CALCULATION OF REGISTRATION FEE

Title of each class of securities to be registered	Amount to be registered (1)	Proposed maximum offering price per unit	Proposed maximum aggregate price (2)	Amount of registration fee
Common shares, without par value	361,826	N/A	$4,920,829	$151

(1)

Based upon the maximum number of common shares that LCNB may be required to issue in the transaction, calculated as the product of (i) half of the outstanding Sycamore common shares and (ii) an exchange ratio of 2.444 common shares of LCNB for each share of Sycamore, plus the number of Sycamore options that may be vested as of the effective time multiplied by 2.444.

Estimated solely for the purpose of calculating the registration fee required by Section 6(b) of the Securities Act of 1933 and computed pursuant to Rule 457(f) thereunder on the basis of the market value of the common shares of LCNB to be received by the holders of Sycamore common shares in the transaction, computed, in accordance with Rule 457(f)(1) and (3), as the product of (x) $13.60, the average of the high and low prices of LCNB's common shares, as reported on the OTCBB on September 20, 2007, multiplied by (y) the 361,826 common shares of LCNB to be issued in the merger transaction. The proposed maximum aggregate offering price was calculated using this method because the amount of cash estimated to be paid by LCNB in the merger transaction exceeds the aggregate book value of the common shares of Sycamore to be exchanged in the merger transaction. As a result, the application of rules 457(f)(2) and 457(f)(3) would result in a negative proposed maximum aggregate offering price.

The Registrant hereby amends this Registration Statement on such date or dates as may be necessary to delay its effective date until the Registrant shall file a further amendment which specifically states that this Registration Statement shall thereafter become effective in accordance with Section 8(a) of the Securities Act of 1933 or until the Registration Statement shall become effective on such date as the Commission, acting pursuant to said Section 8(a), may determine.

The information in this proxy statement/prospectus is not complete and may be changed. We may not sell these securities until the registration statement filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission is effective. This proxy statement/prospectus is not an offer to sell these securities and it is not soliciting an offer to buy these securities in any state where the offer or sale is not permitted.

PROSPECTUS

PROXY STATEMENT

for the issuance of up to

to be held on _____, 2007

LCNB Corp.

On September 24, 2007, Sycamore National Bank (Sycamore), LCNB Corp. (LCNB), and Lebanon-Citizens National Bank (which has subsequently changed its name to LCNB National Bank)(the Bank) executed an amended and restated affiliation agreement that provides for the merger of Sycamore into the Bank. For tax purposes, it is intended that the acquisition of Sycamore by LCNB will qualify as a reorganization under the provisions of Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended.

We cannot complete the merger unless the holders of at least 186,489 Sycamore common shares, which is more than two-thirds of the issued and outstanding Sycamore common shares, approve and adopt the amended and restated affiliation agreement. The Sycamore Board of Directors has scheduled a special meeting for Sycamore shareholders to vote on the amended and restated affiliation agreement. The date, time and place of the special meeting are as follows:

_____ .m.

Cincinnati, Ohio

Subject to certain adjustments set forth in the amended and restated affiliation agreement, if we complete the merger each outstanding common share of Sycamore will be converted into either (1) $33.75 in cash, or (2) 2.444 common shares of LCNB. Shareholders will have the option to receive cash, LCNB shares, or a combination of cash and LCNB shares. Elections will be limited by the requirement that one-half of all of the outstanding Sycamore shares be exchanged for cash and one-half of all the outstanding Sycamore shares be exchanged for stock. Therefore, you may not receive the form of payment that you request.

LCNB shares are listed on the OTC Bulletin Board (OTCBB) under the symbol LCNB. On _____, 2007, LCNB shares closed at $_____. Based on that price, 2,444 common shares of LCNB would be valued at $____. The consideration that Sycamore shareholders will receive in exchange for their Sycamore shares may be adjusted under certain circumstances set forth in the amended and restated affiliation agreement.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS ABOUT THE MERGER AND THE SYCAMORE SPECIAL SHAREHOLDERS MEETING

Q: WHAT WILL HAPPEN IN THE MERGER?

A: In the merger, Sycamore will merge with and into the Bank, a national bank, wholly-owned subsidiary of LCNB. The existing board of directors and executive officers of the Bank will be the board of directors and executive officers of the merged company, with John Calhoun, Chief Executive Officer of Sycamore being added as an Executive Vice President.

Q: WHAT WILL I RECEIVE IN THE MERGER?

A: Upon completion of the merger, each Sycamore common share will automatically be converted into $33.75 cash or 2.444 LCNB common shares. LCNB will not issue any fractional shares in the merger; instead, Sycamore shareholders will receive cash for any fractional shares of LCNB common shares owed to them.

Q: CAN I ELECT THE TYPE OF CONSIDERATION THAT I WILL RECEIVE IN THE MERGER?

A: Yes. You will be permitted to elect whether you wish to receive cash, LCNB common shares or a combination of cash and shares in exchange for your Sycamore common shares.

Q: WILL I RECEIVE THE FORM OF CONSIDERATION I ELECT TO RECEIVE?

A: Not necessarily. Your election will be subject to reallocation under the procedures explained in the amended and restated affiliation agreement and this proxy statement/prospectus to ensure that the Sycamore common shares, in the aggregate, are exchanged 50% for cash and 50% for LCNB common shares.

Q: WHEN AND WHERE WILL THE SPECIAL MEETING TAKE PLACE?

A: The special meeting of shareholders of Sycamore National Bank will be held on _____, 2007 at _____ __m., Eastern Time, at [_____].

Q: WHAT MATTERS WILL BE CONSIDERED AT THE SPECIAL MEETING?

A: Sycamore shareholders will be asked to vote to approve the amended and restated affiliation agreement and the transactions contemplated by the amended and restated affiliation agreement, as well as any additional matters that come before the special meeting.

Q: WHAT DO I NEED TO DO NOW?

A: After reviewing this proxy statement/prospectus, please sign and date the enclosed proxy card and return it in the enclosed postage-paid envelope as soon as possible. By submitting your proxy card, you authorize the individuals named in the proxy card to represent you and vote your shares of Sycamore common stock at the special meeting in accordance with your instructions. Your vote is very important. Whether or not you plan to attend the special meeting, please sign, date and return your proxy card in the enclosed postage-paid envelope.

You also have received or shortly will be receiving an election form by which you are to select the form of consideration for which you will exchange your Sycamore common shares. Please return the election form pursuant to the instructions included with the form as soon as possible. By making an election and returning the form, you will not be deemed to have voted for the amended and restated affiliation agreement. Returning the election form will not affect your dissenters' rights.

Q: WHEN SHOULD I SEND IN MY SYCAMORE COMMON STOCK CERTIFICATES?

A: Please do not send them in with your proxy cards. Registrar and Transfer Company, the exchange agent, will provide instructions on returning your Sycamore common share certificates within five business days of the closing of the merger.

Q: IS MY VOTE NEEDED TO APPROVE THE AMENDED AND RESTATED AFFILIATION AGREEMENT?

A: The affirmative vote of two-thirds of the outstanding Sycamore common shares entitled to vote at the special meeting is required to approve the amended and restated affiliation agreement. Your failure to vote, in person or by proxy, at the special meeting or your abstention will have the same effect as if you voted AGAINST the approval of the amended and restated affiliation agreement.

Q: HOW WILL MY SHARES BE VOTED IF I RETURN A BLANK PROXY CARD?

A: If you sign, date and return your proxy card and do not indicate how you want your Sycamore common shares to be voted, your shares will be voted FOR the approval of the amended and restated affiliation agreement.

Q: CAN I CHANGE MY VOTE AFTER I HAVE MAILED MY SIGNED PROXY CARD?

A: Yes, you may revoke your proxy at any time before a vote is taken at the special meeting by:

- filing a written notice of revocation with the Secretary of Sycamore, at: 3209 W. Galbraith Road, Cincinnati, Ohio 45239

- executing and returning another proxy card with a later date; or

- attending the special meeting and giving notice of revocation in person.

Attendance at the special meeting will not, by itself, revoke your proxy.

Q: IF I DO NOT FAVOR THE APPROVAL OF THE AMENDED AND RESTATED AFFILIATION AGREEMENT AND THE MERGER, WHAT ARE MY RIGHTS?

A: You have the rights under 12 U.S.C. Section 215a to dissent from the proposed merger and to demand the value (as determined pursuant to 12 U.S.C. Section 215a) for your Sycamore common shares. These rights are known as dissenters rights. Please see Dissenters Rights beginning on page 16 of this proxy statement/prospectus and the text of 12 U.S.C. Section 215a attached to this proxy statement/prospectus as Annex C for additional information.

Q: IF MY SHARES OF SYCAMORE STOCK ARE HELD IN STREET NAME BY MY BROKER, WILL MY BROKER VOTE MY SHARES OF SYCAMORE COMMON STOCK FOR ME?

A: Your broker will vote your shares only if you provide instructions on how to vote. If you do not provide your broker with instructions on how to vote your shares held in street name, your broker will not be permitted to vote your shares, which will have the effect of a vote against approving the amended and restated affiliation agreement.

Q: WHEN DO YOU EXPECT THE MERGER TO BE COMPLETED?

A: We expect to complete the merger in the fourth quarter of 2007; however, we cannot assure you when or if the merger will occur. We must first obtain the approval of our shareholders at the special meeting and the necessary regulatory approvals.

The parties (page 17)

LCNB Corp.

2 N. Broadway

Lebanon, Ohio 45036

(513) 932-1414

LCNB Corp. (LCNB), an Ohio corporation formed in December, 1998, is a financial holding company headquartered in Lebanon, Ohio. Through its subsidiaries, LCNB National Bank (the Bank) and Dakin Insurance Agency, Inc. (Dakin), LCNB is engaged in the commercial banking and insurance agency businesses.

The predecessor of LCNB, the Bank, was formed as a national banking association in 1877. On May 19, 1999, the Bank became a wholly-owned subsidiary of LCNB. The Bank's main office is located in Warren County, Ohio and 21 branch offices are located in Warren, Butler, Clinton, Clermont, Montgomery and Hamilton Counties, Ohio. In addition, the Bank operates 28 automated teller machines (ATMs) in its market area.

The Bank is a full service community bank offering a wide range of commercial and personal banking services. Deposit services include checking accounts, NOW accounts, savings accounts, Christmas and vacation savings accounts, money market deposit accounts, Classic 50 accounts (a Senior Citizen program), individual retirement accounts, and certificates of deposit. Deposits of the Bank are insured up to applicable limits by the Deposit Insurance Fund, which is administered by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (the FDIC).

At June 30, 2007, LCNB had 183 full-time and 81 part-time employees, total assets of $540.3 million, total loans of $392.6 million, total deposits of $479.8 million, and total shareholders' equity of $51.1 million. LCNB common shares are traded on The OTC Bulletin Board (OTCBB) under the symbol LCNB.

Sycamore National Bank

3209 W. Galbraith Road

Cincinnati, Ohio 45239

(513) 741-0019

Sycamore National Bank ("Sycamore") is a national bank headquartered in Cincinnati, Ohio. Sycamore was founded in 1880 as a mutual savings association and later converted to a national bank in 1991. Sycamore operates within Colerain and Green Townships in Cincinnati, Ohio, with its main office located on W. Galbraith Road and its single branch office located on Bridgetown Road.

Sycamore is a community bank serving individuals and small businesses in the Cincinnati area. Sycamore has a wide variety of loan and deposit products, including personal loans, mortgage loans, home equity loans, checking accounts, money market accounts, savings accounts, certificates of deposit, and individual retirement accounts. See also the description of Sycamore beginning on page 17.

At June 30, 2007, Sycamore had 11 full-time and 9 part-time employees, total assets of $48.5 million, total loans of $43.1 million, total deposits of $43.8 million, and total shareholders' equity of $4.5 million.

The merger (page 18)

The amended and restated affiliation agreement provides for the merger of Sycamore into the Bank. The merger cannot be completed unless at least 186,489 Sycamore shares, which is more than two-thirds of the issued and outstanding Sycamore shares, are voted to approve and adopt the amended and restated affiliation agreement and the merger. The amended and restated affiliation agreement is attached to this document as Annex A and is incorporated in this proxy statement/prospectus by reference. We encourage you to read the amended and restated affiliation agreement carefully, because it is the legal document that governs the merger.

Merger Consideration (page 31)

Subject to certain adjustments set forth in the amended and restated affiliation agreement and described below, at the effective time of the merger each Sycamore common share will be converted into the right to receive either $33.75 in cash or 2.444 LCNB common shares (or some combination thereof). Shareholders of Sycamore will have the option of electing how many of their Sycamore common shares to exchange for cash, and how many shares to exchange for LCNB common shares.

Under the amended and restated affiliation agreement, one-half of the total number of Sycamore common shares outstanding immediately prior to the effective time of the merger must be exchanged for cash, and one-half of the total number of Sycamore shares outstanding immediately prior to the effective time of the merger must be exchanged for LCNB shares. If the aggregate number of shares for which cash and stock elections are made are not equal to one-half of the outstanding Sycamore shares, then the form of payment you receive may be different than what you requested.

The amended and restated affiliation agreement provides that the per share merger consideration to be received by Sycamore shareholders may be adjusted so that the exchange ratio (i.e., the number of LCNB Shares that Sycamore shareholders will receive in exchange for each LCNB share) may be increased if the average market price of a LCNB share at a specified time prior to the closing date is less than $11.05 and the decline in the market price of a LCNB share is more than 20% greater than the decline, if any, in the SNL Bank Index.

Election procedure (page 32)

On the date on which this proxy statement/prospectus was mailed to you, Registrar and Transfer Company, the exchange agent in the transaction mailed an election form to you that will permit you to elect the type of consideration you would prefer to receive in exchange for each Sycamore share that you own. Your options are to:

- elect to receive all cash,
- elect to receive all LCNB shares,
- elect to receive a combination of cash and LCNB shares, or
- make no election.

All election forms must be properly completed and actually received by the Sycamore agent by 5:00 p.m., Eastern Time, on the 3rd day preceding the effective time of the merger. Please do not send your stock certificates with the election forms.

Allocation of LCNB common shares and cash among Sycamore shareholders (page 33)

Under the amended and restated affiliation agreement, one-half of the total number of Sycamore common shares outstanding at the effective time of the merger will be exchanged for cash and one-half of the total number of Sycamore common shares outstanding at the effective time of the merger will be exchanged for

LCNB common shares. If the number of Sycamore common shares designated by Sycamore shareholders in election forms to be exchanged for cash consideration is less than one-half, then each Sycamore shareholder electing cash will receive cash. The Sycamore common shares of those Sycamore shareholders who did not make an election and, if necessary, those Sycamore shareholders electing to receive LCNB common shares as consideration, will then be exchanged for cash, on a pro rata basis, so that one-half of the outstanding Sycamore common shares are exchanged for cash. The remainder of the Sycamore common shares will be exchanged for LCNB shares.

If the number of Sycamore common shares designated by Sycamore shareholders in election forms to be exchanged for cash consideration is greater than one-half, then the cash consideration will be allocated among those Sycamore shareholders electing to receive cash on a pro rata basis so that the total number of Sycamore common shares exchanged for cash equals one-half of the number of outstanding Sycamore common shares immediately prior to the effective time of the merger. The remainder of the Sycamore shares will be exchanged for LCNB common shares.

Sycamore will hold a special meeting of shareholders on _____, 2007, at _____ .m., Eastern Time, at [_____]. Only holders of record of the outstanding Sycamore shares at the close of business on _____, 2007 will be entitled to notice of, and to vote at, the special meeting and any adjournment or postponement of the special meeting. As of such date, there were 279,733 Sycamore common shares issued and outstanding, each of which will be entitled to one vote on each matter properly submitted for vote to the shareholders at the special meeting.

At the special meeting, Sycamore shareholders will be asked to consider and vote upon the following matters:

to approve and adopt the Amended and restated affiliation agreement, dated as of September 24, 2007, by and among LCNB Corp., The Lebanon-Citizens National Bank (subsequently renamed LCNB National Bank) and Sycamore National Bank, and the merger of Sycamore into LCNB National Bank; and

to transact such other business that may properly come before the special meeting or any adjournment or postponement of the special meeting.

Required vote (page 14)

The adoption of the amended and restated affiliation agreement and approval of the merger will require the affirmative vote of at least 186,489 Sycamore shares, which is more than two-thirds of the issued and outstanding Sycamore shares entitled to vote at the special meeting. A quorum, consisting of the holders of a majority of the outstanding Sycamore common shares, must be present in person or by proxy at the special meeting of shareholders before any action can be taken. Abstentions and broker non-votes will have the effect of a vote against the adoption and approval of the amended and restated affiliation agreement. If you fail to return your properly executed proxy card, the effect will be the same as a vote against approval and adoption of the amended and restated affiliation agreement unless you are present and vote at the special meeting.

If you return your properly executed proxy card prior to the special meeting and do not revoke it prior to its use, the Sycamore common shares represented by that proxy card will be voted at the special meeting, or any adjournment or postponement of the special meeting. The Sycamore common shares will be voted as specified on the proxy card or, in the absence of specific instructions to the contrary, will be voted FOR the approval and adoption of the amended and restated affiliation agreement.

Vote of management owned shares (page 15)

As of the record date, directors and executive officers of Sycamore and their affiliates collectively owned approximately 26% of the outstanding Sycamore shares. The affirmative vote of at least two-thirds of the outstanding shares of Sycamore is required to approve the amended and restated affiliation agreement. All of the directors of Sycamore, who collectively owned approximately 25% of the outstanding Sycamore shares as of the record date, entered into voting agreements with LCNB pursuant to which they agreed to vote 66,301 shares in favor of the adoption and approval of the amended and restated affiliation agreement.

Recommendation to shareholders (page 15)

The Sycamore Board of Directors believes that the merger is in the best interests of Sycamore and its shareholders and unanimously recommends that you vote FOR the proposal to approve and adopt the amended and restated affiliation agreement.

Conditions to completion of merger (page 37)

The completion of the merger depends upon the satisfaction of a number of conditions set forth in the amended and restated affiliation agreement, including the adoption of the amended and restated affiliation agreement and approval of the merger by Sycamore shareholders and the receipt of necessary government approvals. LCNB, the Bank, and Sycamore have filed the applications necessary to obtain approval for the merger from the necessary governmental authorities.

The full text of the written opinion of Sandler O'Neill, dated August 13, 2007 that describes, among other things, the assumptions made, matters considered, and qualifications and limitations on the review undertaken by Sandler O'Neill in connection with its opinion, is attached as Annex B to this document and is incorporated into this document by reference. Sandler O'Neill provided its advisory service and opinion for the information and assistance of the Sycamore board of directors in connection the merger. The Sandler O'Neill opinion is not a recommendation as to how any holder of shares of Sycamore common stock should vote with respect to the merger.

Material federal income tax consequences of the merger (page 41)

Sycamore shareholders may recognize a gain or a loss upon the receipt of cash and/or LCNB shares in the merger. The actual income tax consequences for each Sycamore shareholder may be different, and you should contact your tax advisor.

Interests of directors and officers (page 39)

Some of the directors and executive officers of Sycamore have interests in the merger that are different from, or in addition to, their interests as shareholders of Sycamore. These interests include the following:

John Calhoun and John Rost have entered into employment agreements with LCNB, which provide for their employment for a certain period of time after the effective time of the merger. These agreements are described in further detail later in this proxy statement/prospectus.

Sycamore has purchased directors and officers liability insurance for the directors and officers of Sycamore for a period of three years after the merger. LCNB has also agreed to indemnify the directors, officers and employees of Sycamore for certain actions or omissions in the course of their duties as directors, officers and employees of Sycamore occurring prior to the merger.

The Sycamore Board of Directors was aware of these interests of the directors and officers of Sycamore and considered them, among other things, in approving the amended and restated affiliation agreement and the merger.

Resale of LCNB shares (page 41)

LCNB has registered the LCNB shares to be issued in the merger with the Securities and Exchange Commission under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended. The LCNB shares will be freely transferable, except for LCNB shares received by persons who may be deemed to be affiliates of Sycamore.

Regulatory approvals (page 14)

LCNB has submitted an application to the Office of the Comptroller of the Currency seeking approval of the merger, and has sent to the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System a request to waive the application requirements. We anticipate that these regulatory authorities will approve and/or waive the application requirements. However, there can be no assurance that all requisite approvals will be obtained or waived, that the approvals will be received on a timely basis or that the approvals will not impose conditions or requirements that would so materially reduce the economic or business benefits of the merger that, had such condition or requirement been known, neither LCNB nor Sycamore would have entered into the amended and restated affiliation agreement.

Termination and amendment of the amended and restated affiliation agreement (page 38)

LCNB and Sycamore may agree to terminate the merger at any time before it is completed, even if the Sycamore shareholders have voted to approve the merger. The amended and restated affiliation agreement may be terminated and the merger may be abandoned at any time prior to the effective time of the merger for various reasons, including a failure to get the required approvals, material adverse changes, and by mutual written consent.

In the event that the Board of Directors of Sycamore terminates the amended and restated affiliation agreement to comply with its fiduciary duties to shareholders following the receipt of a proposal for an acquisition transaction from a person or entity other than LCNB, or Sycamore consummates or enters into an agreement relating to an acquisition transaction with any person or entity other than LCNB within 12 months after the amended and restated affiliation agreement is terminated by LCNB due to a willful breach of the amended and restated affiliation agreement by Sycamore, Sycamore will have to pay a termination fee to LCNB of $300,000.

We may amend the amended and restated affiliation agreement in writing at any time before or after the Sycamore shareholders adopt the amended and restated affiliation agreement. If the Sycamore shareholders have already adopted the amended and restated affiliation agreement, however, we will not amend it without shareholder approval if the amendment would have a material adverse effect on the shareholders.

Dissenters' rights (page 16)

Federal law provides Sycamore shareholders with dissenters' rights in the merger. This means that if you strictly comply with the procedures under federal law, you have the right to receive payment for your Sycamore common shares based upon an independent determination of their value. In addition to the summary of dissenters' rights on page ____, a copy of the provisions of federal law regarding dissenters' rights to which Sycamore shareholders are entitled is attached to this proxy statement/prospectus as Annex C.

Risk Factors

In deciding how to vote on the amended and restated affiliation agreement, you should consider carefully all of the information contained in this document, especially the following factors.

Fluctuation in the market price of the LCNB shares may affect the value of the consideration you receive.

Subject to certain adjustments set forth in the amended and restated affiliation agreement and described below, at the effective time of the merger each Sycamore share will be converted into the right to receive either $33.75 in cash or 2.444 LCNB shares. On _____, 2007, the last trading date before we printed this proxy statement/prospectus, the price of LCNB shares closed at $_____ per share on OTCBB. Based on that price, 2.444 LCNB shares would be valued at $_____.

If the average market price of a LCNB share, at a specified date prior to the closing date is less than $11.05 and the decline in the market price of a LCNB share is more than 20% greater than the decline, if any, in the SNL Bank Index during the period between August 3, 2007 and the specified date described above, then the Board of Directors of Sycamore may elect to terminate the amended and restated affiliation agreement and abandon the merger. If the Board of Directors of Sycamore elects to terminate the amended and restated affiliation agreement, LCNB will have five days in which to elect to increase the exchange ratio so that the exchange ratio multiplied by the average market price of a LCNB share during the measuring period equals 80% of the per share cash amount. If LCNB elects to increase the exchange ratio, then the election by the Board of Directors to terminate the amended and restated affiliation agreement will be of no further force and effect and the amended and restated affiliation agreement will remain in effect.

The market price of the LCNB shares may fall after the end of the specified date described above and before the closing of the merger. Further, you will not receive your merger consideration until several weeks after the closing of the merger. You will not be able to sell your LCNB stock to avoid losses resulting from any decline in the trading prices of LCNB shares during this period.

On the day the merger closes, the market price of a share of LCNB stock may be higher or lower than the market price on the date the amended and restated affiliation agreement was signed, on the date this document was mailed to you, or on the date of the special meeting of shareholders of Sycamore. Therefore, you cannot be assured of receiving any specific market value of LCNB shares.

