1. The Company and Basis of Presentation

Cinemark Holdings, Inc. and subsidiaries (the Company) is a leader in the motion picture exhibition industry, with theatres in the United States (U.S.), Canada, Brazil, Mexico, Chile, Colombia, Argentina, Ecuador, Peru, Honduras, El Salvador, Nicaragua, Costa Rica, Panama and Guatemala. The Company also managed additional theatres in the U.S., Brazil, and Colombia during the nine months ended September 30, 2010.

The condensed consolidated financial statements have been prepared by the Company, without audit, according to the rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission. In the opinion of management, these interim financial statements reflect all adjustments of a recurring nature necessary to state fairly the financial position and results of operations as of, and for, the periods indicated. Majority-owned subsidiaries that the Company has control of are consolidated while those affiliates of which the Company owns between 20% and 50% and does not control are accounted for under the equity method. Those affiliates of which the Company owns less than 20% are generally accounted for under the cost method, unless the Company is deemed to have the ability to exercise significant influence over the affiliate, in which case the Company would account for its investment under the equity method. The results of these subsidiaries and affiliates are included in the condensed consolidated financial statements effective with their formation or from their dates of acquisition. Intercompany balances and transactions are eliminated in consolidation.

These condensed consolidated financial statements should be read in conjunction with the audited annual consolidated financial statements and the notes thereto for the year ended December 31, 2009, included in the Annual Report on Form 10-K filed March 10, 2010 by the Company under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the Exchange Act). Operating results for the nine months ended September 30, 2010 are not necessarily indicative of the results to be achieved for the full year.

2. New Accounting Pronouncements

In December 2009, the Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) issued Accounting Standards Update (ASU) No. 2009-17, Consolidations (Topic 810) Improvements to Financial Reporting by Enterprises Involved with Variable Interest Entities (ASU No. 2009-17). ASU No. 2009-17 changes how a reporting entity determines when an entity that is insufficiently capitalized or is not controlled through voting (or similar rights) should be consolidated. The determination of whether a reporting entity is required to consolidate another entity is based on, among other things, the other entity s purpose and design and the reporting entity s ability to direct the activities of the other entity that most significantly impact the other entity s economic performance. ASU No. 2009-17 requires a reporting entity to provide additional disclosures about its involvement with variable interest entities and any significant changes in risk exposure due to that involvement. A reporting entity is required to disclose how its involvement with a variable interest entity affects the reporting entity s financial statements. ASU No. 2009-17 is effective for fiscal years beginning after November 15, 2009, and interim periods within those fiscal years. The Company adopted ASU No. 2009-17 as of January 1, 2010, and its application had no impact on the Company s condensed consolidated financial statements.

In January 2010, the FASB issued ASU No. 2010-06, Fair Value Measurements and Disclosures: Improving Disclosures about Fair Value Measurements (ASU No. 2010-06), which amends FASB ASC Topic 820-10, Fair Value Measurements and Disclosures . The update requires additional disclosures for transfers in and out of Levels 1 and 2 and for activity in Level 3 and clarifies certain other existing disclosure requirements. The Company adopted ASU No. 2010-06 beginning January 1, 2010. This update did not have a significant impact on the Company s disclosures.

In August 2010, the FASB issued ASU No. 2010-21, Accounting for Technical Amendments to Various SEC Rules and Schedules (ASU No. 2010-21). This update amends various SEC paragraphs in the FASB Accounting Standards Codification pursuant to SEC Final Rule, Technical Amendments to Rules Forms, Schedules and Codification of Financial Reporting Policies . The adoption of ASU No. 2010-21 did not affect the Company s condensed consolidated financial statements.

In August 2010, the FASB issued ASU No. 2010-22, Accounting for Various Topics (ASU No. 2010-22), which amends various SEC paragraphs based on external comments received and the issuance of SAB 112. SAB 112 was issued to bring existing SEC guidance into conformity with ASC Topic 805, Business Combination and ASC

3. Earnings Per Share

The Company considers its unvested share based payment awards, which contain non-forfeitable rights to dividends, participating securities, and includes such participating securities in its computation of earnings per share pursuant to the two-class method. Basic earnings per share for the two classes of stock (common stock and unvested restricted stock) is calculated by dividing net income by the weighted average number of shares of common stock and unvested restricted stock outstanding during the reporting period. Diluted earnings per share is calculated using the weighted average number of shares of common stock and unvested restricted stock plus the potentially dilutive effect of common equivalent shares outstanding determined under both the two class method and the treasury stock method. For the three and nine months ended September 30, 2009, basic and diluted earnings per share were the same under both the two class method and the treasury stock method. For the three months ended September 30, 2010, basic and diluted earnings per share was $0.29 under the two class method compared to $0.30 under the treasury stock method. For the nine months ended September 30, 2010, basic earnings per share was $0.96 under the two class method compared to $0.97 under the treasury stock method. For the nine months ended September 30, 2010, diluted earnings per share was the same under the two class method and the treasury stock method.

The following table presents computations of basic and diluted earnings per share under the two class method:

(1) For the three months ended

September 30, 2010 and 2009, a weighted average of approximately 1,251 and 767 shares of unvested restricted stock, respectively, are considered participating securities. For the nine months ended September 30, 2010 and 2009, a weighted average of approximately 1,017 and 606 shares of unvested restricted stock, respectively, are considered participating securities.

4. Buyout of Colombia Noncontrolling Interest

During April 2010, the Company s partners in Colombia (the Colombian Partners) exercised an option available to them under an Exchange Option Agreement dated April 9, 2007 between the Company and the Colombian Partners (the Exchange Option Agreement). Under this option, which was contingent upon completion of an initial public offering of common stock by the Company, the Colombian Partners were entitled to exchange their shares in Cinemark Colombia S.A. for shares of the Company s common stock (the Colombia Share Exchange). The number of shares to be exchanged was determined based on the Company s equity value and the equity value of the Colombian Partners interest in Cinemark Colombia S.A., both of which are defined in the Exchange Option Agreement. As a result of the Colombia Share Exchange, on June 14, 2010, the Company issued 1,112,723 shares of its common stock to the Colombian Partners. The increase in the Company s ownership interest in its Colombian subsidiary was accounted for as an equity transaction. The Company recorded an increase in additional-paid-in-capital of approximately $6,951, which represented the book value of the Colombian partners noncontrolling interest account of approximately $5,865 plus the Colombian partners share of accumulated other comprehensive loss of approximately $1,086. As a result of this transaction, the Company owns 100% of the shares in Cinemark Colombia S.A.

The Company incurred approximately $113 in transaction costs, which are reflected in general and administrative expenses on the condensed consolidated statement of income for the nine months ended September 30, 2009.

result of this extraordinary common unit adjustment, the founding member was granted additional common units of NCM, which resulted in dilution of the Company s ownership interest in NCM from 16.3% to 15.4%. The Company recognized a change of interest gain of approximately $271 during the nine months ended September 30, 2010 as a result of this extraordinary common unit adjustment, which is reflected net of other losses in loss on sale of assets and other on the condensed consolidated statement of income.

8. Investment in Digital Cinema Implementation Partners

On February 12, 2007, the Company, AMC Entertainment Inc. and Regal Entertainment Group entered into a joint venture known as Digital Cinema Implementation Partners LLC (DCIP) to facilitate the implementation of digital cinema in the Company s theatres and to establish agreements with major motion picture studios for the financing of digital cinema.

During January 2010, the Company contributed $500 to DCIP. On March 10, 2010, the Company signed a master equipment lease agreement and other related agreements (collectively the agreements) with Kasima LLC (Kasima), which is an indirect subsidiary of DCIP and a related party to the Company. Upon signing the agreements, the Company contributed cash of $1,201 and digital projection systems at a fair value of $16,380 to DCIP (collectively the contributions), which DCIP then contributed to Kasima. The net book value of the contributed equipment was approximately $18,090, and as a result, the Company recorded a loss of approximately $1,710, which is reflected in loss on sale of assets and other on the condensed consolidated statement of income for the nine months ended September 30, 2010. On April 24, 2010, the Company sold digital projection systems with a net book value of approximately $1,520 to Kasima for approximately $1,197, resulting in an additional loss of approximately $323, which is reflected in loss on sale of assets and other on the condensed consolidated statement of income for the nine months ended September 30, 2010. The Company has made subsequent cash capital contributions of $866 and received distributions of $1,068 from DCIP since the date of the agreements. As of September 30, 2010, the Company continues to have a 33% voting interest in DCIP and has a 24.3% economic interest in DCIP.

