Item 7.01. Regulation FD Disclosure.

State Street Corporation, like other bank holding companies with total consolidated assets of $50 billion or more, periodically submits a plan for rapid and orderly resolution in the event of material financial distress or failure--commonly referred to as a resolution plan or a living will--to the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System and the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation under Section 165(d) of the Dodd-Frank Wall Street Reform and Consumer Protection Act. State Street submitted its 2015 resolution plan to the Federal Reserve and the FDIC on July 1, 2015.

State Street's 2015 resolution plan includes a "public section" providing an overview of State Street's business and its systemic significance, its resolution priorities and strategy, its significant and ongoing efforts to improve resolvability, its material entities, its core business lines and other information required by Rule 165(d) of the Dodd-Frank Act. The Federal Reserve and the FDIC have each announced that they will release the 2015 resolution plan public sections of several large bank holding companies, including State Street, no earlier than July 6, 2015 on their respective websites at www.federalreserve.gov and www.fdic.gov. Following such website postings by the Federal Reserve and the FDIC, State Street expects to post the public section of its 2015 resolution plan on its corporate website at www.statestreet.com/stockholder under the heading "Filings & Reports."
