was established under his employment agreement dated January 1, 1993, and the criterion to be achieved for his bonus was determined by the Compensation Committee in February 2000, based upon a percentage of the pre-tax earnings, exclusive of extraordinary items, earned by the Company in 1999. This cash bonus, in an amount equal to his base salary for 2000, was paid to the Chief Executive Officer in equal monthly installments during 2000. Fees Billed By Independent Public Accountants

Edgar Filing: O REILLY AUTOMOTIVE INC - Form PRE 14A

The following table sets forth the amount of audit fees, financial information systems design and implementation fees, and all other fees billed or expected to be billed by Ernst & Young, LLP, the Company's principal accountant, for the year ended December 31, 2000:

	Amount -----
Audit Fees(1)	$ 214,000.00
Financial Information Systems Design and Implementation Fees(2)	-0-
All Other Fees(3)	81,000.00

Total Fees	$ 295,000.00

The Audit Committee of the Board of Directors of the Company has considered whether the provision of financial information systems design and implementation and other non-audit services is compatible with maintaining Ernst & Young, LLP's independence.

Transactions with Insiders and Others

Sixty-two of the Company's stores were leased from one of two real estate investment partnerships and a limited liability corporation formed by the O'Reilly family. David O'Reilly, Larry O'Reilly, Charles H. O'Reilly, Jr. and Rosalie O'Reilly Wooten, their spouses, children and grandchildren each hold a beneficial interest in such partnerships or the limited liability corporation. Leases with affiliated parties generally provide for payment of a fixed base rent, payment of certain tax, insurance and maintenance expenses, and an original term of 6 years, subject to one or more renewals at the Company's option. The Company has entered into separate master lease agreements with each of the affiliated real estate investment partnerships and the limited liability corporation for the occupancy of the stores covered thereby. The master lease agreements with the real estate investment partnerships expired on December 31, 1998 and were renewed through December 2004. The term of the master lease with the limited liability corporation expires on December 31, 2013. The total aggregate rent payments paid by the Company to the partnerships and the limited liability corporation was $2,671,000 in fiscal 2000. The Company believes that the terms and conditions of the transactions with affiliates described above were no less favorable to the Company than those that would have been available to the Company in comparable transactions with unaffiliated parties.

Joe C. Greene, a Director of the Company, is the Managing Partner of the law firm of Greene & Curtis, LLP, which has provided legal services to the Company in prior years and is expected to provide legal services to the Company in the future. Mr. Greene is also a Director of Commerce Bank, N.A. in Springfield, Missouri, which has loaned $5 million to the Company under a promissory note. The Company believes that the terms of the legal services provided by Mr. Greene are no less favorable to the Company than those that would have been available to the Company in comparable transactions with unaffiliated parties.

Compliance with Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code

Edgar Filing: O REILLY AUTOMOTIVE INC - Form PRE 14A

Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code, enacted in 1993, generally disallows a tax deduction to public companies for compensation of over $1 million paid to any one of the corporation's chief executive officer and four other most highly compensated executive officers for any single fiscal year. Qualifying performance-based compensation is not subject to such limitation if certain requirements are met. Because the Company's 1993 Stock Option Plan may not satisfy the requirements of Section 162(m) with respect to the options more recently granted thereunder, the Compensation Committee may take action in the future to comply with these requirements. Given the current levels of cash compensation paid to the Company's executive officers, the Compensation Committee is not expected to take any action with respect to the cash elements of the Company's executive compensation program at this time, but will evaluate possible action, to the extent consistent with other objectives of the Company's compensation program, if the cash compensation of any executive officer approaches the $1 million level in the future.

Performance Graph

Set forth below is a line graph comparing the annual percentage change in the cumulative total shareholder return of a $100 investment on December 31, 1995, in the Company's Common Stock against the Nasdaq-Amex Stock Market Total Return Index and the Nasdaq-Amex Retail Trade Stocks Total Return Index, assuming reinvestment of all dividends.

