Proxy Statement for the Annual Meeting of Stockholders
May 16, 2006

GENERAL INFORMATION

This Proxy Statement is being furnished in connection with the solicitation by the Board of Directors (the "Board of Directors" or "Board") of Graphic Packaging Corporation, a Delaware corporation (the "Company"), of proxies to be voted at the 2006 Annual Meeting of Stockholders to be held at the Wyndham Vinings Hotel, located at 2857 Paces Ferry Road, Atlanta, Georgia 30339, on Tuesday, May 16, 2006, at 10:00 a.m. local time (the "Annual Meeting"). This Proxy Statement and the enclosed proxy card will first be sent on or about April 11, 2006 to the Company's stockholders of record as of the close of business on March 20, 2006 (the "Record Date"). References in this Proxy Statement to "Graphic Packaging," "we," "us," and "our" or similar terms are to Graphic Packaging Corporation.

Outstanding Shares

As of the close of business on the Record Date, there were 198,698,698 shares of the Company's common stock outstanding and entitled to vote. Stockholders are entitled to one vote for each share held on all matters to come before the Annual Meeting.

Who May Vote

Only stockholders who held shares of the Company's common stock at the close of business on the Record Date are entitled to notice of and to vote at the Annual Meeting or any adjournment thereof.

How to Vote in Person

If your shares are registered directly in your name, you are considered the stockholder of record and you may vote in person at the Annual Meeting. If your shares are registered through a bank or brokerage firm, your shares are considered to be held beneficially in street name. If your shares are held beneficially in street name and you wish to vote in person at the Annual Meeting, you will need to obtain a proxy from the bank or brokerage firm that holds your shares. Please note that even if you plan to attend the Annual Meeting in person, the Company recommends that you vote before the Annual Meeting.

How to Vote by Proxy

Whether you hold shares directly as a stockholder of record or beneficially in street name, you may direct how your shares are voted without attending the Annual Meeting. If you are a stockholder of record, you may vote by any of the methods described below. If you hold shares beneficially in street name, you may vote by submitting voting instructions to your broker, trustee or nominee. For directions on how to vote, please refer to the instructions below and those included on your proxy card or, for shares held beneficially in street name, the voting instruction card provided by your bank or brokerage firm.

Voting over the Internet. Stockholders of record of the Company's common stock with Internet access may submit proxies from any location in the world by following the "Vote by Internet" instructions on their proxy cards. In addition, most of the Company's stockholders who hold shares beneficially in street name may vote by accessing the website specified on the voting instruction cards provided by their bank or brokerage firm. Please check the voting instruction card to determine Internet voting availability.

Voting by Telephone. Stockholders of record of the Company's common stock who live in the United States or Canada may submit proxies by following the "Vote by Phone" instructions on their proxy cards. Most of the Company's stockholders who hold shares beneficially in street name may vote by phone by calling the number specified on the voting instruction cards provided by their bank or brokerage firm. Please check the voting instruction card to determine telephone voting availability.

Voting by Mail. Stockholders of record of the Company's common stock may submit proxies by completing, signing and dating the enclosed proxy card and mailing it in the accompanying pre-addressed envelope. The Company's stockholders who hold shares beneficially in street name may vote by mail by completing, signing and dating the voting instruction cards provided by their bank or brokerage firm and mailing them in the accompanying pre-addressed envelope.

How Proxies Work

The Board of Directors is asking for your proxy. By giving the Board your proxy, your shares will be voted at the Annual Meeting in the manner you direct. If you do not specify how you wish to vote your shares, your shares will be voted FOR the election of each of the Director nominees. Proxyholders will vote shares according to their discretion on any other matter properly brought before the Annual Meeting.

If for any reason any of the nominees for election as Director is unable or declines to serve as Director, discretionary authority may be exercised by the proxyholders to vote for substitutes proposed by the Board.

If the shares you own are held beneficially in street name by a bank or brokerage firm, such firm, as the record holder of your shares, is required to vote your shares according to your instructions. In order to vote your shares, you will need to follow the directions your bank or brokerage firm provides to you. Under the rules of the New York Stock Exchange (the "NYSE"), if you do not give instructions to your bank or brokerage firm, it will still be able to vote your shares with respect to certain "discretionary" items, but will not be allowed to vote your shares with respect to certain "non-discretionary" items. In the case of non-discretionary items, the shares will be treated as "broker non-votes."

How to Vote Your 401(k) Plan Shares

If you participate in the Company's 401(k) Savings Plan or in the Company's Hourly 401(k) Savings Plan, you may give voting instructions as to the number of shares of the Company's common stock held in your account as of the Record Date to the trustee of the savings plan. You provide voting instructions to the trustee, Fidelity Management Trust Company, by completing and returning the proxy card accompanying this Proxy Statement. The trustee will vote your shares in accordance with your duly executed instructions received by 12:00 midnight on May 11, 2006. If you do not send instructions, the trustee will vote the number of shares equal to the share equivalents credited to your account in the same proportion that it votes shares for which it did receive timely instructions.

You may also revoke voting instructions previously given to the trustee by 12:00 midnight on May 11, 2006, by filing either a written notice of revocation or a properly completed and signed proxy card bearing a later date with the trustee. Your voting instructions will be kept confidential by the trustee.

Quorum

In order to carry out the business of the Annual Meeting, there must be a quorum. This means that at least one-third (1/3) of the outstanding shares eligible to vote must be represented at the Annual Meeting, either by proxy or in person. Proxies received but marked as abstentions and broker non-votes will be included in the calculation of the number of votes present at the Annual Meeting for purposes of calculating whether a quorum is present.

Votes Needed

The Director nominees receiving the largest number of votes cast are elected, up to the maximum number of Directors fixed by the Board to be elected at the Annual Meeting. As a result, any shares not voted, whether by abstention, broker non-vote or otherwise, have no effect on the election of Directors, except to the extent that the failure to vote for a particular nominee may result in another nominee receiving a larger number of votes. Approval of any other matter properly brought before the Annual Meeting requires the affirmative vote of holders of a majority of the shares present in person or by proxy and entitled to vote at the Annual Meeting. An abstention with respect to any other matter will have the effect of a vote against such proposal and broker non-votes will have no effect, as broker non-votes are not treated as shares entitled to vote.

Changing Your Vote

Shares of the Company's common stock represented by proxy will be voted as directed unless the proxy is revoked. Any proxy may be revoked before it is exercised by sending to the Company's Corporate Secretary an instrument revoking the proxy or a proxy bearing a later date. Any notice of revocation should be sent to: Graphic Packaging Corporation, 814 Livingston Court, Marietta, Georgia 30067, Attention: Corporate Secretary. Any proxy submitted over the Internet or by telephone may also be revoked by submitting a new proxy over the Internet or by telephone. A proxy is also revoked if the person who executed the proxy is present at the Annual Meeting and elects to vote in person.

Attending in Person

Only stockholders, their designated proxies and guests of the Company may attend the Annual Meeting. If your shares are held beneficially in street name, you must bring an account statement or letter from your brokerage firm or bank showing that you are the beneficial owner of shares of the Company's common stock as of the Record Date in order to be admitted to the Annual Meeting.

