Item 1.02. Termination of a Material Definitive Agreement

Effective February 27, 2006, Intervoice, Inc. (the Company) terminated its Amended and Restated Credit Agreement dated as of June 3, 2004 with Wells Fargo Bank, National Association (the Bank), as previously amended (the Prior Agreement). The security interests granted to the Bank to secure the Company s obligations under the Prior Agreement were also terminated and released. The Company had no borrowings (other than letters of credit) under the Prior Agreement at the time of its termination. The Prior Agreement was replaced with a new unsecured letter of credit facility (the Letter of Credit Facility) that provides for the Bank to issue letters of credit in an aggregate amount that will at no time exceed $2,000,000. Letters of Credit in an aggregate amount less than $200,000 previously issued under the Prior Agreement are included under the Letter of Credit Facility. The provisions of the Letter of Credit Facility include representations, covenants and events of default that are similar to provisions included in the Prior Agreement. At any time there is not a default under the Letter of Credit Facility, the Company may terminate the facility, and the Bank will permit all issued letters of credit to remain outstanding, so long as the Company pays the Bank an amount equal to the aggregate face amount of such outstanding letters of credit plus the applicable bank fees. The Company will then recoup any such payment (other than the bank fees) as and when the Bank s obligations under the letters of credit expire.