You may receive a form of consideration different from the form of consideration you elect

The consideration you receive in the merger is subject to the requirement that one-half of the total number of Sycamore shares outstanding immediately prior to the effective time of the merger must be exchanged for cash. The amended and restated affiliation agreement contains proration and allocation methods to achieve this result. If you elect to receive all cash and the available cash is oversubscribed, then you may receive a portion of the merger consideration in the form of LCNB stock. If you elect all stock and the available stock is oversubscribed, then you may receive a portion of the merger consideration in cash. If you elect a combination of cash and LCNB stock, you may not receive the specific combination of cash and LCNB stock that you request.

LCNB may fail to realize the anticipated benefits of the merger.

LCNB and Sycamore may not be able to integrate their operations without encountering difficulties, including the loss of key employees and customers, the disruption of ongoing business or possible inconsistencies in standards, controls, procedures and policies. Additionally, in determining that the merger is in the best interests of LCNB and Sycamore, each of the LCNB and the Sycamore Boards of Directors considered enhanced earnings opportunities. There can be no assurance, however, that any enhanced earnings will result from the merger.

Changes in interest rates could reduce LCNB's income.

LCNB's net income depends to a great extent on the difference between the interest rates earned on interest-earning assets, such as loans and investment securities, and the interest rates paid on interest-bearing liabilities, such as deposits and borrowings. These rates are highly sensitive to many factors that are beyond LCNB's control, including general economic conditions and the policies of various governmental and regulatory agencies. Changes in interest rates influence the volume of loan originations, the generation of deposits, the yield on loans and investment securities and the cost of deposits and borrowings. Fluctuations in these areas may adversely affect LCNB.

The termination fee set forth in the amended and restated affiliation agreement may limit the opportunity for Sycamore shareholders to realize a greater price to be paid for their shares.

Sycamore will be required to pay a termination fee in the amount of $300,000 to LCNB if Sycamore terminates the amended and restated affiliation agreement due to a third party offer, or if Sycamore consummates a transaction with a third party within 12 months after LCNB terminates the agreement pursuant to Sycamore's willful breach of the agreement.

LCNB required Sycamore to agree to these provisions as a condition to LCNB's willingness to enter into the amended and restated affiliation agreement. However, these provisions might discourage a third party that might have an interest in acquiring all or a significant part of Sycamore from considering or proposing such an acquisition even if it were prepared to pay consideration with a higher per share market price than the current proposed merger consideration, and the termination fee might result in a potential competing acquirer proposing to pay a lower per share price to acquire Sycamore than it might have otherwise agreed to pay.

The merger is subject to the approval of governmental entities that may impose conditions that could have an adverse effect on LCNB.

The Office of the Comptroller of the Currency and the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System must either approve the merger or waive approval of the merger before it may be completed. These governmental entities may impose conditions on the completion of the merger or require changes to the terms of the merger. Although LCNB and Sycamore do not currently expect that any such conditions or changes would be imposed, there can be no assurance that they will not be, and such conditions or changes could have the effect of delaying completion of the merger or imposing additional costs on or limiting the revenues of LCNB following the merger, any of which might have a material adverse effect on LCNB following the merger.

Sycamore directors and officers have interests in the merger that are different from, or in addition to, those of a shareholder.

Executive officers of Sycamore negotiated the terms of the amended and restated affiliation agreement with their counterparts at LCNB, and the board of directors of Sycamore approved the amended and restated affiliation agreement and is recommending that Sycamore shareholders vote for the amended and restated affiliation agreement.

In considering these facts and the other information contained in this proxy statement/prospectus, you should be aware that some of Sycamore's executive officers and directors have financial interests in the merger that are different from, or in addition to, the interests of Sycamore common shareholders. For example, LCNB has entered into employment agreements with certain of the executive officers for a period of time following the completion of the merger. See "Interests of Directors and Officers" beginning on page 39.

Sycamore shareholders will not control LCNB's future operations.

Following the merger, Sycamore shareholders in the aggregate will become the owners of approximately 5.4% of the approximately 6,707,312 LCNB common shares anticipated to be outstanding following the issuance of the 341,834 LCNB common shares in the merger and 19,992 shares pursuant to the conversion of Sycamore options. As a result, former Sycamore shareholders will not have a significant impact on the election of directors or on whether future proposals submitted to a vote of LCNB shareholders are approved or rejected.

LCNB could experience difficulties in managing its growth and effectively integrating Sycamore.

LCNB may not be able to manage its growth adequately and profitably or to integrate the operations of Sycamore effectively. Acquiring Sycamore will involve risks commonly associated with acquisitions, including, without limitation, potential exposure to liabilities of Sycamore, difficulty and expense of integrating the operations and personnel of Sycamore, potential disruption to the business of Sycamore and the Bank, potential diversion of the time and attention of management of these entities and impairment of relationships with, and the possible loss of, key employees and customers of these entities.

Future governmental regulation and legislation could limit LCNB's future growth.

LCNB and the Bank are subject to extensive regulation, supervision and legislation that govern almost all aspects of the operations of LCNB and the Bank. These laws may change from time to time and are primarily intended for the protection of consumers, depositors and deposit insurance funds. The impact of any changes to these laws may negatively affect LCNB's ability to expand its services and to increase the value of its business. While we cannot predict what effect any presently contemplated or future changes in the laws or regulations or their interpretations would have on LCNB, these changes could be materially adverse to LCNB's stockholders.

Additional risks and uncertainties could have a negative effect on LCNB's financial performance.

Additional factors could have a negative effect on the financial performance of LCNB and its subsidiaries and the LCNB common shares. Such factors include, without limitation, changes in general economic and financial market conditions, changes in competitive conditions, continuing consolidation in the financial services industry, new litigation or changes in existing litigation, losses, customer bankruptcy, claims and assessments.

Forward looking statements

The Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995 provides a safe harbor from civil litigation for forward-looking statements. Forward-looking statements include the information concerning future results of operations, cost savings and synergies of LCNB and Sycamore after the merger and those statements preceded by, followed by or that otherwise include the terms should, believe, expect, anticipate, intend, may, will, continue, es expressions that indicate future events and trends. Although LCNB and Sycamore believe, in making such statements, that their expectations are based on reasonable assumptions, these statements may be influenced by risks and uncertainties which could cause actual results and trends to be substantially different from historical results or those anticipated, depending on a variety of factors. These risks and uncertainties include, without limitation:

expected cost savings from the merger may not be fully realized or realized within the expected time frame;

- revenues following the merger may be lower than expected or deposit withdrawals, operating costs or customer loss and business disruption following the merger may be greater than expected;
- competition among depository and other financial services companies may increase significantly;
- costs or difficulties related to the integration of LCNB and Sycamore may be greater than expected;
- general economic or business conditions, such as interest rates, may be less favorable than expected;
- adverse changes may occur in the securities market; and
- legislation or changes in regulatory requirements may adversely affect the businesses in which LCNB is engaged.

You should understand that these factors, in addition to those discussed elsewhere in this document and in documents that have been incorporated by reference, could affect the future results of LCNB and Sycamore, and could cause those results to be substantially different from those expressed in any forward-looking statements. LCNB and Sycamore do not undertake any obligation to update any forward-looking statement to reflect events or circumstances arising after the date of this document.

Sources of information

LCNB provided all information in this proxy statement/prospectus relating to it, and Sycamore provided all information in this proxy statement/prospectus relating to it. Each party is responsible for the accuracy of its information.

You should rely only on the information which is contained in this document or to which we have referred in this document. We have not authorized anyone to provide you with information that is different.

Votes required

Approval of the amended and restated affiliation agreement requires the holders of at least two-thirds of the outstanding Sycamore shares, or 186,489 shares, to vote in favor of the amended and restated affiliation agreement and approve the merger. As of June 30, 2007, the directors and executive officers of Sycamore and Sycamore Bank and the affiliates of such directors and executive officers had sole or shared voting power with respect to 73,325 Sycamore shares, or 26.2% of the outstanding Sycamore shares. The directors of Sycamore have entered into voting agreements with LCNB pursuant to which they have agreed to vote 66,301 Sycamore shares for the adoption and approval of the amended and restated affiliation agreement and the merger.

Regulatory approval required

LCNB has submitted an application to the Office of the Comptroller of the Currency seeking approval of the merger and a request for a waiver of approval from the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System. We anticipate that these regulatory authorities will approve or waive the application requirements. However, there can be no assurance that all requisite approvals and/or waivers will be obtained, that the approvals and/or waivers will be received on a timely basis, or that the approvals and/or waivers will not impose conditions or requirements that would so materially reduce the economic or business benefits of the merger that, had such condition or requirement been known, neither LCNB nor Sycamore would have entered into the amended and restated affiliation agreement.

Tax Consequences

The Special Meeting of Sycamore Shareholders

Purpose, time and place

This proxy statement/prospectus is being sent to you in connection with the solicitation of proxies by the Sycamore Board of Directors for use at the special meeting to be held at _____ .m., on _____, 2007, at _____. At the special meeting, shareholders will be asked to consider and vote upon the following matters:

- to approve and adopt the Amended and Restated Affiliation Agreement, dated as of September 24, 2007, by and between LCNB Corp., Lebanon-Citizens National Bank (subsequently renamed LCNB National Bank) and Sycamore National Bank, which provides for the merger of Sycamore into LCNB National Bank; and

- to transact such other business that may properly come before the special meeting or any adjournment or postponement of the special meeting.

The Sycamore Board of Directors believes that the merger is in the best interests of Sycamore and its shareholders and unanimously recommends that you vote FOR the proposal to approve and adopt the amended and restated affiliation agreement.

Shares outstanding and entitled to vote; record date

Only shareholders of record on _____, 2007, will be entitled to notice of and to vote at the special meeting of shareholders. At the close of business on the record date, _____, 2007, there were 279,733 Sycamore common shares issued and outstanding and entitled to vote. The Sycamore shares were held of record by approximately 175 shareholders. Each Sycamore share entitles the holder to one vote on all matters properly presented at the special meeting of shareholders.

Votes required

Approval of the amended and restated affiliation agreement requires the holders of at least two-thirds of the outstanding Sycamore shares, or 186,489 shares, to vote in favor of the amended and restated affiliation agreement.

As of June 30, 2007, the directors and executive officers of Sycamore and the affiliates of such directors and executive officers had sole or shared voting power with respect to 73,325 Sycamore shares, or 26.2% of the outstanding Sycamore shares. The directors of Sycamore have entered into voting agreements with LCNB pursuant to which they have agreed to vote 66,301 Sycamore shares for the adoption and approval of the amended and restated affiliation agreement.

Each share of Sycamore is entitled to one vote on the proposal. A quorum, consisting of the holders of a majority of the outstanding Sycamore shares, must be present in person or by proxy at the special meeting before any action can be taken. Under federal law, only votes cast in favor of a proposal count as being voted for the proposal. Therefore, abstentions and broker non-votes will have the effect of a vote against the adoption and approval of the amended and restated affiliation agreement. Also, if you fail to return your properly executed proxy card, the effect will be the same as a vote AGAINST adoption and approval of the amended and restated affiliation agreement unless you are present and vote at the special meeting.

If you return your properly executed proxy card prior to the special meeting and do not revoke it prior to its use, the Sycamore shares represented by that proxy card will be voted at the special meeting, or any adjournment of the special meeting. The Sycamore shares will be voted as specified on the proxy card or, in the absence of specific instructions to the contrary, will be voted FOR the approval and adoption of the amended and restated affiliation agreement.

Voting, solicitation and revocation of proxies

A proxy card for use at the special meeting of shareholders accompanies each copy of this proxy statement/prospectus mailed to Sycamore shareholders. This proxy is solicited by the Sycamore Board of Directors. Whether or not you attend the special meeting, the Sycamore Board of Directors urges you to return the enclosed proxy card. If you have executed a proxy, you may revoke it at any time before a vote is taken at the special meeting by:

*

filing a written notice of revocation with the Secretary of Sycamore, at 3209 W. Galbraith Road, Cincinnati, Ohio 45239;

executing and returning a later-dated proxy received by Sycamore prior to a vote being taken at the special meeting; or attending the special meeting and giving notice of revocation in person.

Your attendance at the special meeting will not, by itself, revoke your proxy.

If you are a Sycamore shareholder whose shares are not registered in your own name, you will need additional documentation from your record holder in order to vote your shares in person at the special meeting.

We do not expect any matter other than the amended and restated affiliation agreement to be brought before the Sycamore special meeting of shareholders. If any other matters are properly brought before the special meeting for consideration, shares represented by properly executed proxies will be voted in the discretion of the persons named in the proxy card in accordance with their best judgment.

Sycamore will pay all costs incurred in connection with the solicitation of proxies on behalf of the Sycamore Board of Directors. Proxies will be solicited by mail and may also be solicited, for no additional compensation, by officers, directors or employees of Sycamore. Sycamore will also pay the standard charges and expenses of brokerage houses, voting trustees, banks, associations and other custodians, nominees and fiduciaries, who are record holders of Sycamore shares not beneficially owned by them, for forwarding the proxy materials to, and obtaining proxies from, the beneficial owners of Sycamore shares entitled to vote at the special meeting of shareholders.

Dissenters' rights

General. Under national banking laws, Sycamore shareholders have the right to dissent from the merger and to obtain payment of the value of their shares of Sycamore common stock in the event the merger is completed. If you are contemplating exercising your right to dissent, we urge you to read carefully the provisions of 12 U.S.C. Section 215a of the National Bank Act, which is attached to this proxy statement/prospectus as Annex C, and consult with your legal counsel before electing or attempting to exercise these rights. A discussion of the provisions of the statute is included here. The discussion describes the steps that you must take if you want to exercise your right to dissent. You should read this summary and the full text of the law. You should send or deliver any written notice or demand required concerning your exercise of dissenters' rights to the attention of Sycamore National Bank, John Calhoun, 3209 W. Galbraith Road, Cincinnati, Ohio 45239.

How to Be Eligible For Dissenters' Rights. To be eligible for dissenters' rights, you must either vote against the merger, or give written notice of your intention to claim dissenters' rights at or prior to the Sycamore special meeting, to the presiding officer of the special meeting.

Notice to Demand Payment. If the merger is consummated, within 30 days after the effective date of the merger, a shareholder eligible to exercise his or her dissenters' rights must request payment of the value of his or her Sycamore shares from, and surrender his or her stock certificates representing Sycamore common stock to LCNB National Bank, Attn: Stephen P. Wilson, 2 N. Broadway, Lebanon, Ohio 45036.

Failure to Comply with Notice to Demand Payment. You must take each step in the indicated order and in strict compliance with the statute to maintain and exercise your dissenters' rights. If you fail to follow the steps, you will lose the right to dissent and you will receive the merger consideration described in this document for each share of Sycamore common stock that you hold.

How the Value of Shares is Determined. The value of the shares of any dissenting shareholder will be determined, as of the effective date of the merger, by an appraisal made by a committee of three persons. The committee will consist of one person selected by the vote of the holders of the majority of the shares whose owners are entitled to payment as a dissenter, one person selected by the board of directors of LCNB National Bank (as the surviving bank of the merger) and one person selected by the two so selected. The valuation agreed upon by any two of the three appraisers will govern.

If the value so fixed is not satisfactory to any dissenting shareholder who has requested payment, that shareholder may, within five days after being notified of the appraised value of his shares, appeal to the Office of the Comptroller for the Currency (OCC). The OCC is required to cause a reappraisal to be made, which will be final and binding (subject to judicial review in certain circumstances). If, for any reason, one or more of the appraisers is not selected as provided above within 90 days from the effective date of the merger, or if the appraisers fail to determine the value of such shares within the 90 days, the OCC is required, upon written request of any interested party, to cause an appraisal to be made that will be final and binding on all parties (subject to judicial review in certain circumstances). The expenses of the OCC in making the reappraisal or the appraisal, as the case may be, will be paid by LCNB. The ascertained value of the shares will be paid promptly to the dissenting shareholders. For more information regarding the OCC's stock appraisal process, shareholders may contact the Office of the Comptroller for the Currency, Corporate Activity Division, 250 E Street, S.W., Washington, D.C. 20219 (Telephone: (202) 874-5000).

A shareholder will not be permitted to split his or her vote; if a shareholder intends to vote, he or she must vote all of his or her shares either for or against the merger. The discussion in this section is only a summary of the rights and obligations of dissenting shareholders and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the applicable provisions of 12 U.S.C. Section 215a, which is attached hereto as Annex C.

FAILURE TO FOLLOW THE PROCEDURES SET FORTH IN 12 U.S.C. SECTION 215a, REGARDING DISSENTERS' RIGHTS WILL CONSTITUTE A WAIVER OF APPRAISAL RIGHTS. SHAREHOLDERS MAY WISH TO CONSULT INDEPENDENT COUNSEL BEFORE EXERCISING DISSENTERS' RIGHTS.

Sycamore is a national bank headquartered in Cincinnati, Ohio. Sycamore was founded in 1880 as a mutual savings association and later converted to a national bank in 1991. Sycamore operates within Colerain and Green Townships in Cincinnati, Ohio, with its main office located on W. Galbraith Road and its single branch office located on Bridgetown Road.

Sycamore is a community bank serving individuals and small businesses in the Cincinnati area. Sycamore has a wide variety of loan and deposit products, including personal loans, mortgage loans, home equity loans, checking accounts, money market accounts, savings accounts, certificates of deposit, individual retirement accounts, business deposit and money market accounts, business checking accounts and various business loans.

At June 30, 2007, Sycamore had 11 full-time and 9 part-time employees, total assets of $48.5 million, total loans of $43.1 million, total deposits of $43.8 million, and total shareholders' equity of $4.5 million.

The Merger

If the holders of at least two-thirds of the Sycamore shares adopt the amended and restated affiliation agreement, if the necessary regulatory approvals are received and if all conditions to the completion of the merger are satisfied or waived, the acquisition of Sycamore by LCNB will be accomplished through the merger of Sycamore with and into the Bank.

Background and reasons for the merger

Background of the merger.

From time to time, the Sycamore Board of Directors has considered various strategic alternatives for Sycamore in light of, and in response to, trends in the financial institution industry. The Sycamore Board of Directors has also been sensitive to the desire for greater investment liquidity expressed by certain shareholders from time to time. These considerations prompted the Sycamore Board of Directors to consider whether the long-term best interest of Sycamore's shareholders, employees and customers would best be served by remaining independent or by Sycamore affiliating with another company.

On April 5, 2007, Sycamore retained Sandler O'Neill & Partners L.P. (Sandler O'Neill). Sandler O'Neill's initial task was to assist the Sycamore Board of Directors in identifying a group of companies that would potentially have an interest in affiliating with Sycamore. As a result of this analysis, the Sycamore Board of Directors instructed Sandler O'Neill to initiate a process that would determine the level of interest these companies had in affiliating with Sycamore and the level of consideration each would be willing to pay. Sandler O'Neill prepared a June 2007 Confidential Information Memorandum and distributed it to those companies identified by the Sycamore Board of Directors and Sandler O'Neill that had expressed an interest in affiliating with Sycamore. As a result, Sandler O'Neill received five expressions of interest (setting forth certain material terms of a potential transaction) from potential acquirors of Sycamore. Subsequently, Sandler O'Neill analyzed the expressions of interest received and presented the results of its analysis to Sycamore's Board of Directors on June 20, 2007.

After deliberation, the Sycamore Board of Directors instructed Sandler O'Neill to pursue the expression of interest made by LCNB Corp. (LCNB). In pursuing a transaction with LCNB, Sandler O'Neill was instructed by the Sycamore Board of Directors to negotiate certain aspects of the expression of interest with LCNB's investment bankers. These negotiations resulted in a higher price than originally presented in the indication of interest as well as clarity of certain other proposed terms. On June 27, 2007, Sandler O'Neill received from LCNB an updated letter of interest that reflected these changes and included a 30-day exclusivity agreement. On June 28, 2007, in a telephonic meeting of the Sycamore Board of Directors, the board unanimously agreed to grant the 30-day exclusivity period and pursue a potential transaction with LCNB. Reasons cited by the Sycamore Board of Directors to pursue a transaction with LCNB included a strong purchase price, complementary business cultures, potential for a partial liquidity event for Sycamore shareholders, and a belief that the pro forma entity would be a strong investment for Sycamore shareholders and a good bank for both its customers and employees.

Over the next few weeks, LCNB and Sycamore each conducted due diligence on the other and actively negotiated the terms of a definitive acquisition agreement. On August 6, 2007, the Sycamore Board of Directors met with representatives of Sandler O'Neill and Frost Brown Todd LLC ("FBT"), Sycamore's special legal counsel, to review the terms of the proposed definitive acquisition agreement. FBT representatives advised the Sycamore Board of Directors regarding certain legal matters related to the proposed transaction, including the fiduciary obligations of Sycamore's directors in connection with their consideration of the proposed definitive acquisition agreement. FBT representatives also presented information about the proposed merger, including information related to LCNB and key terms related to structure, covenants, and representations and warranties, and the regulatory and shareholder approvals required to complete the proposed merger. A representative of Sandler O'Neill then presented a financial analysis of the transaction and orally advised the Sycamore Board of Directors of its opinion that, as of August 6, 2007, the amount of merger consideration to be paid by LCNB in the merger (the choice of cash and/or stock in LCNB) was fair, from a financial perspective, to the Sycamore shareholders. At that same meeting, the Sycamore directors reviewed the proposed acquisition agreement and asked questions concerning its provisions and the proposed merger of Sycamore into LCNB National Bank.

On August 13, 2007, the Sycamore Board of Directors again met with representatives of Sandler O'Neill and FBT. At this meeting, FBT representatives advised the Sycamore directors of certain revisions to the previous draft of the proposed acquisition agreement and reviewed with the directors the entire acquisition agreement. A representative of Sandler O'Neill then delivered an updated financial analysis of the transaction and an updated opinion that the merger consideration to be received by the Sycamore shareholders in the proposed merger was fair from a financial point of view to Sycamore's shareholders. Following the Sandler O'Neill presentation, Sycamore directors asked questions of Sycamore's chairman, president, representatives of FBT and the Sandler O'Neill representatives. Following a period of discussion and responses to director questions, upon motion duly made and seconded, the Sycamore Board of Directors unanimously approved the LCNB proposed acquisition agreement and authorized the appropriate officers of Sycamore to execute the definitive acquisition agreement. On the afternoon of August 13, 2007, LCNB and Sycamore entered into a definitive affiliation agreement (the affiliation agreement).

Subsequent to the signing of the affiliation agreement, Sycamore determined that it had 2,100 more issued and outstanding common shares than it had disclosed in the affiliation agreement. Representatives from Sandler O'Neill, Stifel Nicolaus, Sycamore and LCNB agreed that in order to keep the aggregate merger consideration level the same as it was prior to the discovery of the additional outstanding Sycamore common shares, Sycamore and LCNB should amend and restate the affiliation agreement to lower the price per common share from $34.00 to $33.75, and the exchange ratio of LCNB common shares for Sycamore common shares from 2.462 to 2.444. LCNB and Sycamore entered into an amended and restated affiliation agreement reflecting such changes on September 24, 2007.

LCNB's reasons for the merger.

LCNB Corp. in reaching its determination to adopt and approve the amended and restated affiliation agreement, the board of directors consulted with LCNB management, legal consultants from Dinsmore & Shohl and investment bankers from Stifel, Nicolaus & Company, Incorporated ("Stifel Nicolaus") and considered the following material factors in support of the board's approval:

the long-term interests of LCNB and its shareholders, as well as the interests of LCNB employees, customers, creditors and the communities in which LCNB operates;

information concerning the business, earnings, operations, financial condition and prospects of Sycamore, both individually and on a combined basis, including information with respect to the past earnings performance of each of LCNB and Sycamore;

the opportunity for the Bank to obtain a presence in a large and attractive market;

the opportunity to benefit from cost savings and other benefits of size and operating efficiencies;

the prospects for LCNB to benefit, over the long term, from increased financial strength and growth;

the potential accretion to LCNB earnings per share and book value per share;

the opinion of Stifel Nicolaus that, as of the date of the merger agreement, the consideration to be paid in the merger was fair, from a financial point of view to LCNB's shareholders;

the likelihood of completing the merger, including, in particular, obtaining regulatory approvals; and the belief that the merger should assist LCNB in maintaining its status as an independent holding company and the Bank in maintaining its status as a community bank.

