PROXY STATEMENT

LCNB CORP.

P.O. Box 59

Lebanon, Ohio 45036

ANNUAL MEETING OF SHAREHOLDERS

April 11, 2006

INTRODUCTION

The enclosed proxy is solicited by the Board of Directors of LCNB Corp. (also referred to as "LCNB" or the "Company"), in connection with the annual meeting of shareholders to be held at 10:00 A.M. on April 11, 2006 at the principal executive offices of LCNB located at 2 North Broadway, Lebanon, Ohio 45036, or at any adjournments thereof.

The meeting has been called for the following purposes: (i) to elect three Class I directors each for a three year term, and (ii) to transact any other business that may properly come before the meeting or any adjournments thereof.

This Proxy Statement and the accompanying notice of meeting are being mailed to shareholders on or about March 9, 2006.

REVOCATION OF PROXIES, DISCRETIONARY

AUTHORITY AND CUMULATIVE VOTING

LCNB Common Stock can be voted at the annual meeting only if the shareholder is represented by proxy or is present in person. Shareholders who execute proxies retain the right to revoke them at any time. Unless so revoked, the shares represented by such proxies will be voted at the meeting and all adjournments thereof. Proxies may be revoked by (i) written notice to the Secretary of LCNB (addressed to LCNB Corp., P.O. Box 59, Lebanon, Ohio 45036, Attention: Secretary); (ii) by the filing of a later dated proxy prior to a vote being taken on a particular proposal at the meeting; or (iii) in open meeting at any time before it is voted.

Proxies solicited by the Board of Directors will be voted in accordance with the directions given therein. Where no instructions are indicated, properly executed proxies will be voted for the nominees for directors set forth below. The proxy confers discretionary authority on the persons named therein to vote with respect to (i) the election of any person as a director where the nominee is unavailable or unable to serve, (ii) matters incident to the conduct of the meeting and (iii) any other business that may properly come before the meeting or any adjournments thereof. At this time it is not known whether there will be cumulative voting for the election of directors at the meeting. If any shareholder demands cumulative voting for the election of directors at the meeting, your proxy will give the individuals named on the proxy full discretion and authority to vote cumulatively, and in their sole discretion, to allocate votes among any or all of the nominees, unless authority to vote for any or all of the nominees is withheld.

PERSON MAKING THE SOLICITATION

The enclosed proxy is being solicited by LCNB and the cost of soliciting proxies will be borne by LCNB. In addition to use of the mails, proxies may be solicited personally or by telephone or facsimile by directors, officers and employees of LCNB who will receive no compensation in addition to their regular compensation.

VOTING SECURITIES AND PRINCIPAL HOLDERS

Each of the shares of LCNB common stock (the "Common Stock") outstanding on March 1, 2006, the record date of the meeting, is entitled to one vote on all matters coming before the meeting. As of March 1, 2006 LCNB had 3,272,908 shares of Common Stock issued and outstanding. Only shareholders of record on the books of the Company on March 1, 2006 will be entitled to vote at the meeting either in person or by proxy. The presence at the meeting of at least a majority of the shares, in person or by proxy, will be required to constitute a quorum at the meeting.

Shareholders of LCNB have cumulative voting rights in connection with the election of directors if notice is given to the president, a vice-president or the secretary of LCNB, not less than 48 hours before the time fixed for holding the meeting, that any shareholder desires that the voting be cumulative. Cumulative voting rights enable a shareholder to cumulate his or her voting power to give one candidate as many votes as the number of directors to be elected multiplied by the number of shares of Common Stock owned by that person, or to distribute his votes on the same principal among two or more candidates as the shareholder sees fit. If any shareholder demands cumulative voting for the election of directors at the meeting, your proxy will give the individuals named on the proxy full discretion and authority to vote cumulatively, and in their sole discretion, to allocate votes among any or all of the nominees, unless authority to vote for any or all of the nominees is withheld.

