RISK FACTORS

In deciding whether or not to buy shares of Fifth Third common stock offered by this document, you should consider the following factors:

Fifth Third's future acquisition will dilute your ownership of Fifth Third and may cause Fifth Third to become more susceptible to adverse economic events.

Fifth Third's future business acquisitions could be material to Fifth Third. Fifth Third may issue additional shares of common stock to pay for those acquisitions, which would dilute your ownership interest in Fifth Third. Acquisitions also could require Fifth Third to use substantial cash or other liquid assets or to incur debt. In those events, Fifth Third could become more susceptible to economic downturns and competitive pressures.

If Fifth Third does not adjust to rapid changes in the financial services industry, its financial performance may suffer.

Fifth Third's ability to maintain its history of strong financial performance and return on investment to shareholders will depend in part on Fifth Third's ability to expand its scope of available financial services as needed to meet the needs and demands of its customers. In addition to the challenge of attracting and retaining customers for traditional banking services, Fifth Third's competitors now include securities dealers, brokers, mortgage bankers, investment advisors and finance and insurance companies who seek to offer one-stop financial services to their customers that may include services that banks have not been able or allowed to offer to their customers in the past. The increasingly competitive environment is a result primarily of changes in regulation, changes in technology and product delivery systems and the accelerating pace of consolidation among financial services providers.

Difficulties in combining the operations of acquired entities with Fifth Third's own operations may prevent Fifth Third from achieving the expected benefits from its acquisitions.

Fifth Third may not be able to achieve fully the strategic objectives and operating efficiencies in all of its acquisitions. Inherent uncertainties exist in integrating the operations of an acquired company into Fifth Third. In addition, the markets and industries in which Fifth Third operates are highly competitive. Fifth Third also may lose key personnel, either from the acquired entities or from itself, as a result of acquisitions. These factors could contribute to Fifth Third not achieving the expected benefits from its acquisitions within the desired time frames, if at all.

Future governmental regulation and legislation could limit Fifth Third's future growth.

Fifth Third and its subsidiaries are subject to extensive state and federal regulation, supervision, and legislation which govern almost all aspects of the operations of Fifth Third and its subsidiaries. These laws may change from time to time and are primarily intended for the protection of consumers, depositors, and the deposit insurance funds. The impact of any changes to these laws may negatively impact Fifth Third's ability to expand its services and to increase the value of its business. While we cannot predict what effect any presently contemplated or future changes in the laws or regulations or their interpretations would have on Fifth Third, these changes could be materially adverse to Fifth Third's shareholders.

Changes in interest rates could reduce Fifth Third's income and cash flows.

Fifth Third's income and cash flows depend to a great extent on the difference between the interest rates earned on interest-earning assets such as loans and investment securities, and the interest rates paid on interest-bearing liabilities such as deposits and borrowings. These rates are highly sensitive to many factors which are beyond Fifth Third's control, including general economic conditions and the policies of various governmental and regulatory agencies, in particular, the Federal Reserve Board. Changes in monetary policy, including changes in interest rates, will influence the origination of loans, the purchase of investments, the generation of deposits, and the rates received on loans and investment securities and paid on deposits. Fluctuations in these areas may adversely affect Fifth Third.

Edgar Filing: FIFTH THIRD BANCORP - Form 424B1

FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

This document, including information incorporated by reference into this document, contains or may contain forward-looking statements about Fifth Third which we believe are within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. This document contains certain forward-looking statements with respect to the financial condition, results of operations, plans, objectives, future performance and business of Fifth Third, including statements preceded by, followed by or that include the words "believes," "expects," "anticipates" or similar expressions. These forward-looking statements involve certain risks and uncertainties. Factors that may cause actual results to differ materially from those contemplated by such forward-looking statements include, among others, those risks discussed above. Further information on other factors which could affect the financial results of Fifth Third are included in the SEC filings incorporated by reference into this document. ### FIFTH THIRD BANCORP

Description of Business

Fifth Third is an Ohio corporation organized in 1975 as a bank holding company registered under the Bank Holding Company Act and subject to regulation by the Federal Reserve Board. In 2000, Fifth Third elected to become a financial holding company under that Act. As of the date hereof, Fifth Third, with its principal office located in Cincinnati, owns all of the outstanding stock of five commercial banks and one savings bank with 673 offices in Ohio, Kentucky, Indiana, Michigan, Illinois, Florida and Arizona. Those institutions are: Fifth Third Bank; Fifth Third Bank, Florida; Fifth Third Bank, Northern Kentucky, Inc.; Fifth Third Bank, Kentucky, Inc.; Fifth Third Bank, Indiana; and Fifth Third Bank, Southwest, F.S.B.

