November 17, 2010

Dear Stockholder:

On or about November 10, 2010, we mailed to you a proxy statement relating to the annual meeting of stockholders of Henry Bros. Electronics, Inc. (Henry Bros.) scheduled for December 9, 2010, to consider, among other things, a proposal to adopt the Agreement and Plan of Merger (the Merger Agreement), dated as of October 5, 2010, by and between Henry Bros., Kratos Defense & Security Solutions, Inc., a Delaware corporation (Kratos), and Hammer Acquisition Inc., a Delaware corporation and a wholly-owned subsidiary of Kratos.

On November 13, 2010, the Merger Agreement was amended to increase the merger consideration from $7.00 per share to $8.20 per share. The Amendment to the Merger Agreement (the Amendment) followed the emergence during the go-shop process of a non-binding proposal from a third party to purchase Henry Bros. common stock for $8.00 per share in cash. Our board of directors determined, after consulting with its financial and legal advisors, that it is in the best interest of the stockholders of Henry Bros. to enter into the Amendment.

OUR BOARD OF DIRECTORS UNANIMOUSLY RECOMMENDS THAT YOU VOTE FOR THE ADOPTION OF THE MERGER AGREEMENT, AS AMENDED.

Attached to this letter is a supplement to the proxy statement containing additional information about Henry Bros. and the Amendment. Please read this document carefully and in its entirety. We also encourage you, if you have not done so already, to review carefully the definitive proxy statement dated November 9, 2010 which was previously sent to you.

The record date for the annual meeting has not changed; it remains November 2, 2010. This means that only stockholders of record of Henry Bros. common stock as shown on the transfer books of Henry Bros. at the close of business on November 2, 2010 are entitled to vote on the merger proposal and the other proposals set forth in the definitive proxy statement at the annual meeting.

Your vote is very important, regardless of the number of shares you own. If you have already delivered a properly executed proxy or instruction card regarding the merger proposal and the other proposals, you do not need to do anything unless you wish to change your vote. If you wish to revoke or change your vote you may do so any time before your proxy card is voted at the annual meeting. If you are a registered stockholder, you may do so in one of three ways. First, you can send a written, dated notice to the Corporate Secretary of Henry Bros., stating that you would like to revoke your proxy. Second, you can complete, date and submit a new proxy card by mail. Third, you can attend the meeting and vote in person. Your attendance alone will not revoke your proxy.

If your shares are held in street name by your bank, brokerage firm or other nominee, and if you have already provided instructions to your nominee but wish to change those instructions, you should provide new instructions following the procedures provided by your nominee.

Remember, YOUR VOTE IS VERY IMPORTANT regardless of the number of shares you own.

Very truly yours,

/s/ James E. Henry

James E. Henry

Chief Executive Officer

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS ABOUT THE NOVEMBER 13, 2010 AMENDMENT TO THE MERGER AGREEMENT

The following questions and answers address briefly some questions you may have regarding the merger, the Amendment or with respect to voting on the merger proposal. These questions and answers may not address all of the questions that may be important to you as a stockholder of Henry Bros. We urge you to read, carefully, this entire proxy supplement, including the annexes, the Definitive Proxy Statement and the other documents referred to in this proxy supplement or the Definitive Proxy Statement.

Q: Why are you sending me this supplement to the definitive proxy statement?

A: We are sending you this proxy supplement because on November 13, 2010, Henry Bros., Kratos and Merger Sub entered into an amendment to the Merger Agreement dated October 5, 2010. This supplement to the proxy statement provides information on the amended transaction and updates the Definitive Proxy Statement. We are also sending this proxy supplement to update you on a third party proposal received during the go-shop process. The go-shop process was a 40 calendar day period following the signing of the Merger Agreement on October 5, 2010, during which we were permitted to seek alternative acquisition proposals.

Q: What is the effect of the Amendment to the Merger Agreement?