As of December 31, 2005, the wholly-owned subsidiary of LCNB, Lebanon Citizens National Bank (the "Bank"), beneficially owned 13.75% of LCNB's Common Stock through the operations of the Bank's Trust Department. As of the same date, Ralcor Investors Limited Partnership, an Ohio limited partnership, owned 5.02% of LCNB. Its general partners are Robert C. Cropper, a director of LCNB, and his wife, Mary Jo Cropper. Under Section 13(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and the rules promulgated thereunder, a beneficial owner of a security is any person who directly or indirectly has or shares voting power or investment power over such security.

There has been no change in control of LCNB since the date of the holding company conversion in 1999 effected through the merger between LC Interim Bank, a wholly-owned subsidiary of the Company, and the Bank pursuant to which all of the shareholders of the Bank became all of the shareholders of the Company in the same proportion as their prior interests in the Bank.

The following table sets forth, as of December 31, 2005, the ownership of Common Stock by management of LCNB, including (i) the Common Stock beneficially owned by each director, nominee for director and named executive officer of LCNB and (ii) the Common Stock beneficially owned by all officers, directors and nominees for director as a group.

PROPOSAL 1. ELECTION OF DIRECTORS

Edgar Filing: LCNB CORP - Form DEF 14A

LCNB's Regulations provide that its business shall be managed by a board of directors of ten persons. The Board has nominated one new candidate to stand for election to the Board this year. LCNB's Regulations divide such directors into three classes as nearly equal in number as possible and set their terms at three years. A Board of ten directors results in two classes of three members and one with four members.

Assuming that at least a majority of the issued and outstanding Common Shares are present at the meeting so that a quorum exists, the nominees for director of LCNB receiving the most votes will be elected as directors.

The Board of Directors has nominated:

Stephen P. Wilson

David S. Beckett

Spencer S. Cropper

The nominees have been nominated to serve as Class I directors until the 2009 annual meeting of shareholders and until their respective successors are elected and qualified. Mr. Wilson and Mr. Beckett are incumbent directors whose present terms will expire at the 2006 annual meeting. Mr. Cropper is a new nominee, and as such, the Board of Directors has included a brief biography below.

Spencer S. Cropper:

Spencer S. Cropper is employed by Stolle Properties, Inc., a subsidiary of the Ralph J. Stolle Company. Prior to this, Mr. Cropper worked from 1996 to 2000 as an auditor with KPMG, LLP in Cincinnati, Ohio. Currently, he serves on the Board of Directors of the Ralph J. Stolle Company.

Mr. Cropper is a Certified Public Accountant. He is a member of the Ohio Society of Certified Public Accountants as well as a member of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants.

Mr. Cropper is active in serving on a number of local organizations including Member of the Board of Trustees and Treasurer of the Board for the Ralph J. Stolle Countryside YMCA; Treasurer and Board Member of the Warren County Foundation; Treasurer and Board Member of the Lebanon Rotary Club.

Mr. Cropper received his B.S. in Business degree with majors in Accounting and Finance from Indiana University in 1995. He is a 2002 graduate of Leadership Warren County. He and his wife, Dana, have three children Josie, Sophie, and Lily and reside in Lebanon, Ohio. They are active in the Lebanon Presbyterian Church.

Current director Mr. Robert C. Cropper's term expires at the annual meeting and has decided to retire and not stand for election for another term. Spencer S. Cropper is Mr. Cropper's son.

It is intended that common shares represented by the accompanying form of proxy will be voted for the election of the nominees, unless contrary instructions are indicated as provided on the proxy card. (If you do not wish your shares to be voted for particular nominees, please so indicate on the proxy card.) If one or more of the nominees should at the time of the meeting be unavailable or unable to serve as a director, the shares represented by the proxies will be voted to elect the remaining nominees and any substitute nominee or nominees designated by the Board of Directors. The Board of Directors knows of no reason why any of the nominees will be unavailable or unable to serve. At this time it is not known whether there will be cumulative voting for the election of directors at the meeting. If any shareholder properly demands cumulative voting for the election of directors at the meeting, your proxy will give the individuals named on the proxy full discretion and authority to vote cumulatively and in their sole discretion to allocate votes among any or all of the nominees, unless authority to vote for any or all of the nominees is withheld.