The board of directors of LCNB also considered a variety of risks and other potentially negative factors in deliberations concerning the merger. In particular, the board of directors of LCNB considered:

the risks associated with a fixed exchange ratio for a portion of the merger consideration, including the possibility that the value of LCNB common stock that the Sycamore shareholders receive in the merger could vary depending on the market price of LCNB's common stock at the effective time of the merger;

the costs associated with the regulatory approval process, the costs associated with calling a special meeting of the Sycamore shareholders and other merger-related costs; and the risks associated with combining the operations of Sycamore with LCNB's existing operations, including difficulty in combining corporate, accounting, financial information and information systems.

The board of directors of LCNB did not receive a quantitative analysis of the factors listed above. However, the board of directors of LCNB concluded that the anticipated benefits of the merger outweighed the possible detriments.

This discussion is not intended to be exhaustive but includes the material information and factors considered by the LCNB board of directors in its consideration of the merger. In view of the wide variety of factors considered, the LCNB board of directors did not assign relative weights to the specific factors considered in reaching its determination. The determination was made after consideration of all of the factors as a whole. In addition, individual members of the LCNB board of directors may have given different weights to different factors.

Sycamore s reasons for the merger.

In reaching its decision to approve the amended and restated affiliation agreement and merger and to recommend adoption of the amended and restated affiliation agreement and approval of the merger to the shareholders of Sycamore, the Sycamore Board of Directors consulted with its advisors and independently considered the amended and restated affiliation agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby. Sycamore s Board of Directors, in determining to recommend adoption of the amended and restated affiliation agreement and approval of the merger to Sycamore s shareholders, considered the following factors in concluding that the merger will be beneficial to Sycamore and its shareholders:

the financial terms of the merger.

its familiarity with, and information provided by Sandler O'Neill and LCNB as to, the business, financial condition, results of operations, current business strategy and future prospects of LCNB;

the nature of the markets in which Sycamore operates and Sycamore's position in such markets;

its understanding of the potential for a greater range of products and services that the combined bank could provide to customers;

the historical prices per share and private trading activity of Sycamore common stock and the fact that the merger consideration would enable Sycamore shareholders to realize a premium over the prices at which shares of Sycamore's common stock had previously traded and would provide Sycamore shareholders, with respect to the portion of the merger consideration comprised of LCNB common stock, a more liquid equity investment;

the fact that aggregate merger consideration represented a 2.17 multiple of Sycamore's June 30, 2007 stated common equity and a 36.1 multiple of Sycamore's net income for the twelve months ending June 30, 2007;

the expectation that, with respect to the portion of the merger consideration comprised of LCNB common stock, the merger will qualify as a transaction of a type that is generally tax-free to Sycamore shareholders for U.S. federal income tax purposes;

the treatment of Sycamore employees contemplated by the amended and restated affiliation agreement;

the Board of Directors' view of the risks associated with the prospects for the business and its financial projections and growth targets, given their assessment of the current competitive landscape, including on-going community bank consolidation and a difficult and competitive financial institution environment;

the opinion of Sandler O'Neill that, as of September 24, 2007 and the date of this joint proxy statement/prospectus and based upon and subject to the various assumptions and limitations set forth therein, the merger consideration to be received by Sycamore's shareholders pursuant to the amended and restated affiliation agreement was fair from a financial point of view to such shareholders. The full text of the written opinion of Sandler O'Neill, as updated, is attached as Annex B to this prospectus/proxy statement. Sycamore's shareholders should read the opinion in its entirety;

the fact that, Sycamore, with the assistance of Sandler O'Neill, had conducted an extensive set of discussions with potential parties to a business combination that was designed to determine both interest in and valuation for such a potential transaction with Sycamore;

the fact that Sycamore and Sandler O'Neill had conducted an extensive sales process and bidding procedure that was designed to determine the highest value attainable in such a potential transaction and the merger consideration contemplated by the amended and restated affiliation agreement is greater than any amount offered under the sales process and bidding procedure conducted by Sandler O'Neill;

the fact that consummation of the merger would permit the Sycamore shareholders the opportunity to participate in the future growth prospects of LCNB;

the ability of Sycamore under certain circumstances set forth in the amended and restated affiliation agreement to provide non-public information to, and engage in discussions with, third parties that propose an alternative transaction; and its view that the terms of the amended and restated affiliation agreement, including the termination fee, would not preclude the

Sycamore Board of Directors from evaluating an unsolicited superior proposal for an alternative transaction involving Sycamore;

the risks described under "Risk Factors" beginning on page 10 of this proxy statement/prospectus;

the fees and expenses associated with completing the merger; and the fact that the merger consideration and the terms and conditions of the amended and restated affiliation agreement were the result of arm's-length negotiations between LCNB and Sycamore.

In view of the variety of factors considered in connection with its evaluation of the amended and restated affiliation agreement and the merger, the Sycamore Board of Directors considered the factors as a whole and did not find it practicable to and did not quantify or otherwise assign relative weight to the specific factors considered in reaching its determination. In addition, individual members of the Sycamore Board of Directors may have given different weight to different factors. The explanation of Sycamore's reasons for the proposed merger set forth above contain forward-looking statements and, therefore, should be read in light of the factors discussed under "Forward-Looking Statements" on page 8 of this proxy statement/prospectus.

Opinion of Sycamore's financial advisor

By a letter agreement dated April 19, 2007, Sycamore retained Sandler O'Neill to act as its financial advisor in connection with a possible business combination. Sandler O'Neill is a nationally recognized investment banking firm whose principal business specialty is financial institutions. In the ordinary course of its investment banking business, Sandler O'Neill is regularly engaged in the valuation of financial institutions and their securities in connection with mergers and acquisitions and other corporate transactions.

Sandler O'Neill acted as financial advisor to Sycamore in connection with the proposed merger and participated in certain of the negotiations leading to the affiliation agreement and the amended and restated affiliation agreement. At the August 13, 2007 meeting at which Sycamore's board considered and approved the amended and restated affiliation agreement, Sandler O'Neill delivered to the board its oral opinion, subsequently confirmed in writing that, as of such date, the merger consideration was fair to Sycamore's shareholders from a financial point of view. The full text of Sandler O'Neill's opinion is attached as Annex B to this document. The opinion outlines the procedures followed, assumptions made, matters considered and qualifications and limitations on the review undertaken by Sandler O'Neill in rendering its opinion. The description of the opinion set forth below is qualified in its entirety by reference to the opinion. Sycamore shareholders are urged to read the entire opinion carefully in connection with their consideration of the proposed merger.

Sandler O'Neill's opinion speaks only as of the date of the opinion. The opinion is directed to the Sycamore board and speaks only to the fairness from a financial point of view of the merger consideration to Sycamore shareholders. It does not address the underlying business decision of Sycamore to engage in the merger or any other aspect of the merger and is not a recommendation to any Sycamore shareholder as to how such shareholder should vote at the special meeting with respect to the merger, the form of consideration such shareholder should elect or any other matter.

In connection with rendering its August 13, 2007 opinion, Sandler O Neill reviewed and considered, among other things:

- the amended and restated affiliation agreement;

- certain financial statements and other historical financial information of Sycamore as provided by senior management of Sycamore that Sandler O Neill deemed relevant;

- certain publicly available financial statements and other historical financial information of LCNB that Sandler O Neill deemed relevant;

- internal financial projections for Sycamore for the years ending December 31, 2007 through December 31, 2010 as provided by the management of Sycamore;

- internal financial projections for LCNB for the years December 31, 2007 through December 31, 2010 as provided by the management of LCNB;

- the pro forma financial impact of the Merger on LCNB, based on assumptions relating to transaction expenses, purchase accounting adjustments, cost savings and other synergies estimated by the senior management of LCNB and Sycamore;

- the publicly reported historical price and trading activity for LCNB's common stock, including a comparison of certain financial and stock market information for LCNB with similar publicly available information for certain other companies the securities of which are publicly traded;

- to the extent publicly available, the financial terms of certain recent business combinations in the commercial banking industry;

- the current market environment generally and the commercial banking environment in particular; and

such other information, financial studies, analyses and investigations and financial, economic and market criteria as Sandler O'Neill considered relevant.

Sandler O'Neill also discussed with certain members of senior management of Sycamore the business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects of Sycamore and held similar discussions with certain members of senior management of LCNB regarding the business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects of LCNB.

In performing its review, Sandler O'Neill relied upon the accuracy and completeness of all of the financial information, projections, estimates and other information that was available to it from public sources, that was provided by Sycamore and LCNB or their respective representatives or that was otherwise reviewed by Sandler O'Neill and assumed such accuracy and completeness for purposes of rendering its opinion. Sandler O'Neill further relied on the assurances of management of Sycamore and LCNB that they were not aware of any facts or circumstances that would make any of such information inaccurate or misleading. Sandler O'Neill was not asked to undertake, and did not undertake, an independent verification of any of such information and Sandler O'Neill did not assume any responsibility or liability for the accuracy or completeness thereof. Sandler O'Neill did not make an independent evaluation or appraisal of the specific assets, the collateral securing assets or the liabilities (contingent or otherwise) of Sycamore or LCNB or any of their subsidiaries, or the collectibility of any such assets, nor was Sandler O'Neill furnished with any such evaluations or appraisals. Sandler O'Neill did not make an independent evaluation of the adequacy of the allowance for loan losses of Sycamore or LCNB, nor did Sandler O'Neill review any individual credit files relating to Sycamore or LCNB. Sandler O'Neill assumed, with Sycamore's consent, that the respective allowances for loan losses for both Sycamore and LCNB were adequate to cover such losses and will be adequate on a pro forma basis for the combined entity.

Sandler O'Neill's opinion was necessarily based upon financial, economic, market and other conditions as they existed on, and could be evaluated as of, the date of its opinion. Sandler O'Neill assumed, in all respects material to its analysis that each party to such agreements would perform all of the material covenants required to be performed by such party under such agreements and that the conditions precedent in the amended and restated affiliation agreement had not been waived. Sandler O'Neill also assumed that there had been no material change in Sycamore's and LCNB's assets, financial condition, results of operations, business or prospects since the date of the last financial statements made available to them, and that Sycamore and LCNB would remain as going concerns for all periods relevant to its analyses. Sandler O'Neill, with Sycamore's consent, relied on the advice Sycamore received from its legal, accounting, and tax advisors as to all legal, accounting, and tax matters relating to the amended and restated affiliation agreement and the other transactions contemplated by the amended and restated affiliation agreement.

The respective internal financial projections for Sycamore and LCNB used and relied upon by Sandler O'Neill in its analyses and the projections of transaction costs, estimates of purchase accounting adjustments, expected cost savings, and other synergies relating to the merger were reviewed with the respective senior managements of Sycamore and LCNB, and such managements confirmed to Sandler O'Neill that they reflected the best currently available estimates and judgments of such managements of the future financial performance of Sycamore and LCNB, both respectively and related to the combined entity, and Sandler O'Neill assumed that such performances would be achieved. Sandler O'Neill expressed no opinion as to such estimates and projections or the assumptions on which they were based. Those estimates and projections, as well as the other estimates used by Sandler O'Neill in its analysis, were based on numerous variables and assumptions which are inherently uncertain and, accordingly, actual results could vary materially from those set forth in such projections.

Financial Analysis by Sandler O'Neill. The preparation of a fairness opinion is a complex process involving subjective judgments as to the most appropriate and relevant methods of financial analysis and the application of those methods to the particular circumstances. The process, therefore, is not necessarily susceptible to a partial analysis or summary description. Sandler O'Neill believes that its analysis must be considered as a whole and that selecting portions of the factors and analyses considered without considering all factors and analyses, or attempting to ascribe relative weights to some or all such factors and analyses, could create an incomplete view of the evaluation process underlying their respective opinions. Also, no company included in the comparative analysis described below is identical to Sycamore or LCNB and no transaction is identical to the merger. In performing its analysis, Sandler also made numerous assumptions with respect to industry performance, business and economic conditions and various other matters, many of which cannot be predicted and are beyond the control of Sycamore, LCNB and Sandler O'Neill. The analysis performed by Sandler O'Neill is not necessarily indicative of actual values or future results, both of which may be significantly more or less favorable than suggested by such analysis. Sandler O'Neill prepared its analysis solely for purposes of rendering its opinion and provided such analysis to the Sycamore board at the board's August 13, 2007 meeting. Estimates on the values of companies did not purport to be appraisals or necessarily reflect the prices at which companies or their securities might actually be sold. Such estimates are inherently subject to uncertainty and actual values may be materially different. Accordingly, Sandler O'Neill's analysis does not necessarily reflect the value of what LCNB's common stock will be when issued to Sycamore's stockholders or the price at which LCNB's common stock may be sold at any time.

In arriving at its opinion, Sandler O'Neill did not attribute any particular weight to any analysis or factor that it considered. Rather Sandler O'Neill made its own qualitative judgments as to the significance and relevance of each analysis and factor. The financial analysis summarized below includes information presented in tabular format. Sandler O'Neill did not form an opinion as to whether any individual analysis or factor (positive or negative) considered in isolation supported or failed to support its opinion; rather Sandler O'Neill made its determination as to the fairness of the per share consideration on the basis of its experience and professional judgment after considering the results of all the analyses taken as a whole. Accordingly, Sandler O'Neill believes that its analyses and the summary of its analyses must be considered as a whole and that selecting portions of its analysis and factors or focusing on the information presented below in tabular format, without considering all analyses and factors or the full narrative description of the financial analyses, including methodologies and assumptions underlying the analyses, could create a misleading or incomplete view of the process underlying its analysis and opinion. The tables alone do not constitute complete descriptions of the financial analyses presented in such tables.

At the August 13, 2007 meeting of Sycamore's board of directors, Sandler O'Neill presented certain financial analyses of the merger. The summary below is not a complete description of the analyses underlying the opinion of Sandler O'Neill or the presentation made by SandlerO'Neill to Sycamore's board, but is instead a summary of the material analyses performed and presented in connection with its opinion.

Summary of Proposal. Sandler O'Neill reviewed the financial terms of the proposed transaction. Pursuant to the amended and restated affiliation agreement, each share of Sycamore common stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the merger will be converted into the right to receive, (i) $33.75 in cash or (ii) that number of shares of LCNB common stock at an exchange ratio of 2.444 shares of LCNB common stock for each share of Sycamore common stock determined by reference to the 20-day average closing price of LCNB as of August 3, 2007, or a combination of LCNB common stock and cash. Based upon per-share financial information for Sycamore for the twelve months ended June 30, 2007, Sandler O'Neill calculated the following ratios:

Discounted Cash Flow Analysis. Sandler O'Neill performed a discounted cash flow analysis to estimate a range of the present values of after-tax cash flows that Sycamore could provide to equity holders through 2010 on a stand-alone basis, excluding the effects related to the merger. In performing this analysis, Sandler O'Neill used management estimates of per share net income of $0.78 for 2007, $1.05 for 2008, $1.19 for 2009 and $1.34 in 2010. The range of values was determined by the present value of the terminal value of Sycamore's common stock. In calculating the terminal value of Sycamore common stock, Sandler O'Neill applied multiples ranging from 12x to 22x to Sycamore's 2010 estimated earnings, along with multiples ranging from 100% to 200% of Sycamore's 2010 estimated tangible book value, both as predicted by senior management of Sycamore. The dividend stream and the terminal value were then discounted back using discount rates ranging from 9.0% to 15.0%, which range Sandler O'Neill viewed as appropriate for a company with Sycamore's risk characteristics. In addition, the net present value of Sycamore's common stock at December 31, 2010 was calculated using the same range of price to last twelve months earnings multiples (12.0x - 22.0x) applied to a range of discounts and premiums to budget projections. The range applied to the budgeted net income was 25% under budget to 25% over budget, using a discount rate of 11.50% to the analysis.

This analysis resulted in the following reference ranges of indicated per share values for Sycamore common stock:

In connection with their analyses, Sandler O'Neill considered and discussed with the Sycamore board how the present value analyses would be affected by changes in the underlying assumptions, including variations with respect to net income. Sandler O'Neill noted that the discounted dividend stream and terminal value analysis is a widely used valuation methodology, but the results of such methodology are highly dependent upon the numerous assumptions that must be made, and the results thereof are not necessarily indicative of actual values or future results.

Sandler O'Neill also performed a discounted cash flow analysis to estimate a range of the present values of after-tax cash flows that LCNB could provide to equity holders through 2010 on a stand-alone basis, excluding the effects related to the merger. In performing this analysis, Sandler O'Neill used management estimates of per share net income of $0.94 for 2007, $1.01 for 2008, $1.08 for 2009 and $1.16 in 2010. The range of values was determined by the present value of the terminal value of LCNB's common stock. In calculating the terminal value of LCNB's common stock, Sandler O'Neill applied multiples ranging from 10x to 20x to LCNB's 2010 estimated earnings, along with multiples ranging from 100% to 225% of LCNB's 2010 estimated tangible book value, both as predicted by senior management of LCNB. The dividend stream and the terminal value were then discounted back using discount rates ranging from 9.0% to 15.0%, which range Sandler O'Neill viewed as appropriate for a company with LCNB's risk characteristics. In connection with their analyses, Sandler O'Neill considered and discussed with the LCNB board how the present value analyses would be affected by changes in the underlying assumptions, including variations with respect to net income. Sandler O'Neill noted that the discounted dividend stream and terminal value analysis is a widely used valuation methodology, but the results of such methodology are highly dependent upon the numerous assumptions that must be made, and the results thereof are not necessarily indicative of actual values or future results.

Pro Forma Merger Analysis. Sandler O'Neill analyzed certain potential pro forma effects of the merger, assuming:

- the merger closes during the 4th quarter of 2007,
- an exchange ratio of 2.444x,
- unexercised stock options to purchase shares of Sycamore common stock are stocked out
- earnings per share projection in 2008 and 2009 for Sycamore confirmed with Sycamore management
- earnings per share projections in 2008 and 2009 for LCNB confirmed with LCNB management,
- certain purchase accounting adjustments (including amortizable identifiable intangibles created in the merger), charges and transaction costs associated with the merger,
- cost savings and other synergies are consistent with the estimates of the senior managements of Sycamore and LCNB,
- various financing costs associated with financing the cash consideration paid to Sycamore shareholders;

For each of the years 2008 through 2012, Sandler O'Neill compared the estimated earnings per share of LCNB common stock to the estimated earnings per share on a pro forma GAAP basis, along with the estimated tangible book value per share of LCNB common stock to the estimated tangible book value per share on a pro forma basis.

Based on the assumptions listed above, the analyses indicated that the merger would be accretive to LCNB's projected 2008 through 2012 GAAP EPS and dilutive to LCNB's projected 2008 through 2012 tangible book value per share.

The actual results achieved by the combined company may vary from projected results and the variations may be material.

Miscellaneous. Sycamore has agreed to pay Sandler O Neill a transaction fee in connection with the merger of $150,000, which is contingent, and payable, upon closing of the merger. Sandler O Neill will also receive a fee for rendering its respective opinion. Sycamore has also agreed to reimburse certain of Sandler O Neill's reasonable out-of-pocket expenses incurred in connection with its engagement and to indemnify Sandler O Neill and its affiliates and their respective partners, directors, officers, employees, agents, and controlling persons against certain expenses and liabilities, including liabilities under the securities laws.

In the ordinary course of their respective broker and dealer businesses, Sandler O Neill may purchase securities from and sell securities to Sycamore and LCNB and their affiliates. Sandler O Neill may also actively trade the debt and/or equity securities of Sycamore or LCNB or their affiliates for their own accounts and for the accounts of their customers and, accordingly, may at any time hold a long or short position in such securities.

Summary of Proposed Merger

Merger consideration

Subject to certain adjustments set forth in the amended and restated affiliation agreement and described below, at the effective time of the merger each Sycamore share will be converted into the right to receive either $33.75 in cash or 2.444 LCNB shares. Shareholders of Sycamore, other than shareholders who have properly exercised dissenters rights, will have the option to receive all cash, all LCNB shares, or a combination of cash and LCNB shares.

Edgar Filing: LCNB CORP - Form S-4

Under the amended and restated affiliation agreement, one-half of the total number of Sycamore shares outstanding immediately prior to the effective time of the merger must be exchanged for cash. If the aggregate number of shares for which cash elections are made is not equal to one-half of the outstanding Sycamore shares, then the form of payment you receive may be different than what you request.

On _____, 2007, the last trading date before we printed this proxy statement/prospectus, LCNB shares closed at $_____ on OTCBB. Based on that _____, 2007 market price, 2.444 LCNB shares would be valued at $_____.

Based on the 279,733 Sycamore shares issued and outstanding on _____, 2007, and assuming no adjustments are made to the exchange ratio, the total number of LCNB common shares to be issued to Sycamore shareholders would be approximately 341,834; if the 8,180 Sycamore options are exercised at the effective time, the total number of LCNB common shares would be 361,826. Based on the 6,345,486 LCNB common shares issued and outstanding on June 30, 2007 (and assuming the exercise of such options), the total number of LCNB common shares outstanding after the merger would be 6,707,312, of which approximately 5.4% would be held by former Sycamore shareholders.

LCNB will not issue fractional shares in the merger. Each Sycamore shareholder who otherwise would be entitled to receive a fraction of a LCNB share will receive cash in an amount equal to the fractional LCNB share interest, multiplied by $13.81.

The amended and restated affiliation agreement provides that the per share merger consideration (i.e., the $33.75 cash amount and/or the exchange ratio of 2.444 LCNB shares for each Sycamore share) may be adjusted under the following circumstances:

Decrease in market price of LCNB shares. If the average market price of a LCNB share, at a specified date prior to the closing date is less than $11.05 and the decline in the market price of a LCNB share is more than 20% greater than the decline, if any, in the SNL Bank Index during the period between August 3, 2007 and the date set forth above, then the Board of Directors of Sycamore may elect to terminate the amended and restated affiliation agreement and abandon the merger. If the Board of Directors of Sycamore elects to terminate the amended and restated affiliation agreement, LCNB will have five days in which to elect to increase the exchange ratio so that the exchange ratio multiplied by the average market price of a LCNB share during the measuring period equals 80% of the per share cash amount. If LCNB elects to increase the exchange ratio, then the election by the Board of Directors to terminate the amended and restated affiliation agreement will be of no further force and effect and the amended and restated affiliation agreement will remain in effect.

Election procedure

Registrar and Transfer Company, the exchange agent has mailed to you on the same date that this proxy statement/prospectus was mailed to you, an election form. Each election form will permit you to:

- elect to receive cash in exchange for your Sycamore shares,
- elect to receive LCNB shares in exchange for your Sycamore shares,
- elect to receive a combination of cash and LCNB shares in exchange for your Sycamore shares, or
- indicate that you make no election.

Your election form must be properly completed and actually received by the exchange agent by 5:00 p.m., Eastern Time, on the day designated on the election form, which will be no later than three days prior to the anticipated effective date of the merger, which is set forth on the election form.

Registrar and Transfer Company will provide to you a transmittal form and instructions for the surrender of your certificates evidencing Sycamore shares in exchange for the merger consideration within five days after the effective time of the merger. Until you surrender your certificates, LCNB will not pay you any cash consideration or any dividends or other distributions and your rights as a shareholder of LCNB will be suspended. No interest will be paid or accrued on any cash constituting merger consideration or unpaid dividends and distributions, if any, payable to Sycamore shareholders.

If you have lost or misplaced your Sycamore stock certificate(s), you should immediately call _____ at (513) _____ - _____. Mr. _____ will mail to you instructions for replacing the lost certificate(s).

Allocation of LCNB shares and cash among Sycamore shareholders

Under the amended and restated affiliation agreement, one-half of the total number of Sycamore shares outstanding at the effective time of the merger will be exchanged for cash. If the number of Sycamore shares designated by Sycamore shareholders in the election forms to be exchanged for cash consideration is less than one-half, then each Sycamore shareholder electing cash will receive cash. The Sycamore shares of those Sycamore shareholders who did not make an election and, if necessary, those Sycamore shareholders electing to receive LCNB shares as consideration, will then be exchanged for cash, on a pro rata basis, so that one-half of the outstanding Sycamore shares are exchanged for cash. The remainder of the Sycamore shares will be exchanged for LCNB shares.

