REASONS FOR THE SOLICITATION

The Ramius Group owns in the aggregate a total of 1,956,100 Shares, representing approximately 6.9% of the issued and outstanding common stock of the Company. We believe the election of the Ramius Nominees represents the best means for Luby's shareholders to maximize the value of their Shares. We believe that our nominees will strengthen the quality of Luby's Board by adding valuable restaurant industry and corporate finance expertise. Additionally, we believe that the election of the Ramius Nominees will help to ensure that any potential conflicts of interest that certain directors may have with respect to decisions that relate to their interests in both Luby's and Pappas restaurants are evaluated and addressed appropriately with the best interests of all shareholders in mind. Although the current Luby's Board may technically comply with the requirements of the NYSE and SEC rules relating to board "independence," we believe that certain decisions by the Luby's Board, including the decision to unilaterally increase the threshold to 33% for Christopher and Harris Pappas under the Company's shareholder rights plan, or "poison pill," call into question whether the Luby's Board is truly "independent" of the Pappas brothers and whether it has been acting in the best interest of all of Luby's shareholders.

Our nominees will strengthen the quality of the Luby's Board by providing essential restaurant and corporate finance expertise.

The Ramius Group, as the largest independent shareholder of Luby's, has a vested financial interest in the maximization of the value of Luby's Shares. Our interests are aligned with the interests of all shareholders. The Ramius Nominees are highly experienced restaurant and corporate finance professionals. They are well qualified to oversee the Luby's management team and can prove valuable in evaluating and executing the Company's new growth strategy. They are committed to acting solely in the best interest of all Luby's shareholders. If elected, we believe the Ramius Nominees will strengthen the Board and enable a higher probability of the most successful outcome.

We wish to provide shareholders with the opportunity to elect new directors to the Board who are truly independent and who, if elected, will work to improve Board oversight.

The current Luby's management team and Board include several individuals who are currently working, or have formerly worked, at Pappas restaurants, including Christopher J. Pappas, the Company's Chief Executive Officer (the "CEO"), and Harris J. Pappas, the Company's Chief Operating Officer (the "COO"), both of whom serve on the current Board. In order to ensure that the Company is being operated with the best interest of Luby's shareholders in mind, we believe it is imperative for Luby's to have a strong Board that is not only "independent" under minimum NYSE and SEC requirements, but that is also "independent" with regard to evaluating situations involving decisions in which the best interests of the Pappas brothers may not be aligned squarely with the best interests of all shareholders.

As an example of one of these situations, on October 30, 2007, Luby's announced that in conjunction with the extension of the CEO's and COO's employment agreements, it had amended its "poison pill" to increase the number of shares of common stock that the CEO and COO are permitted to own without triggering the poison pill to 33% of the Company's outstanding shares, while the threshold for all other shareholders remains at 15%. The primary purpose of a "poison pill" is to require a potential acquirer to negotiate an appropriate control premium with a company's board before allowing such an acquirer to gain control. In our opinion, shareholders receive no conceivable benefit from the Board allowing the Pappas brothers to further increase their effective control of the Company without paying shareholders a control premium.

Our independent nominees are committed to acting in the best interest of ALL shareholders and will work diligently with the other Board members and management to aid in the execution of the growth strategy while exploring any and all alternatives to enhance shareholder value.

Each of the Ramius Nominees, if elected, is committed to acting in accordance with his fiduciary duties as a director in all matters that come before the Board. The Ramius Nominees are independent of the Company in accordance with Securities and Exchange Commission (“SEC”) and New York Stock Exchange, Inc. (“NYSE”) rules on board independence and would seek to maximize value for all shareholders. If elected, subject to their fiduciary duties as directors, the Ramius Nominees will seek to work with the other members of the Board to take those steps that they deem are necessary or advisable to unlock the Company’s intrinsic value and generate long-term value at the Company, including considering a possible sale-leaseback transaction, significant stock buy-back, a special dividend or a sale of the Company. Additionally, the Ramius Nominees, if elected, are committed to acting in the best interests of all of the Company’s shareholders.

Although the Ramius Nominees will not be able to adopt any measures without the support of at least some members of the current Board, we believe that the election of the Ramius Nominees will send a strong message to the Board that shareholders believe in the long-term value of the Company and that the path to maximizing value is through increased Board oversight and accountability.

Luby’s has maintained poor corporate governance practices.

