Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers
(b) Officer Resignation
On May 6, 2013, Curtiss-Wright Corporation and its subsidiary, Curtiss-Wright Flow Control Corporation and David Linton, the former President of Curtiss-Wright Flow Control Corporation and Vice-President of Curtiss-Wright Corporation, executed a Separation and Release Agreement (the "Release Agreement"), in connection with Mr. Linton' announced resignation from Curtiss-Wright. By mutual agreement, he is stepping down as part of the reorganization of the operational management structure as announced in October 2012.
The Release Agreement provides that Mr. Linton will receive severance benefits to which he is entitled under his Key Employee Severance Agreement that he received as direct report to the Curtiss-Wright's Chief Executive Officer. Under the terms of the Release Agreement, in addition to any accrued, but unpaid compensation and reimbursement for any previously incurred business expenses, Mr. Linton will receive 18 months of salary, subsidized health care continuation coverage under Curtiss-Wright's health care plans for up to 18 months, and one half of his targeted 2013 annual bonus payment. The Release Agreement becomes effective upon expiration of a seven day statutory waiting period, and Curtiss-Wright's obligations are conditioned upon compliance with the terms of the Release Agreement and his compliance with the Agreement's confidentiality, non-competition, and non-solicitation provisions. Pursuant to the Release Agreement, Mr. Linton agreed to release and discharge Curtiss-Wright from, among other things, all claims arising out of or related to or based upon his employment with Curtiss-Wright Corporation or any of its subsidiaries.