If the number of Sycamore shares designated by Sycamore shareholders in the election forms to be exchanged for cash consideration, which includes all dissenting shares, is greater than one-half, then the cash consideration will be allocated among those Sycamore shareholders electing to receive cash on a pro rata basis so that the total number of Sycamore shares exchanged for cash equals one-half of the number of outstanding Sycamore shares immediately prior to the effective time of the merger. The remainder of the Sycamore shares will be exchanged for LCNB shares.

The Amended and Restated Affiliation Agreement

The following is a description of the material terms of the amended and restated affiliation agreement. A complete copy of the amended and restated affiliation agreement is attached as Annex A to this proxy statement/prospectus and is incorporated into this proxy statement/prospectus by reference. We encourage you to read the amended and restated affiliation agreement carefully, as it is the legal document that governs the merger.

The amended and restated affiliation agreement contains representations and warranties of LCNB and Sycamore. The assertions embodied in those representations and warranties are qualified by information in the confidential disclosures schedules that the parties delivered in connection with the execution of the amended and restated affiliation agreement. In addition, certain representations and warranties were made as of a specific date, may be subject to a contractual standard of materiality different from those generally applicable to shareholders, or may have been used for purposes of allocating risk between the respective parties rather than establishing matters as facts. Accordingly, you should not rely on the representations and warranties as characterizations of the actual state of facts, or for any other purpose at the time they were made or otherwise.

The Merger

Pursuant to the terms and subject to the conditions of the amended and restated affiliation agreement, Sycamore will merge with and into the Bank, with the Bank surviving the merger and continuing as a national bank.

Effective Time

Following the satisfaction or waiver of all conditions in the amended and restated affiliation agreement, LCNB will request from the Office of the Comptroller of the Currency a certificate of merger in order to complete the merger. We anticipate that we will complete the merger in fourth quarter of 2007.

Conversion of Sycamore common shares

Subsequent to the signing of the affiliation agreement, Sycamore determined that it had 2,100 more issued and outstanding common shares than it had disclosed in the affiliation agreement. In order to keep the aggregate merger consideration level the same as it was prior to the discovery of the additional outstanding Sycamore common shares, Sycamore and LCNB amended and restated the affiliation agreement to lower the price per common share from $34.00 to $33.75, and the exchange ratio of LCNB common shares for Sycamore common shares from 2.462 to 2.444.

At the effective time of the merger, each outstanding share of Sycamore common stock will be converted into the right to receive either (a) 2.444 shares of LCNB common stock, or (b) $33.75, or some combination of cash and shares of LCNB common stock.

LCNB will not issue fractional shares of LCNB common stock. Instead, LCNB will pay to any shareholder who would otherwise be entitled to a fractional share of LCNB common stock an amount in cash, without interest, equal to the product of the fractional LCNB common share multiplied by $13.81.

At the effective time of the merger, the Sycamore common shares will no longer be outstanding and will automatically be deemed to be cancelled and cease to exist, and the holders of Sycamore common shares will cease to be, and will have no rights as shareholders of Sycamore, other than the right to receive the merger consideration pursuant to the amended and restated affiliation agreement (and dissenters' rights pursuant to 12 U.S.C. Section 215a of the National Bank Act, as more fully described on page 16). If you receive LCNB common shares in the merger, you will, upon proper surrender of your Sycamore common share certificates, have the rights of a holder of LCNB shares.

Election procedures

On the same date on which this proxy statement/prospectus was mailed to you, Registrar and Transfer Company sent to you an election form which will allow you to elect how you would like to receive the merger compensation. You will be allowed to elect to receive the compensation which you are due (a) all in cash, (b) all in LCNB common shares, (c) in a combination of cash and LCNB common shares, or (d) make no election.

If you elect to receive all cash, you will receive all cash for your Sycamore common shares, in an amount equal to $33.75 per share, subject to the allocation procedures described below.

If you elect to receive all LCNB common shares, you will receive LCNB common shares at the exchange rate of 2.444 shares of LCNB for every Sycamore common share you own, subject to the allocation procedures described below and subject to the payment of cash in lieu of fractional LCNB common shares.

If you elect to receive a mix of cash and stock, you will receive cash in an amount equal to $33.75 per share for each share elected to be converted into cash and 2.444 LCNB common shares for each share elected to be converted into LCNB common shares. These amounts are also subject to the allocation procedures described below and subject to the payment of cash in lieu of the issuance of fractional LCNB common shares.

If you select the non-election box or otherwise do not make an election as to the form of consideration you wish to receive, a presumptive election will be made on your behalf, such that you will receive 50% of the merger consideration due to you in cash and 50% of the merger consideration due to you in LCNB common shares, subject to the allocation procedures described below and subject to the payment of cash in lieu of the issuance of fractional LCNB common shares.

The deadline for submitting an election form will be the third trading day prior to the effective time of the merger. An election will be considered to have been validly made by a holder of Sycamore common shares only if Registrar and Transfer Company receives, prior to the deadline, an election form properly completed and executed by the holder.

Allocation

Registrar and Transfer Company will allocate the merger consideration elected to be received by Sycamore common shareholders in accordance with the elections made on the election forms properly completed and returned to Registrar and Transfer Company by the deadline stated above. However, Registrar and Transfer Company will adjust the number of LCNB common shares to be given to Sycamore shareholders so that 50% of the Sycamore common shares are exchanged for LCNB common shares and 50% of the Sycamore common shares are exchanged for cash. In order to ensure this allocation, Registrar and Transfer Company will first alter the allocations of cash and shares to be given to those who either checked the non-election box or did not properly complete and return their election form prior to the deadline. In the event that additional alterations to the elections need to be made in order to achieve the necessary allocations, Registrar and Transfer Company will alter the elections of those who elected to receive stock (or stock and cash) and then those who elected to receive cash, until the allocation is set so that 50% of the Sycamore common shares are exchanged for cash and 50% of the Sycamore common shares are exchanged for LCNB common shares.

Surrender of certificates

No later than five business days after the effective time of the merger, Registrar and Transfer Company will send to each Sycamore shareholder a notice and transmittal form which will provide instructions and procedures for surrendering the Sycamore common share certificates to Registrar and Transfer Company.

Upon the surrender of a shareholder's certificates representing Sycamore common shares, together with a notice of transmittal, such shareholder shall be entitled to receive, and Registrar and Transfer Company shall send to such shareholder, a check in the appropriate amount of cash and/or certificates for LCNB common shares in accordance with the allocation elected by the shareholder, as adjusted pursuant to the Allocation section set forth above.

You will not be entitled to payment of any dividends or other distributions with respect to LCNB common shares until you have followed the procedures described above for surrendering your certificates for Sycamore common shares. After properly surrendering your Sycamore common certificates, you will be entitled to receive any dividends or other distributions with respect to LCNB common shares with a record date occurring on or after the effective time of the merger.

If any certificate representing Sycamore common shares has been lost, stolen or destroyed, Registrar and Transfer Company will deliver the merger consideration properly payable under the amended and restated affiliation agreement with respect to such shares represented by the certificate upon receipt of an appropriate affidavit by the person claiming that the certificate has been lost, stolen or destroyed.

Sycamore stock options

Each option for a right to purchase or acquire Sycamore common shares which are outstanding and vested as of the effective time of the merger, will be assumed by LCNB and will become options to purchase a number of LCNB common shares. Each option will be exercisable for a number of LCNB shares equal to the number of Sycamore common shares for which the option was exercisable, multiplied by 2.444, and the exercise price per share for each option will be divided by 2.444. The exercise date for the options will be the later of the effective date or January 15, 2008. Any options that are not outstanding, vested or exercisable as of the effective time will be cancelled.

Representations and warranties

LCNB and Sycamore have each made representations and warranties in the amended and restated affiliation agreement, which include:

- good standing and capitalization;
- corporate power and authority to execute, deliver and perform the amended and restated affiliation agreement;
- accuracy of financial statements;
- absence of material changes;
- litigation;
- taxes;
- loan losses;
- absence of fees of brokers or finders;
- legal compliance;
- regulatory filings and regulatory actions;
- employee benefit plans;

- labor matters;
- interest rate risk management;
- investment portfolios;
- performance of obligations;
- receipt of fairness opinion; and
- financial resources and regulatory ratings.

In addition, Sycamore has made representations and warranties relating to:

- accuracy of corporate documents;
- marketable title to properties and assets;
- extraordinary transactions;
- material contracts;
- environmental matters; and

insurance.

The representations and warranties in the amended and restated affiliation agreement will not survive the closing of the merger.

Covenants and other agreements

In order to facilitate the merger and the conduct of the business after the merger, LCNB and Sycamore have agreed that:

- Sycamore will take all necessary actions to call and hold a special meeting of its shareholders;

- Sycamore will operate generally in the ordinary course of business up to the effective time of the merger;

- LCNB will prepare and file all necessary regulatory applications in order to complete the merger;

- LCNB and Sycamore will cooperate in order to consummate the contemplated transactions;

- Sycamore will grant LCNB reasonable access during normal business hours to Sycamore's books, records and properties;

- Sycamore and LCNB will cooperate to convert Sycamore's systems into or to conform with LCNB's systems, and shall apportion the costs of such conversion in the event of a termination of the amended and restated affiliation agreement;

- the Bank shall become the sponsor of the Sycamore Employee's Savings & Profit Sharing Plan and Trust following the merger and LCNB may terminate or freeze such plans so long as the Bank maintains similar plans for its employees and the Bank makes Sycamore employees eligible under those plans;

•

LCNB will inform Sycamore of those employees it wishes to retain, and any employees who remain with LCNB will be eligible to participate in employee benefit plans substantially similar to those provided to other Bank employees;

•

LCNB will pay severance to those employees of Sycamore who are not offered employment by LCNB or the Bank, who are not otherwise covered by a severance package, and who sign and deliver a termination and release agreement; the Bank shall enter into employment agreements with Mr. John Calhoun and Mr. John Rost;

Sycamore shall redeem all of its outstanding preferred shares prior to the effective time of the merger;

Sycamore shall grant LCNB access to the meetings of its board of directors;

Sycamore, LCNB and the Bank shall not take any actions that would adversely affect the ability of Sycamore to characterize the merger as a tax free reorganization;

•

Sycamore shall not pay any dividends until the earlier of the effective time or the termination of the amended and restated affiliation agreement;

the confidentiality agreement between LCNB and Sycamore shall continue in full force and effect;

•

LCNB and Sycamore shall indemnify and hold each other harmless for any misstatement or omission made by the other party in any regulatory filing;

•

LCNB and Sycamore shall agree as to the form and substance of any press release related to the amended and restated affiliation agreement;

•

LCNB and Sycamore shall bear all of their own expenses in connection with the amended and restated affiliation agreement;

both parties shall notify the other of any material changes or failures to satisfy a condition of the amended and restated affiliation agreement occurring before the closing date of the transaction; and

LCNB will honor the rights to indemnification of the directors, officers, employees, or agents of Sycamore after the closing.

Conditions to completion of merger

The respective obligations of Sycamore and LCNB to complete the merger are subject to the satisfaction of the following conditions:

the approval of the amended and restated affiliation agreement must have received the required vote of the Sycamore shareholders;

shareholders holding enough shares to jeopardize the tax-free nature of the merger must not have exercised their dissenters rights;

Sycamore and LCNB must have received all necessary governmental and regulatory consents, clearances and approvals;

there must not be any threatened or instituted governmental action that could enjoin or prohibit the transactions contemplated by the amended and restated affiliation agreement;

all waiting periods necessary to close the merger must have been terminated or have expired;

no statute or rule making the merger illegal shall have been passed;

Sycamore's counsel must have delivered an opinion to LCNB and Sycamore as to the tax free nature of the merger; and the Continuity of Interest Test must be met (i.e. the total value of the LCNB common shares to be issued in the merger must be at least 45% of the total merger consideration to be issued, as of the day immediately preceding the effective time).

In addition, Sycamore will not be required to complete the merger unless the following conditions are satisfied:

all of LCNB's representations and warranties must be true and correct in all material respects as of the date of the amended and restated affiliation agreement and as of the closing date of the merger, and LCNB must have delivered a certificate executed by the chief executive and chief financial officers of LCNB certifying the truth of such representations and warranties;

LCNB must have performed all of the obligations required of it under the amended and restated affiliation agreement and delivered a certificate executed by the chief executive and chief financial officers, certifying the performance of all such obligations;

Sycamore must have received a written fairness opinion from Sandler O'Neill;

LCNB must have registered the LCNB common shares to be delivered to the Sycamore shareholders receiving stock as merger consideration; and

LCNB's business must not have experienced any material adverse changes since December 31, 2006.

LCNB will not be required to complete the merger unless the following conditions are also satisfied:

all of Sycamore's representations and warranties must be true and correct in all material respects as of the date of the amended and restated affiliation agreement and as of the closing date of the merger, and Sycamore must have delivered a certificate executed by the chief executive and chief financial officers of Sycamore certifying the truth of such representations and warranties;

Sycamore must have performed all of the obligations required of it under the amended and restated affiliation agreement and delivered a certificate executed by the chief executive and chief financial officers, certifying the performance of all such obligations;

LCNB must have received a written fairness opinion from Stifel Nicolaus;

the issued and outstanding Sycamore common shares must not be greater than 289,088 (including all shares issuable pursuant to the exercise of eligible options) and the Sycamore preferred shares must have been redeemed; and

Sycamore's business must not have experienced any material adverse changes since December 31, 2006.

Termination and amendment

LCNB and Sycamore may agree to terminate the merger at any time before it is completed, even if the Sycamore shareholders have voted to approve the merger. The amended and restated affiliation agreement may be terminated and the merger may be abandoned at any time prior to the effective time of the merger:

By either party if:

the other party has made a material misrepresentation, a material breach of a warranty, or a material failure to comply with any covenant prior to the closing date and such misrepresentation, breach or failure is not cured within 30 days;

the continuity of interest test referenced on page 37 is not met;

the other party's business, assets or financial condition has experienced a material adverse change after December 31, 2006; or the merger has not been consummated by March 31, 2008.

By Sycamore if:

an event happens that makes it impossible for LCNB to fulfill its obligations to close the transaction;

Sycamore enters into a definitive agreement with a third party for the acquisition of Sycamore on terms that are likely to result in a materially more favorable transaction than the merger to LCNB and its shareholders and other relevant constituencies; or

if the average market price of a LCNB share, at a specified date prior to the closing date is less than $11.05 and the decline in the market price of a LCNB share is more than 20% greater than the decline, if any, in the SNL Bank Index during the period between August 3, 2007 and the specified date described above, then the Board of Directors of Sycamore may elect to terminate the amended and restated affiliation agreement and abandon the merger, provided that if Sycamore elects to terminate the amended and restated affiliation agreement, LCNB will have the option of increasing the exchange ratio, in which case the amended and restated affiliation agreement will remain in effect.

By LCNB if:

an event happens that makes it impossible for Sycamore to fulfill its obligations to close the transaction; or the board of directors of Sycamore does not unanimously recommend, or at any time withdraws its recommendation, that Sycamore's shareholders approve and adopt the merger and the amended and restated affiliation agreement.

The amended and restated affiliation agreement shall be deemed automatically terminated if (i) the Sycamore shareholders do not approve the agreement in the manner required by law, or (ii) a regulatory application necessary for the consummation of the transaction is finally denied or disapproved.

If the amended and restated affiliation agreement is terminated due to a misrepresentation, breach, or failure of a covenant, the breaching party is responsible for paying the reasonable expenses of the non-breaching party up to an amount of $200,000 (unless the breach was a willful breach, in which case the expenses will not be limited to $200,000).

If Sycamore terminates the amended and restated affiliation agreement due to a third party offer, or if Sycamore consummates a transaction with a third party within 12 months after LCNB terminates the agreement pursuant to Sycamore's willful breach of the agreement, Sycamore shall pay LCNB a termination fee in an amount equal to $300,000.

If the amended and restated affiliation agreement is terminated, the amended and restated affiliation agreement will become void and have no effect, except that the provisions of the amended and restated affiliation agreement relating to confidentiality of information, payment of expenses and the payment of the termination fee by Sycamore or LCNB, as the case may be, will survive the termination, and no party to the amended and restated affiliation agreement will be released from any liabilities or damages arising out of its breach of any provision of the amended and restated affiliation agreement.

The amended and restated affiliation agreement may be amended in writing at any time before or after the Sycamore shareholders adopt the amended and restated affiliation agreement. If the Sycamore shareholders have already adopted the amended and restated affiliation agreement, however, we will not amend the amended and restated affiliation agreement without their approval if the amendment would materially adversely affect the shareholders. If necessary, Sycamore will seek approval of any such amendment at a subsequent meeting of shareholders.

Expenses of the merger

Each of LCNB and Sycamore shall pay their own expenses incurred in connection with the amended and restated affiliation agreement and the transactions contemplated by the amended and restated affiliation agreement, except that Sycamore shall be responsible for all of the costs in soliciting proxies from its shareholders and LCNB shall be responsible for all of the costs in making the regulatory filings.

Interests of directors and officers

Directors and officers of Sycamore have interests in the merger in addition to their interests solely as Sycamore shareholders.

Employment Agreements

LCNB has entered into Employment Agreements with Mr. John Rost and Mr. John Calhoun, both dated August 13, 2007, the terms of which begin upon completion of the merger. Pursuant to these agreements, Mr. Calhoun will become an Executive Vice President of the Bank, and Mr. Rost will become a Vice President of the Bank. The term of both agreements ends on December 31, 2009, unless the agreements are terminated earlier in accordance with their terms. Under the terms of the agreements, Mr. Rost and Mr. Calhoun will earn salaries approximately equivalent to their respective salaries with Sycamore immediately prior to the merger. In addition, both will be entitled to participate in the LCNB benefit plans. In the event that LCNB terminates either Mr. Rost or Mr. Calhoun other than for cause, or Mr. Rost or Mr. Calhoun terminates his agreement for good reason (as defined in the employment agreements) Mr. Rost or Mr. Calhoun, as the case may be, will be entitled to receive severance payments equal to the amount of base salary that would have been payable to him had he remained in the employ of the Bank for the entire term of his employment agreement. In the event of termination of Mr. Rost or Mr. Calhoun for cause or the occurrence of certain other events, Mr. Rost or Mr. Calhoun, as the case may be, will be entitled to receive no additional compensation.

Release Agreements

LCNB will enter into release agreements with those Sycamore employees that are not offered positions with LCNB or the Bank, including Chairman of the Board, William Huddleson. These release agreements will provide for severance pay equal to two weeks of the employees' salaries (at their rate of pay in effect at the time of termination) for each full year of continuous service with Sycamore with a minimum of four weeks and a maximum of 26 weeks paid. These payments will be paid in a lump sum through the Bank's regular payroll process within 20 days after the later of the termination date or the signing of the release agreements.

Resale of LCNB shares

LCNB has registered the LCNB shares to be issued in the merger with the Securities and Exchange Commission under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended. The LCNB shares will be freely transferable, except for LCNB shares received by persons who may be deemed to be affiliates of Sycamore. The term affiliate is defined in Rule 144 under the Securities Act and generally includes executive officers, directors, and shareholders beneficially owning 10% or more of the outstanding Sycamore shares. Sycamore affiliates may not sell their LCNB shares, except (a) in compliance with Rule 145 or as otherwise permitted under the Securities Act or (b) pursuant to an effective registration statement under the Securities Act covering their LCNB shares.

Material federal income tax consequences

The following summarizes the material anticipated federal income tax consequences of the merger generally applicable to the shareholders of Sycamore and to LCNB and Sycamore. This summary is not intended to be a complete description of all of the federal income tax consequences of the merger. It does not address the tax consequences of the merger under any other tax laws, including applicable state, local and foreign tax laws. In addition, the following discussion may not apply with respect to certain specific categories of shareholders, including but not limited to:

- corporations, trusts or tax exempt organizations;

- persons who are subject to alternative minimum tax (to the extent that tax affects the tax consequences of the merger) or are subject to the golden parachute provisions of the Internal Revenue Code (to the extent that tax affects the tax consequences of the merger);

- persons who acquired Sycamore stock pursuant to stock options; or

- persons who do not hold their shares as capital assets.

Sycamore shareholders with special particular tax circumstances or who are subject to special tax treatment are strongly urged to consult with their tax advisors regarding their individual tax consequences.

The obligation of LCNB and Sycamore to consummate the merger is conditioned on their receipt of an opinion of Sycamore's counsel, Frost Brown Todd LLC, to the effect that the merger constitutes a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code (the Code). The opinion will be based on the Code, the applicable Treasury Department regulations, judicial authorities and current administrative rulings and practices as in effect on the date of the opinion, all of which are subject to change, possibly with retroactive effect, and to differing interpretations. Opinions of counsel do not bind the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) or the courts, either of which could take a contrary position. The parties will not seek any rulings from the IRS in connection with the merger. The tax opinion will rely on certain assumptions that customarily are made with respect to transactions of this kind, and on certain representations and covenants of LCNB and Sycamore. If any such assumption, representation or covenant is inaccurate, it could adversely affect the opinion. In addition, the opinion assumes that any Sycamore shareholder that has asserted dissenters' rights will receive, pursuant to statutory procedures, an amount per Sycamore common share that does not exceed the value of the consideration per Sycamore common share to be received pursuant to the merger.

Tax Consequences of the Merger Generally. The opinion of Frost Brown Todd LLC, counsel to Sycamore, generally will state that:

- the merger will constitute a reorganization under Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code;

- each of LCNB and Sycamore will be a party to that reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(b) of the Internal Revenue Code;

- no gain or loss will be recognized by LCNB or Sycamore by reason of the merger;

- a shareholder of Sycamore receiving solely LCNB common shares in exchange for the shareholder's Sycamore common shares (not including any cash received in lieu of a fractional share) will recognize no gain or loss for federal income tax purposes upon the receipt of such LCNB common shares;

- a shareholder of Sycamore receiving both cash and LCNB common shares in exchange for the shareholder's Sycamore common shares (not including any cash received in lieu of a fractional LCNB common share) will recognize gain, but not loss, for federal income tax purposes in an amount not to exceed the amount of cash received (excluding cash received in lieu of a fractional LCNB common share);

- a shareholder of Sycamore who receives cash in lieu of a fractional LCNB common share will recognize gain or loss, as if the shareholder received the fractional share and it was then redeemed for cash in an amount equal to the amount paid by LCNB in respect of the fractional share;

- a shareholder of Sycamore who receives solely cash in exchange for the shareholder's Sycamore common shares (as a result of the exercise of dissenters' rights or an all cash election) will generally recognize gain or loss as if the shareholder had received such cash as a distribution in redemption of the shareholder's Sycamore common shares, subject to the provisions and limitations of Section 302 of the Code;

- the aggregate tax basis in the LCNB common shares received by a shareholder (including any fractional share interest deemed received) generally will equal the shareholder's aggregate tax basis in the Sycamore common shares surrendered in exchange for LCNB common shares, decreased by the amount of cash received, if any, and increased by the amount of gain recognized, if any; and

- the holding period for LCNB common shares received in exchange for Sycamore common shares will include the period during which the shareholder held the Sycamore common shares surrendered in exchange, provided that the Sycamore common shares were held as a capital asset at the time the merger becomes effective.

Tax Consequences to Sycamore Shareholders Who Receive Only Cash. A Sycamore shareholder who receives only cash in exchange for the shareholder's Sycamore common shares (as a result of the shareholder's dissent from the merger or election to receive the cash consideration for all of the shareholder's Sycamore common shares) will recognize gain or loss as if the shareholder had received such cash as a distribution in redemption of the shareholder's Sycamore common shares, subject to the provisions and limitations of Section 302 of the Code. Subject to those limitations, the gain or loss will be long-term capital gain or loss to the extent Sycamore common shares surrendered in the merger were held as capital assets for a period exceeding one year as of the time of the exchange. The gain or loss will be short-term capital gain or loss to the extent Sycamore common shares surrendered in the merger were held as capital assets for a period of one year or less as of the time of the exchange.

Tax Consequences to Sycamore Shareholders Who Receive Only LCNB Common Shares, Except for Cash in Lieu of Fractional Shares. A Sycamore shareholder who receives only LCNB common shares in exchange for the shareholder's Sycamore common shares (not including any cash received in lieu of a fractional LCNB common share) will not recognize any gain or loss on the receipt of those LCNB common shares.