The following table sets forth information concerning the nominees for Class I directors of LCNB.

CERTAIN RELATIONSHIPS AND RELATED TRANSACTIONS

LCNB has engaged and intends to continue to engage in the lending of money through the Lebanon Citizens National Bank (the "Bank"), its wholly-owned subsidiary, to various directors and officers of the Company. These loans to such persons were made in the ordinary course of business on substantially the same terms, including interest rates and collateral, as prevailing at the time for comparable transactions with other persons and did not involve more than a normal risk of collectibility or other unfavorable features.

In addition to those banking transactions conducted in the ordinary course, the following related transactions were conducted. Each of these transactions was made on terms similar to those that could have been negotiated with an unaffiliated third party.

The Bank retained the law firm of Kaufman & Florence during 2005 for legal services in connection with various matters arising in the course of the Bank's business. William H. Kaufman is a partner in Kaufman & Florence. Additionally, customers of the Bank are charged for certain legal services provided by Mr. Kaufman's firm in the preparation of various documents. The Bank contemplates using Mr. Kaufman's firm in the future on similar terms, as needed.

SECTION 16(a) BENEFICIAL OWNERSHIP REPORTING COMPLIANCE

Section 16(a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 requires LCNB's officers and directors and persons who own more than 10% of a registered class of LCNB's equity securities to file reports of ownership and changes in ownership with the Securities and Exchange Commission. Officers, directors and greater than 10% shareholders are required to furnish LCNB with copies of all Section 16(a) forms they file. Based solely on LCNB's review of the section 16(a) forms received by it and by statements of officers and directors concerning their compliance with the applicable filing requirements, the officers, directors and greater than 10% beneficial owners of LCNB have complied with all applicable filing requirements.

BOARD OF DIRECTORS MEETINGS AND COMMITTEES

In the fiscal year ended December 31, 2005 the Board of Directors met on 8 occasions. The directors attended at least 95% of such meetings. Mr. Marvin E. Young was properly excused by the Board of Directors from attending board meetings due to health issues and has not been included in the directors' percentage total. Directors do not receive any compensation from LCNB for their service on the Board of Directors of LCNB. Each director of LCNB also serves as a director of Lebanon Citizens National Bank of Lebanon Ohio, the banking subsidiary of LCNB, which meets on a weekly basis, for which each is compensated at a rate of $1,363.00 per month.

The Company has an Audit Committee that serves in a dual capacity as the Audit Committee of the Bank. The members of the Audit Committee are Robert C. Cropper, George L. Leasure, and Rick L. Blossom. The Audit Committee met a total of 6 times in 2005. All of the members of the Audit Committee are independent directors. Mr. Blossom serves as the financial expert as defined by the Sarbanes-Oxley Act. The Audit Committee is responsible for engaging independent auditors, reviews with the independent auditors the plans and results of the audit, and reviews the adequacy of the Bank's internal accounting controls. The Board of Directors of the Company have adopted a written charter for the Audit Committee.