At December 31, 2000, Fifth Third, its affiliated banks and other subsidiaries had consolidated total assets of approximately $45.9 billion, consolidated total deposits of approximately $30.9 billion and consolidated total shareholders' equity of approximately $4.9 billion.

Fifth Third, through its subsidiaries, engages primarily in commercial, retail and trust banking, data processing services, investment services and leasing activities and also provides credit life, accident and health insurance, discount brokerage services and property management for its properties. Those subsidiaries consist of The Fifth Third Company, Fifth Third Securities, Inc., The Fifth Third Leasing Company, Fifth Third Insurance Services, Inc., Fifth Third Mortgage Company, Midwest Payment Systems, Inc., Fifth Third Mortgage Insurance Reinsurance Company, Fifth Third International Company, Fifth Third Investment Company, Fifth Third Community Development Corporation, Fifth Third Trade Services Limited, Fifth Third Real Estate Capital Markets Co. and Heartland Capital Management, Inc. Fifth Third's affiliates provide a full range of financial products and services to the retail, commercial, financial, governmental, educational and medical sectors, including a wide variety of checking, savings and money market accounts, and credit products such as credit cards, installment loans, mortgage loans and leasing. Each of Fifth Third's subsidiary banks has deposit insurance provided by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation through either the Bank Insurance Fund and the Savings Association Insurance Fund.

Edgar Filing: FIFTH THIRD BANCORP - Form 424B1

Fifth Third, through its subsidiaries, also participates in several regional shared ATM networks, including "Money Station," "Pulse" and "Star." These networks include approximately 3,200, 46,000 and 115,000 ATMs, respectively. All Fifth Third banking subsidiaries also participate in the "PLUS System(R)" network, which is an international ATM network with approximately 563,000 ATMs.

Fifth Third is a corporate entity legally separate and distinct from its subsidiaries. The principal source of Fifth Third's income is dividends from its subsidiaries. There are certain regulatory restrictions as to the extent to which the subsidiaries can pay dividends or otherwise supply funds to Fifth Third. See "Description of Capital Stock."

Recent Developments

Fifth Third's strategy for growth includes strengthening its presence in core markets, expanding into contiguous markets and broadening its product offerings.

Fifth Third believes it has an excellent track record in integrating acquired businesses. Since 1989, Fifth Third has completed over 30 acquisitions, which have contributed to its growth. Consistent with this strategy, Fifth Third recently acquired Ottawa Financial Corporation and Capital Holdings, Inc. and entered into an agreement to acquire Old Kent Financial Corporation.

Ottawa Financial Corporation. On December 8, 2000, Fifth Third acquired Ottawa Financial Corporation, a unitary savings and loan holding company based in Holland, Michigan which owns AmeriBank. As of September 30, 2000, Ottawa had total assets of approximately $1.1 billion, deposits of approximately $732.8 million and shareholders' equity of approximately $83.2 million. Fifth Third issued approximately 3.7 million shares of Fifth Third common stock to shareholders of Ottawa in this merger. Based on the fair market value per share of Fifth Third common stock as of December 8, 2000, the closing date of this merger, these shares had an aggregate value of approximately $207.9 million. This merger was accounted for as a purchase.

Capital Holdings, Inc. On March 9, 2001, Fifth Third acquired Capital Holdings, Inc., a one bank holding company based in Sylvania, Ohio which owns Capital Bank, N.A. As of December 31, 2000, Capital Holdings had total assets of approximately $1.1 billion, deposits of approximately $871.4 million and shareholders' equity of approximately $100.8 million. Fifth Third issued approximately 4.51 million shares of Fifth Third common stock to shareholders of Capital Holdings in this merger. Based on the fair market value per share of Fifth Third common stock as of March 9, 2001, the closing date of this merger, these shares had an aggregate value of approximately $246.6 million. This merger was accounted for as a pooling-of-interests.

Old Kent Financial Corporation. On November 20, 2000, Fifth Third agreed to acquire Old Kent Financial Corporation, a financial holding company based in Grand Rapids, Michigan that owns Old Kent Bank and Old Kent Bank, National Association. As of December 31, 2000, Old Kent had total assets of approximately $23.8 billion, deposits of approximately $17.4 billion and shareholders' equity of approximately $1.8 billion.