SUMMARY OF MERGER WITH GRAPHIC PACKAGING INTERNATIONAL CORPORATION

Pursuant to the Agreement and Plan of Merger dated March 25, 2003 among Riverwood Holding, Inc. (Riverwood), Riverwood Acquisition Sub LLC and Graphic Packaging International Corporation (GPIC), Riverwood and GPIC agreed to merge in a stock-for-stock transaction (the Merger). On August 8, 2003, the Merger was consummated and Riverwood issued approximately 83.4 million shares of common stock to former GPIC stockholders. Such former GPIC stockholders owned approximately 42% of the Company's outstanding common stock immediately after the Merger.

CORPORATE GOVERNANCE MATTERS

The Company's Board of Directors periodically reviews its governance policies, practices and procedures to ensure that the Company meets or exceeds the requirements of applicable laws and rules, including the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002, the related rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission (the SEC) and the corporate governance listing standards of the NYSE. Below, in question and answer format, is a summary of certain of the Company's corporate governance policies and practices.

Who are Graphic Packaging's Directors?

The Board consists of Jeffrey H. Coors (who serves as Executive Chairman of the Board), John D. Beckett, G. Andrea Botta, Kevin J. Conway, William R. Fields, Stephen M. Humphrey, Harold R. Logan, Jr., John R. Miller and Robert W. Ticken.

How does Graphic Packaging determine which Directors are independent?

For these purposes, independent and independence have the meanings set forth under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (the Exchange Act), as amended, the rules and regulations adopted thereunder by the SEC, the NYSE's corporate governance listing standards, and the Company's Corporate Governance Guidelines, all as in effect from time to time. A Director will not qualify as independent unless the Board affirmatively determines that the Director has no material relationship with the Company (either directly or as a partner, stockholder or officer of an organization that has a relationship with the Company). In addition, in accordance with the Company's Corporate Governance Guidelines, the Company will also apply the following standards in determining whether a Director is independent:

A Director who is an employee of the Company, or whose immediate family member serves as one of the Company's executive officers, may not be deemed independent until three years after the end of such employment relationship.

A Director who receives, or whose immediate family member receives, more than $100,000 per year in direct compensation from the Company, other than Board and committee fees and pension or other forms of deferred compensation for prior service, may not be deemed independent until three years after he or she ceases to receive more than $100,000 per year in such compensation. Compensation received by an immediate family member for service as one of the Company's non-executive employees will not be considered in determining independence under this test.

A Director who is affiliated with or employed by, or whose immediate family member is affiliated with or employed in a professional capacity by, the Company's present or former internal or external auditor may not be deemed independent until three years after the end of the affiliation or the employment or auditing relationship.

A Director who is employed, or whose immediate family member is employed, as an executive officer of another company where any of the Company's current executive officers serve on that company's compensation committee may not be deemed independent until three years after the end of such service or the employment relationship.

A Director who is an executive officer, general partner or employee, or whose immediate family member is an executive officer or general partner, of an entity that makes payments to, or receives payments from the Company for property or services in an amount which, in any single fiscal year, exceeds the greater of $1 million or 2% of such other entity's consolidated gross revenues, may not be deemed independent until three years after falling below that threshold.

Applying these standards, the following six of the Company's nine Directors are independent: Messrs. Beckett, Botta, Fields, Logan, Miller and Tieken. Messrs. Coors and Humphrey are not considered independent because they serve as executive officers of the Company and Mr. Conway is not considered independent because of his status as a principal of Clayton, Dubilier & Rice, Inc. (CD&R), an investment banking firm that provided certain services to the Company in connection with the Merger and manages Clayton, Dubilier & Rice Fund V Limited Partnership (the CD&R Fund), the holder of approximately 17% of the Company's common stock.

The Company is a controlled company, as that term is defined in the NYSE's corporate governance listing standards, because more than 50% of the Company's voting power is held by a group of stockholders consisting of members of the Coors family and certain related trusts and foundations, the CD&R Fund and EXOR Group, S.A. (EXOR) and their respective affiliates. Please see Certain Relationships and Related Transactions below. As a controlled company, the Company is exempt from the requirements of Rule 303A of the NYSE Listed Company Manual with respect to having the Board be comprised of a majority of independent Directors and having the Compensation and Benefits Committee and Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee being composed solely of independent Directors.

Each Director who is not an officer or employee of the Company receives an annual cash retainer fee of $20,000, payable in quarterly installments. In addition, each non-employee Director receives $1,500 per Board meeting attended and $1,000 per committee meeting attended. The Audit Committee chairman and each of the other Committee chairmen receive a further retainer fee of $10,000 and $5,000, respectively, payable in equal quarterly installments. In addition to the retainers and meeting fees, each non-employee Director receives an annual grant of shares of restricted stock with a value of $40,000 on the date of grant. Non-employee Directors have the option to defer all or part of the cash and equity compensation payable to them in the form of phantom stock.

Directors who are officers or employees do not receive any additional compensation for serving as a Director. Pursuant to the terms of Mr. Conway's employment with CD&R, he has assigned his right to receive compensation for his service as a Director to CD&R. The Company reimburses all Directors for reasonable and necessary expenses they incur in performing their duties as Directors.

Criteria for Potential Directors

The Company's Board is responsible for selecting nominees for election as Directors by stockholders and for filling vacancies on the Board. The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee is responsible for identifying and recommending to the Board individuals for nomination as members of the Board and its committees and, in this regard, reviewing with the Board on an annual basis the current skills, background and expertise of the members of the Board, as well as the Company's future and ongoing needs. This assessment is used to establish criteria for identifying and evaluating potential candidates for the Board. However, as a general matter, the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee seeks individuals who demonstrate:

the highest personal and professional integrity, commitment to driving the Company's success;

an ability to provide informed and thoughtful counsel on a range of issues; and exceptional ability and judgment.

The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee considers candidates recommended by its members and other Directors. The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee will also consider whether to nominate any person recommended by a stockholder pursuant to the provisions of the Company's By-Laws relating to stockholder nominations as described in Stockholder Proposals and Nominations, below. The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee uses the same criteria to evaluate proposed nominees that are recommended by its members and other Directors as it does for stockholder-recommended nominees.

Board Recommendation

The Board believes that voting for each of the three nominees for Director selected by the Board is in the best interests of the Company and its stockholders. The Board recommends a vote FOR each of the three nominees for Director.

Pension Plans

Employees Retirement Plan. All U.S. salaried employees who satisfy the service eligibility criteria and who are not participants in the GPIC Retirement Plan (as defined below) are participants in the Riverwood International Employees Retirement Plan (the Employees Retirement Plan). Pension benefits under this plan are limited in accordance with the provisions of the Code governing tax-qualified pension plans. The Company also maintains the Supplemental Plan for participants in the Employees Retirement Plan that provides for payment to participants of retirement benefits equal to the excess of the benefits that would have been earned by each participant had the limitations of the Code not applied to the Employees Retirement Plan and the amount actually earned by such participant under such plan. Messrs. Coors, Humphrey, Scheible, Blount and Sturdivant are each eligible to participate in these pension plans. Benefits under the Supplemental Plan are not pre-funded; such benefits are paid by the Company or through the retirement plan through a qualified supplemental employee's retirement plan.