Tax Consequences to Sycamore Shareholders Who Receive Cash (Other than Cash in Lieu of Fractional Shares) and LCNB Common Shares. A Sycamore shareholder who receives cash (other than cash in lieu of a fractional share) and LCNB common shares in exchange for Sycamore common shares will recognize gain, but not loss, in an amount not to exceed the amount of cash received (excluding cash received in lieu of a fractional LCNB common share). For this purpose, a Sycamore shareholder generally must calculate gain or loss separately for each identifiable block of Sycamore common shares exchanged by the shareholder in the merger, and a loss realized on one block of Sycamore common shares may not be used by the shareholder to offset a gain realized on another block of his or her Sycamore common shares.

For purposes of determining the character of the gain recognized on account of the cash received by a Sycamore shareholder, the Sycamore shareholder will be treated as having received only LCNB common shares in exchange for the shareholder's Sycamore common shares, and as having immediately redeemed a portion of the LCNB common shares for the cash received (excluding cash received in lieu of a fractional LCNB common share). Unless the redemption is treated as a dividend under the principles of Section 302(d) of the Code (to the extent of the shareholder's ratable share of the undistributed earnings and profits of Sycamore), the gain will be capital gain if the Sycamore common shares are held by the shareholder as a capital asset at the time of the merger. This gain will be (a) long-term capital gain to the extent Sycamore common shares were held for a period exceeding one year at the time of the exchange, and (b) short-term capital gain to the extent Sycamore common shares were held for a period of one year or less at the time of the exchange.

Cash Received in Lieu of a Fraction of a LCNB Common Share. A shareholder of Sycamore who receives cash in lieu of a fractional LCNB common share will be treated as having received the fractional share in the merger and then as having exchanged the fractional share for cash in a redemption by LCNB subject to Section 302 of the Internal Revenue Code. As a result, a Sycamore shareholder will generally recognize gain or loss equal to the difference between the amount of cash received and the portion of the basis of the LCNB common shares allocable to his or her fractional interest. This gain or loss will generally be capital gain or loss, and will be long-term capital gain or loss if, as of the date of the exchange, the holding period for such shares is greater than one year.

Backup Withholding and Information Reporting. Under certain circumstances, cash payments made to a holder of Sycamore common shares pursuant to the merger may be subject to backup withholding at a rate of 28% of the cash payable to the holder, unless the holder furnishes its taxpayer identification number in the manner prescribed in applicable Treasury regulations, certifies that such number is correct, certifies as to no loss of exemption from backup withholding and meets certain other conditions. Any amounts withheld from payments to a holder under the backup withholding rules will be allowed as a refund or credit against the holder's U.S. federal income tax liability, provided the required information is furnished to the IRS.

The federal income tax laws are complex, and a shareholder's individual circumstances may affect the tax consequences to the shareholder. Consequently, we urge each Sycamore shareholder to consult his or her own tax advisor regarding the tax consequences, including the applicable United States federal, state, local, and foreign tax consequences, of the merger to him or her.

Accounting treatment

The merger will be treated as a purchase for accounting purposes. Accordingly, LCNB will record the assets and liabilities of Sycamore on its books at estimated fair value. The excess, if any, of the fair value of the liabilities assumed and consideration paid over the fair value of the assets received will be assigned to specific and unidentified intangible assets. The resulting unidentified intangible asset will not be amortized, but will be tested for impairment as prescribed under SFAS No. 142, Goodwill and Intangible Assets.

Under the purchase method of accounting, the tangible and identifiable assets and liabilities of Sycamore will be recorded at estimated fair values at the time the merger is consummated. The excess of the purchase price over the fair value of the net tangible and identifiable intangible assets will be recorded as goodwill. The adjustments necessary to record tangible and identifiable intangible assets and liabilities at fair value will be amortized to income and expense over the estimated remaining lives of the related assets and liabilities. Goodwill will be subject to an annual test for impairment and the amount impaired, if any, will be charged to expense at the time of impairment.

Disclosure of Commission Position on Indemnification of Securities Act Liabilities

Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act of 1933 may be permitted to directors, officers or persons controlling LCNB pursuant to the foregoing provisions, the registrant has been informed that in the opinion of the Securities and Exchange Commission such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Act and is therefore unenforceable.

Comparison of rights of holders of LCNB shares and holders of Sycamore shares

The shareholders of Sycamore who receive LCNB shares as consideration in the merger will become shareholders of LCNB at the effective time of the merger. There are certain differences between the rights of LCNB shareholders and the rights of Sycamore shareholders arising from the distinctions between the LCNB articles of incorporation and code of regulations and the Sycamore articles of association and bylaws. However, the rights of the holders of LCNB shares and those of holders of Sycamore shares are similar in most material aspects.

The following is a summary of the differences, as well as certain important similarities, between the articles of incorporation and code of regulations of LCNB and the articles of association and bylaws of Sycamore. This summary is not intended to be a complete statement of the differences affecting the rights of Sycamore shareholders, but rather describes the more significant differences affecting the rights of Sycamore shareholders and certain important similarities. This summary is qualified in its entirety by reference to the LCNB articles of incorporation and code of regulations and the Sycamore articles of association and bylaws.

Authorized stock

The LCNB articles of incorporation authorize 8,000,000 common shares, without par value. As of June 30, 2007, 6,345,486 LCNB shares were issued and outstanding and 758,282 LCNB shares were held in treasury by LCNB. An additional 200,000, LCNB shares were reserved for issuance upon the exercise of stock options outstanding as of June 30, 2007. In addition, LCNB is authorized to issue up to 1,000,000 of preferred shares, none of which have been issued or are outstanding.

The Sycamore articles of association authorize 2,000,000 common shares, $1.00 par value, and 1,000,000 preferred shares, par value $5.00 per share. As of June 30, 2007, 279,733 Sycamore common shares were issued and outstanding and no Sycamore common shares were held in treasury by Sycamore. Options to purchase an additional 9,355 shares of Sycamore common stock have been issued of which 8,180 will be vested as of the effective time.

Sycamore has issued and has outstanding 560 preferred shares, and Sycamore will redeem such shares prior to the effective time of the merger.

Voting rights

Each LCNB common share entitles the holder thereof to one vote for the election of directors and for all other matters submitted to the shareholders of LCNB for their consideration. Each Sycamore common share entitles the holder thereof to one vote for all matters submitted to the shareholders of Sycamore for their consideration. Both LCNB's code of regulations and Sycamore's articles of association provide that shareholders have the right to vote cumulatively in the election of directors provided that certain conditions are fulfilled. This allows a shareholder to multiply the number of shares he or she owns by the number of directors to be elected to determine the total number of votes such shareholder may cast in the election of directors, which votes may be cast for a single candidate or distributed among two or more candidates.

Preemptive rights

Neither the shareholders of LCNB nor the shareholders of Sycamore have pre-emptive rights.

Board of Directors

General. The articles of incorporation of LCNB provides for a classified Board of Directors and its regulations provide that the Board consist of not less than five directors nor more than 15 directors. The LCNB Board of Directors is currently comprised of nine directors.

The Sycamore articles of association and bylaws provide for a Board of Directors consisting of not less than 5 nor more than 25 directors. The Sycamore Board of Directors is currently comprised of six directors.

Nominations. The LCNB code of regulations provides that shareholder nominations for election to the LCNB Board of Directors at an annual meeting of shareholders must be made in writing and must be delivered or mailed to the Secretary of LCNB on or before the 45th day prior to the first anniversary of the most recent annual meeting of shareholders held for the election of directors. In the case of the election of directors at a special meeting of shareholders, the LCNB code of regulations provides that the written notice must be received by the Secretary no later than the seventh day following the day on which the notice of the special meeting was mailed to shareholders.

The written notification of a proposed nominee must contain the following information:

the name and business or residence address of the proposed nominee;

- a representation that the shareholder is a holder of record of stock of the Corporation, entitled to vote at the meeting and intends to appear in person or by proxy at the meeting to nominate the person(s) specified in the notice;
- a description of all arrangements pursuant to which the nomination is to be made by the shareholder; and
- the consent of each nominee to serve as a Director, if elected and the principal occupation or employment of the proposed nominee.

Sycamore's articles of association provide that shareholder nominations for the election of directors must be made in writing and delivered or mailed to the president of Sycamore and to the Comptroller of the Currency, Washington, D.C., not less than 14 days nor more than 50 days prior to any meeting of shareholders called for the election of directors. If less than 21 days notice of such a meeting is given to the Sycamore shareholders, a shareholder nomination for the election of directors must be delivered or mailed to the president of Sycamore and the Comptroller of the Currency, Washington, D.C., not later than the close of business on the seventh day following the day on which the notice of the meeting was mailed.

The written notification of a proposed nominee must contain the following information:

- the name and address of each proposed nominee;
- the principal occupation for each proposed nominee;
- the total number of shares of Sycamore capital stock that will be voted for each proposed nominee;
- the name and residence address of the notifying shareholder; and the number of shares of capital stock of Sycamore owned by the notifying shareholder.

Removal. Under the Ohio General Corporation Law, the removal of a director or directors of LCNB may only be effected for cause.

The Sycamore articles of association provide that a director may be removed by shareholders at a meeting called to remove the director for the purpose stated in the notice of such meeting, for a failure to fulfill the director's affirmative requirements for qualification as a director of a national bank, or for cause. A director may not, however, be removed if the number of votes sufficient to elect him or her under cumulative voting is voted against his or her removal.

Supermajority voting requirement

The articles of incorporation of LCNB provide that in connection with those certain specified matters for which the Ohio General Corporation law requires the vote, consent, waiver or release of holders of shares entitling them to exercise two-thirds or any other proportion of the voting power of the corporation, such action, may be taken by the affirmative vote of a two-thirds majority of shares entitled to vote thereon, except as described in the section below, and except that to modify those provisions, the vote of a supermajority of 80% of the beneficial owners of the stock is required.

The National Bank Act provides that the affirmative vote of shareholders owning at least two-thirds of Sycamore's capital stock outstanding is required for a merger transaction involving Sycamore. As described below under the heading "Shareholder vote required to approve business combinations with principal shareholders," Sycamore's articles of association require a larger majority for the approval of certain transactions.

Shareholder vote required to approve business combinations with principal shareholders

The articles of incorporation of LCNB require the affirmative vote of the holders of shares entitling them to exercise at least 80% of the voting power of LCNB that are not held by a Controlling Shareholder, to approve certain Business Combinations. A Controlling Shareholder is any shareholder who beneficially owns shares entitling the shareholder to exercise 10% or more of the voting power of LCNB in the election of directors. A Business Combination is defined to include:

- a merger or consolidation with or into any other corporation;
- a sale, lease, exchange or other disposition of the assets of the LCNB to another person or entity;
- the issuance or transfer of any securities of LCNB to any other person or entity in exchange for assets or securities; or
- the issuance or transfer of any securities of LCNB to any other person or other entity for cash.

Similarly, Sycamore's articles of association require the affirmative vote of the holders of not less than 80% of the outstanding shares of Sycamore capital stock entitled to vote in the election of directors ("voting stock") for the approval or authorization of any "Business Combination" with a "Principal Shareholder." A "Principal Shareholder" is defined in Sycamore's articles of association to mean any shareholder that, together with its "Affiliates" (as defined in Rule 12b-2 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934), beneficially owns 10% or more of Sycamore's voting stock. A "Business Combination" is defined in Sycamore's articles of association to include:

- a merger, reorganization, or consolidation of Sycamore with a Principal Shareholder;
- any sale, lease, exchange, mortgage, pledge, transfer, or other disposition of all or substantially all of Sycamore's assets to a Principal Shareholder;

- any sale, lease, exchange, or other transfer of assets to Sycamore by a Principal Shareholder in exchange for Sycamore's voting stock;

- the adoption of a plan of liquidation or dissolution of Sycamore if there exists a Principal Shareholder; and

- any reclassification of securities, recapitalization, or other transaction if there exists a Principal Shareholder and such reclassification, recapitalization or other transaction would decrease the number of holders of outstanding Sycamore voting stock.

The shareholder vote requirements described above do not apply, however, if a majority of the Board of Directors approves of the Business Combination.

Anti-takeover statutes

Certain state laws make a change in control of LCNB more difficult, even if desired by the holders of the majority of the LCNB shares. Provided below is a summary of the Ohio anti-takeover statutes.

Ohio Control Share Acquisition Statute. The Ohio Revised Code provides in Section 1701.831 that specified notice and informational filings and special shareholder meetings and voting procedures must occur before consummation of a proposed control share acquisition. A control share acquisition is defined as any acquisition of an issuer's shares that would entitle the acquirer to exercise or direct the voting power of the issuer in the election of directors within any of the following ranges:

- one-fifth or more, but less than one-third, of the voting power;

- one-third or more, but less than a majority, of the voting power; or

- a majority or more of the voting power.

Assuming compliance with the notice and information filing requirements, the proposed control share acquisition may take place only if, at a duly convened special meeting of shareholders, the acquisition is approved by both a majority of the voting power of the issuer represented at the meeting and a majority of the voting power remaining after excluding the combined voting power of the intended acquirer and the directors and officers of the issuer. The control share acquisition statute does not apply to a corporation whose articles of incorporation or regulations so provide. LCNB has not opted out of the application of the control share acquisition statute.

Ohio Merger Moratorium Statute. Chapter 1704 of the Ohio Revised Code prohibits specified business combinations and transactions between an issuing public corporation and an interested shareholder for at least three years after the interested shareholder attains 10% ownership, unless the board of directors of the issuing public corporation approves the transaction before the interested shareholder attains 10% ownership. An interested shareholder is a person who owns 10% or more of the shares of the corporation. An issuing public corporation is defined as an Ohio corporation with 50 or more shareholders that has its principal place of business, principal executive offices, or substantial assets within the State of Ohio, and as to which no close corporation agreement exists. Examples of transactions regulated by the merger moratorium provisions include mergers, consolidations, voluntary dissolutions, the disposition of assets and the transfer of shares. After the three-year period, a moratorium transaction may take place provided that certain conditions are satisfied, including that:

- the board of directors approves the transaction;

- the transaction is approved by the holders of shares with at least two-thirds of the voting power of the corporation (or a different proportion set forth in the articles of incorporation), including at least a majority of the outstanding shares after excluding shares controlled by the interested shareholder; or

- the business combination results in shareholders, other than the interested shareholder, receiving a fair price plus interest for their shares, as determined in accordance with the statute.

Although the merger moratorium provisions may apply, a corporation may elect not to be covered by the merger moratorium provisions, or subsequently elect to be covered, with an appropriate amendment to its articles of incorporation. LCNB has not opted out of the Ohio merger moratorium statute.

The consolidated financial statements and the report of management's assessment of the effectiveness of internal control over financial reporting and the effectiveness of internal control over financial reporting of LCNB included in LCNB's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2006, have been audited by J.D. Cloud & Co., L.L.P., an independent registered public accounting firm, as set forth in their reports thereon included in such Annual Report and incorporated into this document by reference. Such consolidated financial statements are incorporated herein by reference in reliance upon such report given on the authority of such firm as experts in accounting and auditing.

With respect to the unaudited consolidated interim financial information for the periods ended June 30, 2007 and 2006 and the periods ended March 31, 2007 and 2006, incorporated by reference in this document, the independent registered public accounting firm has reported that they have applied limited procedures in accordance with professional standards for a review of such information. However, their separate reports included in LNCB's quarterly reports on Form 10-Q for the quarters ended June 30, 2007 and March 31, 2007, and incorporated by reference herein, state that they did not audit and they do not express opinions on that consolidated interim financial information.

Accordingly, the degree of reliance on their reports on such information should be restricted in light of the limited nature of the review procedures applied. The accountants are not subject to the liability provisions of section 11 of the Securities Act of 1933 for their reports on the unaudited interim financial information because each report is not a report or a part of the registration statement prepared or certified by the independent registered public accounting firm within the meaning of sections 7 and 11 of the act.

WHEREAS, to correct certain clerical errors within the Initial Agreement, LCNB, Bank and Sycamore desire to amend and restate the Initial Agreement in its entirety;

WHEREAS, LCNB is a registered bank holding company under the Bank Holding Company Act of 1956, as amended, and LCNB and Sycamore desire to effect a merger under the authority and provisions of the laws of the United States pursuant to which at the Effective Time (as herein defined in Article IX) Sycamore will be merged into Bank, with Bank to be and become the surviving corporation (the Merger);

WHEREAS, Sycamore is a national bank organized and existing under the laws of the United States and is authorized to issue 2,000,000 shares of common stock, $1.00 par value (Sycamore Common), of which 279,733 shares are issued and outstanding as of the date hereof, exclusive of treasury shares, and is authorized to issue 1,000,000 shares of 7.5% non-cumulative perpetual preferred stock $5.00 par value (Sycamore Preferred), of which 560 shares are issued and outstanding as of the date hereof (with a book value of $500.00 per share), exclusive of treasury shares;

WHEREAS, under the terms of this Agreement, each of the issued and outstanding shares of Sycamore Common issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time will, at the Effective Time, be canceled and extinguished and in substitution therefor such Sycamore Common will, at the Effective Time, be converted into cash and/or common shares, without par value, of LCNB (LCNB Common), and fractional shares into cash, all as more fully provided in this Agreement;

WHEREAS, under the terms of this Agreement, each of the issued and outstanding shares of Sycamore Preferred will be redeemed by Sycamore at book value, plus accrued dividends, if any, immediately prior to the Effective Time;

WHEREAS, the respective boards of directors of LCNB, the Bank and Sycamore have approved the Affiliation Agreement and merger of Sycamore into the Bank substantially on the terms and conditions contained in this Agreement; and

WHEREAS, the parties hereto intend that the Merger be treated as a reorganization described in Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the Code).

A1-1

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual covenants herein contained, LCNB and Sycamore agree together as follows:

ARTICLE I
MODE OF EFFECTUATING CONVERSION OF SHARES

1.1

Transaction and Merger. Upon the terms and conditions set forth in this Agreement, LCNB and Sycamore shall affiliate, whereby LCNB shall purchase all of the outstanding Sycamore Common for the Merger Consideration, as defined herein, and at the Effective Time. Upon the terms and conditions set forth in the Agreement, Sycamore shall be merged with and into Bank.

1.2

Effect of Merger on LCNB Common. At the Effective Time, all of the shares of LCNB Common that are issued and outstanding or held by LCNB as treasury shares immediately prior to the Effective Time will remain unchanged and will remain outstanding or as treasury shares, as the case may be, of LCNB. Any stock options, subscription rights, warrants or other securities outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time, entitling the holders to subscribe for the purchase of any shares of the capital stock of LCNB, will remain unchanged and will remain outstanding, with the holders thereof entitled to subscribe for, purchase or convert their securities into the number of shares of LCNB Common to which they are entitled under the terms of the governing documents.

1.3

Consideration and Share Exchange.

1.3.1

Consideration. At the Effective Time, each of the shares of Sycamore Common that is issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time will, when the Merger becomes effective, be converted by virtue of the Merger and without further action, into the right to receive 2.444 shares (which represents $33.75 divided by $13.81, which is the 20-day average closing price ending on August 3, 2007, subject to rounding) of LCNB Common (the Merger Stock Component), or cash in lieu thereof for fractional shares, if any, or $33.75 in cash (the Merger Cash Component) (the Merger Stock Component, cash in lieu of fractional shares and the Merger Cash Component together comprise the Merger Consideration), subject to the termination provisions set forth in Article VII below. The effect of the Merger Consideration shall be that the Merger Stock Component will be paid with respect to 50% of the shares of Sycamore Common and the Merger Cash Component will be paid with respect to 50% of the shares of Sycamore Common. The amount of cash payable with respect to any fractional share of LCNB Common shall be determined by multiplying the fractional part of such share by $13.81. At the Effective Time, all shares of Sycamore Common held in treasury will be canceled and terminated and will not be converted into the right to receive the Merger Consideration.

On or before the Closing Date (as defined herein), LCNB shall deposit, or shall cause to be deposited, with the Exchange Agent (as defined below), which shall hold in trust for the benefit of the holders of Sycamore Common entitled thereto pursuant to the terms of this Agreement, certificates representing LCNB Common and an estimated amount of cash to be paid pursuant to Section 1.3.1 in exchange for the outstanding shares of Sycamore Common to which holders of Sycamore Common shall be entitled at the Effective Time. LCNB shall make available directly or indirectly to the Exchange Agent, from time to time as needed, cash sufficient to pay cash in lieu of fractional shares of Sycamore Common. The Exchange Agent shall invest any cash portion of the Merger Consideration as directed by LCNB, provided that such investments shall be invested solely in federal obligations and in agreements to repurchase federal obligations that are at least 100% collateralized by federal obligations marked to market on a daily basis. Any interest and other income resulting from such investments shall promptly be paid to LCNB.

1.3.3

LCNB, or the Exchange Agent, shall deduct and withhold from the Merger Consideration otherwise payable pursuant to this Agreement to any holder of shares of Sycamore Common such amounts as it is required to deduct and withhold with respect to the making of such payment under the Code and the rules and regulations promulgated thereunder or any provision of applicable law. To the extent that amounts are so deducted and withheld by LCNB or the Exchange Agent, such deducted and withheld amounts shall be treated for all purposes of this Agreement as having been paid to the holder of the shares of Sycamore Common in respect to which such deduction and withholding were made by LCNB or the Exchange Agent.

1.3.4

On the Mailing Date (as defined below), Registrar and Transfer Company, as Exchange Agent, will send to each holder of Sycamore Common as of the record date for eligibility to vote on the Merger an election form in form and substance agreed to by LCNB and Sycamore (the Election Form). The Mailing Date shall be the date on which proxy materials relating to the Merger are mailed to holders of Sycamore Common. LCNB shall make available Election Forms as may be reasonably requested by all persons who become holders of Sycamore Common after the record date for eligibility to vote on the Merger and prior to the Election Deadline (as defined herein), and Sycamore shall provide to LCNB all information reasonably necessary for LCNB to perform its obligations as specified herein.

The Election Form shall permit the holders of Sycamore Common either (i) to elect to receive LCNB Common with respect to all such holder's Sycamore Common, (ii) to elect to receive cash with respect to all such holder's Sycamore Common, (iii) to elect to receive LCNB Common with respect to part of such holder's Sycamore Common and cash with respect to the remainder of such holder's Sycamore Common, or (iv) to indicate that such holder has no preference as to the receipt of cash or LCNB Common in exchange for such holder's Sycamore Common (Non-Election).

Holders of record of shares of Sycamore Common who hold such shares as nominees, trustees or in other representative capacities (Representative) may submit multiple Election Forms, provided that such Representative certifies that each such Election Form covers all the shares of Sycamore Common held by that Representative for a particular beneficial owner. Shares of Sycamore Common with respect to which the holder has elected to receive cash are hereinafter referred to as Cash Election Shares, shares of Sycamore Common with respect to which the holder has elected to receive LCNB Common are hereinafter referred to as Stock Election Shares and shares of Sycamore Common with respect to which the holder has made a Non-Election are hereinafter referred to as No Election Shares.

No Election Shares shall be deemed to be 50% Cash Election Shares and 50% Stock Election Shares. An election to receive LCNB Common, cash or any combination thereof shall have been properly made only if the Exchange Agent actually shall have received a properly completed Election Form by the Election Deadline.

1.3.5

Election Deadline. For purposes of this Agreement, Election Deadline shall mean 5:00 p.m., Eastern Time, on the third business day immediately preceding the Effective Time. An Election Form may be revoked or changed by written notice to the Exchange Agent only if such notice is actually received by the Exchange Agent prior to the Election Deadline. Election Forms shall be automatically revoked without any action by the holders of Sycamore Common if this Agreement is terminated.

1.3.6

Allocation of LCNB Common and Cash. The Exchange Agent shall allocate among the holders of Sycamore Common the rights to receive LCNB Common, cash or a combination thereof in accordance with the elections made in the Elections Forms; provided, however, in the event the aggregate number of Stock Election Shares is greater than or less than 50% of the number of shares of Sycamore Common outstanding at the Effective Time, then the Exchange Agent shall adjust (increase or decrease) the number of shares of LCNB Common allocated to each holder of Sycamore Common in accordance with the adjustment procedures set forth below such that the Merger Stock

A1-3

Component is paid with respect to 50% of the shares of Sycamore Common and the Merger Cash Component is paid with respect to 50% of the shares of Sycamore Common:

First, proportionately among the holders of No Election Shares to the fullest extent possible, including, if necessary, allocating only LCNB Common or only cash to the No Election Shares;

Second, if necessary, proportionately among the holders of Stock Election Shares; and Finally, if necessary, proportionately among the holders of Cash Election Shares.