In addition to the potential conflicts of interest that may arise as a result of several members of Luby’s management and the Board currently and/or formerly being employed with Pappas restaurants, the Ramius Group believes that Luby’s has and continues to maintain poor corporate governance practices which inhibit the accountability of management and directors. Examples of what we believe to be the poor corporate governance practices of Luby’s include:

vThe Company has maintained a “staggered” or classified board. Despite a majority of the shares cast having been voted to recommend that the Board consider adoption of a non-binding shareholder proposal to declassify the Board in years 2001, 2003, 2004, 2005 and 2006, the Board has yet to take any steps necessary to implement the proposal. In order to implement an amendment to the Company’s certificate of incorporation to declassify the Board, the approval of holders of 80% of the outstanding shares would be required. This threshold has not been reached in any year in which the shareholders have voted on the non-binding proposal;

vThe Company maintains anti-takeover defenses, including a shareholder rights plan or “poison pill.” Although the ownership threshold for all other shareholders to trigger the poison pill is 15%, the Pappases are now permitted to collectively own up to 33% of the shares outstanding without triggering the poison pill;

vThe Company’s Bylaws permit the Board to increase the size of the Board to a maximum of fifteen persons by a majority vote and to fill vacancies without shareholder approval; provided that the Board may only fill two vacancies created by such an increase between elections of directors at an annual or special meeting of shareholders, and directors appointed by the Board to fill such vacancies serve only until the next annual meeting where directors are elected;

vA supermajority vote is required for shareholders to amend certain provisions of the Company’s Certificate of Incorporation and Bylaws, including rescinding the classified Board;

vSpecial meetings of shareholders may only be called by the shareholders to the extent that they hold at least 50% of the outstanding voting Shares; and v Shareholders are prohibited from taking action by written consent.

Such measures, we believe, serve no reasonable purpose other than to allow for the entrenchment of directors and demonstrate a disregard for the interests of shareholders.

Governance provisions such as these are contrary to the guidelines for corporate governance best practices issued by leading advocates of shareholder democracy, such as Institutional Shareholder Services (ISS) and Glass, Lewis & Co. What these provisions do provide, in our opinion, is insulation to the incumbent Board and few avenues for change to shareholders dissatisfied with the status quo. If elected, the Ramius Nominees will use their best efforts to cause the Board to terminate the poison pill and implement corporate governance reform while exploring all potential alternatives to maximize shareholder value.

Although the Luby’s Board may meet the minimum requirements for “independence” as set forth under NYSE requirements and SEC rules, we question to what extent certain directors may be influenced by the interests of the Pappas brothers in their other restaurant business, and we reiterate our belief that shareholders would benefit from increased oversight and accountability at the board level.

In the event that the Board attempts to use new bylaws or amended bylaws to prevent the shareholders, including the Ramius Group, from accomplishing the objectives described in this Proxy Statement, the Ramius Nominees, if elected, will seek to work with the other Board members to repeal any new or amended bylaws having such an effect to the extent that the Ramius Nominees determine that such new or amended bylaws are not aligned with the shareholders’ best interests.

The following is a chronology of events leading up to this proxy solicitation:

v On May 1, 2007, Starboard delivered a letter to the Chief Executive Officer of the Company requesting a meeting.

v On July 30, 2007, Ramius Capital filed a Schedule 13D with the SEC wherein it attached a letter from RCG Starboard Advisors to the Chief Executive Officer of the Company. The letter outlined RCG Starboard Advisors' view that the Company could maximize value by either 1) executing a sale leaseback on a substantial portion of the owned real estate with a coincident stock buyback and special dividend or 2) selling the Company for a price that reflects the full value of the Luby's concept and the associated real estate in order to maximize risk adjusted returns for shareholders. The letter also stated RCG Starboard Advisors' belief that the Company should address the potential conflicts of interest and time commitment issues of certain of Luby's members of management and directors who are also employed by, or otherwise affiliated with, the Pappas restaurant entities.

v On October 2, 2007, certain representatives of Ramius Capital met with Luby's management team. The purpose of the meeting was to gain a better understanding of the Company's overall strategy and plans to unlock value at the Company.

v On October 15, 2007, Starboard delivered a letter to the Company in accordance with the Company's advance notice bylaw provision, nominating Messrs. Farrar, Fox, Grube and Pannek for election to the Board at the Annual Meeting.

