Explanation of Responses:

* If the form is filed by more than one reporting person, see Instruction 4(b)(v).

** Intentional misstatements or omissions of facts constitute Federal Criminal Violations. See 18 U.S.C. 1001 and 15 U.S.C. 78ff(a).

(1) The two reported transactions involved an amendment (which was approved by the Compensation Committee) of an outstanding performance vesting restricted stock (to permit continued eligibility for vesting to the extent performance targets are met, notwithstanding the resignation of the Reporting Person), resulting in the deemed cancellation of the "old" stock and the grant of a replacement stock. The stock was originally granted on January 1, 2006 under shareholder approved equity incentive plan pursuant to Rule 16b-3(d).

(2) Includes shares held through the Company's automatic dividend reinvestment plan.

(3) The two reported transactions involved an amendment (which was approved by the Compensation Committee) of an outstanding performance vesting restricted stock (to permit continued eligibility for vesting to the extent performance targets are met, notwithstanding the resignation of the Reporting Person), resulting in the deemed cancellation of the "old" stock and the grant of a replacement stock. The stock was originally granted on January 1, 2007 under shareholder approved equity incentive plan pursuant to Rule 16b-3(d).

(4) Based on the latest plan statement as of September 30, 2007.

(5) The reported transactions involved an amendment of an outstanding option (which was approved by the Compensation Committee), resulting in the deemed cancellation of the "old" option and the grant of a replacement option. The option was originally granted on November 24, 1999 and provided for vesting in three equal annual installments commencing on November 24, 2000 and would expire November 23, 2009. Vested options granted before 2005 will now remain exercisable until the earlier of the fifth anniversary of his resignation or their stated terms, notwithstanding the resignation of the Reporting Person.

(6) The reported transactions involved an amendment of two outstanding options (which was approved by the Compensation Committee), resulting in the deemed cancellation of the "old" options and the grant of two replacement options. The options were originally granted on November 22, 2000 and provided for vesting in three equal annual installments commencing on November 22, 2001 and would expire November 21, 2010. Vested options granted before 2005 will now remain exercisable until the earlier of the fifth anniversary of his resignation or their stated terms, notwithstanding the resignation of the Reporting Person.

(7) The reported transactions involved an amendment of two outstanding options (which was approved by the Compensation Committee), resulting in the deemed cancellation of the "old" options and the grant of two replacement options. The options were originally granted on November 28, 2001 and provided for vesting in three equal annual installments commencing on November 28, 2002 and would expire November 27, 2011. Vested options granted before 2005 will now remain exercisable until the earlier of the fifth anniversary of his resignation or their stated terms, notwithstanding the resignation of the Reporting Person.

(8) The reported transactions involved an amendment of two outstanding options (which was approved by the Compensation Committee), resulting in the deemed cancellation of the "old" options and the grant of two replacement options. The options were originally granted on November 27, 2002 and provided for vesting in three equal annual installments commencing on November 27, 2003 and would expire November 26, 2012.
