(NYSE: TYG), Tortoise Energy Capital Corp. (NYSE: TYY) and Tortoise North American Energy Corp. (NYSE: TYN). Acquired Funds

Tortoise Energy Infrastructure Corp. Tortoise Energy Capital Corp. (TYY)
(TYG)

Tortoise North American Energy Corp. (TYN)

The Boards of Directors of TYG, TYY and TYN and Tortoise determined that the proposed mergers are in the best interests of each fund and its stockholders. The funds have similar investment strategies and portfolios focusing primarily on midstream energy infrastructure master limited partnerships (MLPs) and similar investment objectives that seek to provide stockholders a high level of total return, with an emphasis on current distributions. The combined fund will continue to pursue these investment strategies and objectives. Additionally, the mergers are expected to result in several benefits to TYG, TYY and TYN stockholders, including:

- anticipated accretion to distributable cash flow;
- the opportunity for enhanced long-term market liquidity;
- anticipated cost savings through a lower effective management fee and increased economies of scale; and

- greater financial flexibility through a larger balance sheet.

The transaction value will be based on the relative net asset values of each fund. It is currently expected that the mergers will be concluded in the second calendar quarter of 2014, subject to obtaining TYG, TYY and TYN stockholder approval, compliance with all regulatory requirements and satisfaction of customary closing conditions.

A Questions & Answers document regarding the merger proposal can be found here or by visiting the closed-end fund section of www.tortoiseadvisors.com. More information on the proposed mergers will be contained in the proxy materials expected to be filed in the coming weeks. TYG plans to file in the near future with the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) a joint proxy statement/prospectus on Form N-14 8C with respect to the mergers, and each fund expects to mail a definitive joint proxy statement/prospectus to each of its stockholders that will contain information about the proposed mergers following a review period with the SEC.

When filed with the SEC, the joint proxy statement/prospectus and other documents filed by the funds will be available for free at the SEC's Web site, <http://www.sec.gov>. Stockholders can also obtain copies of the definitive joint proxy statement/prospectus, when available, for free by dialing (866) 362-9331. carefully and in its entirety when available as it will contain important information about the proposed mergers.