Compliance with Section 16(a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934

Section 16(a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, requires the Company's executive officers and Directors, and persons who own more than 10% of a registered class of the Company's equity securities, to file reports of ownership and changes in ownership with the Securities and Exchange Commission. Such individuals are required by SEC regulation to furnish the Company with copies of all Section 16(a) forms they file. Based on the Company's review of the copies of such forms furnished to it and written representations with respect to the timely filing of all reports required to be filed, the Company believes that such persons complied with all Section 16(a) filing requirements applicable to them with respect to transactions during fiscal 2000.

PROPOSAL 2 - AMENDMENT TO RESTATED ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION

Background

The Company is incorporated under the General and Business Corporation Law of Missouri (the "Missouri Law"). The law of Missouri provides that the board of directors has the ultimate responsibility for managing the business and affairs of a corporation. In discharging this function, the law holds directors to fiduciary duties of care and loyalty to the corporation and its shareholders.

The Missouri Law has long permitted a corporation to indemnify its directors (and officers) against expenses, judgments, settlement payments and other costs incurred in connection with litigation or similar proceedings, subject to certain limitations. The Restated Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws of the Company provide for indemnification of directors to the fullest extent legally permissible under the Missouri Law. In addition, the Missouri Law permits a corporation to purchase and maintain, on behalf of its directors (and officers), insurance against liability incurred in their capacities as such, regardless of whether the corporation would have the power to indemnify against such liability under the Missouri Law. As discussed more fully below, the Company currently maintains such directors' liability insurance.

Missouri Law Amendments

The Missouri legislature recently enacted amendments (the "Act") to the Missouri Law that, among other things, permit a Missouri corporation to provide additional protection for directors by including in its articles of incorporation or bylaws a provision eliminating or limiting the personal liability of a director to the corporation or its shareholders for monetary damages for certain breaches of fiduciary duty as a director.

The Act authorizes a Missouri corporation to include in its articles of incorporation or bylaws a provision that eliminates or limits the ability of the corporation and its shareholders to recover monetary damages from a director for breach of fiduciary duty as a director; but the Act does not permit the elimination or limitation of the liability of a director for (i) any breach of duty of loyalty, (ii) acts or omissions not in subjective good faith or which involve intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law, (iii) paying a dividend that is illegal under certain provisions of the Missouri Law, or (iv) any transaction from which the director derived an improper personal benefit.

The Act does not change a director's duty of care, but it does authorize a corporation to eliminate monetary liability for violations of that duty. In addition, the Act does not affect the availability of equitable remedies, such as an action to enjoin or rescind a transaction involving a breach of fiduciary duty of care. In some circumstances, however, equitable remedies may not be available as a practical matter.

Proposed New Article XI

Although the Company has not experienced an inability to attract or retain directors in the past, the Board of Directors has determined that the ability of the Company to continue to attract and retain highly qualified directors will be enhanced by amending the Company's Restated Articles of Incorporation to eliminate the personal liability of its directors to the full extent permitted by the Act. The Company's Board of Directors has therefore approved, and recommends to the shareholders for their approval and adoption, an amendment to the Company's Restated Articles of Incorporation that would add a new Article XI ("Article XI") to read in its entirety as follows:

ARTICLE XI

"No director of the corporation shall be personally liable to the corporation or its shareholders for monetary damages for breach of fiduciary duty by such director as a director; provided, however, that this Article XI shall not eliminate or limit the liability of a director to the extent provided by applicable law (i) for any breach of the director's duty of loyalty to the corporation or its shareholders, (ii) for acts or omissions not in subjective good faith or which involve intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law, (iii) under section 351.345 of the General Corporation Law of Missouri, or (iv) for any transaction from which the director derived an improper personal benefit. No amendment to or repeal of this Article XI shall apply to or have any effect on the liability or alleged liability of any director of the corporation for or with respect to any acts or omissions of such director prior to such amendment or repeal."

