1. Proposed Settlement with Respect to the Rampino Defendants (as defined)

On May 15, 2009, Fremont General Corporation (the Company) entered into a trilateral stipulation and agreement (the Rampino Stipulation) with Louis J. Rampino (Rampino), James A. McIntyre (McIntyre), Wayne R. Bailey (Bailey), John A. Donaldson (Donaldson), Ronald A. Groden (Groden), W. Brian O Hara (O Hara), and Raymond G. Meyers (Meyers) (collectively, the Rampino Defendants) and the State of California Insurance Commissioner (the Commissioner), as statutory liquidator of Fremont Indemnity Company, an indirect subsidiary of the Company that is in liquidation (Fremont Indemnity), to settle the outstanding litigation between the Rampino Defendants, as former officers and directors of the Company and/or of Fremont Indemnity, and the Commissioner, as the statutory liquidator of Fremont Indemnity, and to resolve fifteen proofs of claims, asserting liquidated amounts that, in the aggregate, exceed $27 million, and that contain substantial contingent and unliquidated components, which were filed by the Rampino Defendants in the Company s bankruptcy proceedings (the Bankruptcy Case) in the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Central District of California, Santa Ana Division (the Bankruptcy Court). This Rampino Stipulation has been entered into as part of the Company s initiative to resolve contingent and unliquidated claims, including various litigation matters. As discussed below, the Rampino Stipulation is subject to Bankruptcy Court approval.

On October 12, 2006, the Commissioner, as statutory liquidator of Fremont Indemnity, filed a First Amended Complaint in the Los Angeles Superior Court (Case No. BC357691) against the Rampino Defendants, as former directors and officers of Fremont Indemnity, that alleged the Rampino Defendants breached their fiduciary duties by allowing Fremont Indemnity to engage in an inappropriate underwriting scheme that caused injury to Fremont Indemnity s reinsurers, which in turn injured Fremont Indemnity by settlements it made with those reinsurers (the D&O Case). Although neither the Company nor any of its affiliates are defendants in the D&O Case, it is possible that the Company could have indemnification obligations to some or all of the Rampino Defendants pursuant to the Company s governing documents and applicable state law. After the Company commenced the Bankruptcy Case, each of the Rampino Defendants filed one or more proofs of claim based upon, among other things, the theory that the Company is liable to indemnify each of the Rampino Defendants for any settlement amounts or judgment that may be entered against the Rampino Defendants in the D&O Case.

The Rampino Stipulation will only become effective after the occurrence of the following events: (i) the Company files a motion requesting that the Bankruptcy Court approve the Rampino Stipulation, which the Company expects to timely file; (ii) the Commissioner files a motion requesting that the Superior Court of the State of California for the County of Los Angeles assigned to preside over the statutory liquidation case involving Fremont Indemnity (the Liquidation Court) approve the Rampino Stipulation; (iii) the Bankruptcy Court and the Liquidation Court each issue orders approving the Rampino Stipulation; (iv) the Bankruptcy Court s order and the Liquidation Court s order approving the Rampino Stipulation become final, non-appealable orders, following the expiration of any applicable waiting periods. The date when all of the conditions set forth in (i) through (iv) are satisfied will be the Effective Date.

The parties agreed to exercise their reasonable best efforts to complete all of these events before June 30, 2009. In accordance with the terms of the Rampino Stipulation and in consideration of the settlement of all claims and disputes among them, the Commissioner, Fremont Indemnity, the Company and the Rampino Defendants agreed to the following:

Allowed General Unsecured Commissioner Claim: On the Effective Date, the Commissioner will be allowed for purposes of voting on any proposed plan of liquidation or reorganization, as the case may be, in the Bankruptcy Case (the Chapter 11 Plan) and receiving any distributions made pursuant to such Chapter 11 Plan or otherwise in the Company s bankruptcy case, a general unsecured non-priority claim against the Company in the amount of $35 million (the Allowed Commissioner Claim). However, upon the Commissioner s actual receipt of distributions from the Company s bankruptcy estate totaling $22.0 million, the Allowed Commissioner Claim shall be deemed to be satisfied in full, and the Commissioner shall have no further right to any distributions or payment from the Company s bankruptcy estate on account of the D&O Case. The Allowed Claim shall be the sole and exclusive right to payment that the Commissioner will have against the Company s bankruptcy estate on account of the D&O Case. The Allowed Claim will be in addition to the $5 million general unsecured non-priority claim against the Company s bankruptcy estate for an unrelated pending settlement of outstanding disputes between the Company and the Commissioner, in its capacity as statutory liquidator of Fremont Indemnity and statutory conservator of Fremont Life Insurance Company in Conservation, an indirect subsidiary of the Company (Life), which was previously reported in the Company s Current Report on Form 8-K filed with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission on April 20, 2009.