1.3.7

Assumption of Options. At the Effective Time, subject to the termination provisions set forth in Article VII below, and subject to certain changes in the option agreements to comply with Section 409A of the Code and the undertaking in Section 2.16.16 hereof, each award, option, or other right to purchase or acquire shares of Sycamore Common pursuant to stock options (Sycamore Rights) granted by Sycamore under the Sycamore National Bank Stock Option Plan (the Stock Plan), which is outstanding, vested and exercisable at the Effective Time, shall be assumed by LCNB and become options to purchase (or receive cash equal to the difference between the then-exercise price of such option and the then-value of the LCNB Common which would be issued upon exercise thereof) that number of shares of LCNB Common equal to the number of Sycamore Common then subject to the option, multiplied by 2.444, and, upon such assumption, the exercise price per share for each such option shall be divided by that same number, so that, as of the Effective Time, the difference between the exercise price and the value of LCNB Common that would be received upon exercise shall be equal to that same difference with respect to shares of Sycamore Common immediately prior to the Effective Time, all generally in conformity with the requirements of Section 424 of the Code, even though such options are not qualified as incentive stock options. The exercise date of each such option shall be, prior to the Effective Time, designated as the later of the Effective Time or January 15, 2008. Any Sycamore Rights under the Stock Plan that are not outstanding, vested or yet exercisable at the Effective Time shall be cancelled as of the Effective Time.

Effect of Merger on Sycamore Common. At the Effective Time, all of the shares of Sycamore Common, whether issued or unissued (including treasury shares), will be canceled and extinguished and the holders of certificates for shares thereof shall cease to have any rights as shareholders of Sycamore, except as aforesaid, their sole rights as shareholders shall pertain to the LCNB Common, cash and cash in lieu of fractional shares, if any (as described above), into which their Sycamore Common shall have been converted by virtue of the Merger.

Exchange Procedure. After the Effective Time, each holder of a certificate or certificates for shares of Sycamore Common, upon surrender of the same duly transmitted to Registrar and Transfer Company, as Exchange Agent (or in lieu of surrendering such certificates in the case of lost, stolen, destroyed or mislaid certificates, upon execution of such documentation as may be reasonably required by Registrar and Transfer Company), shall be entitled to receive in exchange therefor a certificate or certificates representing the number of whole shares of LCNB Common into which such holder's shares of Sycamore Common shall have been converted by the Merger and/or cash and cash in lieu of fractional shares in accordance with Section 1.3 of this Agreement. On the Closing Date, LCNB shall have available for delivery to the holders of Sycamore Common, and as soon as practicable after the Effective Time, but no later than five business days thereafter, the Exchange Agent will send to each holder of record of Sycamore Common at the Effective Time, a notice and transmittal form, which shall be in customary form and reasonably acceptable to Sycamore, advising such shareholder of the effectiveness of the Merger and the procedures for surrendering to the Exchange Agent outstanding certificates formerly evidencing shares of Sycamore Common in exchange for the Merger Consideration. Until so surrendered, each outstanding certificate that prior to the Effective Time represented shares of Sycamore Common shall be deemed for all corporate purposes to evidence ownership of the number of full shares of LCNB Common into which the same shall have been converted and/or cash; provided, however, that dividends or distributions otherwise payable with respect to shares of LCNB Common into which Sycamore Common shall have been so converted shall be paid with respect to such shares only when the certificate or certificates evidencing shares of Sycamore Common shall have been so surrendered (or in lieu of surrendering such certificates in the case of lost, stolen, destroyed or mislaid certificates, upon execution of such documentation as may be reasonably required by Exchange Agent) and thereupon any such dividends and distributions shall be paid, without interest, to the holder entitled thereto; subject, however, to the operation of any applicable escheat or similar laws relating to unclaimed funds.

1.6

Consummation of the Merger. When all necessary documents have been filed and recorded with the Office of the Comptroller of the Currency in accordance with the laws of the United States, and the Merger becomes effective, the separate existence of Sycamore shall cease and Sycamore shall be merged with and into Bank (which will be the Surviving Corporation), and which shall continue its corporate existence under the laws of the United States under the name LCNB National Bank. Prior to the Effective Time, LCNB will effect an amendment to the Articles of Association of the Bank to change the name of the Bank to LCNB National Bank and will cause the Bank to notify the office of the Comptroller of the Currency of the name change in accordance with applicable federal law.

1.7

Charter of Surviving Corporation. The Articles of Association of Bank, in effect as of the Effective Time, shall be the Articles of Association of the Surviving Corporation, until further amended as provided by law.

Boards of Directors and Officers. The directors and officers of the Surviving Corporation shall be the same as the directors and officers of Bank as of the Effective Time to serve until such time as their successors are duly elected and qualified in accordance with the charter and bylaws of the Surviving Corporation and the laws of the United States.

1.9

Bylaws of Surviving Corporation. The Bylaws of Bank at the Effective Time shall be the bylaws of the Surviving Corporation, until amended as provided therein and in accordance with law.

1.10

Legal Effect of Merger. At the Effective Time, the effect of the Merger shall be as provided by the applicable provisions of the laws of the United States. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, and subject thereto, at the Effective Time: the separate existence of Sycamore shall cease; Bank shall possess all assets and property of every description, and every interest therein, wherever located; and the rights, privileges, immunities, powers, franchises and authority, of a public as well as a private nature, of each of Bank and Sycamore, and all obligations owing by or due each of Bank and Sycamore shall be vested in, and become the obligations of, Bank, without further act or deed.

Cooperation. From time to time as and when requested by the Surviving Corporation, or by its successors or assigns, the officers and directors of Sycamore in office at the Effective Time shall execute and deliver such instruments and shall take or cause to be taken such further or other action as shall be necessary in order to vest or perfect in the Surviving Corporation or to confirm of record or otherwise, title to, and possession of, all the assets, property, interests, rights, privileges, immunities, powers, franchises and authority of Sycamore and otherwise to carry out the purposes of this Agreement.

1.12

Filing of Merger Documents. This Agreement, and all other agreements, documents, instruments and certificates relating hereto or to the Merger, shall be filed with the appropriate governmental authorities in accordance with the requirements of the laws of the United States.

1.13

Dissenters Rights. Holders of Sycamore Common shall be entitled to relief as dissenting shareholders pursuant to 12 U.S.C. Section 215a. Holders of Sycamore Common who exercise dissenters rights shall be treated as receiving a portion of the Merger Cash Component in exchange for their shares of Sycamore Common.

1.14

Anti-Dilution Provisions. In the event LCNB changes (or establishes a record date for changing) the number of shares of LCNB Common issued and outstanding between the date hereof and the Effective Time as a result of a stock split, stock dividend, recapitalization, reclassification, split up, combination, exchange of shares, readjustment or similar transaction with respect to the outstanding shares of LCNB Common and the record date therefore shall be prior to the Effective Time, the shares of LCNB Common to be issued to the holders of Sycamore Common as part of the Merger Consideration and the Merger Stock Component shall be proportionately adjusted.

ARTICLE II REPRESENTATIONS AND WARRANTIES OF SYCAMORE

Sycamore represents and warrants to LCNB and Bank that as of the date hereof or as of the indicated date, as appropriate, and except as otherwise disclosed in the Sycamore Disclosure Schedules (the Sycamore Schedules) hereto delivered by Sycamore to LCNB and Bank in connection with the execution of this Agreement:

2.1

Good Standing; Capitalization. Sycamore (i) is duly incorporated, validly existing and in good standing as a national bank under the laws of the United States; (ii) is duly authorized to conduct the business in which it is engaged; (iii) has 2,000,000 shares of Sycamore Common authorized and has 1,000,000 shares of Sycamore Preferred authorized pursuant to its Articles of Association, which together are the total number of shares Sycamore is authorized to have outstanding; (iv) has no outstanding securities of any kind, nor any outstanding options, warrants or other rights entitling another person to acquire any securities of Sycamore of any kind, other than (a) 279,733 shares of Sycamore Common, which presently are duly issued and outstanding and fully paid and non-assessable, (b) 560 shares of Sycamore Preferred, which presently are duly issued and outstanding and fully paid and non-assessable and (c) options to purchase a total of 9,355 shares of Sycamore Common issued pursuant to the Stock Plan, of which 8,180 are, or will be at the Effective Time, vested, which were granted to and are currently held by the employees, officers and directors (and their heirs and assigns) of Sycamore.

2.2

Corporate Authority; Binding Obligation.

2.2.1

The Board of Directors of Sycamore, by resolution adopted by the unanimous vote of all directors present at a meeting duly called and held in accordance with applicable law, have duly approved this Agreement, and have directed that this Agreement be submitted to a vote of Sycamore's shareholders at the annual or a special meeting of the shareholders to be called for that purpose, all in accordance with and as required by law and in accordance with the Articles of Association and Bylaws of Sycamore.

Sycamore has the corporate power and authority to enter into this Agreement and to carry out its obligations hereunder subject to certain required regulatory and shareholder approvals. The Agreement, when executed and delivered, will have been duly authorized and will constitute the valid and binding obligation of Sycamore, enforceable in accordance with its terms, except to the extent that (i) enforceability thereof may be limited by insolvency, reorganization, liquidation, bankruptcy, readjustment of debt or other laws of general application relating to or affecting the enforcement of creditors' rights generally and (ii) the availability of certain remedies may be precluded by general principles of equity, subject, however, to the receipt of requisite regulatory approvals and the approval of Sycamore's shareholders.

2.2.3

Except as disclosed in the Sycamore Schedules, neither the execution of this Agreement, nor the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby, (i) conflicts with, results in a breach of, violates or constitutes a default under, Sycamore's Articles of Association or Bylaws or, to Sycamore's knowledge, any federal, state or local law, statute, ordinance, rule, regulation or court or administrative order, or any agreement, arrangement, or commitment, to which Sycamore is subject or bound; (ii) to the knowledge of Sycamore results in the creation of or gives any person the right to create any material lien, charge, encumbrance, or security agreement or any other material rights of others or other material adverse interest upon any material right, property or asset belonging to Sycamore; (iii) terminates or gives any person the right to terminate, amend, abandon, or refuse to perform any material agreement, arrangement or commitment to which Sycamore is a party or by which Sycamore's rights, properties or assets are subject or bound; or (iv) accelerates or modifies, or gives any party thereto the right to accelerate or modify, the time within which, or the terms according to which, Sycamore is to perform any duties or obligations or receive any rights or benefits under any material agreements, arrangements or commitments. For purposes of subparagraphs (iii) and (iv) immediately preceding, material agreements, arrangements or commitments exclude agreements, arrangements or commitments having a term expiring less than six months from the date of this Agreement or which do not require the expenditure of more than $5,000 over the term of the agreement, arrangement or commitment (but shall include all agreements, arrangements or commitments pursuant to which credit has been extended by Sycamore).

2.3

Corporate Documents. Complete and accurate copies of the Articles of Association, and all amendments thereto, and Bylaws of Sycamore in force as of the date hereof have been delivered to LCNB.

2.4

Financial Statements. Sycamore has previously furnished to LCNB its unaudited balance sheet and statement of operations as of March 31, 2007, and audited balance sheets and statements of operation for the years ended December 31, 2006, December 31, 2005 and December 31, 2004, together with the opinions of its independent certified public accountants associated therewith (the Sycamore Financial Statements). Sycamore also has previously furnished to LCNB its Call Reports as filed with the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (FDIC) as of March 31, 2007 and December 31, 2006. The Sycamore Financial Statements fairly present the consolidated financial condition of Sycamore as of the date thereof, and for the years or periods covered thereby are in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles, consistently applied (except as stated therein and except for the omission of notes to unaudited statements and year-end adjustments to interim results). There are no known liabilities, obligations or indebtedness of Sycamore required to be disclosed in the Sycamore Financial Statements other than the liabilities, obligations or indebtedness disclosed in such financial statements (including footnotes). Sycamore shall continue to furnish such financial information for subsequent monthly periods, to the extent available, and quarterly periods to LCNB as soon as practicable until the Closing Date (as defined herein), and such financial information shall be included in the definition of Sycamore Financial Statements for purposes of this Agreement.

A1-7

Marketable Title. Since March 31, 2007 to the date hereof, Bank has not incurred any unusual or extraordinary loan losses which would be material to LCNB on a consolidated basis; and to the knowledge and belief of LCNB, and in the light of Bank's historical loan loss experience and their management's analysis of the quality and performance of their respective loan portfolios, as of March 31, 2007, their consolidated reserves for loan losses are adequate to absorb all known and reasonably anticipated losses as of such date.

There is no material pending or, to the knowledge of LCNB, threatened, legal action, suit or claim relating to the LCNB Compensation and Benefit Plans other than routine claims for benefits thereunder. Neither LCNB nor any of the LCNB Subsidiaries has engaged in a transaction, or omitted to take any action, with respect to any LCNB Compensation and Benefit Plan that would reasonably be expected to subject LCNB or any of the LCNB Subsidiaries to a tax or penalty imposed by either Section 4975 of the Code or Section 502 of ERISA, assuming for purposes of Section 4975 of the Code that the taxable period of any such transaction expired as of the date hereof. Neither LCNB nor Bank, nor to their knowledge any counter-party thereto is, in any respect material to LCNB on a consolidated basis, in breach of any of its obligations under any such agreement or arrangement.

Performance of Obligations. There is no agreement to which LCNB or Bank is a party which (i) prohibits or restricts LCNB's or Bank's ability to perform its obligations under this Agreement, or its ability to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby, (ii) would have the effect of invalidating or voiding this Agreement, or any provisions hereof, or (iii) would subject Sycamore to any impediment or condition in connection with the exercise of any of Sycamore's rights under this Agreement.

No Delay. As of the date hereof, LCNB is not aware of the existence of any factor that would materially delay or materially hinder issuance of any of the required regulatory approvals necessary to consummate the Merger or the other transactions contemplated hereby.

3.20

Fairness Opinion. LCNB has received the opinion of Stifel, Nicolaus & Company, Incorporated to the effect that, as of a date reasonably proximate to the date of this Agreement, and subject to the qualifications and assumptions

All representations and warranties contained in this Article III shall expire at the Effective Time, and thereafter, neither LCNB, Bank nor any officer or director of LCNB or Bank shall have any further liability or obligation with respect thereto, except for any misrepresentations, breaches of warranties or violations of covenants that were made with intent to defraud.

ARTICLE IV OBLIGATIONS, COVENANTS AND COOPERATION

4.1

Sycamore Shareholder's Meeting. Sycamore, in consultation with LCNB, will take all actions necessary to call and hold an annual or a special meeting of Sycamore's shareholders as soon as practicable after the LCNB registration statement relating to this transaction has been declared effective by the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC") and under all applicable state securities laws for the purpose of approving and adopting this Agreement and any other documents or actions necessary to the consummation of the Merger provided for herein pursuant to law. The Board of Directors of Sycamore shall inform the shareholders of Sycamore in the proxy materials relating to the annual or special meeting that all Directors of Sycamore have provided to LCNB a written agreement of their intent to vote all shares of Sycamore Common which they own of record in favor of approving this Agreement and any such other necessary documents or actions, in substantially the form attached to this Agreement as Appendix A, and all Directors will recommend approval of this Agreement to the other shareholders of Sycamore, subject only to such Directors' fiduciary obligations, and will use their commercially reasonable efforts to obtain the necessary approvals by the shareholders of this Agreement and the transactions contemplated hereby.

4.2

From the date of this Agreement until the Effective Time, Sycamore will be operated in the ordinary course of business and will not, without prior consultation with LCNB, (i) except for the redemption and cancellation of the Sycamore Preferred pursuant to Section 4.12, make any changes in its capital or corporate structures; (ii) issue any additional shares of Sycamore Common or Sycamore Preferred other than pursuant to the exercise of options granted prior to the date hereof; (iii) issue any other equity securities, other than pursuant to the exercise of options granted prior to the date hereof; (iv) issue as borrower any long term debt or convertible or other securities of any kind, or right to acquire any of its securities; (v) make any material changes in its method of business operations; (vi) make, enter into any agreement to make, or become obligated to make, any capital expenditures in excess of $10,000, (vii) make, enter into or renew any agreement for services to be provided to Sycamore or permit the automatic renewal of any such agreement, other than the agreements identified in the Sycamore Schedules which are specifically identified in such Sycamore Schedules as agreements which Sycamore intends to renew, except any agreement for services having a term of not more than three months or requiring the expenditure of not more than $10,000 (for this purpose the phrase "permit the automatic renewal" includes the failure to send a notice of termination of such contract if such failure would constitute a renewal), (viii) sell or otherwise dispose of any real property or personal property; or (ix) except as identified in the Sycamore Schedules, pay or agree to pay salary increases, bonuses or Benefit Plan matching

A1-21

Sycamore shall use its commercially reasonable efforts to cause each Sycamore Affiliate to execute and deliver to LCNB on or before the mailing of such proxy statement an agreement in the form of Appendix B hereto.

4.4

Regulatory Applications.

4.4.1

LCNB will prepare and cause to be filed at its expense such applications and other documents with the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System and the Office of the Comptroller of the Currency and any other governmental agencies as are required to secure the requisite approval of such agencies for the consummation of the transactions provided for in this Agreement, and the parties shall cooperate in the preparation of an appropriate registration statement, including the prospectus, proxy statement, and such other documents necessary to comply with all federal and state securities laws relating to shareholder approval of this transaction and the registration and issuance of the shares of LCNB Common to be issued to the shareholders of Sycamore in this transaction (the expenses thereof, other than accounting, legal, investment banking, financial consulting and associated expenses of Sycamore to be paid by LCNB), and any other laws applicable to the transactions provided for in this Agreement. LCNB shall use all reasonable efforts to file all such applications as promptly as practicable after the execution of this Agreement to secure all such approvals. Sycamore agrees that it will, as promptly as practicable after request and at its own expense, provide LCNB with all information and documents concerning Sycamore, as shall be required in connection with preparing such applications, registration statements and other documents and in connection with securing such approvals. Prior to filing any such applications or other documents with the applicable governmental agencies, LCNB shall provide copies thereof to Sycamore and a reasonable opportunity to comment.

4.4.2

Supplementing Section 4.4.1, LCNB will prepare and file a Registration Statement on Form S-4 under the Securities Act of 1933 with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the Registration Statement) to register a sufficient number of shares of LCNB Common which the shareholders of Sycamore will receive pursuant to Section 1.3 at the Effective Time. LCNB will use its best efforts to cause such Registration Statement to become effective. LCNB and Sycamore agree that none of the information supplied or to be supplied by each of them for inclusion or incorporation by reference in (i) the Registration Statement, including the proxy statement and prospectus (the Proxy Statement/Prospectus) constituting a part thereof, will, at the time the Registration Statement becomes effective under the Securities Act of 1933, or (ii) the Proxy Statement/Prospectus and any amendment or supplement thereto will, at the date of mailing to shareholders and at the times of the meeting of shareholders of Sycamore to be held in connection with the Merger, in either case contain any untrue statement of a material fact or omit to state any material fact required to be stated therein or necessary to make the statements therein, in light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading.

4.5

Cooperation. Each of the parties hereto agrees to use its commercially reasonable efforts and to cooperate with the other party in all reasonable respects in order to carry out and consummate the transactions contemplated by this Agreement at the earliest practicable time including, without limitation, the filing of applications, notices and other documents with, and obtaining approval from, appropriate governmental regulatory agencies.

4.6

Access. Sycamore agrees to permit LCNB, its officers, employees, accountants, agents and attorneys, upon reasonable advance notice to have reasonable access during business hours to its books, records and properties, for the purpose of preparing for the Closing and the subsequent conversion necessary to effect the Merger.

4.7

Cooperation on Conversion of Systems. Sycamore agrees to commence immediately after the date of this Agreement (and continue until Closing is completed) using its commercially reasonable efforts to ensure an orderly transfer of information, processes, systems and data to LCNB and to otherwise assist LCNB in facilitating the conversion of all Sycamore's systems into or to conform with, LCNB's systems; so that at the Effective Time, the systems of Sycamore are convertible to LCNB's systems to the fullest extent reasonably possible without actually converting them prior to the Effective Time. The parties acknowledge that such conversion shall not actually occur until after the Effective Time. In the event this Agreement is terminated prior to the Effective Time, (i) in the event that it is terminated pursuant to Section 7.1.1(a), the breaching party shall bear the cost of the conversion of the parties through the date of this Agreement (which cost shall be included for purposes of calculating any amounts required to be paid pursuant to Section 7.4.1); (ii) in the event that it is terminated pursuant to Section 7.1.7 or 7.1.8, Sycamore shall bear the cost of the conversion of the parties through the date of this Agreement; (iii) in the event that it is terminated pursuant to Sections 7.1.1(b), 7.1.3, 7.1.9, or 7.2.2 of this Agreement, LCNB shall bear the cost of conversion of the parties through the date of termination of this Agreement; and (iv) in the event that it is terminated by either party pursuant to Sections 7.1.2, 7.1.4, 7.1.5, 7.1.6 or 7.2.1 of this Agreement, each of LCNB and Sycamore shall bear one half the cost of the conversion of the parties through the date of termination of this Agreement.

Sycamore National Bank Employees Savings & Profit Sharing Plan and Trust. Following the Merger, the Bank shall become the sponsor of the Sycamore National Bank Employees Savings & Profit Sharing Plan and Trust (the Sycamore 401(k) Plan) as the successor entity to Sycamore. Subject to the other provisions of this Section 4.8, all former Sycamore employees employed by LCNB or Bank shall continue to be eligible to participate in the Sycamore 401(k) Plan following the Closing Date.

Sycamore Benefit Plans. Except for Sycamore Benefit Plans designated on Schedule 2.16.1 as not unilaterally terminable, and subject to contractual notice requirements, LCNB shall have full discretion to provide that some or all of the Sycamore Benefit Plans will be frozen, terminated, or both as of the Effective Time or such subsequent date as selected by LCNB; provided, however, that, to the extent such plans are frozen or terminated, and the Bank maintains a similar such plan for its employees, the Bank will make Sycamore employees eligible thereunder, without a gap in coverage as provided in Section 4.9.2.

4.9

Employment Issues.

4.9.1

Prior to the Closing Date, LCNB will meet with and/or interview all existing employees of Sycamore, and will, in its sole discretion, determine which such employees it desires to retain, and in what capacity, subsequent to the consummation of the Merger. Any employees who LCNB determines to retain after the consummation of the Merger, unless otherwise expressly agreed in writing between LCNB and/or Bank or required by a written employment agreement disclosed on the Sycamore Schedules, and the retained employee, shall be employees at-will under Ohio law.

4.9.2

As of the Effective Time, LCNB shall provide that employees of Sycamore who remain employed after the Merger shall be eligible to participate in employee benefit plans which are substantially similar to the benefits provided to other Bank employees, except for the Bank's defined benefit plan. For purposes hereof, LCNB shall be entitled in LCNB's discretion to either continue any and/or all of the Sycamore Benefit Plans or shall alternatively provide that employees of Sycamore who remain employed after the Merger shall be entitled to participate in any and/or all of Bank's employee benefit plans, except for the Bank's defined benefit plan, to the extent that they are eligible pursuant to the terms of such plans with full credit for years of service with Sycamore for eligibility and vesting under such plans, waiver of any pre-existing medical conditions, and credit for any deductibles and co-pay amounts paid prior to the Effective Time. Neither LCNB nor Bank shall provide health benefits to any current or former directors or retirees of Sycamore after the Effective Time except to the extent required by COBRA or other applicable law.