v On October 17, 2007, Starboard delivered a letter to the Company requesting, pursuant to Section 220 of the Delaware General Corporation Law, a complete list of the Company's shareholders and other corporate records in order to allow Starboard to communicate with the Company's shareholders in connection with the election of directors to be submitted to a vote of the shareholders at the Annual Meeting, and any other matters as may properly come before the Annual Meeting.

v On November 5, 2007, RCG Starboard issued a letter to all the shareholders of Luby's, Inc. urging all shareholders to vote for its four independent director nominees at the upcoming Annual Meeting and questioning whether the Board has been acting in the best interest of all shareholders. As examples, the letter highlighted (i) the recent decision by the Board to increase the exemption under the poison pill granted to Chris and Harris Pappas, allowing them to further increase their effective control of the Company without paying shareholders a control premium, and (ii) the fact that in five out of the past six shareholder votes, the Board has chosen to ignore the affirmative vote of shareholders on the proposal to declassify the Board.

PROPOSAL NO. 1

ELECTION OF DIRECTORS

From 1999 to February 2005, Mr. Pannek served as Director of Accounting/Finance and Director of Investor Relations of Brinker International, Inc. (NYSE: EAT), which owns and franchises casual dining chains, including Chili's, On the Border Mexican Grill and Cantina, Maggiano's Little Italy, and Romano's Macaroni Grill. Prior to joining Brinker, Mr. Pannek served as Chief Financial Officer of Aaron Brothers, Inc., a subsidiary of Michaels Stores, Inc. (NYSE: MIK), a retailer of arts and crafts materials, from 1996 to 1998, and as Acquisition & Capital Placement Manager of Maverick Capital Equity Partners, a consulting firm affiliated with Aaron Brothers, Inc., from 1995 to 1996. From 1987 to 1995, Mr. Pannek served as Vice President of Corporate Operations & Finance of MJDesigns, Inc., an arts and crafts retailer and original founder of Michaels Stores. Mr. Pannek has served as a member of the Board of Directors of Fuddruckers, Inc., King Cannon, Inc., Atlantic Restaurant Ventures, Inc. and Aaron Brothers, Inc. Mr. Pannek received a B.A. in Finance from the University of North Texas. The principal business address of Mr. Pannek is 3140 La Ventana Parkway, Driftwood, Texas 78619. As of the date hereof, Mr. Pannek does not directly own any securities of Luby's nor has he made any purchases or sales of any securities of Luby's during the past two years. As a Ramius Nominee, Mr. Pannek may be deemed to beneficially own all securities of Luby's beneficially owned by members of the Ramius Group, which as of the date hereof, may be deemed to beneficially own 1,956,100 shares of common stock of Luby's. For information regarding purchases and sales during the past two years by the members of the Ramius Group in securities of Luby's, please see Schedule I.

None of the Ramius Nominees currently has any conflicts of interest in serving on the Board as a result of his prior business relationships. Each of the Ramius Nominees, if elected, intends to act in accordance with his fiduciary duty and recuse himself from voting should any conflict of interest arise in the future.

RCG Starboard Advisors, an affiliate of Ramius Capital, and each of the Ramius Nominees have entered into compensation letter agreements (the “Compensation Letter Agreements”) regarding compensation to be paid to each of the Ramius Nominees for his agreement to be named and to serve as a Ramius Nominee and for his services as a director of Luby’s, if elected. Pursuant to the terms of the Compensation Letter Agreements, each nominee received $5,000 in cash from RCG Starboard Advisors as a result of the submission of the Nomination Letter to the Company. Upon the Ramius Group’s filing of a definitive proxy statement with the SEC relating to a solicitation of proxies in favor of each nominee’s election as a director at the Annual Meeting, RCG Starboard Advisors has agreed to allow each nominee to receive a profit participation with respect to the sale by RCG Starboard Advisors or one of its affiliates of the last $20,000 worth of Luby’s shares (the “Participation Shares”) beneficially owned by RCG Starboard Advisors or one of its affiliates to a third party unaffiliated with any member of the Ramius Group. The number of Participation Shares is determined by dividing $20,000 by the closing price of the Company’s common stock on the date of the definitive proxy filing by the Ramius Group. Each nominee will receive a cash payment equal to the amount, if any, by which the proceeds received by RCG Starboard Advisors from the sale of the Participation Shares exceeds $20,000 in the aggregate. For example, if Luby’s stock price increases by 100% from the date of the Ramius Group’s definitive proxy filing to the date the Ramius Group sells its final shares, each of the Ramius Nominees will earn $20,000 pursuant to the Compensation Letter Agreements. Under the terms of the Compensation Letter Agreements, the Ramius Nominees’ right to receive such contingent payment does not entitle the Ramius Nominees to any rights as a stockholder of the Company, including, without limitation, any voting rights or disposition rights with respect to the Participation Shares.