The Company has a variable interest in Kasima through the terms of its master equipment lease agreement; however, the Company has determined that it is not the primary beneficiary of Kasima, as the Company does not have the ability to direct the activities of Kasima that most significantly impact Kasima s economic performance. The Company accounts for its investment in DCIP and its subsidiaries under the equity method of accounting. During the nine months ended September 30, 2010 and 2009, the Company recorded equity losses of $8,644 and $2,508, respectively, relating to this investment. Below is a summary of activity with DCIP for the nine months ended September 30, 2010:

Distributions received from DCIP	(1,068)

As a result of these agreements, the Company will continue to roll out digital projection systems to a majority of its first run U.S. theatres. The digital projection systems will be leased from Kasima under an operating lease with an initial term of twelve years that contains ten one-year fair value renewal options. The equipment lease agreement also contains a fair value purchase option. Under the equipment lease agreement, the Company pays minimum annual rent of one thousand dollars per digital projection system for the first six and a half years from the effective date of the agreement and minimum annual rent of three thousand dollars per digital projection system beginning at six and a half years from the effective date through the end of the lease term. The Company may also be subject to various types of other rent if such digital projection systems do not meet minimum performance requirements as outlined in the agreements. Certain of the other rent payments are subject to either a monthly or an annual maximum. As of September 30, 2010, the Company had 998 digital projection systems being leased under the master equipment lease agreement with Kasima. The Company recorded equipment lease expense of approximately $434 and $685 during the three and nine months ended September 30, 2010, respectively, which is included in utilities and other costs on the condensed consolidated statement of income.

The digital projection systems leased from Kasima will replace a majority of the Company s existing 35 millimeter projection systems in its U.S. theatres. Therefore, upon signing the agreements, the Company began accelerating the depreciation of these existing 35 millimeter projection systems, based on the estimated two year replacement timeframe. The Company recorded depreciation expense of approximately $5,981 on its domestic 35 millimeter projectors during the nine months ended September 30, 2010. The net book value of the existing 35 millimeter projection systems to be replaced was approximately $13,391 as of September 30, 2010.

9. Investment in Real D

Under its license agreement with Real D, the Company earns options to purchase shares of common stock once it has installed a certain number of 3-D systems as outlined in the license agreement. During June 2010, the Company reached the first target level and vested in 407,593 options to purchase shares of common stock in Real D, which have an exercise price of $0.00667 (Real D Options). Upon vesting in these options, the Company recorded an investment in Real D of approximately $6,521, which represents the estimated fair value of the options, with an offset to deferred lease incentive liability. The fair value of the options was determined using Real D s initial public offering price, which falls under Level 2 of the U.S. GAAP fair value hierarchy as defined by ASC Topic 820-10-35. The deferred lease incentive liability, which is reflected in other long-term liabilities on the condensed consolidated balance sheet as of September 30, 2010, is being amortized over the remaining term of the license agreement, which is approximately seven and one-half years.

During September 2010, the Company vested in an additional 499,708 Real D options by reaching the second target level and a pro-rata portion of the third target level, as outlined in the license agreement. Upon vesting in these additional 499,708 options, the Company increased its investment in Real D and its deferred lease incentive by approximately $8,117, which represented the estimated fair value of the Real D options. The fair value measurements were based upon Real D s closing stock prices on the dates of vesting, discounted to reflect the impact of the lock-up period to which the Company is subject until January 2011. The discount applied was based on the volatility of closing stock prices for Real D s peer group for a similar duration as the remaining lock-up period. These fair value measurements fall under Level 2 of the U.S. GAAP fair value hierarchy as defined by ASC Topic 820-10-35.

Prior to the completion of Real D s initial public offering, the Company accounted for its investment in Real D as a cost method investment. Subsequent to the completion of Real D s initial public offering, which occurred during July 2010, the Company is accounting for its investment in Real D as a marketable security. The Company has determined that its Real D options are available for sale securities in accordance with ASC Topic 320-10-35-1, therefore unrealized holding gains and losses are reported as a component of accumulated other comprehensive income (loss) until realized.

As of September 30, 2010, the Company had vested in a total of 907,301 Real D options, with an estimated fair value of $15,994. The fair value of the Real D options as of September 30, 2010 was determined based upon the closing price of Real D s common stock on that date, discounted to reflect the lock-up period to which the Company is subject until January 2011, which falls under Level 2 of the U.S. GAAP fair value hierarchy as defined by ASC Topic 820-10-35. During the three and nine months ended September 30, 2010, the Company recorded an unrealized holding gain of approximately $1,356 as a component of accumulated other comprehensive income (loss).

Under the license agreement, the Company can earn up to an additional 315,478 Real D options as it meets additional 3-D system installation targets as outlined in the license agreement.

The Company also repurchased 35,298 shares of common stock at an aggregate cost of $531 as a result of the noncash exercises of stock options by employees. In a noncash exercise of stock options, the exercise price for the shares to be held by employees and the related minimum tax withholdings are satisfied with stock withholdings. As part of these noncash exercises, employees exercised a total of 54,114 options and of this amount, 35,298 shares were repurchased by the Company to satisfy the exercise price and tax liabilities. As of September 30, 2010, the Company had no plans to retire any shares of treasury stock.

restricted stock granted to directors vests over periods ranging from six months to one year and the restricted stock granted to employees vest over four years based on continued service.

Below is a summary of restricted stock activity for the nine months ended September 30, 2010:

	Shares of Restricted Stock	Weighted Average Grant Date Fair Value
Outstanding at December 31, 2009	764,078	$ 11.10

Unvested restricted stock at September 30, 2010	1,250,782	$ 14.58

The Company recorded compensation expense of $3,507 related to these restricted stock awards during the nine months ended September 30, 2010. As of September 30, 2010, the remaining unrecognized compensation expense related to restricted stock awards was $13,823 and the weighted average period over which this remaining compensation expense will be recognized is approximately three years. Upon vesting, the Company receives an income tax deduction. The total fair value of shares that vested during the nine months ended September 30, 2010 was $3,260. The Company recognized a tax benefit of approximately $1,229 related to these vested shares. The recipients of restricted stock are entitled to receive dividends and to vote their respective shares, however the sale and transfer of the restricted shares is prohibited during the restriction period.

Restricted Stock Units During the nine months ended September 30, 2010, the Company granted restricted stock units representing 396,432 hypothetical shares of common stock under the Restated Incentive Plan. The restricted stock units vest based on a combination of financial performance factors and continued service. The financial performance factors are based on an implied equity value concept that determines an internal rate of return (IRR) during the three fiscal year period ending December 31, 2012 based on a formula utilizing a multiple of Adjusted EBITDA subject to certain specified adjustments (as defined in the restricted stock unit award agreement). The financial performance factors for the restricted stock units have a threshold, target and maximum level of payment opportunity. If the IRR for the three year period is at least 8.5%, which is the threshold, one-third of the restricted stock units vest. If the IRR for the three year period is at least 10.5%, which is the target, two-thirds of the restricted stock units vest. If the IRR for the three year period is at least 12.5%, which is the maximum, 100% of the restricted stock units vest. Grantees are eligible to receive a ratable portion of the common stock issuable if the IRR is within the targets previously noted. All payouts of restricted stock units that vest will be subject to an additional service requirement and will be paid in the form of common stock if the participant continues to provide services through March 31, 2014, which is the fourth anniversary of the grant date. Restricted stock unit award participants are eligible to receive dividend equivalent payments if and at the time the restricted stock unit awards are paid out.

Below is a table summarizing the potential number of shares that could vest under restricted stock unit awards granted during the nine months ended September 30, 2010 at each of the three target levels of financial performance (excluding forfeiture assumptions):

Number of

	Shares Vesting	Value at Grant
at IRR of at least 8.5%	132,144	$ 2,423
at IRR of at least 10.5%	264,288	$ 4,847
at IRR of at least 12.5%	396,432	$ 7,271

Due to the fact that the IRR for the three year performance period could not be determined at the time of grant, the Company estimated that the most likely outcome is the achievement of the mid-point IRR level. The Company assumed a forfeiture rate of 5% for the restricted stock unit awards. If during the service period, additional information becomes available to lead the Company to believe a different IRR level will be achieved for the three year performance period, the Company will reassess the number of units that will vest for the grant and adjust its compensation expense accordingly on a prospective basis over the remaining service period.

During the nine months ended September 30, 2010, the Compensation Committee of the Company s board of directors approved a modification of restricted stock unit awards granted to employees during 2008. The Compensation Committee also approved the cancellation and replacement of restricted stock unit awards granted to the Company s top five executive officers during 2008. Both the modification and the cancellation and replacement were accounted for as modifications of share based awards. As a result of these modifications, the Company recorded incremental compensation expense of approximately $435 during the nine months ended September 30, 2010, which represents the difference between the grant date fair value and the modification date fair value of these awards for the portion of the service period that has been satisfied. The service period for the modified awards did not change. The Company will record additional incremental compensation expense of $261 over the remaining service period.