In connection with the acquisition of Old Kent, holders of Old Kent common stock will receive .74 of a share of Fifth Third common stock for each outstanding share of Old Kent common stock. Fifth Third expects to issue approximately 107.3 million shares of Fifth Third common stock to shareholders of Old Kent. Based on the fair market value per share of Fifth

Third common stock as of March 27, 2001, these shares would have an aggregate value of approximately $5.6 billion. The merger agreement for this acquisition further states that each share of Old Kent series D perpetual preferred stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the effective time of the merger will be converted into one share of perpetual preferred stock of Fifth Third designated as Fifth Third series D perpetual preferred stock. The terms of the Fifth Third series D perpetual preferred stock will be substantially identical to the terms of the Old Kent series D perpetual preferred stock, except for such changes as may be required to give effect to the adjustment required by Section D.5.3.E. of the Old Kent certificate of designations, preferences and rights relating thereto in respect of the merger. Additionally, each share of Old Kent series E perpetual preferred stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the effective time of the merger will be converted into one share of perpetual preferred stock of Fifth Third designated as Fifth Third series E perpetual preferred stock. The terms of the Fifth Third series E perpetual preferred stock will be substantially identical to the terms of the Old Kent series E perpetual preferred stock.

Fifth Third expects that its acquisition of Old Kent will be accounted for as a pooling-of-interests and will be completed in the second quarter of 2001.

Capital Requirements

The Federal Reserve Board, the Office of the Comptroller of the Currency and the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation maintain guidelines to implement risk-based capital requirements for bank holding companies, state member banks, national banks and state non-member banks, respectively.

Under the guidelines, "well capitalized" bank holding companies are required to have total capital equivalent to 10% of assets, weighted by risk. One half of this capital must be Tier 1 capital, which consists of core capital elements including common shareholders' equity, retained earnings and perpetual preferred stock, to risk weighted assets. The other half of required capital (Tier 2) can include, among other supplementary capital elements, limited-life preferred stock and subordinated debt and loan loss reserves up to certain limits. The banking regulatory authorities also require "well capitalized" bank holding companies to have a Tier 1 capital to risk-based assets ratio of 6%. "Well capitalized" state member banks are required to have a total capital to risk-based assets ratio of 10%, a Tier 1 capital to risk-based assets ratio of 6% and a leverage ratio of 5%.

Under Federal Reserve Board policy, a holding company is expected to act as a source of financial strength to each subsidiary bank and to commit resources to support each of its subsidiaries. This support may be required at times when the holding company may not find itself able to provide it.

Fifth Third and each of its subsidiary depository institutions are in compliance with all applicable standards for well capitalized banking organizations. As of December 31, 2000, Fifth Third had a leverage ratio of 10.48%, its Tier 1 risk-based capital ratio was 12.71% and its total risk-based capital ratio was 14.45%.

General Regulation of Fifth Third

Edgar Filing: FIFTH THIRD BANCORP - Form 424B1

Fifth Third is extensively regulated under both federal and state law. To the extent that the following information describes statutory and regulatory provisions, it is qualified in its entirety by reference to the particular statutory and regulatory provisions.

Fifth Third is registered with and subject to regulation by the Federal Reserve Board. A bank holding company is required to file with the Federal Reserve Board an annual report and such additional information as the Federal Reserve Board may require pursuant to the Bank Holding Company Act. The Federal Reserve Board also may make examinations of a holding company and each of its subsidiaries.

The Bank Holding Company Act also restricts the types of businesses and operations in which a bank holding company and its subsidiaries (other than bank subsidiaries) may engage. Generally, permissible activities are limited to banking and activities found by the Federal Reserve Board to be so closely related to banking as to be a proper incident thereto.

The Gramm-Leach-Bliley Act, which became law on November 12, 1999, establishes a comprehensive framework to permit affiliations among commercial banks, insurance companies, securities firms and other financial service providers by revising and expanding the Bank Holding Company Act framework to permit a holding company system, such as Fifth Third, to engage in a full range of financial activities through a new entity known as a financial holding company. Fifth Third has elected to become a financial holding company. "Financial activities" are broadly defined to include not only banking, insurance, and securities activities, but also merchant banking and additional activities that the Federal Reserve Board, in consultation with the Secretary of the Treasury, determines to be financial in nature as well as activities that the Federal Reserve Board determines are complimentary thereto. In sum, the Gramm-Leach-Bliley Act is intended to permit bank holding companies that qualify and elect to be treated as a financial holding company to engage in a significantly broader range of activities described above that are not so treated.

