CALCULATION OF FILING FEE

Transaction Valuation*	Amount of Filing Fee
$400,691,855.00	$80,138.37

*Calculated solely for the purposes of determining the filing fee. This amount assumes that options to purchase 95,698,884 shares of Class B Common Stock of CBS Corporation having an aggregate value of $400,691,855 will be exchanged pursuant to this offer. The aggregate value of such options was calculated using the Black-Scholes option pricing model. The amount of the filing fee, calculated in accordance with Rule 0-11(b) of the Securities and Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, equals 1/50th of one percent of the value of the transaction.

Check the box if any part of the fee is offset as provided by Rule 0-11(a)(2) and identify the filing with which the offsetting fee was previously paid. Identify the previous filing by registration statement number, or the Form or Schedule and the date of its filing.

Amount Previously Paid: $80,138.37 Filing Party: CBS Corporation
 Form or Registration No.: Schedule TO Date Filed: May 3, 2006

Check the box if the filing relates solely to preliminary communications made before the commencement of a tender offer.

Check the appropriate boxes to designate any transactions to which the statement relates:

- third-party tender offer subject to Rule 14d-1.
- issuer tender offer subject to Rule 13e-4.
- going-private transaction subject to Rule 13e-3.

Check the following box if the filing is a final amendment reporting the results of the tender offer:

This Amendment No. 5 amends and supplements the Tender Offer Statement on Schedule TO filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC") on May 3, 2006, as amended by Amendment No. 1 thereto filed with the SEC on May 5, 2006, Amendment No. 2 thereto filed with the SEC on May 9, 2006, Amendment No. 3 thereto filed with the SEC on May 11, 2006 and Amendment No. 4 thereto filed with the SEC on May 16, 2006 (the Tender Offer Statement on Schedule TO as so amended, the "Schedule TO"), by CBS Corporation, a Delaware corporation (the "Company"). The Schedule TO relates to the offer by the Company to eligible employees of the Company, as defined in the Offer to Exchange, dated May 3, 2006, which is attached to the Schedule TO as Exhibit (a)(1) (the "Offer to Exchange"), to tender their currently outstanding options to purchase shares of Class B Common Stock of the Company that were issued prior to January 1, 2006 in exchange for restricted shares (for eligible employees who are subject to United States income tax) or restricted share units (for other eligible employees). The restricted shares and restricted share units will be granted upon the terms and subject to the conditions described in the Offer to Exchange.

Item 1. Summary Term Sheet.

The information set forth in Item 1 is hereby amended as follows:

- (1) The second sentence of the introductory paragraph on page 1 of the Offer to Exchange is amended and restated in its entirety as follows: “We urge you to read this entire Offer to Exchange and the related Letter of Transmittal carefully because they contain the full details of the Voluntary Exchange Offer”.
- (2) The response to Q6. on page 2 of the Offer to Exchange under “Summary Term Sheet” is hereby amended by adding as the last full paragraph on page 2 the following: “Pursuant to this formula, the product of “N” (the number of eligible options included in the particular award for which the calculation is being made) times “AV” (the attributed Black-Scholes values of the eligible options) is multiplied by 0.75 before being divided by “REF” (the reference price for the CBS Class B Common Stock of $24.9340 per share). This means that you will receive restricted shares or RSUs whose value, based on the reference price of $24.9340 per share, is 75% of the attributed Black-Scholes value of the eligible options that you tender. The CBS Board of Directors decided to offer eligible employees restricted shares or RSUs whose value is less than 100% of the attributed Black-Scholes value of the employee’s eligible options in view of the different risk profile of restricted shares and RSUs, on the one hand, and options, on the other hand. See Question 11 below.”
- (3) The fourth and fifth sentences of the response to Q9. on page 3 of the Offer to Exchange under “Summary Term Sheet” are hereby deleted and replaced in their entirety with the following: "For example, if you were awarded stock options with an exercise price of $22 (equal to the fair market value of a share of CBS Class B Common Stock at the time of grant), and the market price of CBS Class B Common Stock subsequently declined to $19 per share, your options, even if vested and exercisable, would have no intrinsic value, since you would have to pay more to purchase the shares ($22 per share) than you could realize from selling the shares ($19 per share). On the other hand, if you were awarded 100 restricted shares or RSUs when the market price of the CBS Class B Common Stock was $22 per share, then even if the market price of CBS Class B Common Stock was only $19 on the vesting date, the shares that you held at vesting would have a market value of $1,900. Assuming that you satisfy the vesting requirements, restricted shares and RSUs thus enable you to realize value in situations where stock options do not. Options, in other words, present greater market-price risks. Because of the different risk profile of restricted shares and RSUs, on the one hand, and options, on the other hand, the CBS Board of Directors believes it is fair and appropriate to offer eligible employees restricted shares or RSUs whose value is less than 100% of the value attributed to the employee’s eligible options.”
- (4) The response to Q11. on page 4 of the Offer to Exchange under “Summary Term Sheet” is hereby amended by adding the following sentence at the end thereof: "The CBS Board of Directors and its Compensation Committee believe that a vesting requirement for restricted shares and RSUs will increase the likelihood that eligible employees who participate in the Voluntary Exchange Offer will remain in employment with CBS and its subsidiaries through the applicable vesting dates.”