No restricted stock unit awards have vested. There were no forfeitures of restricted stock unit awards during the nine months ended September 30, 2010. The Company recorded compensation expense of $1,672 related to these restricted stock unit awards during the nine months ended September 30, 2010, including the aforementioned $435 related to the modification of the 2008 restricted stock unit awards. As of September 30, 2010, the Company had restricted stock units outstanding that represented a total of 884,042 hypothetical shares of common stock, net of actual cumulative forfeitures of 19,919 units, assuming the maximum IRR of at least 12.5% is achieved for all of the grants. As of September 30, 2010, the remaining unrecognized compensation expense related to the outstanding restricted stock unit awards was $6,071, which assumes the mid-point IRR level will be achieved for all of the restricted stock units outstanding. The weighted average period over which this remaining compensation expense will be recognized is approximately three years.

The amendment also imposed a 1.0% prepayment premium for one year on certain prepayments of the extended portion of the term loan debt. As of September 30, 2010, there was $1,075,473 outstanding under the term loan. The interest rate on the original term loan debt that was not extended accrues interest, at Cinemark USA, Inc. s option, at: (A) the base rate equal to the higher of (1) the prime lending rate as set forth on the British Banking Association Telerate page 5, or (2) the federal funds effective rate from time to time plus 0.50% (the base rate), plus a margin that ranges from 0.50% to 0.75% per annum, or (B) a eurodollar rate plus a margin that ranges from 1.50% to 1.75%, per annum. The interest rate on the extended portion of the term loan debt accrues interest, at Cinemark USA, Inc. s option at: (A) the base rate equal to the higher of (1) the prime lending rate as set forth on the British Banking Association Telerate page 5, or (2) the federal funds effective rate from time to time plus 0.50%, plus a 2.25% margin per annum, or (B) a eurodollar rate plus a 3.25% margin per annum.

In addition, the maturity date of $73,500 of Cinemark USA, Inc. s $150,000 revolving credit line has been extended from October 2012 to March 2015. The maturity date of the remaining $76,500 of Cinemark USA, Inc. s revolving credit line did not change and remains October 2012. As of September 30, 2010, the Company had no borrowings outstanding under the revolving credit line. The interest rate on the original revolving credit line accrues interest, at Cinemark USA, Inc. s option, at: (A) a base rate equal to the higher of (1) the prime lending rate as set forth on the British Banking Association Telerate page 5 and (2) the federal funds effective rate from time to time plus 0.50%, plus a margin that ranges from 0.50% to 1.00% per annum, or (B) a eurodollar rate plus a margin that ranges from 1.50% to 2.00% per annum. The interest rate on the extended revolving credit line accrues interest, at Cinemark USA, Inc. s option at: (A) the base rate equal to the higher of (1) the prime lending rate as set forth on the British Banking Association Telerate page 5, or (2) the federal funds effective rate from time to time plus 0.50%, plus a margin that ranges from 1.75% to 2.0% per annum, or (B) a eurodollar rate plus a margin that ranges from 2.75% to 3.0% per annum. The margin of the revolving credit line is determined by the consolidated net senior secured leverage ratio as defined in the credit agreement.

The Company incurred debt issue costs of approximately $8,849 during the nine months ended September 30, 2010 related to the amendment and extension of its senior secured credit facility. These costs will be amortized over the remaining term of the facility.

Fair Value of Long-Term Debt

The Company estimates the fair value of its long-term debt primarily using quoted market prices, which fall under Level 2 of the U.S. GAAP fair value hierarchy as defined by FASB ASC Topic 820-10-35. The carrying value of the Company s long-term debt was $1,535,129 and $1,543,705 as of September 30, 2010 and December 31, 2009, respectively. The fair value of the Company s long-term debt was $1,568,593 and $1,513,838 as of September 30, 2010 and December 31, 2009, respectively.

12. Interest Rate Swap Agreements

As of September 30, 2010, the Company had two interest rate swap agreements that cover $300,000 of variable rate debt, both of which qualify for cash flow hedge accounting. The fair values of the interest rate swaps are recorded on the Company s condensed consolidated balance sheet as an asset or liability with the effective portion of the interest rate swaps gains or losses reported as a component of accumulated other comprehensive income (loss) and the ineffective portion reported in earnings. The evaluation technique used to determine fair value is the income approach and under this approach, the Company uses projected future interest rates as provided by counterparties to the interest rate swap agreements and the fixed rates that the Company is obligated to pay under these agreements. The Company s measurements use significant unobservable inputs, which fall in Level 3 of the U.S. GAAP fair value hierarchy as defined by FASB ASC Topic 820-10-35. There were no changes in valuation techniques during the period, no transfers in or out of Level 3 and no gains or losses included in earnings that were attributable to the change in unrealized gains or losses related to the interest rate swap agreements.

As of September 30, 2010, the aggregate fair values of the two interest rate swap agreements was a liability of approximately $18,887 which has been recorded as a component of other long-term liabilities. A corresponding cumulative amount of $11,593, which is net of deferred taxes of $7,294, has been recorded as a decrease in accumulated other comprehensive income on the Company s condensed consolidated balance sheet as of September 30, 2010. The interest rate swaps exhibited no ineffectiveness during the nine months ended September 30, 2010.

Below is a reconciliation of our interest rate swap values from January 1 to September 30:

Beginning liability balance January 1	$ 18,524	$ 24,781
Total (gain) loss included in accumulated other comprehensive income (loss)	363	(4,434)
Ending liability balance September 30	$ 18,887	$ 20,347

The Company amortized approximately $3,475 to interest expense during each of the nine months ended September 30, 2009 and 2010, related to a previously terminated interest rate swap agreement. The Company will amortize approximately $4,634 to interest expense for this terminated interest rate swap agreement over the next twelve months.

13. Goodwill and Other Intangible Assets

The Company s goodwill was as follows:

	U.S. Operating Segment	International Operating Segment	Total
Balance at December 31, 2009 [(1)]	$ 948,026	$ 168,276	$ 1,116,302
Foreign currency translation adjustments		4,564	4,564
Balance at September 30, 2010 [(1)]	$ 948,026	$ 172,840	$ 1,120,866

(1) Balances are presented net of accumulated impairment losses of $214,031 for the U.S. operating segment and $27,622 for the international operating segment.

The Company evaluates goodwill for impairment on an annual basis during the fourth quarter or whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate the carrying value of goodwill might exceed its estimated fair value.

The Company evaluates goodwill for impairment at the reporting unit level and has allocated goodwill to the reporting unit based on an estimate of its relative fair value. The Company considers the reporting unit to be each of its sixteen regions in the U.S. and each of its eight countries internationally (Honduras, El Salvador, Nicaragua, Costa Rica, Panama and Guatemala are considered one reporting unit). Goodwill impairment is evaluated using a two-step approach requiring the Company to compute the fair value of a reporting unit and compare it with its carrying value. If the carrying value of the reporting unit exceeds the estimated fair value, a second step is performed to measure the potential goodwill impairment. Significant judgment is involved in estimating cash flows and fair value. Management s estimates, which fall under Level 3 of the U.S. GAAP fair value hierarchy as defined by FASB ASC Topic 820-10-35, are based on historical and projected operating performance, recent market transactions and current industry trading multiples. Fair value is determined based on a multiple of cash flows, which was six and a half times for the evaluation performed during the fourth quarter of 2009. No events or changes in circumstances occurred during the nine months ended September 30, 2010, that indicated that the carrying value of goodwill might exceed its estimated fair value.

14. Impairment of Long-Lived Assets

The Company reviews long-lived assets for impairment indicators on a quarterly basis or whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate the carrying amount of the assets may not be fully recoverable.

The Company considers actual theatre level cash flows, future years budgeted theatre level cash flows, theatre property and equipment carrying values, amortizing intangible asset carrying values, the age of a recently built theatre, competitive theatres in the marketplace, changes in foreign currency exchange rates, the impact of recent ticket price changes, available lease renewal options and other factors considered relevant in its assessment of impairment of individual theatre assets. Long-lived assets are evaluated for impairment on an individual theatre basis, which the Company believes is the lowest applicable level for which there are identifiable cash flows. The impairment evaluation is based on the estimated undiscounted cash flows from continuing use through the remainder of the theatre s useful life. The remainder of the useful life correlates with the available remaining lease period, which includes the probability of renewal periods for leased properties and a period of twenty years for fee owned properties. If the estimated undiscounted cash flows are not sufficient to recover a long-lived asset s carrying value, the Company then compares the carrying value of the asset group (theatre) with its estimated fair value. When estimated fair value is determined to be lower than the carrying value of the asset group (theatre), the asset group (theatre) is written down to its estimated fair value. As of September 30, 2010, the estimated aggregate fair value of the long-lived assets impaired during the nine months ended September 30, 2010 was approximately $4,739.

Significant judgment is involved in estimating cash flows and fair value. Management s estimates, which fall under Level 3 of the U.S. GAAP fair value hierarchy as defined by FASB ASC Topic 820-10-35, are based on historical and projected operating performance, recent market transactions and current industry trading multiples. Fair value is determined based on a multiple of cash flows, which was six and a half times for the evaluations performed during the nine months ended September 30, 2009 and 2010.