The Pension Plan Table below sets forth the estimated annual benefits payable upon retirement, including amounts attributable to the Supplemental Plan, for specified five-year average remuneration levels and years of service.

Annual remuneration, defined as Salary in the Employees Retirement Plan, includes annual salary paid, amounts paid as bonuses under the annual incentive compensation plan and Mr. Blount's Integration Award, but excludes payments under any equity incentive plan or long-term incentive plan, all of which are disclosed in the Summary Compensation Table. Had Messrs. Coors, Humphrey, Scheible, Blount and Sturdivant retired as of December 31, 2005, their respective five-year average remuneration, for purposes of the table set forth above, would have been as follows: Jeffrey H. Coors, $641,703; Stephen M. Humphrey, $1,398,733; David W. Scheible, $503,283; Daniel J. Blount, $1,048,006; and Donald W. Sturdivant, $339,356.

On December 31, 2005, Messrs. Coors, Humphrey, Scheible, Blount and Sturdivant had the following completed years of credited service under the retirement plan: Jeffrey H. Coors, 37; Stephen M. Humphrey, 8; David W. Scheible, 6; Daniel J. Blount, 7; and Donald W. Sturdivant, 6. Estimated benefits have been calculated on the basis of a straight-life annuity form of payment and are not subject to a reduction to reflect the payment of Social Security benefits or other offset amounts. The years of service calculated for Messrs. Coors, Scheible and Sturdivant include years of service credited under the GPIC Retirement Plan described below. Messrs. Coors, Scheible and Sturdivant participated in the GPIC Retirement Plan until January 1, 2005 when they were transferred into the Employees Retirement Plan.

Supplemental Executive Pension Plan. In April 2006, the Company established the Graphic Packaging International, Inc. Supplemental Executive Pension Plan for Mr. Humphrey. Pursuant to this plan, Mr. Humphrey receives a benefit equal to the amount that he would be paid for an additional 22 years of service under the Employees Retirement Plan described above, up to a maximum of $5,000,000. Such benefit is to be paid in a lump sum payment on March 31, 2007, if Mr. Humphrey continues to be employed by the Company or one of its affiliates through such date. The benefit payable under the plan is not pre-funded and the plan is intended to be a nonqualified, deferred compensation plan. The benefit payable under this plan is not included in the pension plan table set forth above.

GPIC Retirement Plan. The Company's U.S. salaried employees who (i) were previously employed by GPIC, (ii) satisfy the service eligibility criteria and (iii) do not participate in the Employees Retirement Plan participate in the Graphic Packaging Retirement Plan (the GPIC Retirement Plan). Pension benefits under the GPIC Retirement Plan are limited in accordance with the provisions of the Code governing tax qualified pension plans. GPIC also maintained the Graphic Packaging Excess Benefit Plan (formerly the ACX Technologies, Inc. Excess Benefit Plan) and the Graphic Packaging Supplemental Retirement Plan (formerly the ACX Technologies, Inc. Supplemental Retirement Plan) that provided the benefits that were not payable from the qualified retirement plan because of limitations under the Code. None of the Company's Named Executive Officers participated in the GPIC Retirement Plan during 2005.

Employment Agreement with Stephen M. Humphrey

The Company has an employment agreement dated March 25, 2003, with its President and Chief Executive Officer, Stephen M. Humphrey. The agreement has a term of four years and provides that Mr. Humphrey will serve as President and Chief Executive Officer of the Company and its subsidiaries, GPI Holding, Inc. and Graphic Packaging International, Inc.

Table of Contents

Pursuant to this agreement, Mr. Humphrey's base salary was $950,000 from April 1, 2003 to March 31, 2004, and increased to no less than $1,000,000 per year thereafter. On April 7, 2006, the Board of Directors approved an increase in Mr. Humphrey's base salary to $1,050,000 per year, retroactive to November 1, 2005. During the employment term, Mr. Humphrey is eligible for an annual target bonus of 100% of base salary (with a maximum annual bonus opportunity equal to 200% of base salary) and welfare benefits including life, medical, dental, accidental death and dismemberment, business travel accident, prescription drug and disability insurance. Mr. Humphrey is also eligible to participate in all of the profit sharing, pension, retirement, deferred compensation and savings plans applicable to the Company's executive officers.

If Mr. Humphrey's employment is terminated without cause or he terminates his employment for good reason, Mr. Humphrey will be entitled to receive (in addition to accrued amounts of salary, bonus and other compensation) the following severance benefits:

base salary for the shorter of the remainder of the employment term or three years;

a pro rata bonus for the year in which his employment is terminated, provided that applicable performance objectives have been achieved;

continued life, medical, dental, accidental death and dismemberment and prescription drug insurance benefits for as long as base salary is paid; and reimbursement for outplacement and career counseling services in an amount not to exceed the lesser of $25,000 or 20% of base salary.

A termination is for cause under Mr. Humphrey's agreement if it is due to Mr. Humphrey's:

willful failure substantially to perform his duties (other than due to physical or mental illness) or other willful and material breach of any of his obligations under the agreement, after a demand for substantial performance is delivered and a reasonable opportunity to cure is given;

engaging in willful and serious misconduct that has caused or would reasonably be expected to result in material injury to the Company or its affiliates; or conviction of, or entering a plea of nolo contendere to, a felony.

A termination is for good reason under Mr. Humphrey's agreement if it is within 30 days of any of the following:

the assignment of duties that are significantly different from and that result in a substantial diminution of his duties at the commencement of the employment term;

the Company's failure to require a successor to assume the agreement;

a reduction in his base salary; or the Company's breach of any of its obligations under the agreement, the option agreement with Mr. Humphrey or any other incentive award agreement granted to Mr. Humphrey.

Upon his retirement, Mr. Humphrey will be entitled to a supplemental retirement benefit equal to the difference between the benefits provided under the Employees Retirement Plan and Supplemental Pension Plan and the benefits he would have received under such plans if he had ten years of service with the Company. Mr. Humphrey will not receive this benefit if his employment is terminated due to death, disability or cause, or if he terminates his employment without good reason or retires before the end of the employment term.

In addition to this supplemental retirement benefit, Mr. Humphrey will receive a benefit equal to the amount he would be paid for an additional 22 years of service under the Employees Retirement Plan, up to a maximum of $5,000,000. Such benefit is to be paid in a lump sum payment on March 31, 2007, if Mr. Humphrey continues to be employed by the Company or one of its affiliates through such date.

The agreement also amends the vesting schedule of special performance options granted to Mr. Humphrey under a Management Stock Option Agreement dated January 1, 2002. Pursuant to the terms of his employment agreement, one-third of the special performance options granted under the option agreement vested one-third on August 8, 2003 and on August 8, 2005. The remainder will vest on August 8, 2006.

One-third of these options and restricted units, as well as the other unvested performance options held by Mr. Humphrey, vested on August 8, 2004 and August 8, 2005. The remainder will vest on August 8, 2006.

