SYSCO ANNOUNCES GUEST SUPPLY EXCHANGE RATIO

HOUSTON, March 1, 2001 -- SYSCO Corporation (NYSE: SY) today announced that stockholders of Guest Supply, Inc. (NYSE: GSY) will receive approximately 0.9564 shares of SYSCO common stock for each share of Guest Supply common stock tendered in the exchange offer under the terms of the merger agreement between the two companies, provided the initial offering period is not extended beyond March 5, 2001. This exchange ratio is determined based on the average of the closing prices per share of SYSCO common stock for each of the 15 consecutive trading days ending on Monday, February 26, 2001, the trading day that is five trading days prior to the scheduled expiration date of the offer. If the initial offering period is extended beyond March 5, 2001, the exchange ratio will be recalculated and SYSCO will issue a subsequent press release disclosing the new exchange ratio.

The initial offering period is scheduled to expire at 11:59 p.m. (EST) on Monday, March 5, 2001, subject to extension. If all offer conditions are satisfied or waived in the initial offering period, SYSCO will promptly accept for exchange all shares of Guest Supply common stock validly tendered prior to the expiration date of the initial offering period. A previously announced subsequent offering period will begin on the next business day following the expiration of the initial offering and will expire at 11:59 p.m. (EST) on the fifth business day following the expiration of the initial offering period, unless the subsequent offering period is extended. During the subsequent offering period, SYSCO will accept and pay for all validly tendered shares when tendered. The same price paid to Guest Supply stockholders at the conclusion of the initial offering period will be paid during the subsequent offering period. Shares tendered during the subsequent offering period may not be withdrawn.
