CTO LEAVES MATÁV

BUDAPEST March 31, 2004 Matáv (NYSE: MTA.N and BSE: MTAV.BU), the leading Hungarian telecommunications service provider hereby announces that Mr. Manfred Ohl Chief Technical Officer and Chief Officer of Matáv's Network Systems has resigned from his position effective April 30, 2004.

Mr. Ohl has been serving as Chief Technical Officer since January 1, 1999. Since January 1, 2002 he has also been carrying out the role of Chief Officer of Matáv's Network Systems. As of May 1, 2004 he becomes the Chief Technical Officer of the Croatian telecoms company Hrvatske Telekomunikacije. The management of Matáv Group would like to take this opportunity to express their appreciation for Mr. Ohl's contribution to the company.

The appointment of Mr. Ohl's successor is currently under consideration.

This investor news contains forward-looking statements. Statements that are not historical facts, including statements about our beliefs and expectations, are forward-looking statements. These statements are based on current plans, estimates and projections, and therefore should not have undue reliance placed upon them. Forward-looking statements speak only as of the date they are made, and we undertake no obligation to update publicly any of them in light of new information or future events.

Forward-looking statements involve inherent risks and uncertainties. We caution you that a number of important factors could cause actual results to differ materially from those contained in any forward-looking statement. Such factors are described in, among other things, our Annual Report on Form 20-F for the year ended December 31, 2002 filed with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission.