RCG Starboard Advisors entered into the Compensation Letter Agreements with the Ramius Nominees in order to compensate them for agreeing to be nominees of the Ramius Group and participating in this solicitation. The Ramius Group believes that the amount the Ramius Nominees stand to earn pursuant to the Compensation Letter Agreements is not material and therefore does not create a conflict of interest in the consideration of a business combination transaction or otherwise affect the Ramius Nominees’ ability to act in the best interests of all shareholders.

Ramius Capital and certain of its affiliates, have signed or intend to sign a letter agreement pursuant to which they agree to indemnify the Ramius Nominees against claims arising from the solicitation of proxies from Luby’s shareholders in connection with the Annual Meeting and any related transactions. Other than as stated herein, there are no arrangements or understandings between members of the Ramius Group and any of the Ramius Nominees or any other person or persons pursuant to which the nomination of the Ramius Nominees described herein is to be made, other than the consent by each of the Ramius Nominees to be named in this Proxy Statement and to serve as a director of Luby’s if elected as such at the Annual Meeting. None of the Ramius Nominees are a party adverse to Luby’s or any of its subsidiaries or has a material interest adverse to Luby’s or any of its subsidiaries in any material pending legal proceedings.

The Ramius Group does not expect that the Ramius Nominees will be unable to stand for election, but, in the event that such persons are unable to serve or for good cause will not serve, the Shares represented by the enclosed GOLD proxy card will be voted for substitute nominees. In addition, Starboard reserves the right to nominate substitute persons if Luby's makes or announces any changes to its Bylaws or takes or announces any other action that has, or if consummated would have, the effect of disqualifying the Ramius Nominees. In any such case, Shares represented by the enclosed GOLD proxy card will be voted for such substitute nominees. Starboard reserves the right to nominate additional persons if Luby's increases the size of the Board above its existing size or increases the number of directors whose terms expire at the Annual Meeting. Additional nominations made pursuant to the preceding sentence are without prejudice to the position of Starboard that any attempt to increase the size of the current Board or to reconstitute or reconfigure the classes on which the current directors serve constitutes an unlawful manipulation of the Company's corporate machinery.

YOU ARE URGED TO VOTE FOR THE ELECTION OF THE RAMIUS NOMINEES ON THE ENCLOSED GOLD PROXY CARD.

PROPOSAL NO. 2

COMPANY PROPOSAL TO RATIFY APPOINTMENT OF INDEPENDENT REGISTERED PUBLIC ACCOUNTING FIRM

As discussed in further detail in the Company's proxy statement, the Company has appointed Grant Thornton LLP, an independent registered public accounting firm, as auditors of the Company's financial statements for the 2008 fiscal year. The Company is asking shareholders to vote in favor of the ratification of the appointment of Grant Thornton LLP as auditors for the fiscal year ending August 30, 2008.

We make no recommendation as to the ratification of the appointment of Grant Thornton LLP as the Company's independent auditors for the Company's fiscal year ending August 30, 2008.

We are not aware of any other proposals to be brought before the Annual Meeting. However, we intend to bring before the Annual Meeting such business as may be appropriate, including without limitation nominating additional persons for directorships, or making any proposals as may be appropriate to address any action of the Board not publicly disclosed prior to the date of this proxy statement. Should other proposals be brought before the Annual Meeting, the persons named as proxies in the enclosed GOLD proxy card will vote on such matters in their discretion.

PROPOSAL NO. 3

SHAREHOLDER PROPOSAL TO DECLASSIFY THE BOARD

As described in the Company's proxy statement, the proponent of the following shareholder proposal has notified the Company that he intends to cause the proposal set out below to be presented at the Annual Meeting. If the proponent, or a representative of the proponent who is qualified under state law, is present and submits the proposal for a vote, then the proposal will be voted upon at the Annual Meeting. We have included the proposal and its supporting statement exactly as it appears in the Company's proxy statement and we are not responsible for the truthfulness or accuracy of any of the material provided by the proponent. The Ramius Group recommends a vote "FOR" the proposal.