In order to elect to become a financial holding company and engage in the new activities, a bank holding company must meet certain tests and file an election form with the Federal Reserve Board. To qualify, all of a bank holding company's subsidiary banks must be well-capitalized and well-managed, as measured by regulatory guidelines. In addition, to engage in the new activities each of the bank holding company's banks must have been rated "satisfactory" or better in its most recent Federal Community Reinvestment Act evaluation. Furthermore, a bank holding company that elects to be treated as a financial holding company may face significant consequences if its banks fail to maintain the required capital and management ratings including entering into an agreement with the Federal Reserve Board which imposes limitations on its operations and may even require divestitures.

General Regulation of Depository Institutions

The operations of the subsidiary depository institutions of Fifth Third are subject to requirements and restrictions under federal and state law, including requirements to maintain reserves against deposits, restrictions on the types and amounts of loans that may be granted and the interest that may be charged thereon, and limitations on the types of investments that may be made and the types of services which may be offered. Various consumer laws and regulations also affect the operations of these subsidiary depository institutions.

National banks are subject to the supervision of and are regularly examined by the Comptroller of the Currency. In addition, national banks may be members of the Federal Reserve System and their deposits are insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation and, as such, are subject to regulation and examination by each agency. Federal savings banks are subject to the supervision and regulation of the Office of Thrift Supervision. State-chartered banking corporations are subject to federal and state regulation of their business and activities, including the Federal Reserve Board and: in the case of banks chartered in Ohio, by the Ohio Division of Financial Institutions, in the case of banks chartered in Kentucky, by the Kentucky Department of Financial Institutions, in the case of banks chartered in Michigan, by the Michigan Office of Financial and Insurance Services, and in the case of banks chartered in Florida, by the Florida Department of Banking and Finance.

USE OF PROCEEDS

Fifth Third will not receive any proceeds from the sale of the common stock by the selling shareholders. See "Selling Shareholders."

SELLING SHAREHOLDERS

The shares of common stock offered hereby were issued to the selling shareholders pursuant to the Agreement and Plan of Merger dated as of September 17, 1997 by and among Fifth Third, Fifth Third A Corp, an Indiana corporation and wholly-owned subsidiary of Fifth Third, and Heartland Capital Management, Inc., an Indiana corporation, and the selling shareholders. Pursuant to the merger agreement, Fifth Third A Corp merged with and into Heartland on November 24, 1997.

In the merger, Heartland stockholders received an aggregate of 234,004 shares of Fifth Third Common Stock. On March 17, 1998, Fifth Third declared a three-for-two stock split to be effected in the form of a stock dividend distributed on April 15, 1998. Accordingly, Fifth Third registered 351,004 shares of common stock on a registration statement (file no. 333-42379), which was declared effective by the SEC on April 7, 1998.

Pursuant to the merger agreement, the selling shareholders also received three additional grants of 36,804, 56,858 and 71,065 shares of common stock on February 12, 1999, February 4, 2000 and January 24, 2001, respectively. Additionally, on June 20, 2000, Fifth Third declared a three-for-two stock split to be effected in the form of a stock dividend distributed on July 14, 2000. Accordingly, Fifth Third paid an aggregate of 186,332 shares of common stock to the selling shareholders in satisfaction of this stock dividend. All of these additional shares were registered on registration statements nos. 333-80919, 333-34798 and 333-56450, which were declared effective by the SEC on July 26, 1999, May 3, 2000 and March 29, 2001, respectively.

On December 30, 1998, Barry Ebert transferred 72,000 shares of common stock that he received in the merger to Barry Ebert, Trustee, and Anita Ebert, Trustee, under Agreement dated December 15, 1998 by B. Ebert Charitable Remainder Unit Trust, an Indiana trust. On February 11, 1999, the Trust sold 5,000 shares of common stock and on February 23, 1999, the Trust sold another 30,000 shares. On July 22, 1999, the Trust sold its final 37,000 shares of common stock. Additionally, on July 14, 2000, Thomas Maurath sold 6,954 shares of common stock and in January 2001 Robert Markley sold 31,990 shares. Therefore, only 591,119 of the original 702,063 shares registered on registration statements nos. 333-42379, 333-80919, 333-34798 and 333-56450 remain.

This prospectus relates to all of the remaining 591,119 shares registered on all four of these registration statements, as permitted by Rule 429 promulgated under the Securities Act.

Fifth Third has agreed to file with the SEC a registration statement under the Securities Act and maintain its effectiveness until the earlier of (1) one year after the issuance of the shares to the selling shareholders, or (2) the first date as of which all shares of common stock offered hereby have been sold pursuant to the registration statement or otherwise cease to be registrable shares. Under the terms of the merger agreement, Fifth Third has agreed to pay all expenses incurred in connection with the registration of the shares of common stock being sold by the selling shareholders; provided, however, that Fifth Third will not pay any selling commissions, discounts, underwriting or advisory fees, brokers' fees or fees of similar securities industry professionals relating to the sale of the shares of common stock offered hereby. Fifth Third has agreed to indemnify the selling shareholders and any underwriters against certain liabilities, including liabilities under the Securities Act.

