Item 4.02 Non-Reliance on Previously Issued Financial Statements or a Related Audit Report or Completed Interim Review

On March 30, 2007, the board of directors of HearUSA, Inc. (the Company) determined that its consolidated financial statements for the years ended December 25, 2004 and December 31, 2005 should no longer be relied upon because of errors relating to the accounting treatment and disclosures of the recognition of deductible temporary differences and net operating loss carryforwards which were originally established in July of 2002 when the Company acquired Helix Hearing Care of America Corp. ( Helix ). The deferred tax assets resulting from these temporary differences and net operating loss carryforwards at the time of the acquisition were reduced by an equivalent valuation allowance and consequently increased the amount of goodwill recorded at that time. However, the Company should have also recorded a deferred tax liability related to the excess of trademark book value over tax value, which would have increased the goodwill by the same amount.

Also, under generally accepted accounting principles, the subsequent recognition of the tax benefits for deductible temporary differences and net operating loss carryforwards should first reduce the remaining balance of goodwill related to the acquisition then other noncurrent intangible assets related to that acquisition and then income tax expense. The error occurred first in 2004 when the Company recognized the tax benefits for those items by reducing the valuation allowance and then reducing its income tax expense instead of first reducing goodwill. The same error occurred in 2005. The Company discovered these errors in the preparation of its financial statements for the year ended December 30, 2006. The Company will restate its fiscal 2004 and 2005 financial statements to correct these errors. These non-cash adjustments will not have any impact on previously reported revenue, operating income, loss from continuing operations before taxes or net cash flows.

The Company expects to report the restated financial results promptly. Until such time, the financial statements for the fiscal years ended December 25, 2004 and December 31, 2005 should not be relied upon.

The Audit Committee, the full Board of Directors and the authorized officers of the Company have discussed with the Company's independent registered accounting firm the matters disclosed in this Form 8-K.