Proponent's Proposal

"RESOLVED: That the stockholders of Luby's, Inc., assembled in annual meeting in person or by proxy, hereby request that the Board of Directors take the needed steps to provide that at future elections of directors, new directors be elected annually and not by classes, as is now provided, and that on expiration of present terms of directors, their subsequent elections shall also be on an annual basis."

REASONS

Our directors should come out of the dark ages of corporate governance and have the courage to stay current with changing standards by submitting their declassification to a binding vote.

Shareholders Beware — Last year we saw directors apply their stock option related, increased voting power to further entrench themselves by defending a system of staggered terms in office. Conversely, Luby's shareholders voted to declassify the board in 2001, 2003, 2004, 2005, and 2006. Unfortunately, our directors have routinely dismissed the majority vote of shareholders cast for this proposal, yet they continue to welcome and accept a vote from most of the same shareholders for their election to office. These shareholders have affirmed the proponent's belief that classification of the board of directors is not in the best interest of Luby's, Inc. because it makes a board less accountable when all directors do not stand for election each year. The annual election of directors fosters board independence, a crucial element of good governance.

Our board continues to ignore this trend and five past majority votes supporting similar proposals.

Consider the Boards arguments in opposition to this proposal—Luby’s 80% super majority rule, and the claim of significant benefit to shareholders, while 59.08% of shareholders casting votes (in 2006) disagreed with the Board’s defense of a staggered system.

Consider, In light of current trends reflecting better corporate governance, the Board’s defense of a classified system approved fifteen years ago in 1991. Do not tell shareholders what was adopted in 1991. That was light years away and the board’s own statement serves to illustrate how out of sync they are with the today’s modern methods being applied to govern corporations.

If you are tired of the same old stale rhetoric in opposition to this proposal and the Board’s lack of courage to submit a binding proposal to shareholders, please vote YES for this initiative submitted by Harold Mathis with an address of P.O. Box 1209, Richmond, Texas 77046-1209, to elect each director annually.

STOP DIRECTOR ENTRENCHMENT, PLEASE MARK YOUR PROXY IN FAVOR OF THIS PROPOSAL.

THE RAMIUS GROUP RECOMMENDS A VOTE “FOR” THE SHAREHOLDER PROPOSAL.

We are not aware of any other proposals to be brought before the Annual Meeting. Should other proposals be brought before the Annual Meeting, the persons named as proxies in the enclosed GOLD proxy card will vote on such matters in their discretion.

VOTING AND PROXY PROCEDURES

Only shareholders of record on the Record Date will be entitled to notice of and to vote at the Annual Meeting. Each Share is entitled to one vote. Shareholders who sell Shares before the Record Date (or acquire them without voting rights after the Record Date) may not vote such Shares. Shareholders of record on the Record Date will retain their voting rights in connection with the Annual Meeting even if they sell such Shares after the Record Date. Based on publicly available information, the Ramius Group believes that the only outstanding class of securities of Luby's entitled to vote at the Annual Meeting is the Shares.

Shares represented by properly executed GOLD proxy cards will be voted at the Annual Meeting as marked and, in the absence of specific instructions, (i) will be voted FOR the election of the Ramius Nominees to the Board, (ii) will ABSTAIN from voting on the proposal to ratify the appointment of Grant Thornton LLP as independent auditor for the 2008 fiscal year, (iii) will be voted FOR the recommendation that the Board of Directors consider adopting the non-binding shareholder proposal to declassify the Board of Directors, and (iv) will be voted in the discretion of the persons named as proxies on all other matters as may properly come before the Annual Meeting.

You are being asked to elect the Ramius Nominees. The enclosed GOLD proxy card may only be voted for the Ramius Nominees and does not confer voting power with respect to the Company's nominees. Accordingly, you will not have the opportunity to vote for any of Luby's nominees. You can only vote for Luby's nominees by signing and returning a proxy card provided by Luby's Board. Shareholders should refer to the Company's proxy statement for the names, backgrounds, qualifications and other information concerning the Company's nominees. The participants in this solicitation intend to vote all of their Shares in favor of the Ramius Nominees.

QUORUM

The presence in person or by proxy of the holders of a majority of the Shares outstanding will constitute a quorum at the Annual Meeting. Abstentions, withheld votes and broker non-votes will be included in determining the presence of a quorum at the meeting.