15. Fair Value Measurements

The Company determines fair value measurements in accordance with FASB ASC Topic 820, which establishes a fair value hierarchy under which an asset or liability is categorized based on the lowest level of input significant to its fair value measurement. The levels of input defined by FASB ASC Topic 820 are as follows:

Level 1 quoted market prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities that are accessible at the measurement date;

Level 2 other than quoted market prices included in Level 1 that are observable for the asset or liability, either directly or indirectly; and

Level 3 unobservable and should be used to measure fair value to the extent that observable inputs are not available.

Below is a summary of assets and liabilities measured at fair value on a recurring basis by the Company under FASB ASC Topic 820 as of September 30, 2010:

	Carrying	Fair Value
Description	Value	Level 1	Level 2	Level 3

16. Foreign Currency Translation

The accumulated other comprehensive income (loss) account in stockholders equity of ($7,459) and $9,752 at December 31, 2009 and September 30, 2010, respectively, includes the cumulative foreign currency adjustments of $16,070 and $28,678, respectively, from translating the financial statements of the Company s international subsidiaries, and also includes the change in fair values of the Company s interest rate swap agreements.

In 2009 and 2010, all foreign countries where the Company has operations were deemed non-highly inflationary and the local currency is the same as the functional currency in all of the locations. Thus, any fluctuation in the currency results in a cumulative foreign currency translation adjustment recorded to accumulated other comprehensive income (loss).

On September 30, 2010, the exchange rate for the Brazilian real was 1.71 reais to the U.S. dollar (the exchange rate was 1.75 reais to the U.S. dollar at December 31, 2009). As a result, the effect of translating the September 30, 2010 Brazilian financial statements into U.S. dollars is reflected as a foreign currency translation adjustment to the accumulated other comprehensive income (loss) account as an increase in stockholders equity of $5,051. At September 30, 2010, the total assets of the Company s Brazilian subsidiaries were U.S. $299,595.

On September 30, 2010, the exchange rate for the Mexican peso was 12.49 pesos to the U.S. dollar (the exchange rate was 13.04 pesos to the U.S. dollar at December 31, 2009). As a result, the effect of translating the September 30, 2010 Mexican financial statements into U.S. dollars is reflected as a foreign currency translation adjustment to the accumulated other comprehensive income (loss) account as an increase in stockholders equity of $3,962. At September 30, 2010, the total assets of the Company s Mexican subsidiaries were U.S. $123,937.

On September 30, 2010, the exchange rate for the Colombian peso was 1,814.77 pesos to the U.S. dollar (the exchange rate was 2,064.63 pesos to the U.S. dollar at December 31, 2009). As a result, the effect of translating the September 30, 2010 Colombian financial statements into U.S. dollars is reflected as a foreign currency translation adjustment to the accumulated other comprehensive income (loss) account as an increase in stockholders equity of $2,539. At September 30, 2010, the total assets of the Company s Colombian subsidiaries were U.S. $25,421.

On September 30, 2010, the exchange rate for the Chilean peso was 489.46 pesos to the U.S. dollar (the exchange rate was 519.30 pesos to the U.S. dollar at December 31, 2009). As a result, the effect of translating the September 30, 2010 Chilean financial statements into U.S. dollars is reflected as a foreign currency translation adjustment to the accumulated other comprehensive income (loss) account as an increase in stockholders equity of $1,426. At September 30, 2010, the total assets of the Company s Chilean subsidiaries were U.S. $36,274.

The effect of translating the September 30, 2010 financial statements of the Company s other international subsidiaries, with local currencies other than the U.S. dollar, is reflected as a foreign currency translation adjustment to the accumulated other comprehensive income (loss) account as an increase in stockholders equity of $716.

During June 2010, the Company s ownership in its Colombian subsidiary increased from 50.1% to 100%, as a result of the Colombia Share Exchange. As part of this transaction, the Company recorded the amount of accumulated other comprehensive loss previously allocated to the noncontrolling interest of $1,086 to accumulated other comprehensive income (loss) with an offsetting credit to additional paid-in-capital. See Note 4.

The Company closed this theatre during March 2010. The Company recorded $89 and $30 of facility lease and other operating expenses payable to Plitt Plaza joint venture during the nine months ended September 30, 2009 and 2010, respectively. The Company manages one theatre for Laredo Theatre, Ltd. (Laredo). The Company is the sole general partner and owns 75% of the limited partnership interests of Laredo. Lone Star Theatres, Inc. owns the remaining 25% of the limited partnership interests in Laredo and is 100% owned by Mr. David Roberts, Lee Roy Mitchell s son-in-law. Under the agreement, management fees are paid by Laredo to the Company at a rate of 5% of annual theatre revenues up to $50,000 and 3% of annual theatre revenues in excess of $50,000. The Company recorded $81 and $82 of management fee revenues during the nine months ended September 30, 2009 and 2010, respectively. All such amounts are included in the Company s condensed consolidated financial statements with the intercompany amounts eliminated in consolidation.

The Company leases 21 theatres and one parking facility from Syufy Enterprises, LP (Syufy) or affiliates of Syufy. Raymond Syufy is one of the Company s directors and is an officer of the general partner of Syufy. Of these 22 leases, 18 have fixed minimum annual rent in an aggregate amount of approximately $21,029. The four leases without minimum annual rent have rent based upon a specified percentage of gross sales as defined in the lease with no minimum annual rent. For the nine months ended September 30, 2009 and 2010, the Company paid approximately $1,257 and $1,046, respectively, in percentage rent for these four leases.

20. Income Taxes

During the nine months ended September 30, 2010, the Company had a reduction in its liabilities for uncertain tax positions, of which approximately $14,230 was due to settlements and closures of various tax years. These settlements and closures also resulted in a reduction in income tax expense of approximately $8,655 for the nine months ended September 30, 2010.

21. Commitments and Contingencies

From time to time, the Company is involved in various legal proceedings arising from the ordinary course of its business operations, such as personal injury claims, employment matters, landlord-tenant disputes and contractual disputes, some of which are covered by insurance. The Company believes its potential liability with respect to proceedings currently pending is not material, individually or in the aggregate, to the Company s financial position, results of operations and cash flows.

22. Subsequent Event Interest Rate Swap Agreements

During October 2010, the Company entered into an interest rate swap agreement with an effective date of December 2010 and an approximate five year term. The interest rate swap agreement has been designated to hedge approximately $175,000 of the Company s variable rate debt obligations under its senior secured credit facility for approximately five years. Under the terms of the agreement, the Company will pay a fixed rate of 1.3975% on $175,000 of variable rate debt and will receive interest from the counterparty to the agreement at a variable rate based on the 1-month LIBOR. The 1-month LIBOR on each reset date will determine the variable portion of the interest rate swap for the one-month period following the reset date. No premium or discount was incurred upon the Company entering into the interest rate swap agreement because the pay and receive rates on the interest rate swap agreement represented prevailing rates for each counterparty at the time the interest rate swap agreement was consummated.

During November 2010, the Company entered into an interest rate swap agreement with an effective date of December 2010 and an approximate five year term. The interest rate swap agreement has been designated to hedge approximately $175,000 of the Company s variable rate debt obligations under its senior secured credit facility for approximately five years. Under the terms of the agreement, the Company will pay a fixed rate of 1.40% on $175,000 of variable rate debt and will receive interest from the counterparty to the agreement at a variable rate based on the 1-month LIBOR. The 1-month LIBOR on each reset date will determine the variable portion of the interest rate swap for the one-month period following the reset date. No premium or discount was incurred upon the Company entering into the interest rate swap agreement because the pay and receive rates on the interest rate swap agreement represented prevailing rates for each counterparty at the time the interest rate swap agreement was consummated.

23. Subsequent Event Dividend Declaration

On November 2, 2010, the Company s board of directors declared a cash dividend in the amount of $0.21 per common share payable to stockholders of record on November 22, 2010. The dividend will be paid on December 7, 2010.

Item 2. Management s Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations

The following discussion and analysis should be read in conjunction with our condensed consolidated financial statements and related notes and schedules included elsewhere in this report.

We are a leader in the motion picture exhibition industry, with theatres in the U.S., Canada, Brazil, Mexico, Chile, Colombia, Argentina, Ecuador, Peru, Honduras, El Salvador, Nicaragua, Costa Rica, Panama and Guatemala. As of September 30, 2010, we managed our business under two reportable operating segments U.S. markets and international markets, in accordance with FASB ASC Topic 280, Segment Reporting. See Note 18 to our condensed consolidated financial statements.