- (5) The response to Q20. on page 7 of the Offer to Exchange under “Summary Term Sheet” is hereby amended by deleting the first sentence in the second paragraph of such response and replacing it with the following sentence: “Upon issuance and prior to vesting, restricted shares awarded to you in connection with the Voluntary Exchange Offer will be registered in your name or held for your benefit on the books and records maintained for CBS by the transfer agent for CBS Class B Common Stock (currently the Bank of New York).”

- (6) The response to Q25. on page 8 of the Offer to Exchange under "Summary Term Sheet" is hereby amended by deleting the second paragraph of such response and replacing it with the following paragraph: “Under applicable regulations of the Treasury Department, if we were to extend the Voluntary Exchange Offer, any of your in-the-money eligible options that are considered incentive stock options for tax purposes would automatically be converted to non-qualified stock options (whether or not you elected to participate in the Voluntary Exchange Offer). In order to preserve the favorable tax treatment available to holders of incentive stock options, in-the-money options that are incentive stock options will no longer be considered eligible options in the event that we extend the Voluntary Exchange Offer. See Section 13 of this Offer to Exchange for an explanation of how the Treasury Department regulations operate.”

Item 2. Subject Company Information

The information set forth in Item 2(b) is hereby amended and supplemented by the following:

- (1) Section 1. (“Number of Restricted Shares or RSUs; Expiration”) of the Offer to Exchange is hereby amended by adding, as the paragraph immediately following the definition of “REF” on page 14 of the Offer to Exchange, the following: “Pursuant to this formula, the product of “N” (the number of eligible options included in the particular award for which the calculation is being made) times “AV” (the attributed Black-Scholes values of the eligible options) is multiplied by 0.75 before being divided by “REF” (the reference price for the CBS Class B Common Stock of $24.9340 per share). This means that you will receive restricted shares or RSUs whose value, based on the reference price of $24.9340 per share, is 75% of the attributed Black-Scholes value of the eligible options that you tender. The CBS Board of Directors decided to offer eligible employees restricted shares or RSUs whose value is less than 100% of the attributed Black-Scholes value of the employee's eligible options in view of the different risk profile of restricted shares and RSUs, on the one hand, and options, on the other hand.”

Item 4. Terms of the Transaction.

Item 4(a) is hereby amended as follows:

- (1) Item 4(a) of the Schedule TO is hereby amended and restated in its entirety as follows: “The information set forth in the Offer to Exchange under “Summary Term Sheet”, “Section 1. Number of Restricted Shares or RSUs; Expiration”, “Section 3. Procedures: Acceptance of Options”, “Section 4. Withdrawal Rights”, “Section 5. Acceptance of Options for Cancellation; Issuance of Restricted Shares and RSUs”, “Section 6. Conditions of the Voluntary Exchange Offer”, “Section 8. Source and Amount of Consideration; Terms of Restricted Shares and RSUs”, “Section 11. Accounting Consequences of the Voluntary Exchange Offer: Status of Options Accepted for Exchange by Us in the Voluntary Exchange Offer”, “Section 12. Legal Matters; Regulatory Approvals”, “Section 13. Material United States Tax Consequences”, “Section 14. Material Tax Consequences and Other Issues in Certain Countries”, and “Section 15. Extension of Voluntary Exchange Offer; Termination; Amendment” is incorporated herein by reference.”

