New Associate Q&A

Will there be any stock option grants before the merger close?

No, under the terms of the merger agreement, we will not be permitted to make an annual option grant. (If you received an option grant on Feb. 4, 2004, this grant just vested, according to its terms, on Dec. 1.)

I am over 55. Will I continue to have the option of taking my pension as a lump sum if I retire after the merger is complete?

Associates vested in the pension plan will not lose any earned benefits, such as lump sum distribution rights. The benefits programs of both companies will be evaluated over the coming months and any changes will be communicated at the appropriate time.

Who bought whom?

This is a merger, in which Sears and Kmart will both be wholly owned by a new company. Sears shareholders will have the ability to receive either stock in the new company or cash in return for their current Sears shares at closing. (Kmart shareholders will all receive stock in the new company.) The new company Sears Holdings Corporation will reflect the Sears name and will be headquartered in Hoffman Estates, the headquarters of Sears, Roebuck and Co. We anticipate that Sears management will be significantly represented in the management of the new company.

This is a merger of equals in that the market value of both companies was roughly the same at the time of the announced transaction. However, since Sears shareholders will have the ability to receive cash for a percentage of shares at closing and Kmart shareholders will not, the Sears equity position will be reduced and the transaction will be deemed an acquisition in the financial sense. The end result of the transaction is two partners coming together in a merger to create a new company, focused on growth, that will strengthen both and accelerate Sears off-mall growth strategy.

Why do Sears shareholders have a cash option?

Sears felt it was important to provide Sears shareholders with a choice between cash or stock to allow them to elect what is best for their individual investment situations. (Subject to pro rata conditions described below).

Upon the close of the merger, is there an option to roll over any of my vested options into the new Sears Holdings Corporation?

No, you can not roll over any options into the Sears Holdings Corporation.

Are there tax advantages to selling now or waiting until the merger close?

Whether you choose to sell now or wait until the merger close, the tax treatment of the cash payment is the same, but the amount of tax will depend upon your total income and your tax bracket. You may wish to consult with a financial advisor.

What is the value of my stock options at the close of the Sears/Kmart merger?

You will receive a cash payment for all unexercised stock options you hold at the merger close, based on the difference of the blended merger price and the options grant price (less taxes). The blended merger price is based on the following formula: $(45\% \times $50) + (55\% \times 1/2 \text{ of the Kmart stock price at closing})$.

Example 1: If Kmart stock price is $101* at the time the merger closes, the blended merger price is: $(45\% \times $50) + (55\% \times 1/2 \text{ of } $101^*) = $22.50 + $27.77 = $50.27$. If your option grant price is $44.53 and you were granted 100 options, your cash payment would be $574 (less applicable taxes).

$50.27	(blended merger price)
-$44.53	(2004 option grant price)
$5.74	(value per share, less applicable taxes)
x
100	(number of stock options granted)
$574	(cash payment, less applicable taxes)

Example 2: If Kmart stock price is $101* at the time the merger closes, the blended merger price is: $(45\% \times $50) + (55\% \times 1/2 \text{ of } $101^*) = $22.50 + $27.77 = $50.27$. If your option grant price is $21.64 and you were granted 100 options, your cash payment would be $2,863 (less applicable taxes).

$50.27	(blended merger price)
-$21.64	(2003 option grant price)
$28.63	(value per share, less applicable taxes)
x
100	(number of stock options granted)
$2,863	(cash payment, less applicable taxes)

 The prices in the examples are for illustrative purposes only

What if the blended merger price is less than the option price of my options that were granted to me?

If the blended merger price is less than the option price of the shares granted to you, your cash value for these options would be $0.

If I decide to exercise my vested stock options prior to the close, will I be charged a broker fee? Smith Barney, the company that Sears utilizes to service all stock option participants, charges a broker fee, similar to other stock market brokers. The commission schedule is a sliding scale ($30 fee minimum per transaction):

1-500 shares	$.10 per share
501 1,000 shares	$.08 per share
1,001-5,000 shares	$.06 per share
5001 shares & up	$.05 per share

If you decide to exercise, a check will be mailed to you from Smith Barney 3-4 business days after the transaction.

If I decide to wait until the merger close, will broker fees be applied?

No, broker fees will not be applied.
