Item 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement

On August 1, 2007, NeuStar, Inc. (the Company ) was notified by the Federal Communications Commission (the FCC ) that the Company has been awarded the contract (the Pooling Contract ) to serve as the National Pooling Administrator. The Company has been serving as the National Pooling Administrator since June 2001 under a previously awarded contract by the FCC.

The Pooling Contract is a fixed-fee government contract whose term will commence at the expiration of the Company's existing contract to serve as National Pooling Administrator, which will occur on August 14, 2007. The Pooling Contract has an initial term of two years and has three one-year options exercisable by the FCC.

In addition to provisions regarding the contractual requirements for pooling administration, the Pooling Contract also contains customary terms for a government contract of this type, including indemnification, confidentiality, dispute resolution provisions, and the incorporation by reference of numerous provisions of the Federal Acquisition Regulation. The Pooling Contract also contains terms relating to neutrality requirements to which the Company is subject.

In addition to serving as the National Pooling Administrator, the Company has in the past served, and continues to serve, as the North American Numbering Plan Administrator pursuant to a separate contract with the FCC.

Item 7.01 Regulation FD Disclosure.

On August 2, 2007, the Company issued a press release announcing the award of the Pooling Contract to the Company by the FCC. A copy of the press release is attached hereto as Exhibit 99.1 and is incorporated herein by reference.