- Paragraph (a)(ii) on page 20 of the Offer to Exchange under Section 6 (“Conditions of the Voluntary Exchange Offer”) is hereby amended by deleting the words “, operations or prospects” and replacing them with the words “or operations”.
- (3) Paragraph (b)(iv) on page 21 of the Offer to Exchange under Section 6 (“Conditions of the Voluntary Exchange Offer”) is hereby amended by deleting the words “, operations or prospects” and replacing them with the words “or operations”.
- (4) Paragraph (c)(vi) on page 21 of the Offer to Exchange under Section 6 (“Conditions of the Voluntary Exchange Offer”) is hereby amended by deleting the words “, operations or prospects” and replacing them with the words “or operations”.
- (5) Paragraph (c)(vii) on page 21 of the Offer to Exchange under Section 6 (“Conditions of the Voluntary Exchange Offer”) is hereby amended by deleting the words “, operations or prospects” and replacing them with the words “or operations”.
- (6) Paragraph (e) on page 21 of the Offer to Exchange under Section 6 (“Conditions of the Voluntary Exchange Offer”) is hereby amended by deleting the words “, operations or prospects” and replacing them with the words “or operations”.
- (7) Paragraph (c)(v) on page 21 of the Offer to Exchange under Section 6 (“Conditions of the Voluntary Exchange Offer”) is hereby amended and restated in its entirety as follows: “any decrease in the market price of the CBS Class B Common Stock, as of the Expiration Date, below $21.1939 or increase in the market price of the CBS Class B Common Stock, as of the Expiration Date, above $28.6741”.
- (8) The second sentence of the first full paragraph on page 22 of the Offer to Exchange under Section 6 (“Conditions of the Voluntary Exchange Offer”) is hereby amended and restated in its entirety as follows: “CBS may assert them in its discretion regardless of the circumstances giving rise to them prior to the expiration of the Voluntary Exchange Offer (other than a condition whose failure to be satisfied has been proximately caused by CBS’s action or CBS’s failure to act).”
- (9) The last sentence of the first full paragraph on page 22 of the Offer to Exchange under Section 6 (“Conditions of the Voluntary Exchange Offer”) is hereby amended and restated in its entirety as follows: “Any determination that CBS makes concerning the events described in this Section 6 will be final and binding upon all interested persons, except as otherwise determined by a court of competent jurisdiction.”
- (10) The second paragraph on page 30 of the Offer to Exchange under the heading “Possible Change in Tax Status of Incentive Stock Options” in Section 13 (“Material United States Tax Consequences”) is amended and restated in its entirety as follows: “Under Treasury Department regulations applicable to incentive stock options, an incentive stock option is considered to be modified if an offer to change the terms of the option remains outstanding for 30 days or more, whether or not the option holder accepts the offer. The regulations further provide that a modification of an incentive stock option is treated as a cancellation of the original option and a grant of a new option, and that this “new” option will qualify as an incentive stock option only if it meets the conditions for incentive stock options, including that the exercise price of the new option be not less than the fair market value of the underlying stock on the date of the deemed new grant. The original date established for expiration of the Voluntary Exchange Offer is May 31, 2006, which means that the Voluntary Exchange Offer is initially scheduled to remain open for 29 days. If the Voluntary Exchange Offer expires on May 31, 2006 as originally scheduled any of your Eligible Incentive Stock Options that you do not tender into the Voluntary Exchange Offer will continue to qualify as incentive stock options following the Voluntary Exchange Offer. If, however, CBS extends the Voluntary Exchange Offer so that it remains open on or after June 1, 2006, the Voluntary Exchange Offer will remain open for at least 30 days and your Eligible Incentive Stock Options will, under the Treasury Department regulations, be treated as though they were canceled and new options granted in their place as of June 1, 2006. Any of your Eligible Incentive Stock Options that have an exercise price less than the fair market value of the CBS Class B Common Stock on June 1, 2006 would, pursuant to the Treasury Department regulations, be converted into nonqualified stock options, since they would be considered a new grant as of June 1, 2006 and would fail to meet the requirement that the exercise price of the option be not less than the fair market value of the underlying shares of CBS Class B Common Stock at the time of grant. In order to preserve the favorable tax treatment available to holders of incentive stock options, in-the-money options that are incentive stock options will no longer be considered eligible options in the event that we extend the Voluntary Exchange Offer. Any in-the-money incentive stock options that were tendered prior to the time we extend the Voluntary Exchange Offer will automatically be withdrawn from the Voluntary Exchange Offer and will remain outstanding in accordance with their terms. Any eligible options that are not incentive stock options, as well as any out-of-the-money eligible options that are incentive stock options, will continue to qualify as eligible options even if we extend the Voluntary Exchange Offer”.

- (11) The last paragraph on page 23 of the Offer to Exchange under the heading “Restricted Shares — General”, as included in Section 8 (“Source and Amount of Consideration; Terms of Restricted Shares and RSUs”) is hereby deleted in its entirety and replaced with the following sentence: “Upon issuance and prior to vesting, restricted shares awarded to you in connection with the Voluntary Exchange Offer will be registered in your name or held for your benefit on the books and records maintained for CBS by the transfer agent for CBS Class B Common Stock (currently the Bank of New York).”

Item 10. Financial Statements.

The information set forth in item 10(a) is hereby amended as follows:

- (1) The last full paragraph on page 43 of the Offer to Exchange under Section 17 (“Additional Information”) is amended and restated in its entirety as follows: “CBS incorporates by reference the foregoing documents and may wish to incorporate by reference additional documents that it may file with the SEC under Section 13(a), 13(c), 14 or 15(d) of the Exchange Act between the date of this Offer to Exchange and the expiration of the Voluntary Exchange Offer.
