On June 4, 2007, the Board of Directors of Kaiser Aluminum Corporation (the Company), upon the recommendation of its Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee, selected Carolyn Bartholomew to fill the vacancy on the Board of Directors of the Company resulting from the death of George Becker in February 2006. Ms. Bartholomew, Chairman of U.S.-China Economic and Security Review Commission, was designated by the United Steelworkers, or USW, pursuant to the Director Designation Agreement between the Company and the USW, which gives the USW certain rights with respect to the nomination of directors comprising at least 40% of the Company's Board of Directors. The Director Designation Agreement is described in, and attached as Exhibit 4.1 to, the Company's Form 8-A filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission on July 6, 2006. Ms. Bartholomew will serve as a Class II director and will hold office for a term expiring at the Company's annual meeting of stockholders to be held in 2008 and until her successor is elected and qualified.

Ms. Bartholomew will receive the standard compensation provided to all of the Company's non-employee directors. The standard compensation paid to non-employee directors includes an annual cash retainer, an annual grant of restricted stock, meeting fees and expense reimbursement.