The agreement also provides that Mr. Humphrey may not work for a competitor of the Company for a period of one year after his employment is terminated or the end of his severance period, whichever is later. Mr. Humphrey is also prohibited from soliciting employees of the Company for three years after his termination.

Employment Agreement with Jeffrey H. Coors

Jeffrey H. Coors, who was GPIC's President and Chief Executive Officer, entered into an employment agreement with GPIC dated March 25, 2003. Under Mr. Coors' employment agreement, he serves as the Company's Executive Chairman and as the Executive Chairman of the Company's subsidiaries, GPI Holding, Inc. and Graphic Packaging International, Inc. The agreement has a term of three years beginning on August 8, 2003 and provides for an annual base salary of $555,000, which salary will be reviewed annually.

Under the terms of his agreement, Mr. Coors participates in short-term incentive plans existing from time to time and other incentive plans, in each case as determined by the Compensation and Benefits Committee. He also participates in savings and retirement plans and welfare benefit plans sponsored by the Company. In connection with the Merger, on August 8, 2003, Mr. Coors received the following compensation and benefits from GPIC:

all cash target amounts under GPIC's long-term incentive plans that were not previously paid or had not expired, regardless of whether the performance targets for those plans had been achieved;

the conversion of certain options previously granted under GPIC's equity incentive plan or long-term incentive plans, which options were immediately exercisable and will remain exercisable until August 8, 2013; and restricted stock units representing the right to receive shares of the Company's common stock, one-third of which vested on August 8, 2004 and August 8, 2005. The remainder will vest August 8, 2006. However, the restricted shares vest in full immediately if: (1) Mr. Coors' employment is terminated without cause, due to death, disability or retirement, or he terminates employment for good reason; or (2) upon a change of control.

Pursuant to these provisions, Mr. Coors received a cash payment of approximately $1.1 million and options worth approximately $0.4 million (based on the difference between the exercise price of the option and GPIC's common stock price of $3.99 per share on August 8, 2003), and 386,885 shares of GPIC restricted stock were converted into restricted stock units convertible into shares of the Company's common stock.

If, during the term of his employment agreement, the Company terminates the employment of Mr. Coors without cause or Mr. Coors terminates his employment for good reason, he would be entitled to receive (in addition to accrued amounts of salary, bonus and other compensation), the following amounts and benefits:

the greater of the amount of his highest bonus under the Company's bonus plan, or any comparable bonus under any predecessor or successor plan, for the last three full fiscal years, and the annual bonus paid or payable to him under the Company's short-term incentive plan or plans;

a lump sum in cash equal to three times:

his highest annual base salary for any of the past three years;

Table of Contents

an amount equal to his highest base salary during any of the past three years multiplied by the highest percentage payout of bonus under a short-term incentive plan paid or accrued during any of the past three years; and the highest one-year cash equivalent amount of fringe benefits paid in any of the past three years;

any benefits due under any supplemental executive retirement plan in accordance with the provisions of the plan, with the amount of benefits to be adjusted to reflect five additional years of service and five additional years of age (with such additional years of service to decrease by one for each year of employment following the merger); welfare benefits for him and his family for three years or, if earlier, until he receives such benefits through subsequent employment; and outplacement services for one year (with a cost not to exceed $15,000).

For purposes of Mr. Coors' employment agreement, a termination is for cause if it is due to Mr. Coors' :

willful and continued failure to perform substantially his duties (other than due to physical or mental illness), after a written demand for substantial performance is delivered; or willful engagement in illegal conduct or gross misconduct that is materially and demonstrably injurious to the Company.

For purposes of Mr. Coors' employment agreement, a termination is for good reason if it is within 90 days of any of the following and without Mr. Coors' consent:

material diminution of his title, responsibilities and duties;

failure to pay compensation;

failure to pay the gross-up described below;

purported termination of employment otherwise than as expressly permitted by the agreement; or mandatory relocation, other than in connection with a promotion, of Mr. Coors' principal office to a location more than 35 miles from the location of such office on August 8, 2003.

If any payments that resulted from the Merger or from the termination of Mr. Coors' employment without cause or for good reason constitute an excess parachute payment (as defined under Section 280G(b)(2) of the Code), he is entitled to receive a full gross-up payment to compensate him for the amount of the tax owed.

Under the terms of his employment agreement, Mr. Coors is prohibited from engaging in any of the following activities, both during the term of his employment with the Company and for a period of two years thereafter if his employment is terminated for any reason before the end of the three-year term:

directly or indirectly owning, managing, operating, lending money to or participating in the ownership, management, operation or control of, or serving as a director, officer, employee, partner, consultant, agent or independent contractor with a business or organization in the printing and packaging business in a capacity that assists such competitor in a material respect in the printing and packaging business in the geographic areas where the Company or any of its subsidiaries or affiliates operate; owning a controlling interest in a business that competes in a material respect in the printing or packaging business in the geographic areas where the Company or any of its subsidiaries or affiliates operate; or soliciting or interfering with the Company's suppliers, customers or employees or any of its subsidiaries or affiliates.

The employment agreement provides, however, that Mr. Coors will not be in violation of the foregoing by virtue of the fact that he owns 5% or less of the outstanding common stock of a corporation, if such stock is listed on a national securities exchange, is reported on NASDAQ or is regularly traded in the over-the-counter market.

Under the terms of the agreement, Mr. Scheible participates in short-term incentive plans existing from time to time and other incentive plans, in each case as determined by the Compensation and Benefits Committee at a level commensurate with other similarly situated executives of the Company. He also participates in savings and retirement plans and welfare benefit plans sponsored by the Company.

In connection with the Merger, on August 8, 2003, Mr. Scheible received the following compensation and benefits from GPIC:

The remainder will vest on August 8, 2006. However, the restricted shares vest in full immediately if: (1) Mr. Scheible's employment is terminated without cause, due to death, disability or retirement, or he terminates employment for good reason; or (2) upon a change of control.

Pursuant to these provisions, Mr. Scheible received a cash payment of approximately $875,000 and 413,710 options worth approximately $606,875 (based on the difference between the exercise price of the option and GPIC's common stock price of $3.99 per share on August 8, 2003), and 315,574 shares of GPIC restricted stock were converted into restricted stock units convertible into shares of the Company's common stock.

If, during the term of his employment agreement the Company terminates the employment of Mr. Scheible without cause or Mr. Scheible terminates his employment for good reason, Mr. Scheible would be entitled to receive (in addition to accrued amounts), the following amounts and benefits:

the greater of the amount of his highest bonus under the Company's bonus plan, or any comparable bonus under any predecessor or successor plan, for the last three full fiscal years, and the annual bonus paid or payable to him under the Company's short-term incentive plan or plans;

a lump sum in cash equal to three times:

For purposes of Mr. Scheible's employment agreement, a termination is for cause if it is due to Mr. Scheible's:

willful and continued failure to perform substantially his duties (other than due to physical or mental illness), after a written demand for substantial performance is delivered; or willful engagement in illegal conduct or gross misconduct that is materially and demonstrably injurious to the Company.

