Item 2. Acquisition or Disposition of Assets

On December 21, 2001, CSG Systems International, Inc. (the "Company") reached an agreement to acquire the billing and customer care assets of Lucent Technologies Inc. ("Lucent"). Lucent's billing and customer care business consists primarily of (i) software products and related consulting services acquired by Lucent when it purchased Kenan Systems Corporation in 1999; (ii) BILLDATS Data Manager mediation software; (iii) software and related technologies developed by Lucent's Bell Laboratories; and (iv) elements of Lucent's sales and marketing organization (collectively, the "Kenan Business"). On February 28, 2002, the Company completed the acquisition (the "Kenan Acquisition").

The Kenan Business is a global provider of convergent billing and customer care software and services that enable communications service providers to bill their customers for a wide variety of existing and next-generation services, including mobile, Internet, wireline, cable, satellite, and energy and utilities, all on a single invoice. The software supports multiple languages and currencies. The Kenan Business' primary product offerings include: (i) Arbor/BP (a core convergent billing platform); (ii) Arbor/OM (a order management platform); and (iii) BILLDATS Data Manager (a billing mediation software product).

At closing on February 28, 2002, the aggregate purchase price was approximately $263 million in cash, which may be adjusted based upon the results of an audit of the Kenan Business' net assets as of closing, plus estimated transaction costs of approximately $5 million. The Kenan Acquisition was funded through a $400 million senior secured credit facility (the "Senior Facility") between CSG Systems, Inc., a wholly-owned subsidiary of the Company, and a syndicate of banks, financial institutions and other entities, arranged through BNP Paribas and Lehman Brothers, that closed on February 28, 2002. The proceeds of the Senior Facility will be used (i) to fund the Kenan Acquisition, (ii) pay related fees and expenses, (iii) refinance existing indebtedness and (iv) provide financing for general corporate purposes. The Senior Facility consists of a $100 million, five-year revolving credit facility, a $125 million, five-year Tranche A Term Loan, and a $175 million, six-year Tranche B Term Loan. Upon closing of the Kenan Acquisition, the entire amounts of the Tranche A Term Loan and Tranche B Term Loan were drawn down. The Senior Facility is guaranteed by the Company and each of the Company's direct and indirect domestic subsidiaries.