4.9.3

As of the Effective Time, those full time employees of Sycamore (a) who are not offered employment by LCNB or Bank; (b) who are not otherwise covered by a Sycamore severance package; and (c) who sign and deliver a termination and release agreement in the form attached hereto as Appendix C shall be entitled to severance pay. Those individuals entitled to severance pay shall be entitled to receive benefits equal to two weeks of salary, at their rate of pay in effect at the time of termination, for each full year of continuous service with a minimum of four weeks and a maximum of 26 weeks paid, which shall be paid in a lump sum through Bank's regular payroll process within 20 days after the later of the date of such termination or the date the termination and release agreement is signed, provided it is not revoked in accordance with its terms. Nothing in this Section shall be deemed to limit or modify LCNB's, Bank's or Sycamore's at will employment policy.

Employment Agreements. Bank shall enter into employment agreements with each of Mr. John Calhoun and Mr. John Rost(the Employment Agreements).

Sycamore Preferred. Prior to the Effective Time, Sycamore shall redeem for cash all the outstanding shares of Sycamore Preferred in accordance with its Articles of Association, Bylaws and applicable law at a redemption price equal to $500.00 per share, plus accrued dividends, if any. At the Effective Time, all of the shares of Sycamore Preferred, whether issued or unissued (including any held as treasury shares), shall be cancelled and extinguished and any holder of certificates for shares of Sycamore Preferred shall cease to have any rights as a shareholder of Sycamore.

Sycamore Board Meetings. From and after the date of this Agreement and through the Effective Time, Sycamore shall permit LCNB to attend those meetings of the Sycamore Board of Directors, and all committees thereof, each as determined by the Sycamore Board of Directors, in its sole discretion, to involve matters relating to the general business operations of Sycamore and the conversion of such operations upon consummation of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement. Sycamore shall give LCNB at least five (5) business days prior notice of any meeting which the Sycamore Board of Directors has determined LCNB shall be entitled to attend. Sycamore shall promptly provide LCNB with an accurate and complete copy of all minutes of such meetings.

A1-24

4.14

Tax Treatment. Each of LCNB, Bank and Sycamore agrees not to take any actions subsequent to the date of this Agreement that would adversely affect the ability of Sycamore and its shareholders to characterize the Merger as a tax-free reorganization under Section 368(a) of the Code, and each of LCNB, Bank and Sycamore agrees to take such action as may be reasonably required, if such action may be reasonably taken to reverse the impact of any past actions, that would adversely impact the ability for the Merger to be characterized as a tax-free reorganization under Section 368(a) of the Code.

4.15

Tax Opinion. LCNB and Sycamore agree that Sycamore shall bear the cost of the legal opinion of Sycamore's counsel provided for in Section 5.1.7 and that the fee paid to Sycamore's counsel for such opinion shall be reasonable and customary.

ARTICLE V CONDITIONS PRECEDENT TO CLOSING

5.1

Conditions to the Obligations of Each of the Parties. The obligation of each of the parties hereto to consummate the transactions provided for herein is subject to the fulfillment on or prior to the Effective Time of each of the following conditions:

5.1.1

The shareholders of Sycamore shall have duly approved and adopted this Agreement in accordance with and as required by law and in accordance with Sycamore's corporate governing documents.

5.1.2

Shareholders holding enough shares to jeopardize the tax-free nature of the Merger shall not have exercised their dissenters rights and demanded the fair cash value of shares pursuant to 12 U.S.C. Section 215a.

5.1.3

All necessary governmental and regulatory orders, consents, clearances and approvals and requirements shall have been secured and satisfied for the consummation of such transactions, including without limitation, those of the Federal Reserve System, the Office of the Comptroller of the Currency and the Securities and Exchange Commission to the extent required.

Prior to or at the Effective Time, no material investigation by any state or federal agency shall have been threatened or instituted seeking to enjoin or prohibit, or enjoining or prohibiting, the transactions contemplated hereby and no material governmental action or proceeding shall have been threatened or instituted before any court or government body or authority, seeking to enjoin or prohibit, or enjoining or prohibiting, the transactions contemplated hereby other than investigations, actions and proceedings which have been withdrawn prior to or at the Effective Time without material adverse effect to LCNB or Sycamore and other than regularly scheduled regulatory examinations.

Any waiting period mandated by law in respect of the final approval by any applicable Government Regulators of the transactions contemplated herein shall have expired.

5.1.6

No statute, rule or regulation shall have been enacted, entered, promulgated, interpreted, applied or enforced by any governmental authority which prohibits, restricts or makes illegal consummation of the Merger or any other transactions contemplated by this Agreement.

A1-25

5.1.7

LCNB and Sycamore shall have received the written opinion of Sycamore's legal counsel, dated the Closing Date, to the effect that, on the basis of facts, representations and assumptions set forth in such opinion which are consistent with the state of facts existing at the Effective Time, the Merger will be treated for federal income tax purposes as a reorganization within the meaning of Sections 368(a)(1)(A) and 368(a)(2)(D) of the Code. In rendering its opinion, Sycamore's legal counsel will require and rely upon customary representations contained in letters from LCNB and Sycamore that Sycamore's legal counsel reasonably deems relevant. Sycamore's legal counsel shall not issue such tax opinion if the Continuity of Interest Test described in Section 5.1.8 is not satisfied.

The total value of the shares of LCNB Common issued in the Merger, based upon the closing sales price of LCNB Common as reported on The OTC Bulletin Board Market (excluding sales prices of LCNB Common during extended-hours trading) on the day immediately preceding the Effective Time (the Continuity of Interest Date), shall be not less than 45% of the sum of the total Merger Consideration issued in the Merger plus any cash distributed by Sycamore in the redemption of the Sycamore Preferred (the Continuity of Interest Test). If the Continuity of Interest Test would not otherwise be satisfied, LCNB may issue additional shares of LCNB Common sufficient to satisfy the Continuity of Interest Test and must immediately notify Sycamore of such issuance on the Continuity of Interest Date. Any such additional shares of LCNB Common shall be considered part of the Merger Consideration and shall be valued based upon the closing sales price of LCNB Common on the Continuity of Interest Date as provided in this Section 5.1.8 and shall be registered pursuant to the Registration Statement.

5.2

Conditions to the Obligations of LCNB. The obligation of LCNB to consummate the transactions provided for herein is subject to the fulfillment at or prior to the Effective Time of each of the following conditions unless waived by LCNB in a writing delivered to Sycamore which specifically refers to the condition or conditions being waived:

5.2.1

All of the representations and warranties of Sycamore set forth in Article II of this Agreement shall be true and correct in all material respects as of the date of this Agreement and at and as of the Closing Date (as hereinafter defined) as if each such representation and warranty was given on and as of the Closing Date, except for (i) any such representations and warranties made as of a specified date, which shall be true and correct in all material respects as of such date, and (ii) inaccuracies of representations and warranties which would not have, or would not reasonably be expected to have, a material adverse effect on the financial condition, business or operations of Sycamore taken as a whole.

5.2.2

Sycamore shall have performed all of the obligations required of it under the terms of this Agreement in all material respects.

5.2.3

LCNB shall have received from Stifel, Nicolaus & Company, Incorporated a written fairness opinion to the effect that, as of a date reasonably proximate to the date of this Agreement and subject to the qualifications and assumptions contained therein, the Merger Consideration to be paid by LCNB to the holders of Sycamore Common (other than dissenting shareholders) in connection with the Merger pursuant to this Agreement is fair to LCNB, from a financial point of view, and a supplemental, or "bring-down", written fairness opinion confirming its original opinion as of a date reasonably proximate to the date of the proxy statement for the Sycamore meeting of shareholders held to approve the Merger.

ARTICLE VII

7.1

Termination Conditions. This Agreement may be terminated at any time prior to the Effective Time by written notice delivered by LCNB to Sycamore or by Sycamore to LCNB in the following instances:

7.1.1

By LCNB or Sycamore, if (a) there has been to the extent contemplated herein, a material misrepresentation, a material breach of warranty or a material failure to comply with any covenant on the part of the other party with respect to the representations, warranties, and covenants set forth herein and such misrepresentation, breach or failure to comply has not been cured (if capable of cure) within thirty (30) days after receipt of written notice, provided, the party in default shall have no right to terminate for its own default or (b) the Continuity of Interest Test has not been met under Section 5.1.8 after giving effect to any additional shares of LCNB Common issued by LCNB as provided herein.

7.1.2

By LCNB or Sycamore, in each case taken as a whole, if the business or assets or financial condition of the other party shall have materially and adversely changed from that in existence on December 31, 2006, other than any such change resulting from any (i) change in laws, rules or regulation or generally accepted accounting principles or regulatory accounting requirements or interpretations thereof that apply to both LCNB and Sycamore, (ii) actions and omissions of LCNB or Sycamore taken with the prior written consent of the other in contemplation of the transactions contemplated hereby, (iii) direct effects of this Agreement on the operating performance of LCNB or Sycamore, including reasonable expenses incurred by the parties in consummating the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, (iv) changes resulting from the announcements of transactions contemplated by this Agreement, (v) changes in general political or economic conditions in the United States of America, and (vi) changes resulting from payments made by Sycamore as set forth in Schedule 4.2.

7.1.3

By LCNB or Sycamore, if the merger transaction contemplated herein has not been consummated by March 31, 2008, provided the terminating party is not in material breach or default of any representation, warranty or covenant contained herein on the date of such termination.

7.1.4

By the mutual written agreement of LCNB and Sycamore.

7.1.5

By LCNB if any event occurs which renders impossible of satisfaction in any material respect one or more of the conditions to the obligations of LCNB to effect the Merger set forth in Sections 5.1 or 5.2 herein and non-compliance is not waived by LCNB.

7.1.6

By Sycamore if any event occurs which renders impossible of satisfaction in any material respect one or more of the conditions of the obligations of Sycamore to effect the Merger as set forth in Sections 5.1 and 5.3 herein and non-compliance is not waived by Sycamore.

7.1.7

By LCNB, if the Board of Directors of Sycamore does not unanimously publicly recommend in the Proxy Statement that Sycamore's shareholders approve and adopt the Merger and this Agreement or if, after recommending in the proxy that shareholders approve and adopt this Agreement, the Board of Directors of Sycamore shall have withdrawn, modified or amended such recommendation in any respect materially adverse to LCNB.

By Sycamore, if, without breaching Article VIII, Sycamore shall enter into a definitive agreement with a third party providing for an acquisition proposal on terms determined in good faith by the Sycamore board, after consulting with and considering the advice of Sycamore's outside counsel and financial advisor, to constitute a Superior Proposal; provided that the right to terminate this Agreement under this Section shall not be available to Sycamore unless it delivers to LCNB (a) written notice of Sycamore's intention to terminate at least five days prior to termination and during those five days uses its best efforts to negotiate with LCNB to make such adjustments in the terms and conditions of this Agreement that would enable Sycamore to proceed with the transactions contemplated herein; and (b) simultaneously with such termination, the Termination Fee referred to in Section 7.4.2. For purposes of this Section Superior Proposal means an acquisition proposal made by a third party after the date hereof which, in the good faith judgment of the Board of Directors of Sycamore receiving the acquisition proposal, taking into account the various legal, financial and regulatory aspects of the proposal and the person making such proposal, (i) if accepted, is significantly more likely than not to be consummated, and (ii) if consummated, is reasonably likely to result in a materially more favorable transaction than the Merger to Sycamore and its shareholders and other relevant constituencies.

By Sycamore, if its Board of Directors so determines by a majority vote of the members of its entire Board, at any time during the five (5) business day period commencing on the Determination Date, such termination to be effective on the 30th day following such Determination Date (Effective Termination Date), if both of the following conditions are satisfied:

7.1.9.1

The LCNB Market Value on the Determination Date is down 20% from the Initial LCNB Market Value (which is $13.81); and

7.1.9.2

The number obtained by dividing the LCNB Market Value on the Determination Date by the Initial LCNB Market Value (LCNB Ratio) shall be less than the Index Ratio minus 0.20; subject, however, to the following three sentences. If Sycamore elects to exercise its termination right pursuant to this Section, it shall give prompt written notice thereof to LCNB. During the five business day period commencing with its receipt of such notice, LCNB shall have the option of increasing the Exchange Ratio (the "Adjusted Ratio") such that the Merger Stock Component shall be valued at the lesser of (i) the product of the LCNB Ratio and the Initial LCNB Market Value multiplied by the Adjusted Ratio or (ii) the product obtained by multiplying the Index Ratio by the Initial LCNB Market Value multiplied by the Adjusted Ratio. If within such five business day period, LCNB delivers written notice to Sycamore that it intends to proceed with the Merger by paying such additional consideration, as contemplated by the preceding sentence, then no termination shall have occurred pursuant to this Section and this Agreement shall remain in full force and effect in accordance with its terms (except that the Merger Consideration shall have been so modified).

7.1.9.3

For purposes of this Section, the following terms shall have the meanings indicated below:

a)

Determination Date means the first day after that is the latest of (i) the day of expiration of the last waiting period with respect to any of the required regulatory approvals, (ii) the day on which the last of the required regulatory approvals is obtained, and (iii) the day on which the required Sycamore shareholder's approval is obtained.

b)

Final Index Price means the closing value of the SNL Bank Index on a given date.

c)

LCNB Market Value on the Determination Date shall be the average of the daily closing sales prices of a share of LCNB Common Stock as reported on the Stock Exchange for the ten consecutive trading days immediately preceding the Determination Date.

d)

Initial LCNB Market Value equals $13.81, adjusted as indicated in the last sentence of this Section.

e)

Initial Index Price means the closing value of the SNL Bank Index as of August 3, 2007.

f)

Index Ratio shall be the Final Index Price divided by the Initial Index Price.

7.1.9.4

If LCNB declares or effects a stock dividend, reclassification, recapitalization, split-up, combination, exchange of shares or similar transaction between the date of this Agreement and the Determination Date, the price for the LCNB Common shall be appropriately adjusted for the purposes of applying this Section.

7.2

Failure to Approve.

7.2.1

If Sycamore shareholders, acting at a meeting held for the purpose of voting upon this Agreement, fail to approve such agreement in the manner required by law, then this Agreement shall be deemed to be automatically terminated.

7.2.2.

If any regulatory application filed pursuant to Section 4.4 hereof should be finally denied or disapproved by the respective regulatory authority, this Agreement thereupon shall be deemed terminated and canceled. However, it is understood that a request for additional information or understanding by LCNB or Sycamore, as a condition for approval, shall not be deemed a denial or disapproval so long as LCNB or Sycamore diligently provides the requested information or, in its reasonable direction, accepts such undertaking.

7.3

Survival of Certain Provisions. Upon termination as provided in this Article, this Agreement, except for the provisions of Section 6.1 hereof, shall be void and of no further force or effect, and, except as provided in Section 6.4 hereof, neither party hereto not in material breach or default of its representations, warranties and covenants hereunder shall have any liability of any kind to the other party including but not limited to liability for expenses incurred by the other party in connection with this transaction.

7.4

Termination Fees.

7.4.1

If this Agreement is terminated at such time that this Agreement is terminable pursuant to Section 7.1.1(a), then the breaching party shall promptly (but no later than five business days after receipt of notice from the non-breaching party) pay to the non-breaching party in cash an amount equal to all documented out-of-pocket expenses and fees incurred by the non-breaching party (including, without limitation, fees and expenses payable to all legal, accounting, financial, public relations and other professional advisors arising out of, in connection with or related to the Merger or the transactions contemplated by this Agreement) not in excess of $200,000; provided, however, that, if this Agreement is terminated by a party as a result of a willful breach by the other party, the non-breaching party may pursue any remedies available to it at law or in equity and shall, in addition to its documented out-of-pocket expenses and fees (which shall be paid as specified above and shall not be limited to $200,000, be entitled to recover such additional amounts as such non-breaching party may be entitled to receive at law or in equity.

7.4.2

If Sycamore terminates this Agreement pursuant to Section 7.1.8 or if Sycamore consummates a Superior Proposal within 12 months after termination by LCNB pursuant to Sycamore's conduct after the date hereof causing a willful breach under Section 7.1.1(a), provided such Superior Proposal existed prior to termination, Sycamore shall (no later than five business days after receipt of notice from LCNB) pay LCNB, in addition to any other amounts payable by Sycamore pursuant to this Agreement, cash in an amount equal to $300,000 (the Termination Fee).

ARTICLE VIII DISCUSSION WITH OTHERS; OTHER OFFERS

Sycamore shall not, and Sycamore shall direct and use its best efforts to cause its officers, directors, employees, agents and representatives (including, without limitation, any attorney, accountant, investment banker or other advisor retained by it) not to, initiate, solicit or encourage, directly or indirectly, any inquiries or proposals with respect to or engage in any negotiations or discussions with, or furnish any confidential information or data to, any person or entity relating to an Acquisition Proposal (as defined herein). Sycamore and its officers, directors, employees, agents and representatives shall immediately cease any existing discussions or negotiations with any parties conducted heretofore with respect to any Acquisition Proposal. For purposes of this Agreement, an Acquisition Proposal means any inquiries or proposals for a merger, consolidation, share exchange or similar transaction involving Sycamore where Sycamore will not be the surviving entity, or for the acquisition of the stock or all or substantially all of the assets or business of Sycamore, other than the transactions contemplated by this Agreement.

8.2

Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 8.1, if, after the date of this Agreement, Sycamore's board of directors (the Sycamore Board) receives an Acquisition Proposal (which Acquisition Proposal in the good faith judgment of the Sycamore Board, after consultation with its outside financial and legal counsel, is or reasonably is expected to be a Superior Proposal) from any person or entity, then (i) Sycamore, the Sycamore Board and any attorney, accountant, investment bank or other advisor retained by Sycamore may, directly or indirectly, provide access to or furnish or cause to be furnished information concerning the business, properties or assets of Sycamore to such person or entity, and (ii) Sycamore or the Sycamore Board and any attorney, accountant, investment bank or other advisor retained by Sycamore may participate in and engage in discussions and negotiations with such person or entity regarding such Acquisition Proposal.

8.3

Sycamore agrees that it will notify LCNB immediately if any inquiries, proposals or offers are received by, any such information is requested from, or any such discussions or negotiations are sought to be initiated or continued with, any of its representatives in connection with an Acquisition Proposal, including actions it intends to take with respect to such matters.

ARTICLE IX CLOSING AND EFFECTIVE TIME

The consummation of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement shall take place at a closing to be held at the offices of LCNB on a date no more than ten days following the date that all of the conditions precedent to closing set forth in Article V hereof, including the waiting period required by any banking or bank holding company regulatory agency after its approval of the Merger is issued before the transaction may be consummated, have been fully met or effectively waived (the Closing Date). The Merger shall become effective at the close of business on the Closing Date or as otherwise provided by applicable law or order (the Effective Time). By mutual agreement of the parties, the closing may be held at any other time or place or on any other date and the effectiveness of the Merger (and the Effective Time) may be changed by such mutual agreement. None of the representations, warranties and agreements in this Agreement or in any instrument delivered pursuant to this Agreement shall survive the Effective Time, except for agreements of the parties which by their terms are intended to be performed after the Effective Time.

In consideration of the agreements and promises made by Employee in this Agreement, LCNB shall pay to Employee the sum of $ _____, less usual and customary withholding and deductions. ANNEX C

12 USCS § 215a

§ 215a

Mergers of national banks or State banks into national banks

(a)

Approval of Comptroller, board and shareholders; amended and restated affiliation agreement; notice; capital stock; liability of receiving association. One or more national banking associations or one or more State banks, with the approval of the Comptroller, under an agreement not inconsistent with this Act [et seq.], may merge into a national banking association located within the same State, under the charter of the receiving association. The amended and restated affiliation agreement shall-- be agreed upon in writing by a majority of the board of directors of each association or State bank participating in the plan of merger;

(1)

(2)

be ratified and confirmed by the affirmative vote of the shareholders of each such association or State bank owning at least two-thirds of its capital stock outstanding, or by a greater proportion of such capital stock in the case of a State bank if the laws of the State where it is organized so require, at a meeting to be held on the call of the directors, after publishing notice of the time, place, and object of the meeting for four consecutive weeks in a newspaper of general circulation published in the place where the association or State bank is located, or, if there is no such newspaper, then in the newspaper of general circulation published nearest thereto, and after sending such notice to each shareholder of record by certified or registered mail at least ten days prior to the meeting, except to those shareholders who specifically waive notice, but any additional notice shall be given to the shareholders of such State bank which may be required by the laws of the State where it is organized. Publication of notice may be waived, in cases where the Comptroller determines that an emergency exists justifying such waiver, by unanimous action of the shareholders of the association or State bank;

(3)

specify the amount of the capital stock of the receiving association, which shall not be less than that required under existing law for the organization of a national bank in the place in which it is located and which will be outstanding upon completion of the merger, the amount of stock (if any) to be allocated, and cash (if any) to be paid, to the shareholders of the association or State bank being merged into the receiving association; and provide that the receiving association shall be liable for all liabilities of the association or State bank being merged into the receiving association.

(4)

(b)

Dissenting shareholders. If a merger shall be voted for at the called meetings by the necessary majorities of the shareholders of each association or State bank participating in the plan of merger, and thereafter the merger shall be approved by the Comptroller, any shareholder of any association or State bank to be merged into the receiving association who has voted against such merger at the meeting of the association or bank of which he is a stockholder, or has given notice in writing at or prior to such meeting to the presiding officer that he dissents from the plan of merger, shall be entitled to receive the value of the shares so held by him when such merger shall be approved by the Comptroller upon written request made to the receiving association at any time before thirty days after the date of consummation of the merger, accompanied by the surrender of his stock certificates.

(c)

Valuation of shares. The value of the shares of any dissenting shareholder shall be ascertained, as of the effective date of the merger, by an appraisal made by a committee of three persons, composed of (1) one selected by the vote of the holders of the majority of the stock, the owners of which are entitled to payment in cash; (2) one selected by the directors of the receiving association; and (3) one selected by the two so selected. The valuation agreed upon by any two of the three appraisers shall govern. If the value so fixed shall not be satisfactory to any dissenting shareholder who has requested payment, that shareholder may, within five days after being notified of the appraised value of his shares, appeal to the Comptroller, who shall cause a reappraisal to be made which shall be final and binding as to the value of the shares of the appellant.

(d)

Application to shareholders of merging associations: Appraisal by Comptroller; expenses of receiving association; sale and resale of shares; State appraisal and merger law. If, within ninety days from the date of consummation of the merger, for any reason one or more of the appraisers is not selected as herein provided, or the appraisers fail to determine the value of such shares, the Comptroller shall upon written request of any interested party cause an appraisal to be made which shall be final and binding on all parties. The expenses of the Comptroller in making the reappraisal or the appraisal, as the case may be, shall be paid by the receiving association. The value of the shares ascertained shall be promptly paid to the dissenting shareholders by the receiving association. The shares of stock of the receiving association which would have been delivered to such dissenting shareholders had they not requested payment shall be sold by the receiving association at an advertised public auction, and the receiving association shall have the right to purchase any of such shares at such public auction, if it is the highest bidder therefor, for the purpose of reselling such shares within thirty days thereafter to such person or persons and at such price not less than par as its board of directors by resolution may determine. If the shares are sold at public auction at a price greater than the amount paid to the dissenting shareholders, the excess in such sale price shall be paid to such dissenting shareholders. The appraisal of such shares of stock in any State bank shall be determined in the manner prescribed by the law of the State in such cases, rather than as provided in this section, if such provision is made in the State law; and no such merger shall be in contravention of the law of the State under which such bank is incorporated. The provisions of this subsection shall apply only to shareholders of (and stock owned by them in) a bank or association being merged into the receiving association.

(e)

Status of receiving association; property rights and interests vested and held as fiduciary. The corporate existence of each of the merging banks or banking associations participating in such merger shall be merged into and continued in the receiving association and such receiving association shall be deemed to be the same corporation as each bank or banking association participating in the merger. All rights, franchises, and interests of the individual merging banks or banking associations in and to every type of property (real, personal, and mixed) and choses in action shall be transferred to and vested in the receiving association by virtue of such merger without any deed or other transfer. The receiving association, upon the merger and without any order or other action on the part of any court or otherwise, shall hold and enjoy all rights of property, franchises, and interests, including appointments, designations, and nominations, and all other rights and interests as trustee, executor, administrator, registrar of stocks and bonds, guardian of estates, assignee, receiver, and committee of estates of lunatics, and in every other fiduciary capacity, in the same manner and to the same extent as such rights, franchises, and interests were held or enjoyed by any one of the merging banks or banking associations at the time of the merger, subject to the conditions hereinafter provided.

