ITEM 5. OTHER EVENTS AND REGULATION FD DISCLOSURE

As previously disclosed by the Company, on February 13, 2004, we commenced litigation against a former director, Mr. Steven T. Stull, Advantage Capital Partners ("ACP") and their respective insurers in the Civil District Court for the Parish of Orleans in the State of Louisiana entitled OMNI Energy Services Corp. v. Steven T. Stull, Advantage Capital Partners, ABC Insurance Company, and XYZ Insurance Company. The suit alleges damages resulting from a secret quid pro quo scheme designed and implemented by Mr. Stull and ACP with the company's former, now deceased, chief executive officer, the actions of which are considered self-dealing and are in violation of Mr. Stull's fiduciary duties owed to the Company. The suit also requests the court to determine our right under the Company's Articles of Incorporation, as amended, to redeem the Series A 8% Convertible Preferred Stock rather than to convert the shares into common stock. Furthermore, to the extent the court determines we did not have a right to redeem, rather than convert, the Series A Preferred Stock, the suit requests the court to determine that the Unanimous Consent of the Board of Directors entered into on November 7, 2000 which, among other things, reduced the conversion price of the Series A Preferred Stock from $2.50 to $0.75, is null and void and without effect because it was accomplished by the defendants in violation of fiduciary duties and/or public policy and Louisiana law.

On April 5, 2004, the Company and its chief executive officer, James C. Eckert, and its chief financial officer, G. Darcy Klug, were served with an original complaint filed in the U.S. District Court for the Eastern District of Louisiana entitled Advantage Capital Partners II Limited Partnership, et. al. v. OMNI Energy Services Corp., James C. Eckert and G. Darcy Klug (Civil Action 04-0878). The plaintiffs claim that (i) the Company and the officers misrepresented material facts and failed to disclose material facts related to its intention to redeem the Series A and Series B Convertible Preferred Stock of the Company, and (ii) the officers of the Company breached their fiduciary duties. The plaintiffs claim damages of approximately $60 million. The Company has agreed to indemnify its officers in this matter and will vigorously defend this lawsuit to the fullest extent possible. Our costs and legal exposure related to this lawsuit are not currently determinable.