The Bank also has a Building Committee, Appraisal Committee, Nominating Committee, Trust Committee, Bond Committee, Pension Committee, and Loan Committee. Each of these committees meet as needed. The Building Committee reviews the facility needs and repair and improvement issues of the Bank and its branch and other office buildings. The members of the Building Committee are Stephen P. Wilson, David S. Beckett, Joseph W. Schwarz, and William H. Kaufman. The Appraisal Committee reviews the appraisals conducted by the Bank's real estate appraisers to insure that the appraisals are consistent and accurate. The members of the Appraisal Committee are Stephen P. Wilson, D.J. Benjamin Jackson, Peter Berninger, and Timothy Sheridan. The Trust Committee reviews the various trusts accepted by the Trust Department of the Bank, reviews trust investments and advises the trust officers in department operations. The members of the Trust Committee are Stephen P. Wilson, Kathleen Porter Stolle, Marvin E. Young, Bernard H. Wright, Jr., Leroy F. McKay, Joseph W. Schwarz, S. Diane Ingram, Melanie K. Crane, and Steve P. Foster. The Bond Committee reviews the adequacy of the Bank's blanket bond coverage and recommends any changes in coverage to the Board of Directors of the Bank. The Bond Committee consists of the entire Board of Directors of the Bank. The Pension Committee reviews the Bank's defined benefit pension plan. The members of the Pension Committee are Stephen P. Wilson, Marvin E. Young, and Steve P. Foster. The Loan Committee reviews the lending procedures of the Bank and reviews and approves requests for loans in excess of the established lending authority of the officers of the Bank. The Loan Committee consists of the entire Board of Directors of the Bank.

The Nominating Committee consists of the independent directors: Robert C. Cropper, Marvin E. Young, Kathleen Porter Stolle, George L. Leasure, Joseph W. Schwarz, and Rick L. Blossom. The Nominating Committee does not have a charter. Decisions concerning nominees for the Board of Directors will be made by the nominating committee and ratified by the entire Board. The Board has not adopted a policy with respect to minimum qualifications for board members. However, in making its nominations, the committee considers, among other things, an individual's business experience, industry experience, financial background, breadth of knowledge about issues affecting the Company, time available for meetings and consultation regarding Company matters and other particular skills and experience possessed by the individual.

Historically, the Company has not engaged third parties to assist in identifying and evaluating potential nominees, but would do so in those situations where particular qualifications are required to fill a vacancy and the Board's contacts are not sufficient to identify an appropriate candidate.

The Company has not received director candidate recommendations from its shareholders and, as such, does not have a formal policy regarding consideration of such recommendations. However, any recommendations received from shareholders will be evaluated in the same manner that potential nominees suggested by Board members are evaluated. The Company does not intend to treat shareholder recommendations in any manner different from other recommendations. Shareholders may send director nomination recommendations to Stephen P. Wilson at P.O. Box 59, Lebanon, Ohio 45036.

The Bank has a designated compensation committee. This committee consists of the independent directors of the Bank: Robert C. Cropper, Marvin E. Young, Kathleen Porter Stolle, George L. Leasure, Joseph W. Schwarz, and Rick L. Blossom. The committee makes compensation recommendations to the Board of Directors for consideration.

SHAREHOLDER COMMUNICATION WITH BOARD MEMBERS

The Company maintains contact information, both telephone and email, on its website under the heading "Contact LCNB." By following the Contact link, a shareholder will be given access to the Company's toll-free telephone number and mailing address as well as a link to the Corporate email address for providing email correspondence. Communications sent to that Corporate email address and specifically marked as a communication for the Board will be forwarded to the Board or specific members of the Board as directed in the shareholder communication. In addition, communications received via telephone for the Board of Directors are forwarded to the Board by an officer of the Company. In addition, shareholders may send communications to the Board or any of its members by sending such communications to the Company, c/o Secretary at P.O. Box 59, Lebanon, Ohio 45036.

CODE OF ETHICS

The Board of Directors has adopted a Code of Business Conduct and Ethics applicable to all directors, officers, employees and a Code of Ethics applicable to the Company's Chief Executive Officer, Chief Financial Officer and Controller. These codes of ethics are included in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2005.

AUDIT COMMITTEE REPORT

The Audit Committee of the Board of Directors of the Company is composed of three independent directors. The responsibilities of the Audit Committee are set forth in the revised charter of the Audit Committee which was adopted by the Board of Directors of the Company on February 17, 2004. The Audit Committee, among other matters, is responsible for the annual appointment and supervision of the independent public accountants, and reviews the arrangements for and the results of the auditors' examination of the Company's books and records and auditors' compensation. The Audit Committee reviews the Company's accounting policies, internal control procedures and systems and compliance activities. The Audit Committee also reviews the charter of the Audit Committee.

