Item 6. Contracts, Arrangements, Understandings or Relationships with respect to securities of the Issuer

Item 6 of the Amended Statement is hereby further amended by adding the following at the end of current Item 6 in place of the last paragraph thereof.

On October 12, 2004, the Issuer entered into an Acquisition Agreement with four individuals, including Gene E. Phillips, pursuant to which the Issuer acquired in a stock-for-stock exchange all of the issued and outstanding equity interests of two privately-held corporations, one of which American Realty Management, Inc., a Nevada corporation (ARM), was 80% owned by Gene E. Phillips. Mr. Phillips received for his interest in the exchange 12,600 shares of the Issuer's newly-designated 2% Series J Preferred Stock, liquidation value $1,000 per share (the Preferred Stock). The shares of Preferred Stock received by Gene E. Phillips constituted 40% of the new issue. The Acquisition Agreement, as amended, required, in addition to other items, that as soon as practicable, and in no event later than June 30, 2006, the Issuer present the transaction represented by the Acquisition Agreement, together with a proposed mandatory exchange of Preferred Stock for Common Stock to its current stockholders in accordance with the applicable requirements of the Commission and the American Stock Exchange, Inc. (AMEX) for a vote (or a written consent by the requisite number) of stockholders to approve the transaction, including the mandatory exchange of all shares of Preferred Stock for the Issuer's Common Stock on the basis of 279 shares of Common Stock for each share of Preferred Stock which would result in an aggregate of 8,788,500 shares of Common Stock being issued to the four individuals (or their transferees), which would then constitute at least 89% of the total issued and outstanding shares of Common Stock of the Issuer. In the event the stockholders of the Issuer failed to approve the transaction or mandatory exchange of shares of Common Stock for the shares of Preferred Stock, the holders of the Preferred Stock had the option exercisable by all of them at any time after June 30, 2006 until June 30, 2007 to either (a) rescind in full and revoke the transaction covered by the Acquisition Agreement by returning all shares of Preferred Stock to the Issuer, upon which the Issuer shall deliver back to the four individuals all equity interests of any entity owning all of the ordinary shares or other securities of Tacaruna, B.V. or CabelTel, or (b) delivering to the Issuer all 31,500 shares of Preferred Stock of the Issuer and receive in exchange therefor all of the ordinary shares and other securities of Tacaruna, B.V. outstanding and owned by the Issuer such that the four individuals will become the owners and holders of all of the issued and outstanding securities of Tacaruna, B.V., which in turn owns shares of CabelTel and shares of Narisma Holdings, Ltd. If the transaction had been approved by the stockholders and the mandatory exchange occurred, Gene E. Phillips' 12,600 shares of Preferred Stock would have been converted into 3,515,400 shares of Common Stock of the Issuer and constitute approximately 35% of the then total issued and outstanding Common Stock of the Issuer.

On June 27, 2006, the Issuer executed a Rescission Agreement dated June 1, 2006 among the Issuer, four individuals, including Gene E. Phillips, and others, pursuant to which the transaction originally entered into on October 12, 2004 was rescinded ab initio effective as of that time. The effect and result of the Rescission Agreement was to divest the Issuer of equity interests in the two privately-held corporation back to the individuals, which transferred 80% of ARM back to Gene E. Phillips, and the Issuer received in exchange all 31,500 shares of Preferred Stock originally issued to the four individuals, including 12,600 shares of Preferred Stock originally issued to Gene E. Phillips. In addition to rescinding the transaction, the Issuer received $1,500,000 as a break-up fee from and through Syntek West, Inc., a Nevada corporation (SWI), owned by Gene E. Phillips.

The result of the Rescission Agreement is also that Gene E. Phillips no longer holds any potential right to acquire any significant number of shares of Common Stock of the Issuer.

Also effective June 1, 2006, with the entry into the Rescission Agreement, a contingent Warrant to purchase 170,000 shares of GBR Common Stock held by TFI became null and void by its terms. TFI continues to hold exercisable rights under a Stock Option Agreement dated December 16, 2003, at a price of $2.60 per share.

Except as set forth above, the Reporting Persons do not have any contracts, arrangements, understandings or relationships, legal or otherwise, with any person with respect to any securities of the Issuer, including but not limited to, transfer or voting of any of the securities, finders fees, joint ventures, loan or option arrangements, puts or calls, guarantees of profits, divisions of profits or losses, or the giving or withholding of proxies.

Item 7. Material to be Filed as Exhibits

None.
