( CSB or Company ), the principal executive offices of which are located at 91 North Clay Street, Millersburg, Ohio 44654, in connection with the Annual Meeting of Shareholders (the Meeting ) of CSB to be held on Wednesday, April 23, 2008, at the Carlisle Inn, Walnut Creek, Ohio, at 7:00 p.m. local time. This proxy statement and the accompanying notice of meeting are first being mailed to shareholders on or about March 21, 2008.

The Meeting has been called for the following purposes: (i) to elect two directors, each for a three-year term and; (ii) to transact any other business that may properly come before the Meeting or any adjournment thereof.

REVOCATION OF PROXIES, DISCRETIONARY AUTHORITY AND CUMULATIVE VOTING

Shares of CSB s common stock, par value $6.25 per share (the Common Shares ), can be voted at the Meeting only if the shareholder is represented by proxy or is present in person. Shareholders who execute proxies retain the right to revoke it prior to or at the meeting. Unless so revoked, the shares represented by such proxies will be voted at the Meeting and all adjournments thereof. Proxies may be revoked by written notice to the Secretary of CSB (addressed to: CSB Bancorp, Inc., 91 North Clay Street, Millersburg, Ohio 44654, Attention: Ms. Margaret L. Conn, Secretary) or by the filing of a later dated proxy prior to a vote being taken on a particular proposal at the Meeting. A proxy will not be voted if a shareholder attends the Meeting and votes in person. Proxies solicited by the Board of Directors will be voted in accordance with the directions given therein. Where no instructions are indicated, proxies will be voted for the nominees for directors set forth below or as otherwise described herein in the event cumulative voting for directors is properly requested. The proxy confers discretionary authority on the persons named therein to vote with respect to (i) the election of any person as a director where the nominee is unavailable or unable to serve, (ii) matters incident to the conduct of the Meeting and (iii) any other business that may properly come before the Meeting or any adjournment thereof. At this time, it is not known whether there will be cumulative voting for the election of directors at the Meeting. If any shareholder properly demands cumulative voting for the election of directors at the Meeting, your proxy will give the individuals named on the proxy full discretion and authority to vote cumulatively, and in their sole discretion to allocate votes among any or all of the nominees for director, unless authority to vote for any or all of the nominees is withheld. CSB is the sole shareholder of The Commercial & Savings Bank of Millersburg, Ohio, an Ohio banking corporation ( Bank ).

The enclosed proxy is being solicited by the Board of Directors of CSB and the cost of soliciting proxies will be borne by CSB. In addition to use of the mail, proxies may be solicited personally or by telephone, telefax, or email by directors, officers and employees of CSB.

SECURITY OWNERSHIP OF CERTAIN BENEFICIAL OWNERS AND MANAGEMENT

Shareholders of record as of the close of business on March 3, 2008, (the Record Date ), are entitled to (i) notice of the Meeting and (ii) one vote on each matter to be considered at the Meeting for each Common Share held on that date. As of the Record Date, there were 2,440,850 Common Shares issued and outstanding. The presence at the Meeting in person or by proxy of at least a majority of such shares will be required to constitute a quorum at the Meeting. Common Shares held by holders who abstain from voting and all Common Shares held by brokers who do not have the discretionary authority to vote on certain matters will be included in determining the presence of a quorum. Consequently, an abstention or a broker non-vote has the same effect as a vote against a proposal or Director nominees, as each abstention or broker non-vote would be one less vote in favor of a proposal or for a Director nominee. Shareholders will not be entitled to dissenter's rights with respect to any matter to be considered at the Meeting.

The following table sets forth the Common Shares beneficially owned by each person, group or entity known by CSB to own more than five percent of CSB's outstanding Common Shares as of the Record Date.

