SECOND PROXY ADVISORY FIRM RECOMMENDS RE-ELECTION OF ONLINE RESOURCES DIRECTORS

CHANTILLY, Va., May 4, 2009 Online Resources Corporation (Nasdaq: ORCC), a leading provider of online financial services, today announced that independent proxy advisory firm Egan-Jones is recommending that shareholders re-elect three members of the Online Resources Board at the Company's annual meeting on May 6, 2009. Egan-Jones joins Glass, Lewis & Co. in recommending against the full slate of Board nominees sponsored by hedge fund Tennenbaum Capital Partners.

We believe that the current slate of directors presented by the management is in the best interest of the Company and its shareholders, stated Egan-Jones. We recommend voting the management's White proxy card. In arriving at its conclusion, Egan-Jones stated that it considered several factors put forward by the Company in its proxy materials. Those factors include Tennenbaum's conflict of interest with those of other common shareholders, the current Board's ability to best represent all shareholder interests and the Company's plan to increase shareholder value. The Company's full description of each of the above factors can be found on its web site at <http://investor.orcc.com>, under Important Information About Our 2009 Annual Meeting of Shareholders.
