Audit Committee Matters

The Board of Directors has established an Audit Committee that, among other functions, (1) oversees the accounting and financial reporting processes and compliance with legal and regulatory requirements on behalf of Origen's Board of Directors and reports the results of its activities to the Board, (2) has the sole authority to appoint, retain, terminate and determine the compensation of Origen's independent accountants, (3) reviews with Origen's independent accountants the scope and results of the audit engagement, (4) reviews the integrity, adequacy and effectiveness of Origen's internal controls and financial disclosure process, including the direct supervision of Origen's Internal Audit Department, (5) approves professional services provided by Origen's independent accountants, and (6) reviews the independence of Origen's independent accountants. The current members of the Audit Committee are Messrs. Origen's Board has also determined that each of Messrs. Halpern, Rogel and Williams qualifies as an audit committee financial expert, as defined by applicable SEC regulations.

Section 16(a) Beneficial Ownership Reporting Compliance

Section 16(a) of the Securities Exchange Act requires all of Origen's directors and executive officers and all persons who own more than 10% of Origen's common stock to file with the SEC reports of ownership and changes in ownership of Origen's common stock. Directors, executive officers and greater than 10% stockholders are required by SEC regulations to furnish Origen with copies of all Section 16(a) forms they file.

Table of Contents

Based solely on its review of the copies of Forms 3 and 4 furnished to Origen, or written representations from certain reporting persons that no such forms were required to be filed by such persons, Origen believes that all its directors, executive officers and beneficial owners of more than 10% of its common stock have complied with all filing requirements applicable to them, except that each of Messrs. Williams, Halpern, Rogel and Landschulz each did not timely file one report with respect to one transaction and Mr. Rand did not timely file two reports with respect to one transaction on each report.

Code of Business Conduct and Ethics

Our Board of Directors has established a Code of Business Conduct and Ethics that applies to all Origen directors, officers, and employees including the principal executive officer, the principal financial and accounting officer and the controller of Origen (and persons performing similar functions). Among other matters, the code of business conduct is designed to deter wrongdoing and to:

promote the honest and ethical conduct of all Origen personnel and employees;

promote the ethical handling of actual or apparent conflicts of interest between personal and professional relationships;

promote full, fair, accurate, timely and understandable disclosure in periodic reports required to be filed by Origen;

promote compliance with all applicable rules and regulations that apply to Origen and its employees; and facilitate prompt and appropriate internal reporting and accountability for violations of the code.

You may find a copy of this code under the Investors section of Origen's website at www.origenfinancial.com. Waivers to the code for executive officers or directors may be granted only by the Nominating and Governance Committee of the Board of Directors. In the event any such waivers are granted, we expect to promptly announce the waiver on the investor relations section of our website and to otherwise make such disclosure as is required by law and any applicable stock exchange regulations.

Origen has adopted a non-qualified capital accumulation plan that provides supplemental compensation to certain executive officers and employees on a deferred basis. Origen has the discretion to select which employees will be eligible to participate in the plan. The plan is intended to attract and maintain qualified individuals in key positions. The deferred compensation under the plan vests over a ten-year period, with the first 30% vesting beginning on the third anniversary of the employee's participation in the plan, and the remainder vesting at a rate of 10% per year, until the tenth anniversary of the employee's participation in the plan. The deferred compensation is paid to the employee, in a lump sum, following the tenth anniversary of the participant's enrollment in the plan. If a participant's employment is terminated for any reason after the third anniversary, but before the tenth anniversary, of his or her enrollment in the plan, Origen will pay the participant his or her vested portion of the deferred compensation, in a lump sum, following the tenth anniversary of his or her enrollment in the plan. If a participant dies before he or she has been enrolled in the plan for ten years, Origen has no obligation to pay any amount to the participant or the participant's beneficiaries. The following table sets forth the compensation payable to the Named Executive Officers under the capital accumulation plan.

Named Executive Officer	Compensation Payable Under Capital Accumulation Plan
Ronald A. Klein	$ 400,000
W. Anderson Geater	$ 400,000
J. Peter Scherer	$ 400,000
Mark W. Landschulz	$ 400,000
Benton Sergi	$ 225,000

Origen has adopted a split-dollar life insurance plan that, through individual life insurance policies, provides death benefits to a participant's beneficiaries and coordinates with the capital accumulation plan described above. Under the split-dollar plan, Origen is the sole owner of each life insurance policy and pays all premiums due under the policies. Upon a participant's death, a portion of the death benefit is paid to the participant's designated beneficiary and a portion of the death benefit is paid to Origen. It is intended that the policies under the split-dollar plan provide key man insurance benefits to Origen, and the cash build-up in the policies is intended to fund the payment of benefits under the capital accumulation plan described above. Participation in the split-dollar plan terminates upon the earlier of a participant's death or the tenth anniversary of a participant's enrollment in the capital accumulation plan. In addition, the split-dollar plan will terminate, as to all participants, upon the total cessation of Origen's business, if Origen files for bankruptcy, if it is put into receivership or if it is dissolved. Upon the plan's termination, participants have the right to acquire the life insurance policy from Origen for the then current cash surrender value of the policy.