VOTES REQUIRED FOR APPROVAL

Vote required for the election of directors. A majority of the votes cast by the Shares present in person or represented by proxy and entitled to vote in the election of directors at the Annual Meeting is required for the election of a director nominee. Broker non-votes will not be included in determining the number of votes cast in the election of directors. Shareholders will not be allowed to cumulate their votes in the election of directors. A shareholder may cast votes for the Ramius Nominees either by so marking the ballot at the Annual Meeting or by specific voting instructions sent with a signed proxy to either the Ramius Group in care of Innisfree M&A Incorporated at the address set forth on the back cover of this Proxy Statement or to Luby's at 13111 Northwest Freeway, Suite 600, Houston, Texas 77040, or any other address provided by Luby's.

Vote required for the ratification of appointment of Grant Thornton LLP. A majority of the votes cast by the Shares present in person or represented by proxy is required to ratify the appointment of Grant Thornton LLP as the independent auditors of the Company's financial statements for the fiscal year ending August 30, 2008.

Vote required to recommend that the Board of Directors consider adoption of the non-binding shareholder proposal to declassify the Board of Directors. A majority of the votes cast by the Shares present in person or represented by proxy is required to recommend that the Board of Directors consider adoption of the non-binding shareholder proposal to declassify the Board of Directors.

ABSTENTIONS AND BROKER NON-VOTES

Abstentions: Abstentions will have no effect in the proposal to ratify the appointment of Grant Thornton LLP as the independent auditors of the Company's financial statements for fiscal 2008 and no effect in the proposal to recommend that the Board of Directors consider adoption of the non-binding shareholder proposal to declassify the Board of Directors.

Broker Non-Votes: Under the rules of the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc., member brokers generally may not vote shares held by them in street name for customers unless they are permitted to do so under the rules of any national securities exchange of which they are a member. Under the rules of the NYSE, member brokers who hold shares in street name for customers have the authority to vote on certain "routine" items in the event that they have not received instructions from beneficial owners. When a proposal is not a "routine" matter and a brokerage firm has not received voting instructions from the beneficial holder of the shares with respect to that proposal, the brokerage firm may not vote the shares for that proposal. This is called a "broker non-vote." Broker non-votes will not be included in determining the number of votes cast in the election of directors. Broker non-votes will have no effect on the proposal to ratify the appointment of Grant Thornton LLP or the proposal to recommend that the Board of Directors consider adoption of the non-binding shareholder proposal to declassify the Board of Directors. Broker non-votes will, however, be included for purposes of determining whether a quorum is present at the Annual Meeting.

DISCRETIONARY VOTING

Shares held in "street name" and held of record by banks, brokers or nominees may not be voted by such banks, brokers or nominees unless the beneficial owners of such Shares provide them with instructions on how to vote. In the alternative, beneficial owners of such Shares may request a proxy for the Shares that they beneficially own and pursuant to such proxy vote the Shares in person at the Annual Meeting.

REVOCAION OF PROXIES

Shareholders of Luby's may revoke their proxies at any time prior to exercise by attending the Annual Meeting and voting in person (although attendance at the Annual Meeting will not in and of itself constitute revocation of a proxy) or by delivering a written notice of revocation. The delivery of a subsequently dated proxy which is properly completed will constitute a revocation of any earlier proxy. The revocation may be delivered either to the Ramius Group in care of Innisfree M&A Incorporated at the address set forth on the back cover of this Proxy Statement or to Luby's at 13111 Northwest Freeway, Suite 600, Houston, Texas 77040, or any other address provided by Luby's. Although a revocation is effective if delivered to Luby's, the Ramius Group requests that either the original or photostatic copies of all revocations be mailed to the Ramius Group in care of Innisfree M&A Incorporated at the address set forth on the back cover of this Proxy Statement so that the Ramius Group will be aware of all revocations and can more accurately determine if and when proxies have been received from the holders of record on the Record Date and the number of outstanding Shares represented thereby. Additionally, Innisfree M&A Incorporated may use this information to contact shareholders who have revoked their proxies in order to solicit later dated proxies for the election of the Ramius Nominees.

IF YOU WISH TO VOTE FOR THE ELECTION OF THE RAMIUS NOMINEES TO THE BOARD, PLEASE SIGN, DATE AND RETURN PROMPTLY THE ENCLOSED GOLD PROXY CARD IN THE POSTAGE-PAID ENVELOPE PROVIDED.
