ITEM 4.02. Non-Reliance on Previously Issued Financial Statements and Related Audit Report

On November 6, 2007, the Audit Committee of the Board of Directors of CytRx Corporation (CytRx, we, us, our and the Company) approved the recommendation of our management that our consolidated financial statements for the quarter ended June 30, 2007 should no longer be relied upon, because of corrections in our accounting for an equity transaction by our majority-owned subsidiary, RXi Pharmaceuticals Corporation (RXi), the accounting for tax withholding amounts related to common stock option exercises and the reclassification of certain general and administrative expenses as research and development expenses.

For the quarter ended June 30, 2007, we originally reported additional paid-in capital of $2.3 million attributable to RXi's issuance to the University of Massachusetts Medical School, or UMMS, of approximately 462,000 shares of RXi common stock in payment for RXi's acquisition of four technology licenses and an invention disclosure agreement entered into with UMMS in January 2007. In the restatement, the $2.3 million will be properly reflected as minority interest in RXi, resulting in a corresponding reduction in additional paid-in capital and stockholders' equity, on the consolidated balance sheet of CytRx as of June 30, 2007. We also will record an increased loss attributable to minority interests of $176,000 in the consolidated statements of operations for the three-month and six-month periods ended June 30, 2007, which will result in decreases in our consolidated net loss by the same amount for the respective periods. Additionally, during the quarter ended June 30, 2007, we originally reported $227,000 in amounts withheld from employees for income taxes on compensation derived from exercises of options to purchase our common stock as an offset to general and administrative expenses in the consolidated statements of operations for the three and six-month periods ended June 30, 2007. In the restatement, the $227,000 will be reclassified as a current liability on the consolidated balance sheet as of June 30, 2007, which will result in an increase in our consolidated net loss by the same amount for both the three-month and six-month periods ended June 30, 2007 consolidated statements of operations. The net effect of the correction of both of these items will be a $51,000 increase in our consolidated net loss reported in the consolidated statements of operations for the three-month and six-month periods ended June 30, 2007, which does not result in any change in our reported earnings per share for these same periods.

For the quarter ended June 30, 2007, our originally-reported general and administrative expenses included charges of approximately $391,000 that we determined are properly classified as research and development expenses. The reclassification of these expenses as research and development expenses in the restatement will have no effect on our consolidated net loss for that period.

Corrective Measures.

Following the filing of this Report, we plan to file an amendment to our Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended June 30, 2007 to restate the consolidated financial statements contained in that report to reflect the proper accounting for RXi's equity transactions during the quarter and the reclassifications of the tax withholding amounts related to common stock option exercises and general and administrative expenses.

Our Audit Committee and executive officers have discussed the matters described herein with BDO Seidman, LLP, our independent registered public accounting firm.
