Item 8.01 Other Events.

As previously reported by Zix Corporation (Nasdaq: ZIXI) (the Company) and described in its periodic filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission, the Company and certain of its former officers and directors were defendants in a purported securities class action litigation (the Class Actions) pending in the U.S. District Court for the Northern District of Texas, Dallas Division (the Federal Court). As also previously reported by the Company, in March 2008 the Federal Court approved the settlement of the Class Actions on a preliminary basis.

The Federal Court held a hearing on June 16, 2008, to consider a final approval of the Class Actions. Following the hearing, the Federal Court entered a final approval order, dated June 16, 2008, approving the settlement, a copy of which is attached hereto as Exhibit 99.1. Thus, the Class Actions are completely resolved and fully settled.

Pursuant to the final settlement as approved by the Federal Court:

The defendants' insurer will pay an aggregate of $5.6 million, inclusive of claims of class members for damages and of attorney's fees and expenses for the lead counsel for the Class Actions.

The settlement amount is well within the Company's liability insurance policy limits.

There is no payment of any monies by the Company or the individual defendants to the plaintiffs or their counsel in connection with the settlement and there is no admission of any wrongdoing by the Company or the individual defendants.

The Company, throughout these litigations, has strenuously denied and continues to deny each of the allegations of wrongdoing and liability against it whatsoever. It decided to settle the Class Actions solely to avoid the burdens, risk, and substantial expense that would result from the continuation of these actions.

More details about the settlement can be obtained at www.zixsecuritiessettlement.com. This is a web site established by the third-party administrator that the Federal Court has appointed to administer the collection and payment of claims from class members who may be entitled to collect damages in the final settlement. The web site is not maintained or operated by the Company and the documents and information available through the web site are not part of this filing on Form 8-K and shall not be deemed incorporated herein by reference.