We generate revenues primarily from box office receipts and concession sales with additional revenues from screen advertising sales and other revenue streams, such as vendor marketing programs, pay phones, ATM machines and electronic video games located in some of our theatres. Our contracts with NCM have assisted us in expanding our offerings to advertisers and broadening ancillary revenue sources such as digital video monitor advertising, third party branding, and the use of theatres for alternative content events, such as concerts, sporting events, and other cultural events. Films driving the box office during the nine months ended September 30, 2010 included the carryover of Avatar, which grossed over $450 million in U.S. box office revenues during the period and new releases such as Alice in Wonderland, How to Train Your Dragon, Clash of the Titans, Iron Man 2, Shrek Forever After, The Karate Kid, Toy Story 3, The Twilight Saga: Eclipse, Inception, Despicable Me, Grown Ups, The Other Guys, The Expendables and Salt. Our revenues are affected by changes in attendance and average admissions and concession revenues per patron. Attendance is primarily affected by the quality and quantity of films released by motion picture studios. Films scheduled for release during the remainder of 2010 include Jackass 3D, Due Date, Megamind, Little Fockers, Tron: Legacy, Tangled, Yogi Bear, Gulliver s Travels, Chronicles of Narnia: The Voyage of the Dawn Treader and another installment of the Harry Potter franchise, among other films.

Film rental costs are variable in nature and fluctuate with our admissions revenues. Film rental costs as a percentage of revenues are generally higher for periods in which more blockbuster films are released. Film rental costs can also vary based on the length of a film s run. Film rental rates are generally negotiated on a film-by-film and theatre-by-theatre basis. Advertising costs, which are expensed as incurred, are primarily fixed at the theatre level as daily movie directories placed in newspapers represent the largest component of advertising costs. The monthly cost of these advertisements is based on, among other things, the size of the directory and the frequency and size of the newspaper s circulation.

Concession supplies expense is variable in nature and fluctuates with our concession revenues. We purchase concession supplies to replace units sold. We negotiate prices for concession supplies directly with concession vendors and manufacturers to obtain volume rates.

Although salaries and wages include a fixed cost component (i.e. the minimum staffing costs to operate a theatre facility during non-peak periods), salaries and wages move in relation to revenues as theatre staffing is adjusted to respond to changes in attendance.

Facility lease expense is primarily a fixed cost at the theatre level as most of our facility leases require a fixed monthly minimum rent payment. Certain of our leases are subject to percentage rent only while others are subject to percentage rent in addition to their fixed monthly rent if a target annual revenue level is achieved. Facility lease expense as a percentage of revenues is also affected by the number of theatres under operating leases, the number of theatres under capital leases and the number of fee-owned theatres.

Utilities and other costs include certain costs that have both fixed and variable components such as utilities, property taxes, janitorial costs, repairs and maintenance and security services.

Recent Developments

On October 14, 2010, we redeemed all of Cinemark USA, Inc. s remaining outstanding 9% senior subordinated notes for approximately $0.2 million, including accrued interest and premiums.

On November 2, 2010, our board of directors declared a cash dividend in the amount of $0.21 per common share payable to stockholders of record on November 22, 2010. The dividend will be paid on December 7, 2010.

Consolidated. Film rentals and advertising costs were $200.5 million, or 54.5% of admissions revenues, for the third quarter of 2010 compared to $175.9 million, or 54.5% of admissions revenues, for the third quarter of 2009. The increase in film rentals and advertising costs of $24.6 million was primarily due to a $44.7 million increase in admissions revenues. Concession supplies expense was $26.6 million, or 15.6% of concession revenues, for the third quarter of 2010 compared to $23.5 million, or 15.4% of concession revenues, for the third quarter of 2009. The increase in the concession supplies rate was primarily due to the increased weighting of our international business which typically has a higher concession supplies rate.

Salaries and wages increased to $56.8 million for the third quarter of 2010 from $52.7 million for the third quarter of 2009 primarily due to increased minimum wages in both our U.S. and international segments, increased staffing levels to support the 8.8% increase in attendance and the impact of exchange rates in certain countries in which we operate. Facility lease expense increased to $66.6 million for the third quarter of 2010 from $61.6 million for the third quarter of 2009 primarily due to increased percentage rent and the impact of exchange rates in certain countries in which we operate. Utilities and other costs increased to $64.3 million for the third quarter of 2010 from $61.4 million for the third quarter of 2009 primarily due to increased 3-D equipment rental fees, increased utility expenses and the impact of exchange rates in certain countries in which we operate.

U.S. Film rentals and advertising costs were $146.5 million, or 55.8% of admissions revenues, for the third quarter of 2010 compared to $137.4 million, or 55.7% of admissions revenues, for the third quarter of 2009. The increase in film rentals and advertising costs of $9.1 million is primarily due to a $15.6 million increase in admissions revenues. Concession supplies expense was $15.5 million, or 12.4% of concession revenues, for the third quarter of 2010 compared to $14.8 million, or 12.4% of concession revenues, for the third quarter of 2009.

Salaries and wages increased to $44.4 million for the third quarter of 2010 from $43.3 million for the third quarter of 2009 primarily due to increased minimum wages and increased staffing levels to support the 2.9% increase in attendance. Facility lease expense increased to $45.8 million for the third quarter of 2010 from $45.2 million for the third quarter of 2009 primarily due to increased percentage rent. Utilities and other costs decreased to $44.5 million for the third quarter of 2010 from $45.1 million for the third quarter of 2009 primarily due to decreased utility and theatre supplies expenses, partially offset by increased 3-D equipment rental fees.

International. Film rentals and advertising costs were $54.0 million, or 51.4% of admissions revenues, for the third quarter of 2010 compared to $38.5 million, or 50.7% of admissions revenues, for the third quarter of 2009. The increase in film rentals and advertising costs of $15.5 million is due to a $29.1 million increase in admissions revenues which contributed $14.7 million and an increase in the film rentals and advertising rate which contributed $0.8 million. Concession supplies expense was $11.1 million, or 24.6% of concession revenues, for the third quarter of 2010 compared to $8.7 million, or 26.2% of concession revenues, for the third quarter of 2009. The increase in concession supplies expense was primarily due to a $12.0 million increase in concession revenues, partially offset by a decrease in the concession supplies rate due to favorable inventory procurement costs and the successful implementation of price increases.

Salaries and wages increased to $12.4 million for the third quarter of 2010 from $9.4 million for the third quarter of 2009 primarily due to increased staffing levels to support the 21.1% increase in attendance, increased minimum wages and the impact of exchange rates in certain countries in which we operate. Facility lease expense increased to $20.8 million for the third quarter of 2010 from $16.4 million for the third quarter of 2009 primarily due to increased percentage rent and the impact of exchange rates in certain countries in which we operate. Utilities and other costs increased to $19.8 million for the third quarter of 2010 from $16.3 million for the third quarter of 2009 primarily due to increased 3-D equipment rental fees, increased utility expenses and the impact of exchange rates in certain countries in which we operate.

General and Administrative Expenses. General and administrative expenses increased to $28.1 million for the third quarter of 2010 from $23.5 million for the third quarter of 2009. The increase was primarily due to increased salaries and incentive compensation expense, increased share based award compensation expense, increased professional fees and increased service charges related to increased credit card activity and the impact of exchange rates in certain countries in which we operate.

Depreciation and Amortization. Depreciation and amortization expense, including amortization of favorable/unfavorable leases, was $35.0 million for the third quarter of 2010 compared to $38.5 million for the third quarter of 2009. The decrease was primarily related to a reduction in the depreciable basis of certain of our U.S. assets due to a significant amount of the equipment acquired in the Century Acquisition becoming fully depreciated during the fourth quarter of 2009, partially offset by the impact of accelerated depreciation taken on our domestic 35 millimeter projection systems that will be replaced with digital projection systems. We recorded approximately $2.3 million of depreciation expense related to these 35 millimeter projection systems during the third quarter of 2010.

Impairment of Long-Lived Asset. We recorded asset impairment charges on assets held and used of $1.0 million for the third quarter of 2010 compared to $3.1 million for the third quarter of 2009. Impairment charges for the third quarter of 2010 were related to theatre properties, impacting five of our twenty-four reporting units. Impairment charges for the third quarter of 2009 consisted of $2.8 million of theatre properties, impacting ten of our twenty-four reporting units, and $0.3 million of intangible assets associated with one of our twenty-four reporting units. The long-lived asset impairment charges recorded during each of the periods presented were specific to theatres that were directly and individually impacted by increased competition, or adverse changes in market demographics. See Notes 13 and 14 to our condensed consolidated financial statements.

Loss on Sale of Assets and Other. We recorded a loss on sale of assets and other of $7.5 million during the third quarter of 2010 compared to $0.9 million for the third quarter of 2009. The loss recorded during the third quarter of 2010 included approximately $5.8 million for the write-off of an intangible asset associated with a vendor contract in Mexico that was terminated.

Interest Expense. Interest costs incurred, including amortization of debt issue costs, were $28.9 million for the third quarter of 2010 compared to $25.9 million for the third quarter of 2009. The increase was primarily due to increases in interest rates on our variable rate debt related to the amendment and extension of our senior secured credit facility.