SECTION 16(a) BENEFICIAL OWNERSHIP REPORTING COMPLIANCE

Section 16(a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 requires CSB's officers, directors and persons who own more than ten percent of a registered class of CSB's equity securities to file reports of ownership and changes in ownership with the Securities and Exchange Commission. Officers, directors and greater than ten percent shareholders are required to furnish CSB with copies of all Section 16(a) forms they file. During 2007, based solely on CSB's review of the copies of such forms received by it and by statements of officers and directors that they complied with all applicable filing requirements, CSB's officers, directors and greater than ten percent beneficial owners have complied with all filing requirements applicable to them, with the exception of one Form 4 filing for Mr. Waltman.

PROPOSAL 1:

ELECTION OF DIRECTORS

CSB's Code of Regulations provide that its business shall be managed by a board of directors of not less than three and not more than twenty-five persons. CSB's Regulations divide such directors into three classes, as nearly equal in number as possible, and set their terms at three years. The Board of Directors, pursuant to CSB's Code of Regulations, has established the number of directors at eight.

Assuming that at least a majority of the issued and outstanding Common Shares are present at the Meeting so that a quorum exists, the two nominees for director of CSB receiving the most votes will be elected as directors.

Shareholders have the right to vote cumulatively in the election of directors. In order to exercise the right to vote cumulatively, a shareholder must give written notice to the President, a Vice President or the Secretary of CSB not less than forty-eight hours before the time fixed for the meeting, and the shareholder's demand for cumulative voting must be announced at the commencement of the meeting by or on behalf of the shareholder. If cumulative voting is elected, a shareholder may cast as many votes in an election of directors as the number of directors to be elected multiplied by the number of shares held. The Board of Directors has nominated Robert K. Baker and J. Thomas Lang to serve until the 2011 Annual Meeting of Shareholders, and until their respective successors are elected and qualified. Messrs. Baker and Lang are incumbent directors whose present terms expire at the Meeting.

If it is intended that Common Shares represented by the accompanying form of proxy will be voted for the election of nominees, please so indicate on the proxy card. (If you do not wish your shares to be voted for particular nominees, please so indicate on the proxy card.) If one or more of the nominees should, at the time of the Meeting, be unavailable or unable to serve as a director, the shares represented by the proxies will be voted to elect the remaining nominees and any substitute nominees designated by the Board of Directors. The Board of Directors knows of no reason why any of the nominees will be unavailable or unable to serve. At this time, it is not known whether there will be cumulative voting for the election of directors at the Meeting. If any shareholder properly demands cumulative voting for the election of directors at the Meeting, your proxy will give the individuals named on the proxy full discretion and authority to vote cumulatively and in their sole discretion to allocate votes among any or all of the nominees, unless authority to vote for any or all of the nominees is withheld.

The Board of Directors recommends that shareholders vote FOR the election of the nominees.

Committees of the Board of Directors

CSB has a Nominating Committee, which recommends to the Board the nominees for election as directors. The Nominating Committee currently consists of Ronald E. Holtman, Dr. Daniel J. Miller, and Samuel M. Steimel. The Nominating Committee will consider candidates for nomination as a director who are recommended by shareholders, directors and other sources. Under the terms of the Nominating Committee Charter, the Committee is responsible for developing and implementing a process and guidelines for the selection of individuals for nomination to the Board of Directors and considering incumbent directors for nomination and re-election.

In considering and evaluating potential candidates for positions on the CSB Board of Directors, and consistent with its Charter, the Nominating Committee considers, among other things, the potential candidates' knowledge of the communities in which CSB and the Bank operate; their experience and any special business, financial, or other expertise; their reputation for honesty and integrity; and their ability to provide independent and objective oversight and supervision for matters which may impact CSB and the Bank. The Nominating Committee also considers applicable requirements of the CSB Code of Regulations and requirements of applicable law and regulations with respect to evaluating potential candidates, as well as other matters which the Nominating Committee deems appropriate in light of the specific circumstances and the potential candidate. To that end, the Nominating Committee may conduct its own analysis and may also seek information from a variety of outside sources in order to ascertain whether a potential candidate meets the referenced criteria.