A: The Amendment has the effect of increasing the merger consideration to be paid to Henry Bros. stockholders for their shares from $7.00 per share to $8.20 per share in cash.

The terms of the Amendment are described beginning on page S-4 of this proxy supplement under the heading Summary of the November 13, 2010 Amendment to the Merger Agreement.

Q: What will a Henry Bros. stockholder be entitled to receive if the merger occurs?

A: Henry Bros. stockholders will be entitled to receive $8.20 in cash, without interest, in exchange for each share of Henry Bros. common stock owned and outstanding at the effective time of the merger.

Q: Do any of Henry Bros. directors or officers have interests in the merger that may differ from those of Henry Bros. stockholders?

A: Yes, you should read Update to Interests of Henry Bros. Directors and Executive Officers in the Merger beginning on page S-6 of this proxy supplement and The Merger Interests of Henry Bros. Directors and Executive Officers in the Merger beginning on page 46 of the Definitive Proxy Statement for a more detailed discussion of these interests.

Q: When do you expect to complete the merger?

A: We are working toward completing the merger as quickly as practicable after the annual meeting of stockholders and currently expect to complete the merger in the fourth calendar quarter of 2010. However, we cannot predict the exact timing of the completion of the merger.

Q: When and where will the stockholder vote on the amended transaction be held?

A: The stockholder vote on the amended transaction will take place at the Henry Bros. annual meeting of stockholders, on Thursday, December 9, 2010 at 10:00 a.m., Eastern Time, at Henry Bros. offices located at 17-01 Pollitt Drive, Fair Lawn, New Jersey 07410.

Q: How does the Henry Bros. board of directors recommend that I vote on the proposal?

A: The board of directors of Henry Bros. unanimously recommends that you vote FOR the proposal to adopt the Merger Agreement, as amended.

Q: What is the status of the third party proposal with regard to the acquisition of the Company?

A: Under the terms of the Merger Agreement, because the third party submitted an Acquisition Proposal (as such term is defined in the Merger Agreement) prior to the expiration of the go-shop period, Henry Bros. has the right to continue discussions and negotiations with such third party and may continue to provide such third party with confidential information.

Q: Who is entitled to attend and vote at the annual meeting of stockholders?

A: The record date for determining who is entitled to vote at the annual meeting of stockholders is November 2, 2010. Only holders of shares of Henry Bros. common stock as of the close of business on the record date are entitled to vote at the annual meeting. As of the record date, there were approximately 6,216,032 shares of Henry Bros. common stock outstanding.

Q: How many votes are required to adopt the Merger Agreement, as amended?

A: The adoption of the Merger Agreement, as amended, requires the affirmative vote of holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of Henry Bros. common stock as of the record date.

Q: What do I do now?

A: First, carefully read this supplement, including the annexes, and the Definitive Proxy Statement.

Edgar Filing: Henry Bros. Electronics, Inc. - Form DEFA14A

If you have already voted on the merger proposal using a properly executed proxy or instruction card, you will be considered to have voted on the Merger Agreement, as amended, as well, and you do not need to do anything unless you wish to change your vote.

If you have already voted on the merger proposal using a properly executed proxy or instruction card but wish to change your vote, you may revoke your proxy and change your vote at any time before your proxy card is voted at the annual meeting. If you are a registered stockholder, you can do this in one of three ways. First, you can send a written, dated notice to the Corporate Secretary of Henry Bros., stating that you would like to revoke your proxy. Second, you can complete, date and submit a new proxy card by mail.

Third, you can attend the meeting and vote in person. Your attendance alone will not revoke your proxy. If you have instructed a broker to vote your shares, you must follow directions received from your broker to change those instructions.

If you hold your shares in street name and you have instructed a broker to vote your shares, the above-described options for changing your vote do not apply, and instead you must follow the instructions from your broker to change your vote.

Q: What happens if I sell my shares of Henry Bros. common stock before the annual meeting?