Loss on Early Retirement of Debt. During the third quarter of 2009, we recorded a loss on early retirement of debt of $1.1 million as a result of the call premiums paid and other fees related to the repurchase of the remaining $16.9 million aggregate principal amount at maturity of Cinemark, Inc. s 93/4% senior discount notes and the write-off of unamortized debt issue costs associated with these notes.

Distributions from NCM. We recorded distributions from NCM of $4.3 million during the third quarter of 2010 and $4.2 million during the third quarter of 2009, which were in excess of the carrying value of our investment. See Note 7 to our condensed consolidated financial statements.

Equity in Loss of Affiliates We recorded equity in loss of affiliates of $1.8 million during the third quarter of 2010 compared to $0.1 million during the third quarter of 2009. The equity in loss of affiliates recorded during the third quarter of 2010 included a loss of approximately $4.4 million related to our equity investment in DCIP (see Note 8 to the condensed consolidated financial statements) offset by income of approximately $2.6 million related to our equity investment in NCM (see Note 7 to the condensed consolidated financial statements). The equity in loss of affiliates recorded during the third quarter of 2009 included a loss of approximately $1.0 million related to our equity investment in DCIP offset by income of approximately $0.9 million related to our equity investment in NCM.

Income Taxes. Income tax expense of $15.9 million was recorded for the third quarter of 2010 compared to $12.2 million for the third quarter of 2009. The effective tax rate was 31.9% for the third quarter of 2010 compared to 35.6% for the third quarter of 2009. Income tax provisions for interim (quarterly) periods are based on estimated annual income tax rates and are adjusted for the effects of significant, infrequent or unusual items (i.e. discrete items) occurring during the interim period. As a result, the interim rate may vary significantly from the normalized annual rate.

The increase in admissions revenues of $79.4 million was primarily attributable to a 14.2% increase in attendance and a 23.5% increase in average ticket price from $3.62 for the 2009 period to $4.47 for the 2010 period. The increase in concession revenues of $30.5 million was primarily attributable to the 14.2% increase in attendance and an 18.9% increase in concession revenues per patron from $1.59 for the 2009 period to $1.89 for the 2010 period. The increase in average ticket price was primarily due to incremental 3-D and premium pricing and other price increases and the favorable impact of exchange rates in certain countries in which we operate. The increase in concession revenues per patron was primarily due to price increases and the favorable impact of exchange rates in certain countries in which we operate. The 25.2% increase in other revenues was primarily due to increases in ancillary revenue and the favorable impact of exchange rates in certain countries in which we operate.

Cost of Operations. The table below summarizes certain of our year-over-year theatre operating costs by reportable operating segment (in millions).

	U.S. Operating Segment		International Operating Segment		Consolidated

Film rentals and advertising	$ 445.7	$ 416.2	$ 137.1	$ 97.7	$ 582.8	$ 513.9

Consolidated. Film rentals and advertising costs were $582.8 million, or 54.8% of admissions revenues, for the 2010 period compared to $513.9 million, or 54.6% of admissions revenues, for the 2009 period. The increase in film rentals and advertising costs of $68.9 million was due to a $121.8 million increase in admissions revenues, which contributed $66.5 million, and an increase in our film rentals and advertising rate, which contributed $2.4 million. The increase in the film rentals and advertising rate was primarily due to higher film rental rates in the U.S. segment due to the increase in the number of blockbuster films released, including the carryover of Avatar, which generally have higher film rental rates. Concession supplies expense was $73.5 million, or 15.0% of concession revenues, for the 2010 period, compared to $67.2 million, or 15.2% of concession revenues, for the 2009 period. The decrease in the concession supplies rate was primarily due to favorable inventory procurement costs and the successful implementation of price increases.

Salaries and wages increased to $165.6 million for the 2010 period from $149.1 million for the 2009 period primarily due to new theatres, increased minimum wages in both our U.S. and international segments, increased staffing levels to support the 5.0% increase in attendance and the impact of exchange rates in certain countries in which we operate. Facility lease expense increased to $191.3 million for the 2010 period from $176.5 million for the 2009 period primarily due to new theatres, increased percentage rent and the impact of exchange rates in certain countries in which we operate. Utilities and other costs increased to $177.2 million for the 2010 period from $164.3 million for the 2009 period primarily due to new theatres, increased 3-D equipment rental fees, increased utility expenses and the impact of exchange rates in certain countries in which we operate.

U.S. Film rentals and advertising costs were $445.7 million, or 56.3% of admissions revenues for the 2010 period compared to $416.2 million, or 55.6% of admissions revenues, for the 2009 period. The increase in film rentals and advertising costs of $29.5 million is due to a $42.4 million increase in admissions revenues, which contributed $23.6 million and an increase in our film rentals and advertising rate, which contributed $5.9 million. The increase in the film rentals and advertising rate was primarily due to the increase in the number of blockbuster films released, including the carryover of Avatar, which generally have higher film rental rates. Concession supplies expense was $45.0 million, or 12.1% of concession revenues, for the 2010 period, compared to $45.4 million, or 12.7% of concession revenues, for the 2009 period. The decrease in concession supplies expense is primarily due to a decrease in the concession supplies rate due to favorable inventory procurement costs and the successful implementation of price increases.

Salaries and wages increased to $131.5 million for the 2010 period from $124.4 million for the 2009 period primarily due to new theatres and increased minimum wages. Facility lease expense increased to $136.6 million for the 2010 period from $132.9 million for the 2009 period primarily due to new theatres and increased percentage rent. Utilities and other costs increased to $124.6 million for the 2010 period from $122.7 million for the 2009 period primarily due to new theatres and increased 3-D equipment rental fees, partially offset by decreased utility expenses.

International. Film rentals and advertising costs were $137.1 million, or 50.3% of admissions revenues, for the 2010 period compared to $97.7 million, or 50.5% of admissions revenues, for the 2009 period. The increase in film rentals and advertising costs was primarily due to a $79.4 million increase in admissions revenues, partially offset by a lower film rentals and advertising rate. Concession supplies expense was $28.5 million, or 24.7% of concession revenues, for the 2010 period compared to $21.8 million, or 25.7% of concession revenues, for the 2009 period. The increase in concession supplies expense of $6.7 million was primarily due to a $30.5 million increase in concession revenues, partially offset by a lower concession supplies rate due to favorable inventory procurement costs and the successful implementation of price increases.

Salaries and wages increased to $34.1 million for the 2010 period from $24.7 million for the 2009 period primarily due to new theatres, increased staffing levels to support the 14.2% increase in attendance, increased minimum wages and the impact of exchange rates in certain countries in which we operate. Facility lease expense increased to $54.7 million for the 2010 period from $43.6 million for the 2009 period primarily due to new theatres, increased percentage rent and the impact of exchange rates in certain countries in which we operate. Utilities and other costs increased to $52.6 million for the 2010 period from $41.6 million for the 2009 period primarily due to new theatres, increased 3-D equipment rental fees, increased utility expenses and the impact of exchange rates in certain countries in which we operate.

General and Administrative Expenses. General and administrative expenses increased to $78.6 million for the 2010 period from $69.0 million for the 2009 period. The increase was primarily due to increased salaries and incentive compensation expense, increased share based award compensation expense, increased professional fees and increased service charges related to increased credit card activity and the impact of exchange rates in certain countries in which we operate.

Depreciation and Amortization. Depreciation and amortization expense, including amortization of favorable/unfavorable leases, was $104.0 million for the 2010 period compared to $112.8 million for the 2009 period. The decrease was primarily related to a reduction in the depreciable basis of certain of our U.S. assets due to a significant amount of the equipment acquired in the Century Acquisition becoming fully depreciated during the fourth quarter of 2009, partially offset by the impact of accelerated depreciation taken on our domestic 35 millimeter projection systems that will be replaced with digital projection systems. We recorded approximately $6.0 million of depreciation expense related to these 35 millimeter projection systems during the 2010 period.

Impairment of Long-Lived Assets. We recorded asset impairment charges on assets held and used of $6.0 million for the 2010 period compared to $8.1 million for the 2009 period. Impairment charges for the 2010 period consisted of $4.9 million of theatre properties, impacting sixteen of our twenty-four reporting units, and $1.1 million of intangible assets associated with one of our twenty-four reporting units. Impairment charges for the 2009 period consisted of $7.7 million of theatre properties, impacting sixteen of our twenty-four reporting units, and $0.4 million of intangible assets associated with theatre properties, impacting two of our twenty-four reporting units. The long-lived asset impairment charges recorded during each of the periods presented were specific to theatres that were directly and individually impacted by increased competition, or adverse changes in market demographics. See Notes 13 and 14 to our condensed consolidated financial statements.

Loss on Sale of Assets and Other. We recorded a loss on sale of assets and other of $11.9 million during the 2010 period compared to $2.4 million during the 2009 period. The loss recorded during the 2010 period included $5.8 million for the write-off of an intangible asset associated with a vendor contract in Mexico that was terminated, $1.7 million that was recorded upon the contribution of digital projection systems to DCIP and an additional $0.3 million recorded upon the subsequent sale of digital projection systems to DCIP. See Note 8 to the condensed consolidated financial statements for discussion of DCIP.