The following table sets forth certain information with respect to the selling shareholders and the number of shares of common stock which may be sold pursuant to this document. Prior to the effective time of the merger, no selling shareholder held any positions or offices or had any other material relationships with Fifth Third, or any of its predecessors or affiliates, during the past three years.

DESCRIPTION OF CAPITAL STOCK

Fifth Third is currently authorized to issue 1,300,000,000 shares of Fifth Third common stock, no par value, and 500,000 shares of preferred stock, no par value. As of February 28, 2001, Fifth Third had outstanding 466,650,349 shares of Fifth Third common stock and no shares of Fifth Third preferred stock. The following summary description of the capital stock of Fifth

Third does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to Fifth Third's articles of incorporation and code of regulations.

Common Stock

Voting Rights. Under Fifth Third's articles of incorporation, as amended, the holders of common stock have no preemptive rights and the common stock has no redemption, sinking fund, or conversion privileges. The holders of Fifth Third common stock are entitled to one vote per share on all matters submitted to a vote of stockholders. Fifth Third's code of regulations provides for the division of its board of directors into three classes of approximately equal size. Directors are elected for three-year terms, and the terms of office of approximately one-third of the classified board of directors expire each year. This classification of the board of Fifth Third may make it more difficult for a shareholder to acquire immediate control of Fifth Third and remove management by means of a hostile takeover. Since the terms of approximately one-third of the incumbent directors expire each year, at least two annual elections are necessary for the shareholders to replace a majority of directors, whereas a majority of the directors of a non-classified board of directors may be replaced in one annual meeting.

Fifth Third's articles of incorporation contain another potential anti-takeover device. As stated above, Fifth Third is authorized to issue 500,000 shares of Fifth Third preferred stock, and its board of directors may designate various characteristics and rights of Fifth Third preferred stock, including conversion rights. Accordingly, as an anti-takeover measure, Fifth Third's board of directors may authorize the conversion of shares of Fifth Third preferred stock into any number of shares of Fifth Third common stock and thus dilute the outstanding shares of Fifth Third common stock. Subject to the board's fiduciary duties, Fifth Third could issue convertible preferred stock with the purpose or effect of deterring or preventing a takeover of Fifth Third.

The holders of Fifth Third common stock have the right to vote cumulatively in the election of directors. Under applicable Ohio law, unless a corporation's articles of incorporation are amended to provide that no shareholder of the corporation may cumulate his or her voting power, each shareholder has the right to vote cumulatively in the election of directors of the corporation if (1) written notice is given by any shareholder of the corporation to the president, a vice president or the secretary of such corporation, not less than forty-eight hours before the time fixed for holding the meeting at which directors are to be elected, indicating that the shareholder desires that voting for the election of directors be cumulative, and (2) announcement of the giving of this notice is made upon the convening of the meeting by the chairman or the secretary or by or on behalf of the shareholder giving the notice. In this event, each shareholder will be entitled to cumulate the voting power as he or she possesses and to give one nominee as many votes as the number of directors to be elected multiplied by the number of his or her shares, or to distribute these votes on the same principle among two or more candidates, as each shareholder sees fit. The availability of cumulative voting rights enhances the ability of minority shareholders to obtain representation on the board of directors.

Dividends. Holders of Fifth Third common stock are entitled to dividends as and when declared by the board of directors out of funds legally available for the payment of dividends.

Fifth Third has, in the past, declared and paid dividends on a quarterly basis, and intends to continue to do so in the immediate future in such amounts as its board of directors shall determine.

Most of the revenues of Fifth Third available for payment of dividends derive from amounts paid to it by its subsidiaries. Under applicable banking law, the total of all dividends declared in any calendar year by a national bank or a state-chartered bank may not, without the approval of the Comptroller of the Currency, the Federal Reserve Board, or the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation, as the case may be, exceed the aggregate of such bank's net profits and retained net profits for the preceding two years. No affiliate of Fifth Third has ever been prohibited from declaring dividends or restricted in paying any dividends declared.