Final Disallowance of the Proofs of Claim: On the Effective Date, each of the Rampino Defendants proofs of claim shall be deemed to have been withdrawn, disallowed, and expunged in their entirety and with prejudice.

Allowed General Unsecured SERP Claims: On the Effective Date, Messrs. Bailey, Rampino, McIntyre, Meyers will each be allowed for purposes of voting on any Chapter 11 Plan and receiving any distributions made pursuant to such Chapter 11 Plan or otherwise in the Company s bankruptcy case, a general unsecured non-priority claim against the Company in the amounts of $4.6 million, $5.6 million, $5.2 million and $2.3 million, respectively (collectively, the Allowed SERP Claims). However, upon Messrs. Bailey, Rampino, McIntyre, and Meyers actual receipt of distributions from the Company s bankruptcy estate totaling approximately $2.874 million, $3.470 million, $3.227 million and $1.420 million, respectively, the Allowed SERP Claims shall be deemed to be satisfied in full, and Messrs. Bailey, Rampino, McIntyre, and Meyers shall have no further right to any distributions or payment from the Company s bankruptcy estate. The Allowed SERP Claims shall constitute only general unsecured non-priority claims and Messrs. Bailey, Rampino, McIntyre, and Meyers shall have no right to any distribution or payment from either the Fremont General Corporation Supplemental Executive Retirement Plan, as amended, or the Fremont General Corporation Supplemental Executive Retirement Plan II, as amended.

Dismissal of Pending Litigation: As soon as is practicable after the Effective Date, the Commissioner and Fremont Indemnity will cause the D&O Case to be dismissed with prejudice, with all parties thereto to bear their own respective attorneys' fees and costs. In addition, Messrs. Bailey, Rampino, McIntyre, and Meyers will cause each of their respective adversary proceedings pending before the Bankruptcy Court to be dismissed with prejudice against all defendants thereto other than the Company, with all parties thereto to bear their own respective attorneys' fees and costs, with dismissal against the Company conditioned upon Messrs. Bailey, Rampino, McIntyre, and Meyers receiving full payment on their Allowed SERP Claims.

Exchange of Releases: Except for the agreements and obligations expressly undertaken or to be performed under the Rampino Stipulation, on the Effective Date, in consideration of the payments and other consideration recited in the Rampino Stipulation, the Commissioner, Fremont Indemnity, the Company and the Rampino Defendants will mutually release, acquit, and forever discharge each other and certain related parties from any and all past, present, and future claims, arising in whole or in part out of any facts, circumstances, or events in existence on or before the Effective Date provided, however, that nothing in the Rampino Stipulation is intended to release any claims that any of the parties may have with respect to any insurance policy issued by any insurer of any of the parties. In addition, the Rampino Stipulation will not operate to release any claims that the Rampino Defendants may have against the Company's bankruptcy estate as a result of their ownership of Company common stock or other securities of the Company or any of its affiliates.

2. Bankruptcy Court Approves Settlement of Massachusetts Attorney General Action and Fremont Indemnity Company (In Liquidation) v. Fremont General Corporation, et al.; Fremont Indemnity Company (In Liquidation as Successor in Interest to Comstock Insurance Company) v. Fremont General Corporation, et al.; and Insurance Commissioner of the State of California v. Fremont General Corp. et al.

On May 14, 2009, the Bankruptcy Court approved from the bench (i) the Final Judgment By Consent (the Final Judgment) between the Commonwealth of Massachusetts (the Commonwealth), the Company and Fremont Reorganizing Corporation, the Company's indirect wholly-owned subsidiary, (FRC, formerly known as Fremont Investment & Loan); and (ii) the Stipulation and Agreement regarding the global and integrated settlement and release of all claims and disputes (the Insurance Stipulation) by and among the Company, FRC, Fremont Compensation Insurance Group, Inc. (FCIG), which is a direct subsidiary of the Company, and the Commissioner, as statutory liquidator of Fremont Indemnity, and as statutory conservator of Life. The Final Judgment and the Insurance Stipulation resolve the outstanding litigation matters and disputes previously reported in the Company's Current Report on Form 8-K filed with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission on April 20, 2009.

Bankruptcy Court approval was the first step in the effectiveness of the settlement agreements, which remain conditioned on the occurrence of the following events:

The Final Judgment will become effective once (i) the Bankruptcy Court's order approving the Final Judgment becomes a final, non-appealable order, which can only occur following entry of the order and the expiration of a ten-day period to allow for the filing of any appeal; and (ii) the