Table of Contents

The Nominating Committee utilizes the same standards and criteria in considering and evaluating potential candidates for positions on the CSB Board of Directors who are recommended by CSB shareholders, when appropriate. The members of the Nominating Committee are independent, as defined by rules adopted by the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc. (NASDAQ), listing standards. The Nominating Committee operates under a written charter, which is reviewed annually by the Committee and the Board and is available on the Company's website at www.csb1.com.

The Compensation Committee was appointed to establish policies and levels of appropriate compensation for directors, officers and employees of CSB. The Compensation Committee currently consists of Robert K. Baker, Samuel M. Steimel, and Ronald E. Holtman. The members are considered independent for purposes of the NASDAQ listing requirements. The Compensation Committee operates under a written charter, which is reviewed annually by the Committee and the Board and is available on the Company's website at www.csb1.com. Additional discussion of the Compensation Committee's role is set forth in the Compensation Discussion and Analysis section of this Proxy Statement.

The Audit Committee assists the Board of Directors in fulfilling its responsibility to oversee the accounting and financial reporting processes of the Company. The Audit Committee members are Ronald E. Holtman, Robert K. Baker, and Jeffery A. Robb, Sr. All of the members of the Audit Committee are independent directors, as defined by the NASDAQ listing standards. Among other things, the Audit Committee is responsible for the engagement of independent auditors, reviewing with the independent auditors the plans and results of the audit, and reviewing the adequacy of internal accounting controls. The Board of Directors has determined that Messrs. Baker and Robb meet the requirements of an audit committee financial expert as defined by the Securities and Exchange Commission. The Audit Committee operates under a written charter, which is reviewed annually by the Committee and the Board and is available on the Company's website at www.csb1.com. The charter is incorporated herein by reference.

The Executive Committee monitors the lending activities of the subsidiary bank and helps assure that such activities are conducted in a manner consistent with CSB's credit policy. The Executive Committee consists of J. Thomas Lang, Dr. Daniel J. Miller, Jeffery A. Robb, Sr., Eddie L. Steiner, Rick L. Ginther, and John R. Waltman.

COMPENSATION DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS

The following discusses the material factors involved in the Company's decisions regarding the compensation of the Named Executive Officers (the NEOs as defined on page 16) during 2007.

The specific amounts paid or payable to the NEOs are disclosed in the tables and narrative beginning on page 16. The following discussion cross-references those specific tabular and narrative disclosures where appropriate.

Compensation Overview

Compensation Philosophy and Objectives

We believe that, in order to manage and grow a well run financial services organization, it is necessary to establish compensation programs and related opportunities that are attractive, motivating and rewarding to high quality executives, managers and staff. These programs and opportunities must be balanced with their cost to CSB and its shareholders. In order to arrive at the appropriate balance, CSB has established the following compensation philosophy and guidelines for its overall compensation program:

1. In order to attract and retain highly qualified management, we strive to provide target salaries close to the mean of the market rate paid for comparable positions by similarly sized bank holding companies.
2. Where practical, we establish performance-based compensation focused on individual results, team results, and contributions to CSB's overall performance.
3. We attempt to link and align the wealth creation interests of management and shareholders by utilizing CSB stock awards or options as a component of the compensation program.

Components of Executive Compensation

Total compensation for executives is comprised of base salaries, annual cash incentive awards, long-term equity awards, retirement saving plan contributions, severance protection, and other benefits and perquisites. To determine compensation levels for the NEOs and other officers, we review compensation survey data from independent sources to ensure that our total compensation program is competitive. We look at compensation data from companies in the financial services industry by using publicly available peer company disclosures. We target overall compensation levels competitive with our industry comparison peer group. The various components of executive compensation reflect the following policies:

Base Salary

The purpose of the base salary program is to pay for the qualifications, experience, and marketability of the position consistent with market practices. A pay range for each position is anchored around the mean of the labor market. Individual pay within the range is determined by individual performance, job proficiency and contributions over a period of years.