The Audit Committee has reviewed and discussed the audited consolidated financial statements with management. The committee has also reviewed and discussed with J.D. Cloud & Co. LLP ("J.D. Cloud") their independence as auditors, as required to be discussed by SAS 61, as it may be modified or supplemented.

The Audit Committee also has received the written disclosures and the letter from the independent accountants required by Independence Standards Board Standard No. 1 (Independence Standards Board Standard No. 1, Independence Discussions with Audit Committee), as may be modified or supplemented, and, as required, has discussed with J.D. Cloud its independence.

Based on the foregoing discussions, the Audit Committee recommended to the Board of Directors that the audited consolidated financial statements be included in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2005.

This report has been submitted by the Audit Committee:

MARKET PRICE OF STOCK AND DIVIDEND DATA

LCNB had approximately 635 registered holders of its Common Stock as of December 31, 2005. The number of shareholders includes banks and brokers who act as nominees, each of whom may represent more than one shareholder. The Common Stock is currently traded on the Nasdaq Over-The-Counter Bulletin Board service under the symbol LCNB . Several market-makers facilitate the trading of the shares of Common Stock. Trade prices for shares of LCNB Common Stock, reported through registered securities dealers, are set forth below. Trades have occurred during the periods indicated without the knowledge of LCNB. The trade prices shown below are interdealer without retail markups, markdowns or commissions. Prices have been restated to reflect a 100% stock dividend, which was accounted for as a stock split, paid on April 30, 2004.

2005	High	Low
First Quarter	$45.00	$36.50
Second Quarter	40.00	37.25
Third Quarter	38.50	36.60
Fourth Quarter	38.25	36.75

2004	High	Low
First Quarter	$36.25	$34.53
Second Quarter	40.00	35.25
Third Quarter	40.00	36.00
Fourth Quarter	38.90	37.00

The following table presents cash dividends per share declared and paid in the periods shown.

Amounts have been restated to reflect the 100% stock dividend referred to above.

	2005	2004
First Quarter	$0.290	$0.275
Second Quarter	0.290	0.280
Third Quarter	0.290	0.280
Fourth Quarter	0.290	0.280
Total	$1.160	$1.115

It is expected that LCNB will continue to pay dividends on a similar schedule, to the extent permitted by business and other factors beyond management's control. LCNB depends on dividends from its subsidiaries for the majority of its liquid assets, including the cash needed to pay dividends to its shareholders. National banking law limits the amount of dividends the Bank may pay to the sum of retained net income, as defined, for the current year plus retained net income for the previous two years. Prior approval from the Office of the Comptroller of the Currency, the Bank's primary regulator, would be necessary for the Bank to pay dividends in excess of this amount. In addition, dividend payments may not reduce capital levels below minimum regulatory guidelines. Management believes the Bank will be able to pay anticipated dividends to LCNB without needing to request approval.

COMPENSATION OF DIRECTORS AND EXECUTIVE OFFICERS

The following table summarizes, for the fiscal years indicated, all annual compensation earned by or granted to the Company's Chief Executive Officer and the most highly compensated executive officers whose salary exceeds $100,000, for all services rendered to the Company in all capacities (the "named executives"). The named executives are employees of the Bank, except Mr. Beckett, who is President of Dakin Insurance Agency. The Bank and Dakin Insurance are wholly-owned subsidiaries of LCNB. This table reflects annual compensation earned by each of the named executives as a result of their service to LCNB, the Bank, or the Dakin Insurance Agency.