(f)

Removal as fiduciary; discrimination. Where any merging bank or banking association, at the time of the merger, was acting under appointment of any court as trustee, executor, administrator, registrar of stocks and bonds, guardian of estates, assignee, receiver or committee of estates of lunatics, or in any other fiduciary capacity, the receiving association shall be subject to removal by a court of competent jurisdiction in the same manner and to the same extent as was such merging bank or banking association prior to the merger. Nothing contained in this section shall be considered to impair in any manner the right of any court to remove the receiving association and to appoint in lieu thereof a substitute trustee, executor, or other fiduciary, except that such right shall not be exercised in such a manner as to discriminate against national banking associations, nor shall any receiving association be removed solely because of the fact that it is a national banking association.

(g)

Issuance of stock by receiving association; preemptive rights. Stock of the receiving association may be issued as provided by the terms of the amended and restated affiliation agreement, free from any preemptive rights of the shareholders of the respective merging banks.

Item 20.

Indemnification of Directors and Officers.

(a)

Ohio General Corporation Law

Division (E) of Section 1701.13 of the Ohio Revised Code addresses indemnification by an Ohio corporation and provides as follows:

(E) (1) A corporation may indemnify or agree to indemnify any person who was or is a party, or is threatened to be made a party, to any threatened, pending, or completed action, suit, or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative, or investigative, other than an action by or in the right of the corporation, by reason of the fact that he is or was a director, officer, employee, or agent of the corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director, trustee, officer, employee, member, manager, or agent of another corporation, domestic or foreign, nonprofit or for profit, a limited liability company, or a partnership, joint venture, trust, or other enterprise, against expenses, including attorney's fees, judgments, fines, and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection with such action, suit, or proceeding, if he acted in good faith and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation, and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, if he had no reasonable cause to believe his conduct was unlawful. The termination of any action, suit, or proceeding by judgment, order, settlement, or conviction, or upon a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent, shall not, of itself, create a presumption that the person did not act in good faith and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation, and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, he had reasonable cause to believe that his conduct was unlawful.

(2) A corporation may indemnify or agree to indemnify any person who was or is a party, or is threatened to be made a party, to any threatened, pending, or completed action or suit by or in the right of the corporation to procure a judgment in its favor, by reason of the fact that he is or was a director, officer, employee, or agent of the corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director, trustee, officer, employee, member, manager, or agent of another corporation, domestic or foreign, nonprofit or for profit, a limited liability company, or a partnership, joint venture, trust, or other enterprise, against expenses, including attorney's fees, actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection with the defense or settlement of such action or suit, if he acted in good faith and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation, except that no indemnification shall be made in respect of any of the following:

(a) Any claim, issue, or matter as to which such person is adjudged to be liable for negligence or misconduct in the performance of his duty to the corporation unless, and only to the extent that, the court of common pleas or the court in which such action or suit was brought determines, upon application, that, despite the adjudication of liability, but in view of all the circumstances of the case, such person is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnity for such expenses as the court of common pleas or such other court shall deem proper;

(b) Any action or suit in which the only liability asserted against a director is pursuant to section 1701.95 of the Revised Code.

(3) To the extent that a director, trustee, officer, employee, member, manager, or agent has been successful on the merits or otherwise in defense of any action, suit, or proceeding referred to in division (E)(1) or (2) of this section, or in defense of any claim, issue, or matter therein, he shall be indemnified against expenses, including attorney's fees, actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection with the action, suit, or proceeding.

(4) Any indemnification under division (E)(1) or (2) of this section, unless ordered by a court, shall be made by the corporation only as authorized in the specific case, upon a determination that indemnification of the director, trustee, officer, employee, member, manager, or agent is proper in the circumstances because he has met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in division (E)(1) or (2) of this section. Such determination shall be made as follows:

(a) By a majority vote of a quorum consisting of directors of the indemnifying corporation who were not and are not parties to or threatened with the action, suit, or proceeding referred to in division (E)(1) or (2) of this section;

(b) If the quorum described in division (E)(4)(a) of this section is not obtainable or if a majority vote of a quorum of disinterested directors so directs, in a written opinion by independent legal counsel other than an attorney, or a firm having associated with it an attorney, who has been retained by or who has performed services for the corporation or any person to be indemnified within the past five years;

(c) By the shareholders;

(d) By the court of common pleas or the court in which the action, suit, or proceeding referred to in division (E)(1) or (2) of this section was brought.

Any determination made by the disinterested directors under division (E)(4)(a) or by independent legal counsel under division (E)(4)(b) of this section shall be promptly communicated to the person who threatened or brought the action or suit by or in the right of the corporation under division (E)(2) of this section, and, within ten days after receipt of such notification, such person shall have the right to petition the court of common pleas or the court in which such action or suit was brought to review the reasonableness of such determination.

(5) (a) Unless at the time of a director's act or omission that is the subject of an action, suit, or proceeding referred to in division (E)(1) or (2) of this section, the articles or the regulations of a corporation state, by specific reference to this division, that the provisions of this division do not apply to the corporation and unless the only liability asserted against a director in an action, suit, or proceeding referred to in division (E)(1) or (2) of this section is pursuant to , expenses, including attorney's fees, incurred by a director in defending the action, suit, or proceeding shall be paid by the corporation as they are incurred, in advance of the final disposition of the action, suit, or proceeding, upon receipt of an undertaking by or on behalf of the director in which he agrees to do both of the following:

(i) Repay such amount if it is proved by clear and convincing evidence in a court of competent jurisdiction that his action or failure to act involved an act or omission undertaken with deliberate intent to cause injury to the corporation or undertaken with reckless disregard for the best interests of the corporation;

(ii) Reasonably cooperate with the corporation concerning the action, suit, or proceeding.

(b) Expenses, including attorney's fees, incurred by a director, trustee, officer, employee, member, manager, or agent in defending any action, suit, or proceeding referred to in division (E)(1) or (2) of this section, may be paid by the corporation as they are incurred, in advance of the final disposition of the action, suit, or proceeding, as authorized by the directors in the specific case, upon receipt of an undertaking by or on behalf of the director, trustee, officer, employee, member, manager, or agent to repay such amount, if it ultimately is determined that he is not entitled to be indemnified by the corporation.

II -2

(6) The indemnification authorized by this section shall not be exclusive of, and shall be in addition to, any other rights granted to those seeking indemnification under the articles, the regulations, any agreement, a vote of shareholders or disinterested directors, or otherwise, both as to action in their official capacities and as to action in another capacity while holding their offices or positions, and shall continue as to a person who has ceased to be a director, trustee, officer, employee, member, manager, or agent and shall inure to the benefit of the heirs, executors, and administrators of such a person.

(7) A corporation may purchase and maintain insurance or furnish similar protection, including, but not limited to, trust funds, letters of credit, or self-insurance, on behalf of or for any person who is or was a director, officer, employee, or agent of the corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director, trustee, officer, employee, member, manager, or agent of another corporation, domestic or foreign, nonprofit or for profit, a limited liability company, or a partnership, joint venture, trust, or other enterprise, against any liability asserted against him and incurred by him in any such capacity, or arising out of his status as such, whether or not the corporation would have the power to indemnify him against such liability under this section. Insurance may be purchased from or maintained with a person in which the corporation has a financial interest.

(8) The authority of a corporation to indemnify persons pursuant to division (E)(1) or (2) of this section does not limit the payment of expenses as they are incurred, indemnification, insurance, or other protection that may be provided pursuant to divisions (E)(5), (6), and (7) of this section. Divisions (E)(1) and (2) of this section do not create any obligation to repay or return payments made by the corporation pursuant to division (E)(5), (6), or (7).

(9) As used in division (E) of this section, corporation includes all constituent entities in a consolidation or merger and the new or surviving corporation, so that any person who is or was a director, officer, employee, trustee, member, manager, or agent of such a constituent entity, or is or was serving at the request of such constituent entity as a director, trustee, officer, employee, member, manager, or agent of another corporation, domestic or foreign, nonprofit or for profit, a limited liability company, or a partnership, joint venture, trust, or other enterprise, shall stand in the same position under this section with respect to the new or surviving corporation as he would if he had served the new or surviving corporation in the same capacity.

Code of Regulations of LCNB

The Code of Regulations of LCNB contains the following provisions with respect to the indemnification of directors and officers:

Article VII - Indemnification

The Corporation shall indemnify each director and each officer of the Corporation, and each person employed by the Corporation who serves at the written request of the Chairman or President of the Corporation as a director, trustee, officer, employee, or agent of another corporation, domestic or foreign, non-profit or for profit, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, to the full extent permitted by Ohio law. The term "officer" as used in this Article VII shall include the Chairman of the Board, the President, each Vice President, the Treasurer, the Secretary, the Controller, the Auditor, the Counsel and any other person who is specifically designated as an "officer" within the operation of this Article VII by action of the Board of Directors. The Corporation may indemnify assistant officers, employees and others by action of the Board of Directors to the extent permitted by Ohio law.

(c)

Insurance

LCNB has purchased insurance coverage under policies that insure directors and officers against certain liabilities that might be incurred by them in their capacities as directors and officers.

Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act of 1933 may be permitted to directors, officers or persons controlling LCNB pursuant to the foregoing provisions, the registrant has been informed that in the opinion of the Securities and Exchange Commission such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Act and is therefore unenforceable.

Undertakings

1.

The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes:

(a)

To file, during any period in which offers or sales are being made, a post-effective amendment to this registration statement:

(i)

To include any prospectus required by section 10(a)(3) of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the Act);

(ii)

To reflect in the prospectus any facts or events arising after the effective date of the registration statement (or the most recent post-effective amendment thereof) which, individually or in the aggregate, represent a fundamental change in the information set forth in the registration statement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, any increase or decrease in volume of securities offered (if the total dollar value of securities offered would not exceed that which was registered) and any deviation from the low or high end of the estimated maximum offering range may be reflected in the form of prospectus filed with the Commission pursuant to Rule 424(b) if, in the aggregate, the changes in volume and price represent no more than a 20% change in the maximum aggregate offering price set forth in the Calculation of Registration Fee table in the effective registration statement; and

(iii)

To include any material information with respect to the plan of distribution not previously disclosed in the registration statement or any material change to such information in the registration statement.

(b)

That, for the purpose of determining any liability under the Act, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

II -4

(c)

To remove from registration by means of a post-effective amendment any of the securities being registered which remain unsold at the termination of the offering.

2.

The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes that, for purposes of determining any liability under the Act, each filing of the registrant's annual report pursuant to section 13(a) or section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (and, where applicable, each filing of an employee benefit plan's annual report pursuant to section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934) that is incorporated by reference in the registration statement shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes to deliver or cause to be delivered with the prospectus, to each person to whom the prospectus is sent or given, the latest annual report to security holders that is incorporated by reference in the prospectus and furnished pursuant to and meeting the requirements of Rule 14a-3 or Rule 14c-3 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934; and, where interim financial information required to be presented by Article 3 of Regulation S-X are not set forth in the prospectus, to deliver, or cause to be delivered to each person to whom the prospectus is sent or given, the latest quarterly report that is specifically incorporated by reference in the prospectus to provide such interim financial information.

The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes as follows: that prior to any public reoffering of the securities registered hereunder through use of a prospectus which is part of this registration statement, by any person or party who is deemed to be an underwriter within the meaning of Rule 145(c), the issuer undertakes that such reoffering prospectus will contain the information called for by the applicable registration form with respect to reofferings by persons who may be deemed underwriters, in addition to the information called for by the other Items of the applicable form.

The registrant undertakes that every prospectus (i) that is filed pursuant to paragraph 4 immediately preceding, or (ii) that purports to meet the requirements of section 10(a)(3) of the Act and is used in connection with an offering of securities subject to Rule 415, will be filed as a part of an amendment to the registration statement and will not be used until such amendment is effective, and that, for purposes of determining any liability under the Act, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act of 1933 may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of the registrant pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, the registrant has been advised that in the opinion of the Securities and Exchange Commission such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Act and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the registrant of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of the registrant in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, the registrant will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Act and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.

(b)

The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes to respond to requests for information that is incorporated by reference into the prospectus pursuant to Items 4, 10(b), 11, or 13 of this Form, within one business day of receipt of such request, and to send the incorporated documents by first class mail or other equally prompt means. This includes information contained in documents filed subsequent to the effective date of the registration statement through the date of responding to the request.

(c)

The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes to supply by means of a post-effective amendment all information concerning a transaction, and the company being acquired involved therein, that was not the subject of and included in the registration statement when it became effective.

Certain Federal Income Tax Matters

Ladies and Gentlemen:

You have requested our opinion as to the material United States federal income tax consequences of the merger (the Merger) of Sycamore National Bank, a national bank chartered under the laws of the United States (Sycamore), with and into The Lebanon-Citizens National Bank, a national bank chartered under the laws of the United States (the Bank), wholly-owned by LCNB Corp., an Ohio corporation (LCNB), pursuant to the Amended and Restated Affiliation Agreement, dated as of September 24, 2007, by and among LCNB, the Bank, and Sycamore (the Agreement). All capitalized terms used herein, unless otherwise specified, have the meanings assigned to them in the Agreement.

In rendering this opinion, we have examined the originals or certified, conformed, or reproduction copies of, and have relied upon the accuracy of, without independent verification or investigation, (i) the Agreement, (ii) the statements and representations contained in (a) the Certificate of Representations of LCNB, executed by a duly authorized officer of LCNB, and (b) the Certificate of Representations of Sycamore, executed by a duly authorized officer of Sycamore (collectively, the Certificates), (iii) the Registration Statement of LCNB on Form S-4, and the proxy statement of Sycamore and prospectus of LCNB included therein, filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the Registration Statement), and (iv) such other documents as we have deemed necessary or appropriate as a basis for the opinion set forth below.

In connection with our review of the Agreement, the Certificates, the Registration Statement, and the other documents referenced above, we have assumed the genuineness of all signatures, the authenticity of all items submitted to us as originals, the uniformity with authentic originals of all items submitted to us as copies, and the conformity to final versions of all items submitted to us in draft version. We also have assumed, without independent verification or investigation, that (i) we have been provided with true, correct, and complete copies of all such documents, (ii) none of such documents has been amended or modified, (iii) all such documents are in full force and effect in accordance with the terms thereof, (iv) there are no other documents which affect the opinion hereinafter set forth, and (v) the documents reviewed by us reflect the entire agreement of the parties thereto with respect to the subject matter thereof.

In addition, we assume that all representations made to the knowledge of any person or entity or with similar qualification are, and will be as of the Effective Time, true and correct as if made without such qualification and that neither LCNB nor Sycamore will notify us at or before the Effective Time that any statement or representation made in a Certificate is no longer complete and accurate. We assume that any holder of Sycamore Common that has asserted, as of the Effective Time, dissenters' rights will receive, pursuant to statutory procedures, an amount per share of Sycamore Common that will not exceed the value of the Merger Consideration to be received for each share of Sycamore Common. Finally, we assume that the Continuity of Interest Test will be met on the Continuity of Interest Date. This opinion will be withdrawn in the event that the Continuity of Interest Test is not met on the Continuity of Interest Date.

Our opinion is based on the understanding that the relevant facts (including the representations made in the Certificates) are, and will be as of the Effective Time, as set forth in this opinion. If this understanding is incorrect or incomplete in any respect, our opinion may be affected. Our opinion also is based on the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the Code), the Treasury Department regulations promulgated thereunder, case law, and rulings of the Internal Revenue Service (the Service) as they now exist. These authorities are all subject to change, and such change may be made with retroactive effect. We can give no assurance that, after any such change, our opinion would not be different. Our opinion is not binding on the Service or the courts, and no ruling has been, or will be, requested from the Service as to any federal income tax consequence described below.

DESCRIPTION OF THE MERGER

The Merger shall become effective at the Effective Time. Pursuant to the Merger, the Bank will be the surviving corporation, and the separate corporate existence of Sycamore will cease.

As of September 24, 2007, the authorized capital stock of Sycamore consisted of (i) 2,000,000 shares of Sycamore Common authorized, of which 279,733 shares were issued and outstanding, (ii) 1,000,000 shares of Sycamore Preferred authorized, of which 560 shares were issued and outstanding, and (iii) options to purchase 9,355 shares of Sycamore Common, of which 8,180 were or will at the Effective Time be vested. As of September 24, 2007, the authorized capital stock of LCNB consisted of (i) 8,000,000 common shares, of which 6,369,436 shares were issued and outstanding and 734,332 shares held in treasury, (ii) 1,000,000 shares of preferred stock, none of which were issued and outstanding, and (iii) certain option to purchase LCNB Common granted to employees, officers, and directors under LCNB's stock option plans. As of September 24, 2007, the authorized capital stock of the Bank consisted of 1,000 shares of common stock, of which 1,000 shares were issued and outstanding and owned of record by LCNB.

At the Effective Time, each share of Sycamore Common issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time shall, at the election of each holder of such shares, be converted at the election of the holder thereof into the right to receive either (i) 2.444 shares (which represents $33.75 divided by $13.81, which is the 20-day average closing price ending on August 3, 2007, subject to rounding) of LCNB Common (the Merger Stock Component), or (ii) $33.75 (the Merger Cash Component). The effect of the Merger Consideration shall be that the Merger Stock Component will be paid with respect to 50% of the shares of Sycamore Common and the Merger Cash Component will be paid with respect to 50% of the shares of Sycamore Common.

As more fully described in the Agreement, holders of Sycamore Common are permitted either (i) to elect to receive LCNB Common with respect to all such holder's Sycamore Common, (ii) to elect to receive cash with respect to all such holder's Sycamore Common, (iii) to elect to receive LCNB Common with respect to part of such holder's Sycamore Common and cash with respect to the remainder of such holder's Sycamore Common, or (iv) to indicate that such holder has no preference as to the receipt of cash or LCNB Common in exchange for such holder's Sycamore Common. The Exchange Agent shall allocate among the holders of Sycamore Common the rights to receive LCNB Common, cash or a combination thereof in accordance with the elections made in the Elections Forms; provided, however, in the event the aggregate number of Stock Election Shares is greater than or less than 50% of the number of shares of Sycamore Common outstanding at the Effective Time, then the Exchange Agent shall adjust (increase or decrease) the number of shares of LCNB Common allocated to each holder of Sycamore Common in accordance with the adjustment procedures set forth in the Agreement such that the Merger Stock Component is paid with respect to 50% of the shares of Sycamore Common and the Merger Cash Component is paid with respect to 50% of the shares of Sycamore Common.

In addition, section 5.1.8 of the Agreement provides that, as a condition precedent to closing, the total value of the shares of LCNB Common issued in the Merger, based upon the closing sales price of LCNB Common as reported on The OTC Bulletin Board Market (excluding sales prices of LCNB Common during extended-hours trading) on the day immediately preceding the Effective Time (the Continuity of Interest Date), shall be not less than 45% of the sum of the total Merger Consideration issued in the Merger plus any cash distributed by Sycamore in the redemption of the Sycamore Preferred (the Continuity of Interest Test). If the Continuity of Interest Test would not otherwise be satisfied, LCNB may issue additional shares of LCNB Common sufficient to satisfy the Continuity of Interest Test and must immediately notify Sycamore of such issuance on the Continuity of Interest Date. Any such additional shares of LCNB Common shall be considered part of the Merger Consideration and shall be valued based upon the closing sales price of LCNB Common on the Continuity of Interest Date and shall be registered pursuant to the Registration Statement.

No certificate or scrip representing fractional shares of LCNB Common will be issued in the Merger. In lieu thereof, each holder of Sycamore Common who otherwise would be entitled to receive a fractional share of LCNB Common (after taking into account all certificates representing Sycamore Common delivered by such holder) shall receive cash in an amount determined pursuant to Section 1.3 of the Agreement.

OPINION

Based upon the foregoing, we are of the opinion that, under current law:

1.

The Merger will be a reorganization within the meaning of Sections 368(a)(1)(A) and 368(a)(2)(D) of the Code. Sycamore, LCNB, and the Bank each will be a party to the reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(b) of the Code.

2.

No gain or loss will be recognized by Sycamore, LCNB, or the Bank as a result of the Merger.

3.

A holder of Sycamore Common receiving solely LCNB Common in exchange for such shareholder's Sycamore Common (not including any cash received in lieu of fractional shares of LCNB Common) will recognize no gain or loss upon the receipt of such LCNB Common.

4.

A holder of Sycamore Common receiving solely cash in exchange for such shareholder's Sycamore Common (as a result of such shareholder's dissent to the Merger or an all cash election) will recognize gain or loss as if such shareholder had received such cash as a distribution in redemption of such shareholder's Sycamore Common, subject to the provisions and limitations of Section 302 of the Code.

A holder of Sycamore Common receiving both cash and LCNB Common in exchange for such shareholder's Sycamore Common (not including any cash received in lieu of fractional shares of LCNB Common) will recognize gain, but not loss, in an amount not to exceed the amount of cash received (excluding cash received in lieu of fractional shares of LCNB Common). Unless the redemption is treated as a dividend under the Code (to the extent of such shareholder's ratable share of the undistributed earnings and profits of Sycamore), the gain will be capital gain if the Sycamore Common is held by such shareholder as a capital asset at the time of the Merger.

A holder of Sycamore Common receiving cash in lieu of fractional shares of LCNB Common will recognize gain or loss as if such fractional shares of LCNB Common were distributed as part of the Merger and then redeemed by LCNB, subject to the provisions and limitations of Section 302 of the Code.

7.

The aggregate tax basis of LCNB Common received by a holder of Sycamore Common in the Merger (including fractional shares of LCNB Common, if any, deemed to be issued and redeemed by LCNB) generally will be equal to the aggregate tax basis of the Sycamore Common surrendered in the Merger, reduced by the amount of cash received by the shareholder in the Merger (excluding cash received in lieu of fractional shares of LCNB Common), and increased by the amount of gain recognized by the shareholder in the Merger (including any portion of the gain that is treated as a dividend, but excluding any gain or loss resulting from the deemed issuance and redemption of fractional shares of LCNB Common).

The holding period of the LCNB Common received by a holder of Sycamore Common will include the period during which the Sycamore Common surrendered in exchange therefor was held, provided the Sycamore Common is a capital asset in the hands of the holder of Sycamore Common at the time of the Merger.

9.

The tax basis of the assets of Sycamore in the hands of the Bank will be the same as the tax basis of such assets in the hands of Sycamore immediately prior to the Merger.

10.

The holding period of the assets of Sycamore to be received by the Bank will include the period during which such assets were held by Sycamore.

Our opinion is limited to the foregoing federal income tax consequences of the Merger, which are the only matters as to which you have requested our opinion. We do not address any other federal income tax consequences of the Merger or other matters of federal law and have not considered matters (including state or local tax consequences) arising under the laws of any jurisdiction other than matters of federal law arising under the laws of the United States.

Furthermore, our opinion does not address any federal income tax consequences of the Merger that may be relevant to a holder of Sycamore Common in light of that holder's particular status or circumstances, including, without limitation, holders of Sycamore Common that are: (i) foreign persons, (ii) insurance companies, (iii) financial institutions, (iv) tax-exempt entities, (v) retirement plans, (vi) broker-dealers, (vii) persons subject to the alternative minimum tax, (viii) persons whose Sycamore Common was acquired pursuant to the exercise of employee stock options or otherwise as compensation, (ix) persons who receive LCNB Common other than in exchange for Sycamore Common, (x) persons who hold Sycamore Common as part of a hedge, straddle, conversion, or other risk-reduction transaction, (xi) persons who hold Sycamore Common other than as capital assets, (xii) holders of Sycamore Common who have a functional currency other than the U.S. dollar, and (xiii) pass-through entities and investors in such entities. We undertake no responsibility to update this opinion.

The opinion expressed herein is furnished specifically for you and your shareholders, and may not be relied upon, assigned, quoted, or otherwise used in any manner or for any purpose by any other person or entity without our specific prior written consent. Notwithstanding the preceding sentence, we hereby consent to the filing of this opinion with the Securities and Exchange Commission as an exhibit to the Registration Statement, and to the references to our firm in the Registration Statement under the caption Material federal income tax consequences. In giving such consent, we do not thereby admit that we fall within the category of persons whose consent is required under Section 7 of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended.

Sincerely,