Interest Expense. Interest costs incurred, including amortization of debt issue costs, were $83.6 million for the 2010 period compared to $77.0 million for the 2009 period. The increase was primarily due to increases in interest rates on our variable rate debt related to the amendment and extension of our senior secured credit facility.

Loss on Early Retirement of Debt. During the 2009 period, we recorded a loss on early retirement of debt of $27.9 million as a result of the tender and call premiums paid and other fees related to the repurchase of approximately $419.4 million aggregate principal amount at maturity of Cinemark, Inc. s 9 3/4% senior discount notes and the write-off of unamortized debt issue costs associated with these notes.

Distributions from NCM. We recorded distributions from NCM of $15.5 million during the 2010 period and $15.8 million during the 2009 period, which were in excess of the carrying value of our investment. See Note 7 to our condensed consolidated financial statements.

Equity in Loss of Affiliates We recorded equity in loss of affiliates of $5.0 million during the 2010 period compared to $1.1 million during the 2009 period. The equity in loss of affiliates recorded during the 2010 period included a loss of approximately $8.6 million related to our equity investment in DCIP (see Note 8 to the condensed consolidated financial statements) offset by income of approximately $3.6 million related to our equity investment in NCM (see Note 7 to the condensed consolidated financial statements). The equity in loss of affiliates recorded during the 2009 period included a loss of approximately $2.5 million related to our equity investment in DCIP offset by income of approximately $1.4 million related to our equity investment in NCM.

Income Taxes. Income tax expense of $45.9 million was recorded for the 2010 period compared to $31.1 million for the 2009 period. The effective tax rate was 29.2% for the 2010 period compared to 34.1% for the 2009 period. Income tax expense for the 2010 period includes the impact of certain discrete non-recurring items and the reduction of our liabilities for uncertain tax positions due to settlements and closures of various tax years, which resulted in a benefit of approximately $8.7 million. Income tax expense for the 2009 period includes the impact of two discrete items, including an adjustment to our deferred tax liability and an increase to our foreign unrecognized tax benefits in accordance with ASC Topic 740. The net impact of the two items on income tax expense for the 2009 period was a benefit of approximately $4.9 million. Income tax provisions for interim (quarterly) periods are based on estimated annual income tax rates and are adjusted for the effects of significant, infrequent or unusual items (i.e. discrete items) occurring during the interim period. As a result, the interim rate may vary significantly from the normalized annual rate.

Liquidity and Capital Resources

Operating Activities

We primarily collect our revenues in cash, mainly through box office receipts and the sale of concessions. In addition, a majority of our theatres provide the patron a choice of using a credit card or debit card in place of cash. Because our revenues are received in cash prior to the payment of related expenses, we have an operating float and historically have not required traditional working capital financing. Cash provided by operating activities was $153.9 million for the nine months ended September 30, 2010 compared to $30.7 million for the nine months ended September 30, 2009. Cash provided by operating activities for the nine months ended September 30, 2009 included the repurchase of approximately $419.4 million of our 9 3/4% senior discount notes, which included payment of $158.3 million of interest that had accreted on the senior discount notes since issuance during 2004. The principal portion of the repurchase is reflected as a financing activity.

Investing Activities

Our investing activities have been principally related to the development and acquisition of theatres. New theatre openings and acquisitions historically have been financed with internally generated cash and by debt financing, including borrowings under our senior secured credit facility. Cash used for investing activities was $85.8 million for the nine months ended September 30, 2010 compared to $145.4 million for the nine months ended September 30, 2009. Cash used for investing activities for the nine months ended September 30, 2009 included $49.0 million related to the acquisition of theatres in the U.S. (see Note 6 to the condensed consolidated financial statements) and $9.1 million related to the acquisition of one theatre in Brazil.

Capital expenditures for the nine months ended September 30, 2010 and 2009 were as follows (in millions):

Period	New Theatres	Existing Theatres	Total
Nine Months Ended September 30, 2010	$ 31.1	$ 57.2	$ 88.3
Nine Months Ended September 30, 2009	$ 32.1	$ 53.5	$ 85.6

We continue to expand our U.S. theatre circuit. We built two theatres and 29 screens, assumed operation of one theatre with eight screens, and closed two theatres with 13 screens during the nine months ended September 30, 2010, bringing our total domestic screen count to 3,854. At September 30, 2010, we had signed commitments to open three new theatres and 34 screens in domestic markets during the remainder of 2010 and open eight new theatres and 108 screens subsequent to 2010. We estimate the remaining capital expenditures for the development of these 142 domestic screens will be approximately $54 million. Actual expenditures for continued theatre development and acquisitions are subject to change based upon the availability of attractive opportunities.

We also continue to expand our international theatre circuit. We built five theatres with 37 screens and closed two theatres and 19 screens during the nine months ended September 30, 2010, bringing our total international screen count to 1,084. At September 30, 2010, we had signed commitments to open four new theatres with 28 screens in international markets during the remainder of 2010 and open nine new theatres with 62 screens subsequent to 2010. We estimate the remaining capital expenditures for the development of these 90 international screens will be approximately $56 million. Actual expenditures for continued theatre development and acquisitions are subject to change based upon the availability of attractive opportunities.

We plan to fund capital expenditures for our continued development with cash flow from operations, borrowings under our senior secured credit facility, from debt issuances, proceeds from sale leaseback transactions and/or sales of excess real estate.

Financing Activities

Cash used for financing activities was $79.3 million for the nine months ended September 30, 2010 compared to cash provided by financing activities of $111.6 million for the nine months ended September 30, 2009. Cash provided by financing activities for the nine months ended September 30, 2009 included the net proceeds of $458.5 million from the issuance of our $470 million 8.625% senior notes, partially offset by the repurchase of approximately $419.4 million of our 9 3/4% senior discount notes, the aggregate principal portion of which was $261.1 million. The interest portion of the repurchase is reflected as an operating activity.

On February 13, 2010, our board of directors declared a cash dividend for the fourth quarter of 2009 in the amount of $0.18 per share of common stock payable to stockholders of record on March 5, 2010. On July 29, 2010, our board of directors declared a cash dividend for the second quarter of 2010 in the amount of $0.18 per share of common stock payable to stockholders of record on August 17, 2010. The dividend was paid on September 1, 2010 in the total amount of approximately $20.4 million.

Senior Secured Credit Facility

On October 5, 2006, in connection with the Century Acquisition, Cinemark USA, Inc. entered into a senior secured credit facility that provided for a $1.12 billion term loan and a $150 million revolving credit line. On March 2, 2010, Cinemark USA, Inc. completed an amendment and extension to the senior secured credit facility to primarily extend the maturities of the facility and make certain other modifications. Approximately $924.4 million of Cinemark USA, Inc. s then remaining outstanding $1,083.6 million term loan debt was extended from an original maturity date of October 2013 to a maturity date of April 2016. The remaining term loan debt of $159.2 million that was not extended matures on the original maturity date of October 2013. Payments on the extended amount are due in equal quarterly installments of approximately $2.3 million beginning March 31, 2010 through March 31, 2016 with the remaining principal amount of approximately $866.6 million due April 30, 2016. Payments on the original amount that was not extended are due in equal quarterly installments of approximately $0.4 million beginning March 31, 2010 through September 30, 2012 and increase to $37.4 million each calendar quarter from December 31, 2012 to June 30, 2013, with one final payment of approximately $42.6 million due at maturity on October 5, 2013. The amendment also imposed a 1.0% prepayment premium for one year on certain prepayments of the extended portion of the term loan debt.

The interest rate on the original term loan debt that was not extended accrues interest, at Cinemark USA, Inc. s option, at: (A) the base rate equal to the higher of (1) the prime lending rate as set forth on the British Banking Association Telerate page 5, or (2) the federal funds effective rate from time to time plus 0.50% (the base rate), plus a margin that ranges from 0.50% to 0.75% per annum, or (B) a eurodollar rate plus a margin that ranges from 1.50% to 1.75%, per annum. The margin of the original term loan debt that was not extended is determined by the applicable corporate credit rating. The interest rate on the extended portion of the term loan debt accrues interest, at Cinemark USA, Inc. s option at: (A) the base rate equal to the higher of (1) the prime lending rate as set forth on the British Banking Association Telerate page 5, or (2) the federal funds effective rate from time to time plus 0.50%, plus a 2.25% margin per annum, or (B) a eurodollar rate plus a 3.25% margin per annum.