A: The record date for stockholders entitled to vote at the annual meeting remains November 2, 2010. If you transfer your shares of Henry Bros. common stock after the record date but before the annual meeting, you will, unless special arrangements are made, retain your right to vote at the annual meeting but will transfer the right to receive the merger consideration to the person to whom you transfer (or have transferred) your shares.

SUMMARY OF THE NOVEMBER 13, 2010 AMENDMENT TO THE MERGER AGREEMENT

The following describes the material provisions of the Amendment to the Merger Agreement, but is not intended to be an exhaustive discussion of the Amendment. We encourage you to read the Amendment, attached as Annex A to this proxy supplement, as well as the Merger Agreement as in effect prior to November 13, 2010, carefully in their entirety. The rights and obligations of the parties are governed by the express terms of the Merger Agreement, as amended, and not by this summary or any other information contained in this supplement.

The following summary is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Amendment, which is attached to this proxy supplement as Annex A and incorporated herein by reference.

Amendment to the Merger Agreement

The Amendment provides for an increase in the amount of consideration payable to Henry Bros. stockholders if the merger is completed to $8.20 per share in cash, without interest. In addition, the Amendment (i) increases the termination fee to $2,180,582, and (ii) adjusts the option exchange ratio to 0.7715, which represents the fraction obtained by dividing $8.20 by the average closing sales price for one share of Kratos common stock on the NASDAQ National Market for the ten (10) trading-day period ending on the first business day immediately preceding the date of the Merger Agreement.

UPDATE TO BACKGROUND OF MERGER

During the period from October 6, 2010 until 11:59 p.m. on November 14, 2010, Henry Bros. engaged in a go-shop process to seek alternative proposals to the merger contemplated by the Merger Agreement. At 11:59 p.m. on November 14, 2010, the 40-day go-shop period expired pursuant to the terms of the Merger Agreement. During the go-shop period, Imperial Capital contacted 117 potential transaction partners at the request of and on behalf of Henry Bros. Of the 117 parties contacted, eleven entered into confidentiality agreements and reviewed nonpublic information regarding Henry Bros.

On November 9, 2010, in connection with its go-shop activities, Henry Bros. received a non-binding proposal from a third party to acquire all of the shares of Henry Bros. common stock for cash consideration of $8.00 per share. The non-binding proposal was subject to satisfactory completion of due diligence by the third party and the negotiation of definitive agreements.

On November 10, 2010, pursuant to the terms of the Merger Agreement, Henry Bros. informed Kratos of its receipt of the non-binding proposal from the third party and the terms of such proposal.

On November 11, 2010, the third party delivered a signed letter setting forth the terms of the non-binding proposal and a draft merger agreement.

On November 12, 2010, the board of directors held a meeting to evaluate, and obtain updates on the status of, the go-shop process, including the third party proposal. The board also consulted with its counsel, Moses & Singer, its special Delaware counsel, Richards, Layton & Finger, P.A. (Richards Layton) and its financial advisor, Imperial Capital.

On November 12, 2010, Henry Bros. received a definitive offer from Kratos in the form of a signed Amendment to the Merger Agreement together with a letter stating that such offer would expire unless the Amendment was executed and returned to Kratos no later than 5:00 p.m., Eastern time, on Sunday, November 14, 2010. Pursuant to the Amendment, the Merger Consideration (as defined in the Merger Agreement) would be increased to $8.20 per share, without interest. In addition, the Amendment, among other things, (i) provided that the termination fee would be increased from $1,788,000 to $2,180,582, and (ii) adjusted the option exchange ratio to 0.7715, which represents the fraction obtained by dividing $8.20 by the average closing sales price for one share of Kratos common stock on the NASDAQ National Market for the ten (10) trading-day period ending on the first business day immediately preceding the date of the Merger Agreement. Other than as expressly modified pursuant to the Amendment, the Merger Agreement would remain in full force and effect as originally executed on October 5, 2010.