If, in the opinion of the applicable regulatory authority, a depository institution under its jurisdiction is engaged in or is about to engage in an unsafe or unsound practice (which, depending on the financial condition of the depository institution, could include the payment of dividends), the authority may require, after notice and hearing, that the bank cease and desist from the practice. The Federal Reserve Board has similar authority with respect to bank holding companies. In addition, the Federal Reserve Board, the Comptroller of the Currency and the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation have issued policy statements which provide that insured banks and bank holding companies should generally only pay dividends out of current operating earnings. Finally, the regulatory authorities have established guidelines with respect to the maintenance of appropriate levels of capital by a bank, bank holding company or savings association under their jurisdiction. Compliance with the standards set forth in these guidelines could limit the amount of dividends which Fifth Third and its affiliates may pay in the future.

Rights Upon Liquidation. In the event of any liquidation, dissolution or winding up of Fifth Third, so long as it has not issued preferred stock, the holders of Fifth Third common stock would be entitled to receive, after payment or provision for payment of all debts and liabilities of Fifth Third (including the payment of all fees, taxes and other expenses incidental thereto), the remaining assets of Fifth Third available for distribution. If Fifth Third preferred stock is issued, the holders of Fifth Third preferred stock may have priority over the holders of Fifth Third common stock in the event of liquidation or dissolution.

Preferred Stock

In connection with Fifth Third's acquisition of Old Kent Financial Corporation, Fifth Third has agreed to issue 7,250 shares of its newly-created series D preferred stock and 2,000 shares of its newly-created series E preferred stock. The terms of such shares will be substantially identical to the terms of Old Kent's currently outstanding series D and series E preferred stock. These series of preferred stock are described in the joint proxy statement/prospectus relating to the special meetings of Fifth Third's and Old Kent's shareholders in connection with that merger. Fifth Third will provide you with a copy of the description of such series D and series E preferred stock contained in such proxy statement upon your request delivered in accordance with the procedures described under "Where You Can Find More Information."

Pursuant to Fifth Third's articles of incorporation the Fifth Third board of directors may, without further action of Fifth Third's shareholders, (a) divide into one or more new series the authorized shares of Fifth Third preferred stock which have not previously been designated, (b) fix the number of shares constituting any such new series, and (c) fix the dividend rates, payment dates, whether dividend rights shall be cumulative or non-cumulative, conversion rights, redemption rights (including sinking fund provisions) and liquidation preferences. Except as otherwise provided by law, holders of any series of Fifth Third preferred stock shall not be entitled to vote on any matter.

Change of Control Provisions

The articles of incorporation and code of regulations of Fifth Third contain various provisions which could make more difficult a change-of-control of Fifth Third or discourage a tender offer or other plan to restructure Fifth Third. The ability of Fifth Third to issue shares of Fifth Third preferred stock may have the effect of delaying, deferring or preventing a change-of-control of Fifth Third. Fifth Third's classified board of directors may also make it more difficult for a shareholder to acquire immediate control of Fifth Third. Additionally, Ohio law contains provisions which would also make more difficult a change-of-control of Fifth Third or discourage a tender offer or other plan to restructure Fifth Third. The following discussion of some of these provisions is qualified in its entirety by reference to those particular statutory and regulatory provisions.

Ohio Control Share Acquisition Act. Section 1701.831 of the Ohio Revised Code, the Ohio Control Share Acquisition Act, provides that any "control share acquisition" of an Ohio issuing public corporation shall be made only with the prior authorization of the shareholders of the issuing public corporation in accordance with the provisions of the Ohio Control Share Acquisition Act. A "control share acquisition" is defined under the Ohio Control Share Acquisition Act to mean the acquisition, directly or indirectly, by any person of shares of an issuing public corporation that, when added to all other shares of the issuing public corporation such person owns, would entitle such person, directly or indirectly, to exercise voting power in the election of directors within the following ranges: more than 20%; more than 33%; and a majority.

The Ohio Control Share Acquisition Act also requires that the acquiring person must deliver an acquiring person statement to the Ohio issuing public corporation. The Ohio issuing public corporation must then call a special meeting of its shareholders to vote upon the proposed acquisition within 50 days after receipt of such acquiring person statement, unless the acquiring person agrees to a later date.

The Ohio Control Share Acquisition Act further specifies that the shareholders of the Ohio issuing public corporation must approve the proposed control share acquisition by certain percentages at a special meeting of shareholders at which a quorum is present. In order to comply with the Ohio Control Share Acquisition Act, the acquiring person may only acquire the shares of the Ohio issuing public corporation upon the affirmative vote of (1) a majority of the voting power of the shares of the Ohio issuing public corporation common stock that is represented in person or by proxy at the separate special meeting, and (2) a majority of the voting power of the shares of the Ohio issuing public corporation common stock that is represented in person or by proxy at the special meeting excluding those shares of the Ohio issuing public corporation common stock deemed to be "interested shares" for purposes of the Ohio Control Share Acquisition Act.