For purposes of Mr. Scheible's employment agreement, a termination is for good reason if it is within 90 days of any of the following and without Mr. Scheible's consent:

material diminution of his title, responsibilities and duties;

failure to pay compensation;

failure to pay the gross-up described below;

purported termination of employment otherwise than as expressly permitted by the agreement; or mandatory relocation, other than in connection with a promotion, of Mr. Scheible's principal office to a location more than 35 miles from the location of such office on August 8, 2003.

If any payments that resulted from the Merger or from the termination of Mr. Scheible's employment without cause or for good reason constitute an excess parachute payment (as defined under Section 280G(b)(2) of the Code), he is entitled to receive a full gross-up payment to compensate him for the amount of the tax owed.

Under the terms of his employment agreement, Mr. Scheible is prohibited from engaging in any of the following activities, both during the term of his employment with the Company and for a period of two years thereafter if his employment with the Company is terminated for any reason before the end of the three-year term:

Employment Agreement with Daniel J. Blount

The Company entered into a new Employment Agreement with Daniel J. Blount effective November 30, 2005. Pursuant to such agreement, Mr. Blount will continue to serve as the Company's Senior Vice President and Chief Financial Officer. The agreement has an initial term of one year, and then automatically extends upon the same terms and conditions for an additional term of one year, unless the Company provides written notice of its desire not to extend the agreement at least 180 days prior to the expiration of the then current term.

The agreement provides for a minimum base salary of $325,000 and for Mr. Blount's participation in the Company's incentive compensation programs for senior executives at a level commensurate with his position and duties with the Company and based on such performance targets as may be established from time to time by the Company's Board of Directors or a Committee thereof. For fiscal 2006, Mr. Blount's target bonus opportunity is set at 70% of his base salary.

In the event that the Company terminates Mr. Blount's employment without cause or Mr. Blount terminates his employment for good reason, the agreement provides for severance of:

a pro-rata incentive bonus for the year in which termination occurs, assuming that all performance targets had been achieved as of the date of termination; outplacement and career counseling services with a value not in excess of the lesser of $25,000 and 20% of Mr. Blount's base salary.

The agreement also provides that Mr. Blount may not work for a competitor of the Company for a period of one year after his employment terminates or the end of his severance period, whichever is later. Mr. Blount is also prohibited from (i) employing or soliciting employees of the Company for employment, (ii) interfering with the Company's relationship with its employees or (iii) soliciting or attempting to establish any competitive business relationship with a customer, client or distributor of the Company for a period of one year after termination of employment or the end of his severance period, whichever is later.

the conversion of certain options previously granted under GPIC's equity incentive plan or long-term incentive plans, which options were immediately exercisable and will remain exercisable until August 8, 2013; and restricted stock units representing the right to receive shares of the Company's common stock, one-third of which vested on August 8, 2004 and August 8, 2005, with the remainder vesting in equal increments on August 8, 2006. However, the restricted shares vest in full immediately if (1) Mr. Sturdivant's employment is terminated without cause, due to death, disability or retirement, or he terminates employment for good reason; or (2) upon a change of control.

Pursuant to these provisions, Mr. Sturdivant received a cash payment of approximately $600,000 and 200,000 options worth approximately $485,500 (based on the difference between the exercise price of the option and GPIC's common stock price of $3.99 per share on August 8, 2003), and 242,131 shares of GPIC restricted stock were converted into restricted stock units convertible into shares of the Company's common stock.

If, during the term of his employment agreement the Company terminates the employment of Mr. Sturdivant without cause or Mr. Sturdivant terminates his employment for good reason, Mr. Sturdivant would be entitled to receive (in addition to accrued amounts), the following amounts and benefits:

welfare benefits for him and his family for two years or, if earlier, until he receives such benefits through subsequent employment; and outplacement services for one year (with a cost not to exceed $15,000).

For purposes of Mr. Sturdivant's employment agreement, a termination is for cause if it is due to Mr. Sturdivant's:

willful and continued failure to perform substantially his duties (other than due to physical or mental illness), after a written demand for substantial performance is delivered; or

For purposes of Mr. Sturdivant's employment agreement, a termination is for good reason if it is within 90 days of any of the following and without Mr. Sturdivant's consent:

material diminution of his title, responsibilities and duties;

failure to pay compensation;

failure to pay the gross-up described below;

purported termination of employment otherwise than as expressly permitted by the agreement; or mandatory relocation, other than in connection with a promotion, of Mr. Sturdivant's principal office to a location more than 35 miles from the location of such office on August 8, 2003.

CERTAIN RELATIONSHIPS AND RELATED TRANSACTIONS

Stockholders Agreement

The Company entered into a Stockholders Agreement with the Coors family stockholders and certain related Coors family trusts (the Coors Family Stockholders), the CD&R Fund and EXOR, dated as of March 25, 2003, as amended (the Stockholders Agreement), under which the parties thereto made certain agreements regarding matters further described below, including the voting of their shares and governance after the Merger.

Board of Directors. The Stockholders Agreement provides that the Company's Board will consist of nine members, classified into three classes. Each of the three classes consists initially of three Directors, the initial terms of which would expire, respectively, at the first, second and third annual meetings of stockholders following the Merger.

Designation Rights. The Stockholders Agreement provides that a representative of the Coors Family Stockholders, the CD&R Fund and EXOR have the right, subject to requirements related to stock ownership, to designate a person for nomination for election to the Board. The Coors family representative is entitled to designate one person for nomination for election to the Company's Board for so long as the Coors Family Stockholders, in the aggregate, own at least 5% of the fully-diluted shares of the Company's common stock. The CD&R Fund is entitled to designate one person for nomination for election to the Board: (1) for so long as it owns at least 5% of the fully-diluted shares of Company's common stock, or (2) for so long as it owns less than 5% of such shares and the other stockholders, the CD&R Fund and EXOR continue to own, in the aggregate, at least 30% of such shares. EXOR is entitled to designate one person for nomination for election to the Board for so long as it owns at least 5% of the fully-diluted shares of the Company's common stock.

Pursuant to the Stockholders Agreement, at each meeting of stockholders at which Directors of the Company are to be elected, the Board of Directors will recommend that the stockholders elect to the Board the designees of the individuals designated by the Coors family representative, CD&R and EXOR. In addition, for so long as Stephen M. Humphrey serves as Chief Executive Officer, the Stockholders Agreement provides that he will be nominated for election to the Board at any meeting of the stockholders at which Directors of his class are to be elected.

Currently, Mr. Coors serves on the Board as the Coors Family Stockholders' designee, Mr. Conway serves on the Board as the CD&R Fund's designee and Mr. Botta serves on the Board as EXOR's designee.

Independent Directors. The Stockholders Agreement further provides that each of the other Directors, not designated in the manner described above, will be an independent Director designated for nomination by the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee. In the event that the Coors family representative, the CD&R Fund or EXOR loses the right to designate a person to the Board, such designee will resign immediately upon receiving notice from the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee that it has identified a replacement Director, and will resign in any event no later than 120 days after the designating person or entity loses the right to designate such designee to the Board. At such time as Mr. Humphrey is no longer Chief Executive Officer, he will similarly resign upon receipt of notice from the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee and, in any event, no later than 120 days after ceasing to serve as Chief Executive Officer.