At a meeting of the board of directors on November 13, 2010, a representative of Moses & Singer summarized the terms contained in the Amendment. A representative of Richards Layton then reviewed with the board their fiduciary duties in connection with the proposed transaction. Following the presentations and after further discussions and deliberations among the directors, management and financial and legal advisors, the board of directors considered the following factors:

that the amended $8.20 per share consideration provides for $1.20 per share of additional cash value above the $7.00 per share consideration provided by original Merger Agreement and provides for an additional $0.20 over the per share consideration proposed by the third party;

the review by the Henry Bros. board of directors, in consultation with its legal and financial advisors, of the terms of the Amendment to the Merger Agreement, and the fact that the terms of the amended transaction are more favorable to Henry Bros. and its stockholders than the terms of the original transaction, as well as more favorable to Henry Bros. and its stockholders than the terms of the third party proposal; that the third party proposal was not binding; and that the Amendment did not affect the right of Henry Bros. under the Merger Agreement to continue discussions and negotiations with, and to continue to provide non-public information to, the third party.

In light of the foregoing, the Henry Bros. board of directors approved the Amendment and determined that the Merger Agreement, as amended, was fair to, advisable, and in the best interest of Henry Bros. and its stockholders, and recommended that its stockholders adopt the Merger Agreement, as amended. The Henry Bros. board of directors did not request an updated fairness opinion of Imperial Capital, but noted that Imperial Capital's compensation would increase by $432,991.86 to an aggregate of $1,632,991.86 based on the increased merger consideration pursuant to the terms of the Amendment to the Merger Agreement.

Following the approval of the Amendment to the Merger Agreement by the board of directors, Henry Bros. then executed and delivered the Amendment on November 13, 2010.

On November 15, 2010, Henry Bros. publicly announced the Amendment and the results of the go-shop process through the issuance of a press release. Also on November 15, 2010, Henry Bros. management met with the third party and provided the third party additional information concerning Henry Bros.

RECOMMENDATION OF HENRY BROS. BOARD OF DIRECTORS

The Henry Bros. board of directors has determined that the Merger Agreement, as amended, and the proposed merger are in the best interests of Henry Bros. and its stockholders. Accordingly, the Henry Bros. board of directors unanimously recommends that you vote FOR the adoption of the Merger Agreement, as amended.

UPDATE TO INTERESTS OF HENRY BROS. DIRECTORS AND EXECUTIVE OFFICERS IN THE MERGER

Certain executive officers of Henry Bros. and members of Henry Bros. board of directors may be deemed to have interests in the merger that are different from or in addition to the interests of Henry Bros. stockholders generally. Henry Bros. board of directors was aware of these interests and considered them, among other matters, in approving the Merger Agreement, as amended, and the merger.

The table below sets forth, as of November 15, 2010, for each of our directors and executive officers, the number of stock options with vesting that will accelerate, pursuant to the terms of the executive officer's stock option agreement with Henry Bros. at the closing of the merger and the dollar value of such accelerated stock options, as well as the number of all vested and unvested stock options held (including stock options with vesting that will accelerate at the closing of the merger) and the dollar value of all such vested and unvested stock options held. The table below does not take into account any additional acceleration of vesting of options that could occur upon termination of employment under specified circumstances pursuant to the applicable stock option agreements.

Name	Total Number of Options with Vesting	Dollar Value of	Total	Dollar Value
	Accelerating at the Closing	Accelerated Options(1)	Number of All Options(2)	of All Options(1)
Directors:

Robert De Lia, Sr.		$	14,000	$ 45,780
James W. Power		$	14,000	$ 43,420

- (1) The dollar value of options is calculated by subtracting the per share exercise price of the options from $8.20 per share and multiplying the amount of this difference by the number of shares subject to the options.
- (2) The number of all options includes options with vesting that will accelerate at the closing of the merger and options that remain unvested as of the closing of the merger, which will be converted into options for Kratos common stock.