"Interested shares" are defined under the Ohio Control Share Acquisition Act to mean shares in respect of which the voting power is controlled by any of the following persons: (1) an acquiring person; (2) any officer of the Ohio issuing public corporation; or (3) any employee who is also a director of the Ohio issuing public corporation. "Interested shares" also include shares of the Ohio issuing public corporation common stock that are acquired by any person after the date of the first public disclosure of the proposed merger and the date of the special meeting, if either: (a) the aggregate consideration paid by such person, and any person acting in concert with him for such shares of the Ohio issuing public corporation common stock exceeds $250,000, or (b) the number of shares acquired by such person, and any person acting in concert with him, exceeds one-half of one percent of the outstanding shares of the Ohio issuing public corporation common stock.

Ohio Merger Moratorium Statute. Chapter 1704 of the Ohio Revised Code prohibits an issuing public corporation from engaging in certain transactions with an interested shareholder for a period of three years following the date on which the person became an interested shareholder unless, prior to such date, the directors of the issuing public corporation approve either the transaction or the acquisition of shares pursuant to which such person became an interested shareholder. Fifth Third is an issuing public corporation for purposes of the statute. An interested shareholder is any person who is the beneficial owner of a sufficient number of shares to allow such person, directly or indirectly, alone or with others, including affiliates and associates, to exercise or direct the exercise of 10% of the voting power of the issuing public corporation in the election of directors.

The transactions restricted by Chapter 1704 include:

- . any merger, consolidation, combination, or majority share acquisition between or involving an issuing public corporation and an interested shareholder or an affiliate or associate of an interested shareholder;
- . certain transfers of property, dividends, and issuance or transfers of shares, from or by an issuing public corporation or a subsidiary of an issuing public corporation to, with, or for the benefit of an interested shareholder or an affiliate or associate of an interested shareholder unless such transaction is in the ordinary course of business of the issuing public corporation on terms no more favorable to the interested shareholder than those acceptable to third parties as demonstrated by contemporaneous transactions; and
- . certain transactions which (1) increase the proportionate share ownership of an interested shareholder, (2) result in the adoption of a plan or proposal for the dissolution, winding up of the affairs, or liquidation of the issuing public corporation if such plan is proposed by or on behalf of the interested shareholder, or (3) pledge or extend the credit or financial resources of the issuing public corporation to or for the benefit of the interested shareholder.

After the initial three-year moratorium has expired, an issuing public corporation may engage in a transaction subject to Chapter 1704 if: (1) the acquisition of shares pursuant to which the person became an interested shareholder received the prior approval of the board of directors of the issuing public corporation, (2) the transaction subject to Chapter 1704 is approved by the affirmative vote of the holders of shares representing at least two-thirds of the voting power of the issuing public corporation and by the holders of shares representing at least a majority of voting shares which are not beneficially owned by an interested shareholder or an affiliate or associate of an interested shareholder, or (3) the transaction subject to Chapter 1704 meets certain statutory tests designed to ensure that it be economically fair to all shareholders.

Ohio Tender Offer Procedures. Ohio law also provides that an offeror may not make a tender offer or request an invitation for tenders that would result in the offeror beneficially owning more than 10% of any class of the target company's equity securities unless such offeror files certain information with the Ohio Division of Securities and provides such information to the target company and the offerees within Ohio. The Ohio Division of Securities may suspend the continuation of the control bid if it determines that the offeror's filed information does not provide full disclosure to the offerees of all material information concerning the control bid. The statute also provides that an offeror may not acquire any equity security of a target company within two years of the offeror's previous acquisition of any equity security of the same target company pursuant to a control bid unless the Ohio offerees may sell such security to the offeror on substantially the same terms as provided by the previous control bid. The statute does not apply to a transaction if either the offeror or the target company is a savings and loan or bank holding company and the proposed transaction requires federal regulatory approval.

Dissenter's Rights. Under Ohio law, shareholders have the right to dissent from certain corporate actions and receive the fair cash value for their shares if they follow certain procedures. Shareholders entitled to relief as dissenting shareholders under Ohio law are:

- . shareholders of an Ohio corporation dissenting from certain amendments to the corporation's articles of incorporation;
- . shareholders of an Ohio corporation that is being merged or consolidated into a surviving or new entity;
- . shareholders of a surviving Ohio corporation to a merger who are entitled to vote on the adoption of an agreement of merger (but only as to the shares so entitling them to vote);
- . shareholders, other than the parent corporation, of an Ohio subsidiary corporation that is being merged into its parent corporation;

- . shareholders of an acquiring corporation in a combination or a majority share acquisition who are entitled to vote on such transaction (but only as to the shares so entitling them to vote); and
- . shareholders of a domestic subsidiary corporation into which one or more domestic or foreign corporations are being merged.