Agreement to Vote for Directors; Vacancies. Each party to the Stockholders Agreement agreed to vote all of the shares owned by such stockholder in favor of Mr. Humphrey (for so long as he is Chief Executive Officer) and each of the parties' designees to the Board, and to take all other steps within such stockholder's power to ensure that the composition of the Board is as contemplated by the Stockholders Agreement. As long as the Coors family representative, the CD&R Fund or EXOR, as the case may be, has the right to designate a person for nomination for election to the Board, at any time at which the seat occupied by such party's designee becomes vacant as a result of death, disability, retirement, resignation, removal or otherwise, such party will be entitled to designate for appointment by the remaining Directors an individual to fill such vacancy and to serve as a Director.

Actions of the Board; Affiliate Agreements. The Stockholders Agreement provides that a Board decision regarding the Merger, consolidation or sale of substantially all the Company's assets would require the affirmative vote of a majority of the Directors then in office. In addition, the decision to enter into, modify or terminate any agreement with an affiliate of the Coors Family Stockholders, CD&R or EXOR will require the affirmative vote of a majority of the Directors not nominated by a stockholder which, directly or indirectly through an affiliate, has an interest in that agreement.

Board Committees. The Stockholders Agreement provides for the Board to have an Audit Committee, a Compensation and Benefits Committee and a Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee as follows:

The Audit Committee will have three members, consisting of the Directors designated by the CD&R Fund and the Coors family representative and one independent Director. The Audit Committee will have the authority, at its discretion, to invite the Director designated by EXOR to attend meetings of the Audit Committee as a non-voting observer.

The Compensation and Benefits Committee will have three members, consisting of the Directors designated by the CD&R Fund and the Coors family representative and one independent Director. None of the Company's employees (other than Mr. Coors) will serve on this committee. The Director designated by EXOR has the right to attend meetings of the Compensation and Benefits Committee as a non-voting observer.

The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee will have at least five members, consisting of the Directors designated by the CD&R Fund, the Coors family representative and EXOR and two independent Directors. None of the Company's employees (other than Mr. Coors) will serve on this committee.

The rights of the CD&R Fund, the Coors family representative and EXOR to have its Director designee sit as a member of Board committees will cease when such stockholder holds less than 5% of the Company's fully-diluted shares of common stock, except that the CD&R Fund will continue to have such right so long as the Company's stockholders immediately before the closing of the Merger own, in the aggregate, at least 30% of the fully-diluted shares of the Company's common stock. The Board will fill any committee seats that become vacant in the manner provided in the preceding sentence with independent Directors.

Transfer Restrictions. The parties to the Stockholders Agreement had agreed not to transfer any of the Company's shares of common stock during the restricted period (defined below), except for transfers to certain affiliated permitted transferees that agreed to be bound by the Stockholders Agreement, and a sale to the public pursuant to an effective registration statement filed under the Securities Act of 1933 (the Securities Act). The restricted period began on August 8, 2003 and ended on February 8, 2005.

Termination. The Stockholders Agreement will remain in effect until terminated by unanimous agreement or until such time as no more than one of the CD&R Fund, EXOR or the CD&R Fund and the other stockholders in the aggregate, or the Coors Family Stockholders holds 5% or more of the Company's outstanding common stock on a fully-diluted basis. In addition, the Stockholders Agreement will terminate as to any stockholder party at such time as such stockholder no longer owns any of the Company's shares of common stock.

Amended and Restated Registration Rights Agreement

The Company and the parties to the Stockholders Agreement and the Company's stockholders immediately before the Merger are parties to an Amended and Restated Registration Rights Agreement, dated as of March 25, 2003, under which the parties agreed to amend and restate the previous registration rights agreement in connection with the transactions contemplated by the Merger agreement.

The Amended and Restated Registration Rights Agreement provides that holders of 15% or more of the Company's outstanding shares of common stock may request that the Company effect the registration under the Securities Act of all or part of such holders' registrable securities. Upon receiving such request, the Company is required to give prompt written notice of such requested registration to all holders of registrable securities and to use its reasonable best efforts to effect the registration under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, of all registrable securities that the Company has been requested to register. After the expiration of 180 days after the closing of an initial secondary offering, holders of 5% or more of the Company's outstanding shares of common stock may again request that the Company effect the registration under the Securities Act of all or part of such holders' registrable securities.

With respect to the first two requests to effect registration of registrable securities, the Company is not required to effect such registration if such requests relate to less than 15% of the outstanding shares of common stock or, without the approval of the Board, more than 25% of the outstanding shares. Any request for registration of registrable securities after the first two requests will be subject to a minimum offering size of 5% of the outstanding shares of the Company's common stock. The Company will pay all expenses in connection with the first four successfully effected registrations requested. The Amended and Restated Registration Rights Agreement also provides that, with certain exceptions, the parties thereto have certain incidental registration rights in the event that the Company at any time proposes to register any of its equity securities and the registration form to be used may be used for the registration of securities otherwise registrable under the Amended and Restated Registration Rights Agreement.

The CD&R Fund

The CD&R Fund is a private investment fund managed by CD&R. The general partner of the CD&R Fund is Associates V, and the general partners of Associates V are Associates II, CD&R Investment Associates, Inc., and CD&R Cayman Investment Associates, Inc. Mr. Ames, who is a principal of CD&R, a Director of Associates II and a limited partner of Associates V, was the Chairman of the Board of Riverwood until the Merger. Mr. Conway, who is a principal of CD&R, a Director of Associates II and a limited partner of Associates V, is one of the Company's Directors. The CD&R Fund purchased $225 million of the Company's equity in 1996.

Table of Contents

During the year ended December 31, 2003, the Company paid CD&R a management fee of $470,000 for providing management and financial consulting services. In addition, under the terms of the Stockholders Agreement, the Company also paid a transaction fee of $10 million to CD&R for assistance in connection with negotiation of all aspects of the Merger, including the contribution analysis, financial and business due diligence, structure of the proposed refinancing and arranging for proposals by and handling negotiations with financing sources to provide funds for the refinancing. The Company made no payments to CD&R in 2004 or 2005, other than payments earned by Mr. Conway for service as a Director, which Mr. Conway assigned to CD&R.

The Company entered into an indemnification agreement dated March 27, 1996, with CD&R and the CD&R Fund pursuant to which the Company agreed to indemnify CD&R, the CD&R Fund, Associates V, Associates II, together with any other general partner of Associates V, and their respective directors, officers, partners, employees, agents, advisors, representatives and controlling persons against certain liabilities arising under the federal securities laws, liabilities arising out of the performance of a certain consulting agreement between the Company and CD&R that is no longer effective, and certain other claims and liabilities.

Management Indebtedness

In November 1999, the Company loaned Stephen M. Humphrey, the Company's President and Chief Executive Officer, $5.0 million pursuant to a full-recourse, non-interest bearing promissory note, which was amended in December 2001. The promissory note will become due and payable on the earlier of (i) March 26, 2007 and (ii) such time as Mr. Humphrey voluntarily terminates his employment other than for good reason or the Company terminates his employment for cause, in each case as defined in Mr. Humphrey's employment agreement. If payment on the note is not made when due, the payment will bear interest, payable on demand, equal to 5.93% per year. The note will be forgiven and will not have to be repaid if, on or before March 26, 2007, Mr. Humphrey terminates his employment for good reason, the Company terminates Mr. Humphrey's employment without cause or because of his disability, in each case as defined in his employment agreement, or Mr. Humphrey's employment terminates because of his death. As of April 1, 2006, $5.0 million remained outstanding under the note.