Pay adjustments are tied directly to CSB's performance appraisal process, which evaluates the employee on a series of performance criteria. This process is used for all CSB employees including the NEOs. Pay adjustments are typically made annually. In addition to these performance-based base pay adjustments, it is periodically necessary to make additional market adjustments in those instances where market base salary levels move faster than anticipated or where additional duties and responsibilities are added to the job.

For 2007, the base salary levels for all CSB NEOs are at or below the median of base salaries of peers in other similar-sized financial organizations. In 2007, an overall budget of 3.0% for base salary increases was established and base pay increases ranging from 3.0% to 3.16% were provided to the NEOs.

The amount of an NEO's base salary is the reference point for much of the other compensation. For example, the relative ranges of potential annual incentive awards for executives are fairly proportionate to the NEOs' respective base salaries. In addition, base salary is one component of the contribution formula under the Company's 401(k) and profit sharing plan and the key component in the Company's severance and change in control agreements.

Annual Incentive

The purpose of the annual incentive program is to focus executives on achieving and possibly exceeding the Company's annual performance objectives. In 2007, the performance expectations were established around performance to current year budget, the attainment of specific performance ratios, and satisfactory compliance with regulatory and audit reviews.

Each component of the annual incentive program has a separate measurement. The Compensation Committee retains the flexibility to make discretionary adjustments up or down based on performance that may be subjective. This discretion is not used to change the targets under the plan, only the rewards.

The target annual incentive opportunity during the past fiscal year was 30% of actual base salary for each NEO. For 2007, the Company's target budget was $3.27 million, target return on assets was greater than 1%, target return on equity was greater than 9% and the target efficiency ratio was less than 70%. All financial targets were met in 2007.

Long-Term Incentive

The purpose of CSB's long-term incentive plan is to align the interests of the NEOs and other executives with the shareholders by providing them the opportunity to benefit from share price increases in the future through share option grants or awards under the 2002 CSB Bancorp, Inc. Share Equity Incentive Plan.

In 2007, the Committee took into consideration the market pay practices of CSB peers, the performance of CSB, a general assessment of the contributions of the individual NEOs, the available shares, and the projected grant values in making its recommendations. The Committee also sought input from the Chief Executive Officer on his views of grants for his direct reports.

Finally, the accounting and tax treatment of stock options is different from cash-based payments. For awards under the plan, CSB accrues an expense computed using the Black-Scholes valuation model on the date of grant pro-ratably over the vesting period. There were no stock option or grant awards in 2007.

Retirement and Other Post-Employment Benefits

CSB maintains The Commercial & Savings Bank 401(k) Retirement Plan, (the Plan), a qualified 401(k) and profit sharing plan. The Plan provides a 50% match on the first 4% of cash compensation taking into account all compensation. There is also a discretionary profit sharing contribution and the amount may vary directly with CSB profits. The Plan provides investment alternatives in the following categories: CSB stock, large, small and mid cap, indexed, growth and bond funds.

Other Benefits and Perquisites

While the value of benefits including health and welfare, retirement, disability, and vacation benefits are not required to be reported in the tables that follow, these benefits are important to a comprehensive view of the CSB compensation and benefit program. All CSB employees, including the NEOs, participate in the same comprehensive benefit program, which is intended to provide financial protection to employees based on health and retirement needs as well as providing for well-deserved time off. CSB also provides a disability program to all employees including NEOs. Because financial services is a relationship-driven business, CSB pays country club dues for Mr. Ginther at a local country club to provide a facility to entertain CSB clients, community leaders and members of the management staff for business purposes. Certain consumer and primary residence mortgage loans granted by the Bank to directors, officers and all employees receive a 1% reduction to the standard loan interest rate during the period of service to CSB or the Bank.

Table of Contents*Termination and Change in Control Terms

The Company has employment agreements with Messrs. Ginther and Greig and Ms. Meiler.