Transfer Agent and Registrar

The transfer agent and registrar for the common stock is Fifth Third Bank, Cincinnati, Ohio.

PLAN OF DISTRIBUTION

The selling shareholders named in this document and other persons described below may offer these shares for sale. Additional persons may be named or described in one or more amendments or supplements to this document. Offers and sales of these shares may be subject to certain delay periods described below. Under the merger agreement, Fifth Third is required to maintain the effectiveness of the registration statement to which this document relates until the earlier of (1) one year after the issuance of the shares to the selling shareholders, or (2) the first date as of which all registrable shares have been sold pursuant to the registration statement or otherwise cease to be registrable shares.

Under the terms of the merger agreement, Fifth Third may in its sole discretion, based on any valid business purpose, suspend the use of the registration statement for reasonable periods of time; provided that the aggregate number of days included in all of these delay periods during any consecutive twelve months shall not exceed 120 days. Fifth Third shall provide written notice to each selling shareholder at the beginning and end of each delay period.

Subject in all cases to the restrictions in the merger agreement described above, any distribution hereunder of the common stock by the selling shareholders may be effected from time to time in one or more of the following transactions: (1) through brokers, acting as principal or agent, in transactions (which may involve block transactions) on the Nasdaq National Market or otherwise, at market prices obtainable at the time of sale, at prices related to such prevailing market prices, at negotiated prices or at fixed prices, (2) to underwriters who will acquire shares of common stock for their own account and resell such shares in one or more transactions, including negotiated transactions, at a fixed public offering price or at varying prices determined at the time of sale (any public offering price and any discount or concessions allowed or reallocated or paid to dealers may be changed from time to time), (3) directly or through brokers or agents in private sales at negotiated prices, (4) to lenders pledged as collateral to secure loans, credit or other financing arrangements and any subsequent foreclosure, if any, thereunder, (5) to or through trusts created by the selling shareholders, or (6) by any other legally available means. Also, offers to purchase the common stock may be solicited by agents designated by the selling shareholders from time to time. Underwriters or other agents participating in an offering made pursuant to this document (as amended or supplemented from time to time) may receive underwriting discounts and commissions under the Securities Act, and discounts or concessions may be allowed or reallocated or paid to dealers, and brokers or agents participating in such transactions may receive brokerage or agent's commissions or fees.

In connection with distributions of the shares of common stock offered hereby or otherwise, the selling shareholders may enter into hedging transactions with broker-dealers or other financial institutions. In connection with such transactions, broker-dealers or other financial institutions may engage in short sales of the shares of common stock offered hereby in the course of hedging the positions they assume with selling shareholders. The selling shareholders may also sell short and redeliver the shares to close out such short portions. The selling shareholders may also enter into option or other transactions with broker-dealers or other financial institutions which require the delivery to such broker-dealer or other financial institution of the shares of common stock offered hereby, which shares such broker-dealer or other financial institution, may resell pursuant to this document (as supplemented or amended to reflect such transaction). The selling shareholders may also pledge the shares of common stock offered hereby to a broker-dealer or other financial institution and, upon a default, such broker-dealer or other financial institution may effect sales of the pledged common stock pursuant to this document (as supplemented or amended to reflect such transaction).

Underwriters. Certain costs, expenses and fees in connection with the registration of the shares of common stock offered hereby, including certain costs of legal counsel for the selling shareholders, will be borne by Fifth Third. Commissions, discounts and transfer taxes, if any, attributable to the sales of the shares of common stock offered hereby will be borne by the selling shareholders. The selling shareholders have agreed to indemnify Fifth Third, each of its directors and officers, and each person, if any, who controls Fifth Third within the meaning of the Securities Act, against certain liabilities in connection with the offering of the shares of common stock offered hereby pursuant to this document, including liabilities arising under the Securities Act. In addition, Fifth Third has agreed to indemnify the selling shareholders against certain liabilities in connection with the offering of the shares of common stock pursuant to this document, including liabilities arising under the Securities Act.

Brokers, dealers and other persons who sell these shares may be deemed to be "underwriters" for purposes of the Securities Act of 1933. However, no one has conceded that they will be acting as an "underwriter" in selling these shares.

This document may be amended and supplemented from time to time to describe a specific plan of distribution. In addition, any securities covered by this document which qualify for sale pursuant to Rule 145 may be sold under Rule 145 rather than pursuant to this document.