Effective July 30, 2002, the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002 prohibits the granting of any personal loans to or for the benefit of any of the Company's executive officers or Directors and the modification or renewal of any such existing personal loans. The Company has not granted any new personal loans to or for the benefit of the executive officers or Directors or modified or renewed the loan to Mr. Humphrey since the effective date of such provision.

Collectively, these individuals, the family trusts and the foundation own approximately 31% of the Company's common stock. In addition, one of those trusts owns approximately 30% of the voting common stock of Molson Coors Brewing Company (formerly, the Adolph Coors Company) and a related entity owns 100% of CoorsTek, Inc. (CoorsTek).

Jeffrey H. Coors, John K. Coors, Joseph Coors, Jr., and Peter H. Coors are brothers. Jeffrey H. Coors is the Company's Executive Chairman and a member of the Board and of the Board of Directors of the Company's subsidiaries, GPI Holding, Inc. and Graphic Packaging International, Inc. J. Bradford Coors is the son of Joseph Coors, Jr., and an employee of CoorsTek. Melissa E. Coors and Christian Coors Ficeli are Peter H. Coors' daughters and employees of Molson Coors Brewing Company. William K. Coors is a Director Emeritus on the Company's Board. Peter H. Coors is an executive officer and Director of Molson Coors Brewing Company. John K. Coors is an executive officer and Director of CoorsTek. The Company, Molson Coors Brewing Company and CoorsTek, or their subsidiaries, have Jeffrey H. Coors son, Timothy Coors, is an employee of the Company working at its facility in Ft. Smith, Arkansas. In 2005, Mr. Timothy Coors compensation totaled $68,400.

Transactions with Adolph Coors Company. On December 28, 1992, GPIC was spun off from Adolph Coors Company and since that time Adolph Coors Company has had no ownership interest in GPIC. However, certain Coors family trusts had significant interests in both GPIC and Adolph Coors Company. GPIC also entered into various business arrangements with the Coors family trusts and related entities from time-to-time since its spin-off. GPIC's policy was to negotiate market prices and competitive terms with all third parties, including related parties.

GPIC originated as the packaging division of Adolph Coors Company. At the time of the spin-off from Adolph Coors Company, GPIC entered into an agreement with Coors Brewing Company to continue to supply its packaging needs. The Company executed a new supply agreement, effective April 1, 2004, with Coors Brewing Company (now a subsidiary of Molson Coors Brewing Company) that expires on December 31, 2006. The Company continues to sell packaging products to Coors Brewing Company; such sales accounted for approximately $84.3 million of the Company's consolidated net sales for the year ended December 31, 2005.

One of the Company's subsidiaries, Golden Equities, Inc., is the general partner in a limited partnership in which Coors Brewing Company is the limited partner. Before the Merger, Golden Equities was a subsidiary of GPIC. The partnership owns, develops, operates and sells certain real estate previously owned directly by Coors Brewing Company or Adolph Coors Company. Coors Brewing Company received a cash distribution of $484,000 in March 2006.

Transactions with CoorsTek. The spin-off of CoorsTek from GPIC was made pursuant to a distribution agreement between GPIC and CoorsTek in December 1999. It established the procedures to effect the spin-off and contractually provided for the distribution of the CoorsTek common stock to GPIC's stockholders, the allocation to CoorsTek of certain assets and liabilities and the transfer to and assumption by CoorsTek of those assets and liabilities. In the distribution agreement, CoorsTek agreed to repay all outstanding intercompany debt owed by CoorsTek to GPIC together with a special dividend. The total amount of the repayment and the special dividend was $200 million. Under the distribution agreement, GPIC and CoorsTek each agreed to retain, and to make available to the other, books and records and related assistance for audit, accounting, claims defense, legal, insurance, tax, disclosure, benefit administration and other business purposes. CoorsTek also agreed to indemnify GPIC if the CoorsTek spin-off is taxable under certain circumstances or if GPIC incurred certain liabilities. The tax sharing agreement defines the parties' rights and obligations with respect to deficiencies and refunds of federal, state and other taxes relating to the CoorsTek business for tax years preceding the CoorsTek spin-off and with respect to certain tax attributes of CoorsTek after the CoorsTek spin-off.

REPORT OF THE COMPENSATION AND BENEFITS COMMITTEE

The main responsibilities of the Compensation and Benefits Committee are to establish the Company's general compensation philosophy, to oversee the development and implementation of compensation programs and to balance appropriately the competing factors that influence management compensation. These factors include pay for performance, short-term and long-term focus, and internal and external measures of success. An increasingly important aspect of the program is the retention of key executives in an extremely challenging business environment. The goal is a program that drives stockholder value and encourages key members of management to remain with the Company.

The Compensation and Benefits Committee independently retains a compensation consultant to assist the committee in its deliberations regarding executive compensation. The consultant provides market data and assists in program design.

Elements of the Executive Pay Program

The three key elements of the Company's executive compensation program, as well as the compensation philosophy for each element are discussed below.

Salary. The Compensation and Benefits Committee sets executive salaries between the 50th and 75th percentiles of a general industry peer group composed of manufacturing companies of a similar size to the Company. The decision to set salaries at up to the 75th percentile reflects the fact that bonus payouts under the short-term incentive plan require significant improvements in performance. This is discussed further below.

Actual changes to base salaries occur on a non-regular basis that is generally at least 12 months after the most recent prior adjustment for the individual. Base salary changes take into account market data for similar positions, the executive's experience and time in position, any changes in responsibilities and individual performance.

Short-Term Incentives. The Company's short-term incentive plan, the Management Incentive Plan (the MIP) provides cash awards based upon the accomplishment by the Company of performance thresholds established at the beginning of each year. The Compensation and Benefits Committee sets performance goals that require superior performance when compared to similar companies, and analysis indicates that in prior years, goals have been set at or above the 75th percentile of industry performance. As a result, should the Company reach its goals, the plan will pay at approximately the 75th percentile of the market in base salary plus bonus. Should the Company fail to reach the goals, however, the MIP will pay out to a lesser degree. Payouts are discretionary if the threshold goals are not met.

For 2005, target payout amounts under the MIP were established based on the Company's achievement of earnings before interest expense, income taxes, depreciation, amortization and other non-cash charges (EBITDA) and free cash flow performance thresholds. Under the MIP for 2005, EBITDA was weighted 67% and free cash flow was weighted 33%. The Company did not achieve its EBITDA or free cash flow performance thresholds for 2005. Based on the performance of the Company's executives in managing an extremely difficult operating environment and given retention concerns, however, the Compensation and Benefits Committee decided to award discretionary payouts equal to 50% of target payout amounts to each of the Named Executive Officers.