Section 351.345 of the Missouri Law provides that directors shall, under certain circumstances, be jointly and severally liable for knowing violations of certain requirements with respect to the payment of dividends.

Certain Effects of Article XI

Article XI would eliminate personal liability of directors (while in office and thereafter) in their capacity as directors (but not officers or directors in their capacity as officers) of the Company to the Company or its shareholders to the full extent permitted by the Act. As a result, even if the Company's directors were to fail to satisfy their duty of care, they would not be liable for monetary damages. Article XI would not, however, limit or eliminate the liability of a director for any act or omission occurring prior to the date when Article XI becomes effective, or in any respect not permitted by the Act, such as for any violation of the duty of loyalty or for a knowing violation of the law. Article XI would in no way affect a director's liability under the Federal securities laws.

Adoption of Article XI may have the effect of reducing the likelihood of derivative litigation against directors, and may also discourage or deter shareholders or management from bringing a lawsuit against directors for breach of their duty of care, even though such an action, if successful, might otherwise have benefited the Company and its shareholders. Article XI provides that no amendment or repeal of Article XI would apply or have any effect on the liability of a director for any acts or omissions occurring prior to such amendment or repeal.

Adoption of Article XI, therefore, would result in shareholders giving up the right to pursue causes of action for monetary damages against directors for breaches of their duty of care, including actions for damages arising from the conduct of directors in connection with take over proposals for the Company, even if such conduct involves negligent business decisions. The members of the Board of Directors, therefore, have a personal interest in proposing that Article XI be adopted at the potential expense of shareholders.

There is no litigation pending currently or previously instituted against the Board of Directors or its members that might have been affected by Article XI had it been in effect at the time of any such litigation.

Adoption of the amendment adding Article XI to the Company's Restated Articles of Incorporation requires the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the shares of the Company's Common Stock entitled to notice of and vote at the Annual Meeting.

If approved by the shareholders, Article XI would become effective upon the filing with the Secretary of State of Missouri of a Certificate of Amendment to the Company's Restated Articles of Incorporation, which filing would take place shortly after the Annual Meeting.

Edgar Filing: O REILLY AUTOMOTIVE INC - Form PRE 14A

The Board of Directors recommends a vote "FOR" the amendment to the Company's Restated Articles of Incorporation adding Article XI, which eliminates certain director liability to the extent permitted by Missouri Law.

All committee members shall be financially literate, (or shall become financially literate within a reasonable period of time after appointment to the committee,) and at least one member shall have accounting or related financial management expertise.

Statement of Policy

The audit committee shall provide assistance to the board of directors in fulfilling their oversight responsibility to the shareholders, potential shareholders, the investment community, and others relating to the Company's financial statements and the financial reporting process, the systems of internal accounting and financial controls, the internal audit function, the annual independent audit of the Company's financial statements, and the legal compliance and ethics programs as established by management and the board. In so doing, it is the responsibility of the committee to maintain free and open communication between the committee, independent auditors and management of the Company. In discharging its oversight role, the committee is empowered to investigate any matter brought to its attention with full access to all books, records, facilities, and personnel of the Company and the power to retain outside counsel, or other experts for this purpose.

Responsibilities and Processes

The committee shall discuss with the auditors their independence from management and the Company and the matters included in the written disclosures required by the Independence Standards Board. Annually, the committee shall review and recommend to the board the selection of the Company's independent auditors, subject to shareholders' approval.

The committee shall discuss with the independent auditors the overall scope and plans for their respective audits including the adequacy of staffing and compensation. Also, the committee shall discuss with management and the independent auditors the adequacy and effectiveness of the accounting and financial controls, including the Company's system to monitor and manage business risk, and legal and ethical compliance programs. Further, the committee shall meet separately with the independent auditors, with and without management present, to discuss the results of their examinations.