The maturity date of $73.5 million of Cinemark USA, Inc. s $150.0 million revolving credit line was extended from October 2012 to March 2015. The maturity date of the remaining $76.5 million of Cinemark USA, Inc. s revolving credit line did not change and remains October 2012. The interest rate on the original revolving credit line accrues interest, at Cinemark USA, Inc. s option, at: (A) a base rate equal to the higher of (1) the prime lending rate as set forth on the British Banking Association Telerate page 5 and (2) the federal funds effective rate from time to time plus 0.50%, plus a margin that ranges from 0.50% to 1.00% per annum, or (B) a eurodollar rate plus a margin that ranges from 1.50% to 2.00% per annum. The interest rate on the extended revolving credit line accrues interest, at Cinemark USA, Inc. s option at: (A) the base rate equal to the higher of (1) the prime lending rate as set forth on the British Banking Association Telerate page 5, or (2) the federal funds effective rate from time to time plus 0.50%, plus a margin that ranges from 1.75% to 2.0% per annum, or (B) a eurodollar rate plus a margin that ranges from 2.75% to 3.0% per annum. The margin of the revolving credit line is determined by the consolidated net senior secured leverage ratio as defined in the credit agreement.

At September 30, 2010, there was $1,075.4 million outstanding under the term loan and no borrowings outstanding under the revolving credit line. Cinemark USA, Inc. had $150.0 million in available borrowing capacity on the revolving credit line. The average interest rate on outstanding term loan borrowings under the senior secured credit facility at September 30, 2010 was 4.4% per annum.

See discussion of interest rate swap agreements under Item 3. Quantitative and Qualitative Disclosures About Market Risk.

Cinemark USA, Inc. 8 5/8% Senior Notes

On June 29, 2009, Cinemark USA, Inc. issued $470.0 million aggregate principal amount of 8.625% senior notes due 2019 with an original issue discount of approximately $11.5 million, resulting in proceeds of approximately $458.5 million. The proceeds were primarily used to fund the repurchase of the remaining $419.4 million aggregate principal amount at maturity of Cinemark, Inc. s 9 3/4% senior discount notes. Interest is payable on June 15 and December 15 of each year beginning on December 15, 2009. The senior notes mature on June 15, 2019. As of September 30, 2010, the carrying value of the senior notes was approximately $459.5 million.

The indenture to the senior notes contains covenants that limit, among other things, the ability of Cinemark USA, Inc. and certain of its subsidiaries to (1) consummate specified asset sales, (2) make investments or other restricted payments, including paying dividends, making other distributions or repurchasing subordinated debt or equity, (3) incur additional indebtedness and issue preferred stock, (4) enter into transactions with affiliates, (5) enter new lines of business, (6) merge or consolidate with, or sell all or substantially all of its assets to another person and (7) create liens. Upon a change of control of Cinemark Holdings, Inc. or Cinemark USA, Inc., Cinemark USA, Inc. would be required to make an offer to repurchase the senior notes at a price equal to 101% of the aggregate principal amount outstanding plus accrued and unpaid interest through the date of repurchase. Certain asset dispositions are considered triggering events that may require Cinemark USA, Inc. to use the proceeds from those asset dispositions to make an offer to purchase the notes at 100% of their principal amount, plus accrued and unpaid interest, if any, to the date of repurchase if such proceeds are not otherwise used within 365 days as described in the indenture. The indenture governing the senior notes allows Cinemark USA, Inc. to incur additional indebtedness if we satisfy the coverage ratio specified in the indenture, after giving effect to the incurrence of the additional indebtedness, and in certain other circumstances. The required minimum coverage ratio is 2 to 1 and our actual ratio as of September 30, 2010 was 5.4 to 1.

Cinemark USA, Inc. 9% Senior Subordinated Notes

On February 11, 2003, Cinemark USA, Inc. issued $150 million aggregate principal amount of 9% senior subordinated notes due 2013 and on May 7, 2003, Cinemark USA, Inc. issued an additional $210 million aggregate principal amount of 9% senior subordinated notes due 2013, collectively referred to as the 9% senior subordinated notes. Interest is payable on February 1 and August 1 of each year.

Prior to 2009, Cinemark USA, Inc. repurchased a total of $359.8 million aggregate principal amount of its 9% senior subordinated notes. The transactions were funded by Cinemark USA, Inc. with proceeds from the NCM Transaction and available cash from operations. Cinemark USA, Inc. also executed a supplemental indenture removing substantially all of the restrictive covenants and certain events of default.

As of September 30, 2010, Cinemark USA, Inc. had outstanding approximately $0.2 million aggregate principal amount of 9% senior subordinated notes. On October 14, 2010, Cinemark USA, Inc. redeemed all of the remaining outstanding 9% senior subordinated notes for approximately $0.2 million, including accrued interest and premiums.

Seasonality

Our revenues have historically been seasonal, coinciding with the timing of releases of motion pictures by the major distributors. Generally, the most successful motion pictures have been released during the summer, extending from May to mid-August, and during the holiday season, extending from early November through year-end. The unexpected emergence of a hit film during other periods can alter this seasonality trend. The timing of such film releases can have a significant effect on our results of operations, and the results of one quarter are not necessarily indicative of results for the next quarter or for the same period in the following year.

Item 3. Quantitative and Qualitative Disclosures About Market Risk

We have exposure to financial market risks, including changes in interest rates, foreign currency exchange rates and other relevant market prices.

Interest Rate Risk

We are currently party to variable rate debt facilities. An increase or decrease in interest rates would affect our interest expense relating to our variable rate debt facilities. At September 30, 2010, there was an aggregate of approximately $775 million of variable rate debt outstanding under these facilities, which excludes $300.0 million of Cinemark USA, Inc. s term loan debt that is hedged with the Company s interest rate swap agreements in effect as of September 30, 2010 as discussed below. Based on the interest rates in effect on the variable rate debt outstanding at September 30, 2010, a 100 basis point increase in market interest rates would increase our annual interest expense by approximately $7.8 million.

As of September 30, 2010, we had two interest rate swap agreements that have been designated to hedge a total of approximately $300 million of variable rate debt under our senior secured credit facility. Under the terms of one of the agreements, which expires in August 2012, we pay a fixed interest rate of 4.922% on $125,000 of variable rate debt and receive interest at a variable rate based on the 3-month LIBOR. Under the terms of the second agreement, we pay a fixed interest rate of 3.63% on $175,000 of variable rate debt and receive interest at a variable rate based on the 1-month LIBOR. With respect to the expiration of the second agreement, approximately $100,000 of the hedged amount expires in November 2011 and the remaining $75,000 expires in November 2012.

During October 2010, we entered into an interest rate swap agreement that is effective beginning December 2010 and that has been designated as a hedge of approximately $175 million of variable rate debt under our senior secured credit facility. Under the terms of this agreement, which expires September 2015, we pay a fixed interest rate of 1.3975% on $175,000 of variable rate debt and receive interest at a variable rate based on the 1-month LIBOR.

During November 2010, we entered into an interest rate swap agreement that is effective beginning December 2010 and that has been designated as a hedge of approximately $175 million of variable rate debt under our senior secured credit facility. Under the terms of this agreement, which expires September 2015, we pay a fixed interest rate of 1.40% on $175,000 of variable rate debt and receive interest at a variable rate based on the 1-month LIBOR.

Foreign Currency Exchange Rate Risk

We are also exposed to market risk arising from changes in foreign currency exchange rates as a result of our international operations. Generally, we export from the U.S. certain of the equipment and construction interior finish items and other operating supplies used by our international subsidiaries. A majority of the revenues and operating expenses of our international subsidiaries are transacted in the country s local currency. Generally accepted accounting principles in the U.S. (U.S. GAAP) require that our subsidiaries use the currency of the primary economic environment in which they operate as their functional currency. If our subsidiaries operate in a highly inflationary economy, U.S. GAAP requires that the U.S. dollar be used as the functional currency for the subsidiary. Currency fluctuations in the countries in which we operate result in us reporting exchange gains (losses) or foreign currency translation adjustments. Based upon our equity ownership in our international subsidiaries as of September 30, 2010, holding everything else constant, a 10% immediate, simultaneous, unfavorable change in all of the foreign currency exchange rates to which we are exposed would decrease the aggregate net book value of our investments in our international subsidiaries by approximately $44 million and would decrease the aggregate net income of our international subsidiaries by approximately $5 million.

Item 4. Controls and Procedures

Evaluation of the Effectiveness of Disclosure Controls and Procedures

As of September 30, 2010, we carried out an evaluation required by the 1934 Act, under the supervision and with the participation of our principal executive officer and principal financial officer, of the effectiveness of the design and operation of our disclosure controls and procedures, as defined in Rule 13a-15(e) of the 1934 Act. Based on this evaluation, our principal executive officer and principal financial officer concluded that, as of September 30, 2010, our disclosure controls and procedures were effective to provide reasonable assurance that information required to be disclosed by us in the reports that we file or submit under the 1934 Act is recorded, processed, summarized, and reported within the time periods specified in the SEC s rules and forms and were effective to provide reasonable assurance that such information is accumulated and communicated to our management, including our principal executive officer and principal financial officer, as appropriate to allow timely decisions regarding required disclosures.