Payouts under the MIP for 2006 will be determined based solely on the Company's achievement of EBITDA. To encourage management to fully attain its 2006 performance goals, the Compensation and Benefits Committee increased the threshold amount at which payments under the MIP will begin to be earned from 85.0% to 93.4% of the plan amount.

Long-Term Incentives. During 2004, the Compensation and Benefits Committee developed a new long-term incentive program under the Graphic Packaging Corporation 2004 Stock and Incentive Compensation Plan (the 2004 Plan) designed to meet various goals, including paying for performance, aligning the long-term interests of management with stockholders and promoting an ownership mindset. The program provides flexibility to the Compensation and Benefits Committee to assess the Company's performance and reward outstanding achievements by management. No long-term incentive grants were made during 2004 as the program was being developed.

In March 2005, the Compensation and Benefits Committee approved grants of restricted stock units to members of management under the 2004 Plan. These grants, which were the only long-term incentive grants made during 2005, made up the first portion of a long-term incentive program comprised of restricted stock units that vest over a period of service (the Service RSUs) and additional restricted stock units that the Compensation and Benefits Committee intends to grant in mid-2006 if the Company meets certain performance metrics (Performance RSUs). Together, the Service RSUs and the Performance RSUs are intended to provide a long-term incentive award at approximately the 50th percentile of the Company's peer group, subject to upward and downward adjustment by the Compensation and Benefits Committee at the time of the Performance RSU grants based upon the Company's actual performance.

Table of Contents

The Service RSUs granted vest in three equal increments on the first, second and third anniversary of the date of grant and are payable 50% in shares of the Company's common stock and 50% in cash two years thereafter upon the termination of a mandatory holding period. The Performance RSUs, if granted as originally planned, will vest in full on the second anniversary of the date of grant and are payable 50% in shares of the Company's common stock and 50% in cash two years thereafter upon the termination of a mandatory holding period.

Messrs. Coors, Scheible and Sturdivant did not receive any restricted stock unit awards in 2005 because, in connection with the Merger, each had previously received a three-year award of restricted stock units under the 2003 Riverwood Holding, Inc. Long-Term Incentive Plan to replace prior long-term incentive awards made at GPIC. Mr. Humphrey also did not receive an award of restricted stock units in 2005, as the Compensation and Benefits Committee was still in the process of evaluating and establishing a comprehensive compensation plan for Mr. Humphrey.

Perquisites

Executives are provided perquisites as part of the Company's overall executive compensation program. These perquisites generally include reimbursements for financial counseling and tax preparation, an annual executive physical, social club membership fees and, if appropriate, perquisites related to relocation. Certain executive officers, including Messrs. Coors, Scheible and Sturdivant are provided different perquisites as stipulated in their employment agreements. These perquisites include flexible perquisite and car allowances, and additional executive life insurance.

Basis for Chief Executive Officer Compensation

During 2005, the Company paid Mr. Humphrey $1,000,000 in salary pursuant to the terms of his employment agreement dated March 31, 2003. Mr. Humphrey's base salary was determined when the contract was signed, and is slightly above the 75th percentile of the general industry manufacturing market for companies near the Company's size (per the Company's executive compensation philosophy as noted above.) The Company also paid Mr. Humphrey a discretionary cash bonus of $500,000 for 2005. As discussed above under Short-Term Incentives, such discretionary bonus was paid based on Mr. Humphrey's performance in managing the Company in an extremely difficult operating environment, although the Company did not achieve its pre-established performance thresholds.

For 2006 and future years, Mr. Humphrey's contract sets his target bonus at 100% of base salary, with a maximum bonus opportunity equal to 200% of base salary. The total of Mr. Humphrey's base salary and target bonus is at the 75th percentile of the market.

No long-term incentive grants were made to Mr. Humphrey in 2005. However, during the fourth quarter of 2005 and the first months of 2006, the Compensation and Benefits Committee spent considerable time considering Mr. Humphrey's overall compensation arrangements. With the assistance of a compensation consultant and legal counsel, the Compensation and Benefits Committee considered Mr. Humphrey's past and anticipated future compensation and retirement benefits, including the $5 million loan the Company had previously made to Mr. Humphrey, which is due in 2007. Based upon Mr. Humphrey's accomplishments in leading the Company through extraordinarily challenging times, including rapid inflation of input costs due to the unexpected rise in petroleum prices, and the desire to retain Mr. Humphrey's services, the Committee concluded that Mr. Humphrey should be granted an increase in annual salary to $1,050,000 (effective November 2005) and a grant of 143,678 restricted stock units. In addition, the Board determined that an additional retirement benefit, payable only if Mr. Humphrey continues his employment through the expiration of his current employment agreement, was an appropriate method to reward and retain Mr. Humphrey. Accordingly, in early April 2006, the independent members of the Board of Directors, acting upon the recommendation of the Compensation and Benefits Committee, established the Graphic Packaging International, Inc. Supplemental Executive Pension Plan for Mr. Humphrey. Pursuant to this plan, Mr. Humphrey will receive a benefit equal to the amount that he would be paid for an additional 22 years of service under the Employees Retirement Plan, up to a maximum of $5 million. Such benefit is to be paid in a lump sum payment on March 31, 2007, if Mr. Humphrey continues to be employed by the Company or one of its affiliates through such date.

Income Tax Deductibility of Executive Compensation

Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code (the Code) limits the deductibility of certain executives' compensation that exceeds $1 million per year, unless the compensation is paid under a performance-based plan, as defined in the Code, which has been approved by stockholders. The Company has obtained stockholder approval of the 2004 Plan. However, because the Compensation and Benefits Committee's policy is to maximize long-term stockholder value, tax deductibility is only one factor considered in setting compensation.

Summary

We believe that the policies and programs described in this report appropriately balance the various factors that influence management compensation in a manner that serves the best interests of the Company's stockholders. The Compensation and Benefits Committee regularly tests the Company's executive pay plans and policies and will modify them as necessary to continue to achieve the appropriate balance of factors.

a representation whether the stockholder or the beneficial owner, if any, intends or is part of a group that intends: (a) to deliver a proxy statement and/or form of proxy to holders of at least the percentage of the Company's outstanding capital stock required to approve or adopt the proposal or elect the nominee; and/or (b) otherwise to solicit proxies from stockholders in support of such proposal or nomination.

Only persons who are nominated in accordance with the procedures described above will be eligible for election as Directors and only such other proposals will be presented at the meeting as were brought before the meeting in accordance with the procedures described above. meeting will have the power and duty to determine whether a nomination or any other proposal was made or proposed in accordance with these procedures. If any proposed nomination or proposal is not made or proposed in compliance with these procedures, it will be disregarded. A proposed nomination or proposal will also be disregarded if the stockholder or a qualified representative of the stockholder does not appear at the Annual Meeting of stockholders to present the nomination or proposal, notwithstanding that the Company may have received proxies with respect of such vote.

The foregoing notice requirements will be deemed satisfied by a stockholder if the stockholder has notified the Company of his or her intention to present a proposal at an annual meeting in compliance with Rule 14a-8 (or any successor thereof) promulgated under the Exchange Act and such stockholder's proposal has been included in a proxy statement that the Company has prepared to solicit proxies for such annual meeting.