Defined Benefit Plan Disclosure

In 1954, the Bank adopted the Lebanon Citizens National Bank Employees Pension Plan that has been amended from time to time to comply with changes in the law (the "Plan"). The Plan is a defined benefit plan that is available to substantially all of the salaried employees of the Bank. An employee is eligible to participate in the Plan on the July 1st after the attainment of age 21, the completion of 12 months of service, and the completion of at least 1,000 hours of service with the Bank during a plan year. Participants are eligible for normal retirement after age 65 or the completion of five years of participation in the Plan, whichever is later. Participants may elect early retirement upon reaching age 60. The Plan provides a monthly retirement benefit to Bank employees upon retirement in an amount equal to 50% of the participant's average monthly compensation, reduced proportionately (a) if the participant who was hired prior to 2002 has less than 15 years of service at the age 65 or (b) if the participant who was hired after 2001 has less than 30 years of service at age 65. A participant's average monthly compensation is based on the five consecutive years of a participant's employment with the Bank that produce the highest monthly average. Benefits are not reduced by Social Security payments or by payments from other sources and are payable in the form of a life annuity (ten years certain). Stephen P. Wilson has 31 years of service under the Plan. D.J. Benjamin Jackson has 32 years of service under the Plan. Bernard H. Wright, Jr. has 29 years of service under the Plan. Steve P. Foster has 29 years of service under the Plan. David S. Beckett has 7 years of service under the Plan. The following table reflects the estimated annual benefits payable to an employee based upon the average annual compensation levels and years of service.

The maximum annual compensation under Internal Revenue Code Section 401(a)(17) for 2005 is $210,000. Annual compensation in excess of the limitation defined in Section 401(a) (17) is not included in determining average annual compensation for benefit purposes. The annual compensation limit is subject to annual adjustments based on changes in the Consumer Price Index.

The Bank also maintains a supplemental retirement plan for the Chief Executive Officer. Stephen P. Wilson will receive an estimated annual benefit of $88,584.00 upon retirement at the normal retirement age. Monthly benefits are determined by calculating 2½% of the executive's highest monthly average compensation and multiplying that sum by the lesser of the executive's years of service or ten. This benefit is paid in 120 monthly payments.

Board of Directors of the Bank Report on Executive Compensation

LCNB has no direct employees. All officers and other persons performing services for LCNB are employees of the Bank. The Board of Directors of the Bank (the "Bank Board") is responsible for developing the Bank's executive compensation principles, policies and programs, including the compensation to be paid to the Chief Executive Officer and the amount paid to each of the other executive officers of the Company and the Bank, including the other named executives. Stephen P. Wilson, the Chief Executive Officer and President of both the Bank and the Company, participates in the deliberations of the Bank Board concerning executive officer compensation.

The Bank's compensation programs are designed to provide its executive officers with market competitive salaries and the opportunity to earn incentive compensation related to performance expectations identified by the Bank Board. The objectives of the Bank's executive compensation program are to:

Provide a direct link between executive officer compensation and the interests of LCNB, the Bank's sole shareholder, and LCNB's shareholders by making a portion of executive officer compensation dependent upon the financial performance of the Company and the Bank;

(b)

Support the achievement of the Bank's annual and long-term goals and objectives as determined annually by the Bank Board;

16

Establish base salaries targeted at a median level for comparable positions within a comparison group of companies in the banking industry (the "Comparison Group"), with incentive opportunities designed to pay total compensation that are above average for outstanding Bank performance; and

Provide compensation plans and arrangements that encourage the retention of better-performing executives.

The Bank's executive compensation policies seek to provide an opportunity for compensation that varies with performance and which compares favorably to levels provided to executives within the Comparison Group.

The Bank Board seeks to set base salaries for the Company's and the Bank's executive officers at levels which are competitive with median levels for executives with similar roles and responsibilities within the Comparison Group. In setting annual salaries for individuals, the Bank Board first considers the compensation paid for similar positions in the banking industry and the executive's experience, level and scope of responsibility as a benchmark reference. The Bank Board then considers the individual performance of the executive measured against the Bank Board's expectations in developing its salary increase recommendations.

The compensation of executive officers of the Company and the Bank includes (i) base salary, (ii) annual cash bonuses, and (iii) other annual compensation in the form of fringe benefits such as use of a vehicle. Executive officers also receive various benefits generally available to all employees of the Company, such as participation in a defined benefit plan and medical plans.
